NEW CLAUSES

Confidentiality of negotiations before termination of employment

Norman Lamb

To move the following Clause:—

‘After section 111 of the Employment Rights Act 1996 insert—

NC2

Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Bill, *continued“111A Confidentiality of negotiations before termination of employment

- 5 (1) In determining any matter arising on a complaint under section 111, an employment tribunal may not take account of any offer made or discussions held, before the termination of the employment in question, with a view to it being terminated on terms agreed between the employer and the employee.
This is subject to the following provisions of this section.
- 10 (2) Subsection (1) does not apply where, according to the complainant’s case, the circumstances are such that a provision (whenever made) contained in, or made under, this or any other Act requires the complainant to be regarded for the purposes of this Part as unfairly dismissed.
- 15 (3) In relation to anything said or done which in the tribunal’s opinion was improper, or was connected with improper behaviour, subsection (1) applies only to the extent that the tribunal considers just.
- 20 (4) The reference in subsection (1) to a matter arising on a complaint under section 111 includes any question as to costs, except in relation to an offer made on the basis that the right to refer to it on any such question is reserved.
- (5) Subsection (1) does not prevent the tribunal from taking account of a determination made in any other proceedings between the employer and the employee in which account was taken of an offer or discussions of the kind mentioned in that subsection.”.

Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Bill, continued*Payments to directors: members' approval of directors' remuneration policy*

Norman Lamb

NC5

To move the following Clause:—

- (1) In section 421 of the Companies Act 2006 (contents of directors' remuneration report) after subsection (2) insert—

5 “(2A) The regulations must provide that any information required to be included in the report as to the policy of the company with respect to the making of remuneration payments and payments for loss of office (within the meaning of Chapter 4A of Part 10) is to be set out in a separate part of the report.”

- (2) After section 422 of that Act (approval and signing of directors' remuneration report) insert—

10 “422A Revisions to directors' remuneration policy

- (1) The directors' remuneration policy contained in a company's directors' remuneration report may be revised.
- (2) Any such revision must be approved by the board of directors.
- 15 (3) The policy as so revised must be set out in a document signed on behalf of the board by a director or the secretary of the company.
- (4) Regulations under section 421(1) may make provision as to—
- (a) the information that must be contained in a document setting out a revised directors' remuneration policy, and
- (b) how information is to be set out in the document.
- 20 (5) Sections 422(2) and (3), 454, 456 and 463 apply in relation to such a document as they apply in relation to a directors' remuneration report.
- (6) In this section, “directors' remuneration policy” means the policy of a company with respect to the matters mentioned in section 421(2A).”
- 25 (3) In section 439 of that Act (quoted companies: members' approval of directors' remuneration report), in subsection (1), at the end insert “other than the part containing the directors' remuneration policy (as to which see section 439A).”.
- (4) After that section insert—

“439A Quoted companies: members' approval of directors' remuneration policy

- 30 (1) A quoted company must give notice of the intention to move, as an ordinary resolution, a resolution approving the relevant directors' remuneration policy—
- (a) at the accounts meeting held in the first financial year which begins after the coming into force of section (Payments to directors: members' approval of directors' remuneration policy) of the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2012 or at an earlier general meeting, and
- 35 (b) at an accounts or other general meeting held no later than the end of the period of three financial years beginning with the first financial year after the last accounts or other general meeting in relation to which notice is given under this subsection.
- 40

Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Bill, continued

- (2) A quoted company must give notice of the intention to move at an accounts meeting, as an ordinary resolution, a resolution approving the relevant directors' remuneration policy if—
- 45 (a) a resolution required to be put to the vote under section 439 was not passed at the last accounts meeting of the company, and
- (b) no notice under this section was given in relation to that meeting or any other general meeting held before the next accounts meeting.
- 50 (3) A notice given under subsection (2) is to be treated as given under subsection (1) for the purpose of determining the period within which the next notice under subsection (1) must be given.
- (4) Notice of the intention to move a resolution to which this section applies must be given, prior to the meeting in question, to the members of the
- 55 company entitled to be sent notice of the meeting.
- (5) Subsections (2) to (4) of section 439 apply for the purposes of a resolution to which this section applies as they apply for the purposes of a resolution to which section 439 applies, with the modification that, for the purposes of a resolution relating to a general meeting other than an
- 60 accounts meeting, subsection (3) applies as if for "accounts meeting" there were substituted "general meeting".
- (6) For the purposes of this section, the relevant directors' remuneration policy is—
- 65 (a) in a case where notice is given in relation to an accounts meeting, the remuneration policy contained in the directors' remuneration report in respect of which a resolution under section 439 is required to be put to the vote at that accounts meeting;
- (b) in a case where notice is given in relation to a general meeting other than an accounts meeting—
- 70 (i) the remuneration policy contained in the directors' remuneration report in respect of which such a resolution was required to be put to the vote at the last accounts meeting to be held before that other general meeting, or
- 75 (ii) where that policy has been revised in accordance with section 422A, the policy as so revised.
- (7) In this section—
- 80 (a) "accounts meeting" means a general meeting of the company before which the company's annual accounts for a financial year are to be laid;
- (b) "directors' remuneration policy" means the policy of the company with respect to the matters mentioned in section 421(2A).".

NC6

To move the following Clause:—

‘After section 226 of the Companies Act 2006 insert—

“CHAPTER 4A

DIRECTORS OF QUOTED COMPANIES: SPECIAL PROVISION

*Interpretation226A Key definitions

- (1) In this Chapter—
 - “directors’ remuneration policy” means the policy of a quoted company with respect to the making of remuneration payments and payments for loss of office;
 - “remuneration payment” means any form of payment or other benefit made to or otherwise conferred on a person as consideration for the person being, or agreeing to become, a director of a company, other than a payment for loss of office;
 - “payment for loss of office” has the same meaning as in Chapter 4 of this Part.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies where, in connection with a relevant transfer, a director of a quoted company is—
 - (a) to cease to hold office as director, or
 - (b) to cease to be the holder of—
 - (i) any other office or employment in connection with the management of the affairs of the company, or
 - (ii) any office (as director or otherwise) or employment in connection with the management of the affairs of any subsidiary undertaking of the company.
- (3) If in connection with the transfer—
 - (a) the price to be paid to the director for any shares in the company held by the director is in excess of the price which could at the time have been obtained by other holders of like shares, or
 - (b) any valuable consideration is given to the director by a person other than the company,the excess or, as the case may be, the money value of the consideration is taken for the purposes of section 226C to have been a payment for loss of office.
- (4) In subsection (2), “relevant transfer” means—
 - (a) a transfer of the whole or any part of the undertaking or property of the company or a subsidiary of the company;
 - (b) a transfer of shares in the company, or in a subsidiary of the company, resulting from a takeover bid.

- (5) References in this Chapter to the making of a remuneration payment or to the making of a payment for loss of office are to be read in accordance with this section.
- (6) References in this Chapter to a payment by a company include a payment by another person at the direction of, or on behalf of, the company.
- (7) References in this Chapter to a payment to a person (“B”) who is, has been or is to be a director of a company include—
 - (a) a payment to a person connected with B, or
 - (b) a payment to a person at the direction of, or for the benefit of, B or a person connected with B.
- (8) Section 252 applies for the purposes of determining whether a person is connected with a person who has been, or is to be, a director of a company as it applies for the purposes of determining whether a person is connected with a director.
- (9) References in this Chapter to a director include a shadow director but references to loss of office as a director do not include loss of a person’s status as a shadow director.

*Restrictions relating to remuneration or loss of office payments226B Remuneration payments

- (1) A quoted company may not make a remuneration payment to a person who is, or is to be, a director of the company unless—
 - (a) the payment is consistent with the approved directors’ remuneration policy, or
 - (b) the payment is approved by resolution of the members of the company.
- (2) The approved directors’ remuneration policy is the most recent remuneration policy to have been approved by a resolution passed by the members of the company in general meeting.

226C Loss of office payments

- (1) No payment for loss of office may be made by any person to a person who is, or has been, a director of a quoted company unless—
 - (a) the payment is consistent with the approved directors’ remuneration policy, or
 - (b) the payment is approved by resolution of the members of the company.
- (2) The approved directors’ remuneration policy is the most recent remuneration policy to have been approved by a resolution passed by the members of the company in general meeting.

