Create offences and make other provision relating to sub-letting and parting with possession of social housing; and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Unlawful sub-letting: secure tenancies

- (1) A tenant of a dwelling-house in England let under a secure tenancy commits an offence if—
- (a) in breach of an express or implied term of the tenancy, the tenant sub-lets or parts with possession of—
 - (i) the whole of the dwelling-house, or
 - (ii) part of the dwelling-house without the landlord's written consent,
 - (b) the tenant ceases to occupy the dwelling-house as the tenant's only or principal home, and
 - (c) the tenant knows that the conduct described in paragraph (a) is a breach of a term of the tenancy.
- (2) A tenant of a dwelling-house in England let under a secure tenancy commits an offence if—
- (a) dishonestly and in breach of an express or implied term of the tenancy, the tenant sub-lets or parts with possession of—
 - (i) the whole of the dwelling-house, or
 - (ii) part of the dwelling-house without the landlord's written consent, and
 - (b) the tenant ceases to occupy the dwelling-house as the tenant's only or principal home.
- (3) The offence under subsection (1) is not committed where the tenant takes the action described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of that subsection because of violence or threats of violence by a person residing in, or in the locality of, the dwelling-house—
- (a) towards the tenant, or

- (b) towards a member of the family of the tenant who was residing with the tenant immediately before the tenant ceased to occupy the dwelling-house.
- (4) The offence under subsection (1) is not committed if a person (“P”) who occupies the dwelling-house as a result of the conduct described in subsection (1)(a) is – 5
- (a) a person entitled to apply to the court for an order giving P a right to occupy the dwelling-house or to have the tenancy transferred to P, or
- (b) a person in respect of whom an application may be made to have the tenancy transferred to P. 10
- (5) A person convicted of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (6) A person convicted of an offence under subsection (2) is liable –
- (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both); 15
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or a fine (or both).

2 Unlawful sub-letting: assured tenancies

- (1) A tenant of a dwelling-house in England let under an assured tenancy to which this section applies commits an offence if – 20
- (a) in breach of an express or implied term of the tenancy, the tenant sub-lets or parts with possession of the whole or part of the dwelling-house,
- (b) the tenant ceases to occupy the dwelling-house as the tenant’s only or principal home, and
- (c) the tenant knows that the conduct described in paragraph (a) is a breach of a term of the tenancy. 25
- (2) A tenant of a dwelling-house in England let under an assured tenancy to which this section applies commits an offence if –
- (a) dishonestly and in breach of an express or implied term of the tenancy, the tenant sub-lets or parts with possession of the whole or part of the dwelling-house, and 30
- (b) the tenant ceases to occupy the dwelling-house as the tenant’s only or principal home.
- (3) This section applies to an assured tenancy –
- (a) under which the landlord is a private registered provider of social housing, and 35
- (b) which is not a shared ownership lease.
- (4) The offence under subsection (1) is not committed where the tenant takes the action described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of that subsection because of violence or threats of violence by a person residing in, or in the locality of, the dwelling-house – 40
- (a) towards the tenant, or
- (b) towards a member of the family of the tenant who was residing with the tenant immediately before the tenant ceased to occupy the dwelling-house. 45

