'Reinstatement of marriages annulled to permit a person to obtain a gender recognition certificate

9A Schedule 4 (Effect on Marriage) at beginning insert—

- “(1) This section applies to a formerly married couple whose marriage was annulled in order to permit one or both partners to that marriage to obtain a full gender recognition certificate, provided that—
- (a) either—
 - (i) the couple formed a civil partnership with each other within six months of the annulment of their marriage, and continue to maintain their civil partnership, or
 - (ii) the couple have continued to live together in the same household since the annulment of their marriage, and
 - (b) both partners to the former marriage give notice to a registrar that they wish their marriage to be reinstated.
- (2) When notice is given under (1)(b), the marriage shall be reinstated with effect from the date the couple give notice to have it reinstated.
- (3) In those cases where the couple subsequently formed a civil partnership, the civil partnership shall be set aside.”’.