226D Sections 226B and 226C: supplementary

- (1) A resolution approving a payment for the purposes of section 226B(1)(b) or 226C(1)(b) must not be passed unless a memorandum setting out particulars of the proposed payment (including its amount) is made available for inspection by the members of the company—

- (a) at the company's registered office for not less than 15 days ending with the date of the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered, and
 - (b) at that meeting itself.
- (2) The memorandum must explain the ways in which the payment is inconsistent with the approved directors' remuneration policy (within the meaning of the section in question).
- (3) The company must ensure that the memorandum is made available on the company's website from the first day on which the memorandum is made available for inspection under subsection (1) until its next accounts meeting.
- (4) Failure to comply with subsection (3) does not affect the validity of the meeting at which a resolution is passed approving a payment to which the memorandum relates or the validity of anything done at the meeting.
- (5) Nothing in section 226B or 226C authorises the making of a remuneration payment or payment for loss of office in contravention of the articles of the company concerned.
- (6) In this section the "company's website" is the website on which the company makes material available under section 430.

226E Payments made without approval: civil consequences

- (1) An obligation (however arising) to make a payment which would be in contravention of section 226B or 226C has no effect.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), if a payment is made in contravention of section 226B or 226C—
 - (a) it is held by the recipient on trust for the company or other person making the payment, and
 - (b) in the case of a payment by a company, any director who authorised the payment is jointly and severally liable to indemnify the company that made the payment for any loss resulting from it.
- (3) If a payment for loss of office is made in contravention of section 226C to a director of a quoted company in connection with the transfer of the whole or any part of the undertaking or property of the company or a subsidiary of the company, it is held by the recipient on trust for the company whose undertaking or property is or is proposed to be transferred.
- (4) If a payment for loss of office is made in contravention of section 226C to a director of a quoted company in connection with a transfer of shares in the company, or in a subsidiary of the company, resulting from a takeover bid—
 - (a) it is held by the recipient on trust for persons who have sold their shares as a result of the offer made, and
 - (b) the expenses incurred by the recipient in distributing that sum amongst those persons shall be borne by the recipient and not retained out of that sum.

Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Bill, *continued226F Relationship with requirements under Chapter 4

- (1) This Chapter does not affect any requirement for approval by a resolution of the members of a company which applies in relation to the company under Chapter 4.
- (2) Where the making of a payment to which section 226B or 226C applies requires approval by a resolution of the members of the company concerned under Chapter 4, approval obtained for the purposes of that Chapter is to be treated as satisfying the requirements of section 226B(1)(b) or (as the case may be) 226C(1)(b).".'

Payments to directors: minor and consequential amendments

Norman Lamb

NC7

To move the following Clause:—

- (1) The Companies Act 2006 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 180 (consent, approval or authorisation by members)—
 - (a) in subsection (2), in the words before paragraph (a)—
 - (i) after “Chapter 4” insert “or 4A”, and
 - (ii) for “that Chapter” substitute “either of those Chapters”,
 - (b) in that subsection, in paragraph (a), for “that Chapter” substitute “the Chapter concerned”, and
 - (c) in subsection (3), after “Chapter 4” insert “or 4A”.
- (3) In section 190 (substantial property transactions: requirement of members’ approval), in subsection (6)(b), for the words in brackets substitute “(payments to which the requirements of Chapter 4 or 4A apply)”.
- (4) In section 215 (payments for loss of office), after subsection (4) insert—
 - “(5) Nothing in this section or sections 216 to 222 applies in relation to a payment for loss of office to a director of a quoted company.”
- (5) Section 430 (quoted companies: annual accounts and reports to be made available on website) is amended as follows.
- (6) After subsection (2) insert—
 - “(2A) If the directors’ remuneration policy of a quoted company is revised in accordance with section 422A, the company must ensure that the revised policy is made available on the website on which its annual accounts and reports are made available.
 - (2B) If a person ceases to be a director of a quoted company, the company must ensure that the following information is made available on the website on which its annual accounts and reports are made available—
 - (a) the name of the person concerned, and
 - (b) particulars of any payment for loss of office (within the meaning of Chapter 4A of Part 10) made to the person, including its amount and how it was calculated.”