- (5) The offence under subsection (1) is not committed if a person (“P”) who occupies the dwelling-house as a result of the conduct described in subsection (1)(a) is –
- (a) a person entitled to apply to the court for an order giving P a right to occupy the dwelling-house or to have the tenancy transferred to P, or
 - (b) a person in respect of whom an application may be made to have the tenancy transferred to P.
- (6) A person convicted of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (7) A person convicted of an offence under subsection (2) is liable –
- (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or a fine (or both).
- 3 Prosecution of offences
- (1) Proceedings for an offence under section 1(1) or 2(1) may be brought within the period of 6 months beginning with the date on which evidence sufficient in the opinion of the prosecutor to warrant the proceedings came to the prosecutor’s knowledge.
- (2) But no such proceedings may be brought more than three years –
- (a) after the commission of the offence, or
 - (b) in the case of continuous contravention, after the last date on which the offence was committed.
- (3) A certificate signed by the prosecutor and stating the date on which such evidence came to the prosecutor’s knowledge is conclusive evidence of that fact; and a certificate to that effect and purporting to be so signed is to be treated as being so signed unless the contrary is proved.
- (4) Subsections (1) to (3) also apply in relation to an associated offence which is a summary offence (to the extent that they would not otherwise apply to that offence).
- (5) A local authority may prosecute an offence under section 1 or 2 in relation to a dwelling-house –
- (a) whether or not the dwelling-house is or was let under a tenancy under which the local authority is or was the landlord, and
 - (b) whether or not the dwelling-house is located in the local authority’s area.
- (6) In subsection (5) “local authority” means a county council in England, a district council, a London borough council, the Common Council of the City of London or the Council of the Isles of Scilly.
- (7) Subsections (5) and (6) also apply in relation to an associated offence (to the extent that they would not otherwise apply to that offence).
- 4 Unlawful profit orders: criminal proceedings
- (1) This section applies if a person (“the offender”) is convicted of –
- (a) an offence under section 1 or 2, or

- (b) an associated offence.
- (2) The court by or before which the offender is convicted –
- (a) must, on application or otherwise, decide whether to make an unlawful profit order, and
 - (b) may, if it considers it appropriate to do so, make such an order, instead of or in addition to dealing with the offender in any other way. 5
- (3) An “unlawful profit order” is an order requiring the offender to pay the landlord an amount representing the profit made by the offender as a result of the conduct constituting the offence.
- (4) If the court decides not to make an unlawful profit order, it must give reasons for that decision on passing sentence on the offender. 10
- (5) The amount payable under an unlawful profit order must be such amount as the court considers appropriate, having regard to any evidence and to any representations that are made by or on behalf of the offender or the prosecutor, but subject to subsections (6), (7) and (8). 15
- (6) The maximum amount payable under an unlawful profit order is calculated as follows –
- Step 1*
Determine the total amount the offender received as a result of the conduct constituting the offence. 20
- Step 2*
Deduct from the amount determined under step 1 the total amount, if any, paid by the offender as rent to the landlord (including service charges) over the period during which the offence was committed.
- (7) Where an unlawful profit order has been made against the offender under section 5, an order under this section may only provide for the landlord to recover an amount equal to the aggregate of the following –
- (a) any amount by which the amount of the offender’s profit found under this section exceeds the amount payable under the order made under section 5, and 30
 - (b) a sum equal to any portion of the amount payable under the order made under section 5 that the landlord fails to recover,
- and the landlord may not enforce the order under this section, so far as it relates to a sum mentioned in paragraph (b), without the leave of the court.
- (8) In determining whether to make an unlawful profit order against the offender, and in determining the amount to be paid by the offender under the order, the court must have regard to the means of the offender so far as they appear or are known to the court. 35
- (9) Subsection (10) applies where the court considers –
- (a) that, as well as being appropriate to make an unlawful profit order, it would be appropriate to make a compensation order under section 130 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 or to impose a fine (or to do both), and 40
 - (b) that the offender has insufficient means to pay both –
 - (i) an appropriate sum under an unlawful profit order, and 45
 - (ii) an appropriate sum under a compensation order or an appropriate sum under a fine (or both).

