TO

Require schools, together with local businesses and other sectors, to provide a comprehensive careers advice service to 12 to 16 year olds; and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Duty of schools to provide careers advice to 12 to 16 year olds

- (1) It shall be the duty of every school which has any pupils aged 12 years or over and under the age of 17 to provide a careers advice service.
- (2) In providing the service the school shall co-operate with local businesses and other employers. 5
- (3) The service shall be provided by a dedicated careers adviser or by another person who, in the opinion of the governors of the school, has the appropriate qualifications and experience.

2 Interpretation

In this Act, “school” includes schools provided by a local education authority, academies, voluntary aided schools and independent schools. 10

3 Regulations

- (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations governing the supply of careers advice under section 1 of this Act.
- (2) Such regulations shall be made by statutory instrument and may not be made unless a draft has been laid before and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament. 15

4 Financial provisions

There is to be paid out of money provided by Parliament any increase attributable to this Act in the sums payable under any other Act out of money so provided.

5 Short title, commencement and extent

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Careers Advice in Schools for 12-16 Year Olds Act 2013. 5
- (2) This Act comes into force at the end of the period of two months beginning on the day on which it is passed.
- (3) This Act extends to England and Wales only.