- (7) In subsection (3) —
- (a) for “the annual accounts and reports on the website” substitute “the material made available on the website under subsections (1) to (2B)”, and
 - (b) for “the annual accounts and reports from” substitute “such material from”.
- (8) After subsection (4) insert—
- “(4A) Where subsection (2A) or (2B) applies, the material in question—
- (a) must be made available as soon as reasonably practicable, and
 - (b) must be kept available until the next directors’ remuneration report of the company is made available on the website.”
- (9) In subsection (5)—
- (a) in the words before paragraph (a), for the words from “the annual accounts and reports” to “that period” substitute “material available on a website throughout the period mentioned in subsection (4) or (as the case may be) (4A)”, and
 - (b) in paragraph (a) for “the annual accounts and reports are” substitute “the material is”.
- (10) In section 440 (quoted companies: offences in connection with procedure for approval)—
- (a) in subsection (1) —
 - (i) after “section 439(1)” insert “or 439A(1) or (2)”, and
 - (ii) in the words in brackets, after “report” insert “or policy”,
 - (b) in subsection (2), for “the accounts meeting” substitute “the meeting to which it relates”, and
 - (c) in subsection (5), omit the definition of “the accounts meeting”.
- (11) In Schedule 8 (in the index of defined expressions), at the appropriate places insert—

“directors’ remuneration policy (in Chapter 4A of Part 10)	section 226A(1)”

“payment for loss of office (in Chapter 4A of Part 10)	section 226A(1)”

Directors' remuneration reports and payments to directors: transitional provision

Norman Lamb

NC8

To move the following Clause:—

- '(1) Subsection (2) of section 439A of the Companies Act 2006 (as inserted by section (Payments to directors: members' approval of directors' remuneration policy)(4) of this Act) does not apply in relation to a company prior to the holding of the meeting mentioned in subsection (1)(a) of that section of that Act of 2006.
- (2) Chapter 4A of Part 10 of the Companies Act 2006 (as inserted by section (Payments to directors of quoted companies)) does not apply in relation to remuneration payments or payments for loss of office made by a company before the earlier of—
 - (a) the end of the first financial year of the company to begin after the coming into force of that section of this Act, and
 - (b) the date from which the first directors' remuneration policy to be approved under section 439A of the Companies Act 2006 (as inserted by section (Payments to directors: members' approval of directors' remuneration policy)(4) of this Act) takes effect.
- (3) Chapter 4A of Part 10 of the Companies Act 2006 does not apply in relation to remuneration payments or payments for loss of office that are required to be made under an agreement entered into before 27 June 2012 or in consequence of any other obligation arising before that date.
- (4) An agreement entered into, or any other obligation arising, before 27 June 2012 that is modified or renewed on or after that date is to be treated for the purposes of subsection (3) as having been entered into or (as the case may be) as having arisen on the date on which it was modified or renewed.
- (5) The amendment made by section (Payments to directors: minor and consequential amendments)(4) does not apply in relation to a payment for loss of office to which subsection (2) or (3) of this section applies.'

Power to reduce duration of copyright in transitional cases

- (2) In section 116 (licensing schemes and licensing bodies) after subsection (4) insert—

“(5) Schedule A1 confers powers to provide for the regulation of licensing bodies.”

- (3) After section 116 insert—

“Orphan works licensing and extended collective licensing

116A Power to provide for licensing of orphan works

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide for the grant of licences in respect of works that qualify as orphan works under the regulations.
- (2) The regulations may—
 - (a) specify a person or a description of persons authorised to grant licences, or
 - (b) provide for a person designated in the regulations to specify a person or a description of persons authorised to grant licences
- (3) The regulations must provide that, for a work to qualify as an orphan work, it is a requirement that the owner of copyright in it has not been found after a diligent search made in accordance with the regulations.
- (4) The regulations may provide for the granting of licences to do, or authorise the doing of, any act restricted by copyright that would otherwise require the consent of the missing owner.
- (5) The regulations must provide for any licence—
 - (a) to have effect as if granted by the missing owner;
 - (b) not to give exclusive rights;
 - (c) not to be granted to a person authorised to grant licences.
- (6) The regulations may apply to a work although it is not known whether copyright subsists in it, and references to a missing owner and a right or interest of a missing owner are to be read as including references to a supposed owner and a supposed right or interest.