- (10) The court must give preference to making an unlawful profit order (though it may impose a fine, make a compensation order or do both as well).
- (11) Sections 131 to 133 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (supplementary provisions about compensation orders) apply to unlawful profit orders as if –
- (a) references to a compensation order were to an unlawful profit order,
 - (b) references in section 131 to the compensation to be paid under a compensation order were to the amount to be paid under an unlawful profit order,
 - (c) the reference to injury, loss or damage in section 133(3)(a) were a reference to profit, and
 - (d) section 133(3)(b) were omitted.
- (12) In this section “the landlord” means the landlord under the tenancy in respect of which the offence was committed.
- 5 Unlawful profit orders: civil proceedings
- (1) The court may, on the application of the landlord of a dwelling-house in England let under a secure or an assured tenancy, make an unlawful profit order if –
- (a) in the case of a secure tenancy, the conditions in subsection (3) are met, and
 - (b) in the case of an assured tenancy, the conditions in subsection (4) are met.
- (2) An “unlawful profit order” is an order requiring the tenant against whom it is made to pay the landlord an amount representing the profit made by the tenant from the conduct described in subsection (3)(a) or (4)(c).
- (3) The conditions in the case of a secure tenancy are that a tenant under the tenancy –
- (a) in breach of an express or implied term of the tenancy, has sub-let or parted with possession of –
 - (i) the whole of the dwelling-house, or
 - (ii) part of the dwelling-house without the landlord’s written consent,
 - (b) has ceased to occupy the dwelling-house as the tenant’s only or principal home, and
 - (c) has received money as a result of the conduct described in paragraph (a).
- (4) The conditions in the case of an assured tenancy are that –
- (a) the landlord is a private registered provider of social housing,
 - (b) the tenancy is not a shared ownership lease,
 - (c) in breach of an express or implied term of the tenancy, a tenant under the tenancy has sub-let or parted with possession of the whole or part of the dwelling-house,
 - (d) the tenant has ceased to occupy the dwelling-house as the tenant’s only or principal home, and
 - (e) the tenant has received money as a result of the conduct described in paragraph (c).

- (5) Subject to subsection (6), the amount payable under an unlawful profit order is calculated as follows –
- Step 1*
Determine the total amount the tenant received as a result of the conduct described in subsection (3)(a) or (4)(c). 5
- Step 2*
Deduct from the amount determined under step 1 the total amount, if any, paid by the tenant as rent to the landlord (including service charges) over the period during which the conduct described in subsection (3)(a) or (4)(c) took place.
- (6) Where an unlawful profit order has been made against the tenant under section 4, an order under this section may only provide for the landlord to recover an amount equal to the aggregate of the following – 10
- (a) any amount by which the amount of the tenant’s profit found under this section exceeds the amount payable under the order made under section 4, and 15
- (b) a sum equal to any portion of the amount payable under the order made under section 4 that the landlord fails to recover,
and the landlord may not enforce the order under this section, so far as it relates to a sum mentioned in paragraph (b), without the leave of the court.
- (7) For the purposes of this section “the court” means the High Court or the county court. 20
- (8) Section 110(3) of the Housing Act 1985 (by which the claimant in proceedings relating to a secure tenancy may not recover the claimant’s costs if the proceedings are taken in the High Court) does not apply to proceedings under this section. 25

6 Loss of assured tenancy status

After section 15 of the Housing Act 1988 insert –

“15A Loss of assured tenancy

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if, in breach of an express or implied term of the tenancy, a tenant of a dwelling-house in England let under an assured tenancy to which this section applies – 30
- (a) parts with possession of the dwelling-house, or
- (b) sub-lets the whole of the dwelling-house (or sub-lets first part of it and then the remainder).
- (2) The tenancy ceases to be an assured tenancy and cannot subsequently become an assured tenancy. 35
- (3) This section applies to an assured tenancy –
- (a) under which the landlord is a private registered provider of social housing, and
- (b) which is not a shared ownership lease. 40
- (4) In this section “shared ownership lease” means a lease of a dwelling-house –
- (a) granted on payment of a premium calculated by reference to a percentage of the value of the dwelling-house or of the cost of providing it, or 45

- (b) under which the lessee (or the lessee’s personal representatives) will or may be entitled to a sum calculated by reference, directly or indirectly, to the value of the dwelling-house.”