116B Extended collective licensing

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide for a licensing body that applies to the Secretary of State under the regulations to be authorised to grant copyright licences in respect of works in which copyright is not owned by the body or a person on whose behalf the body acts.
- (2) An authorisation must specify—
 - (a) the types of work to which it applies, and
 - (b) the acts restricted by copyright that the licensing body is authorised to license.
- (3) The regulations must provide for the copyright owner to have a right to limit or exclude the grant of licences by virtue of the regulations.
- (4) The regulations must provide for any licence not to give exclusive rights.
- (5) In this section “copyright licences” has the same meaning as in section 116.
- (6) Nothing in this section applies in relation to Crown copyright or Parliamentary copyright.

Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Bill, *continued116C General provision about licensing under sections 116A and 116B

- (1) This section and section 116D apply to regulations under sections 116A and 116B.
- (2) The regulations may provide for a body to be or remain authorised to grant licences only if specified requirements are met, and for a question whether they are met to be determined by a person, and in a manner, specified in the regulations.
- (3) The regulations may specify other matters to be taken into account in any decision to be made under the regulations as to whether to authorise a person to grant licences.
- (4) The regulations must provide for the treatment of any royalties or other sums paid in respect of a licence, including—
 - (a) the deduction of administrative costs;
 - (b) the period for which sums must be held;
 - (c) the treatment of sums after that period (as bona vacantia or otherwise).
- (5) The regulations must provide for circumstances in which an authorisation to grant licences may be withdrawn, and for determining the rights and obligations of any person if an authorisation is withdrawn.
- (6) The regulations may include other provision for the purposes of authorisation and licensing, including in particular provision—
 - (a) for determining the rights and obligations of any person if a work ceases to qualify as an orphan work (or ceases to qualify by reference to any copyright owner), or if a rights owner exercises the right referred to in section 116B(3), while a licence is in force;
 - (b) about maintenance of registers and access to them;
 - (c) permitting the use of a work for incidental purposes including an application or search;
 - (d) for a right conferred by section 77 to be treated as having been asserted in accordance with section 78;
 - (e) for the payment of fees to cover administrative expenses.

116D Regulations under sections 116A and 116B

- (1) The power to make regulations includes power—
 - (a) to make incidental, supplementary or consequential provision, including provision extending or restricting the jurisdiction of the Copyright Tribunal or conferring powers on it;
 - (b) to make transitional, transitory or saving provision;
 - (c) to make different provision for different purposes.
- (2) Regulations under any provision may amend this Part, or any other enactment or subordinate legislation passed or made before that provision comes into force, for the purpose of making consequential provision or extending or restricting the jurisdiction of the Copyright Tribunal or conferring powers on it.
- (3) Regulations may make provision by reference to guidance issued from time to time by any person.
- (4) The power to make regulations is exercisable by statutory instrument.

- (5) A statutory instrument containing regulations that amend an enactment may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (6) Any other statutory instrument containing regulations is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

To move the following Schedule:—

‘LICENSING OF COPYRIGHT AND PERFORMERS’ RIGHTS

PART 1

REGULATION OF LICENSING BODIES

1 In the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, before Schedule 1 insert—

“SCHEDULE A1

REGULATION OF LICENSING BODIES

Codes of practice

- 1 (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for a licensing body to be required to adopt a code of practice that complies with criteria specified in the regulations.
- (2) In relation to a licensing body that fails to adopt a code of practice that it is required to adopt under provision within sub-paragraph (1), the regulations may provide for a code of practice approved by the Secretary of State or by a person designated by the Secretary of State under the regulations to have effect as a code of practice adopted by the body.
- 2 Regulations under paragraph 1 may make provision as to conditions that are to be satisfied, and procedures that are to be followed—
 - (a) before a licensing body is required to adopt a code of practice as described in paragraph 1(1);
 - (b) before a code of practice has effect as one adopted by a licensing body as described in paragraph 1(2).

Licensing code ombudsman

- 3 (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision—
 - (a) for the appointment of a person (the “licensing code ombudsman”) to investigate and determine disputes about a licensing body’s compliance with its code of practice;
 - (b) for the reference of disputes to the licensing code ombudsman;
 - (c) for the investigation and determination of a dispute so referred.
- (2) Provision made under this paragraph may in particular include provision—
 - (a) about eligibility for appointment as the licensing code ombudsman;
 - (b) about the disputes to be referred to the licensing code ombudsman;
 - (c) requiring any person to provide information, documents or assistance to the licensing code ombudsman for the purposes of an investigation or determination;
 - (d) requiring a licensing body to comply with a determination of the licensing code ombudsman;
 - (e) about the payment of expenses and allowances to the licensing code ombudsman.

Code reviewer

- 4 (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision—
 - (a) for the appointment by the Secretary of State of a person (the “code reviewer”) to review and report to the Secretary of State on—

- (i) the codes of practice adopted by licensing bodies, and
 - (ii) compliance with the codes of practice;
- (b) for the carrying out of a review and the making of a report by that person.
- (2) The regulations must provide for the Secretary of State, before appointing a person as the code reviewer, to consult persons whom the Secretary of State considers represent the interests of licensing bodies, licensees, members of licensing bodies, and the Intellectual Property Office.
- (3) The regulations may, in particular, make provision—
 - (a) requiring any person to provide information, documents or assistance to the code reviewer for the purposes of a review or report;
 - (b) about the payment of expenses and allowances to the code reviewer.
- (4) In this paragraph “member”, in relation to a licensing body, means a person on whose behalf the body is authorised to negotiate or grant licences.

Sanctions

- 5 (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide for the consequences of a failure by a licensing body to comply with—
 - (a) a requirement to adopt a code of practice under provision within paragraph 1(1);
 - (b) a code of practice that has been adopted by the body in accordance with a requirement under provision within paragraph 1(1), or that has effect as one adopted by the body under provision within paragraph 1(2);
 - (c) a requirement imposed on the body under any other provision made under this Schedule;
 - (d) an authorisation under regulations under section 116A or 116B;
 - (e) a requirement imposed by regulations under section 116A or 116B;
 - (f) an authorisation under regulations under paragraph 1A or 1B of Schedule 2A;
 - (g) a requirement imposed by regulations under paragraph 1A or 1B of that Schedule.
- (2) The regulations may in particular provide for—
 - (a) the imposition of financial penalties or other sanctions;
 - (b) the imposition of sanctions on a director, manager or similar officer of a licensing body or, where the body’s affairs are managed by its members, on a member.
- (3) The regulations may include provision—
 - (a) for determining whether there has been a failure to comply with a requirement or code of practice for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1);

- (b) for determining any sanction that may be imposed in respect of the failure to comply;
 - (c) for an appeal against the imposition of any such sanction.
- (4) A financial penalty imposed under sub-paragraph (2) must not be greater than £50,000.
- (5) The regulations may provide for a determination within sub-paragraph (3)(a) or (3)(b) to be made by the Secretary of State or by a person designated by the Secretary of State under the regulations.
- (6) The regulations may make provision for requiring a person to give the person by whom a determination within sub-paragraph (3)(a) falls to be made (the “adjudicator”) any information that the adjudicator reasonably requires for the purpose of making that determination.

Fees

- 6 (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations require a licensing body to which regulations under any other paragraph of this Schedule apply to pay fees to the Secretary of State.
- (2) The aggregate amount of fees payable under the regulations must not be more than the cost to the Secretary of State of administering the operation of regulations under this Schedule.

General

- 7 (1) The power to make regulations under this Schedule includes in particular power—
- (a) to make incidental, supplementary or consequential provision, including provision extending or restricting the jurisdiction of the Copyright Tribunal or conferring powers on it;
 - (b) to make provision for bodies of a particular description, or carrying out activities of a particular description, not to be treated as licensing bodies for the purposes of requirements imposed under regulations under this Schedule;
 - (c) to make provision that applies only in respect of licensing bodies of a particular description, or only in respect of activities of a particular description;
 - (d) otherwise to make different provision for different purposes.
- (2) Regulations under a paragraph of this Schedule may amend this Part or Part 2, or any other enactment or subordinate legislation passed or made before the paragraph in question comes into force, for the purpose of making consequential provision or extending or restricting the jurisdiction of the Copyright Tribunal or conferring powers on it.
- (3) Regulations may impose requirements by reference to guidance issued from time to time by any person.
- (4) The power to make regulations is exercisable by statutory instrument.

- (5) A statutory instrument containing regulations that amend an enactment may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (6) Any other statutory instrument containing regulations is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- 8 References in this Schedule to a licensing body are to a body that is a licensing body for the purposes of this Chapter or for the purposes of Chapter 2 of Part 2, and references to licensees are to be construed accordingly.”

PART 2

PERFORMERS' RIGHTS

- 1 Schedule 2A to the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 (licensing of performers' property rights) is amended as follows.
- 2 In the heading of the Schedule omit “property”.
- 3 In paragraph 1, after sub-paragraph (4) insert—
- “(5) Schedule A1 confers powers to provide for the regulation of licensing bodies.”
- 4 After paragraph 1 insert—

“Orphan rights licensing and extended collective licensing

- 1A (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide for the grant of licences to do, or authorise the doing of, acts to which section 182, 182A, 182B, 182C, 182CA, 183 or 184 applies in respect of a performance, where—
- (a) the performer's consent would otherwise be required under that section, but
 - (b) the right to authorise or prohibit the act qualifies as an orphan right under the regulations.
- (2) The regulations may—
- (a) specify a person or a description of persons authorised to grant licences, or
 - (b) provide for a person designated in the regulations to specify a person or a description of persons authorised to grant licences.
- (3) The regulations must provide that, for a right to qualify as an orphan right, it is a requirement that the owner of the right has not been found after a diligent search made in accordance with the regulations.
- (4) The regulations must provide for any licence—
- (a) to have effect as if granted by the missing owner;
 - (b) not to give exclusive rights;
 - (c) not to be granted to a person authorised to grant licences.
- (5) The regulations may apply in a case where it is not known whether a performer's right subsists, and references to a right, to a missing owner and to an interest of a missing owner are to be read as including references to a supposed right, owner or interest.

- 1B (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide for a licensing body that applies to the Secretary of State under the regulations to be authorised to grant licences to do, or authorise the doing of, acts to which section 182, 182A, 182B, 182C, 182CA, 183 or 184 applies in respect of a performance, where the right to authorise or prohibit the act is not owned by the body or a person on whose behalf the body acts.
- (2) An authorisation must specify the acts to which any of those sections applies that the licensing body is authorised to license.
- (3) The regulations must provide for the rights owner to have a right to limit or exclude the grant of licences by virtue of the regulations.
- (4) The regulations must provide for any licence not to give exclusive rights.
- 1C (1) This paragraph and paragraph 1D apply to regulations under paragraphs 1A and 1B.
- (2) The regulations may provide for a body to be or remain authorised to grant licences only if specified requirements are met, and for a question whether they are met to be determined by a person, and in a manner, specified in the regulations.
- (3) The regulations may specify other matters to be taken into account in any decision to be made under the regulations as to whether to authorise a person to grant licences.
- (4) The regulations must provide for the treatment of any royalties or other sums paid in respect of a licence, including—
- (a) the deduction of administrative costs;
 - (b) the period for which sums must be held;
 - (c) the treatment of sums after that period (as bona vacantia or otherwise).
- (5) The regulations must provide for circumstances in which an authorisation to grant licences may be withdrawn, and for determining the rights and obligations of any person if an authorisation is withdrawn.
- (6) The regulations may include other provision for the purposes of authorisation and licensing, including in particular provision—
- (a) for determining the rights and obligations of any person if a right ceases to qualify as an orphan right (or ceases to qualify by reference to any rights owner), or if a rights owner exercises the right referred to in paragraph 1B(3), while a licence is in force;
 - (b) about maintenance of registers and access to them;
 - (c) permitting the use of a work for incidental purposes including an application or search;
 - (d) for a right conferred by section 205C to be treated as having been asserted under section 205D;
 - (e) for the payment of fees to cover administrative expenses.

- 1D (1) The power to make regulations includes power—
- (a) to make incidental, supplementary or consequential provision, including provision extending or restricting the jurisdiction of the Copyright Tribunal or conferring powers on it;
 - (b) to make transitional, transitory or saving provision;
 - (c) to make different provision for different purposes.
- (2) Regulations under any provision may amend this Part, or any other enactment or subordinate legislation passed or made before that provision comes into force, for the purpose of making consequential provision or extending or restricting the jurisdiction of the Copyright Tribunal or conferring powers on it.
- (3) Regulations may make provision by reference to guidance issued from time to time by any person.
- (4) The power to make regulations is exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing regulations that amend an enactment may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (6) Any other statutory instrument containing regulations is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”
- 5 In section 205A of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, and in the italic heading before that section (licensing of performers’ property rights), omit “property”.’.
