ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR, CRIME AND POLICING BILL, AS AMENDED

NEW CLAUSES

Review of funding of early intervention and anti-social behaviour services

Andrea Leadsom

NC1

To move the following Clause:—

- ‘(1) The Secretary of State shall undertake a review of funding arrangements for early intervention services and services designed to prevent or mitigate anti-social behaviour, to report within 12 months of the coming into force of Part 1 of this Act.
  - (2) The purpose of the review shall be to examine whether redistributing funding to early intervention services would be likely to reduce long-term rates of anti-social behaviour.’.

Amendment of Breeding of Dogs Act 1973

Mr David Amess

NC2

To move the following Clause:—

- ‘In section 1(4) of the Breeding of Dogs Act 1973 omit subsection (g) and insert—
- “(g) that bitches do not breed more than two litters per year without an appropriate licence from the local authority.”.’.

Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Bill, *continued*Dog control orders*

Mr David Hanson
Phil Wilson
Gloria De Piero
Julie Hilling

NC3

To move the following Clause:—

- (1) Where an authorised officer has reasonable cause to believe that a dog is not under sufficient control and requires greater control in any place, as a preventative measure to protect the public, the dog itself, or another protected animal, he or she may serve on the owner, and if different, person for the time being in charge of the dog a written control notice which—
    - (a) states that he or she is of that belief;
    - (b) specifies the respects in which he or she believes the owner, and if different, the person for the time being in charge of the dog is failing to keep the dog under sufficient control;
    - (c) specifies the steps he or she requires the owner, and if different, the person for the time being in charge of the dog to take in order to comply with the notice;
    - (d) specifies the date by which the terms of the notice must be complied with; and
    - (e) specifies the date that the notice expires which will not be for a period which exceeds six months.
  - (2) In a control notice pursuant to subsection (1)(c) an authorised officer must require a dog to be microchipped (if not already done) and the owner, and if different, the person for the time being in charge of the dog, register the dog with a microchip database, and may require the following steps, where appropriate, but not limited to—
    - (a) keeping the dog muzzled as directed;
    - (b) keeping the dog on a lead when in public or under control as directed;
    - (c) requiring the owner, and if different, the person for the time being in charge of the dog, to seek and implement expert advice about training and behaviour for the dog;
    - (d) having the dog neutered where appropriate; and
    - (e) keeping the dog away from particular places or persons.
  - (3) Failure to comply with the steps required in a control notice within the time period specified, to the satisfaction of the authorised officer may lead to a complaint to a magistrates' court under section 2 of the Dogs Act 1871.
  - (4) The provisions of section 2 of the Dogs Act 1871 shall have effect if the owner, and if different, the person for the time being in charge of a dog fails to comply with the steps required in a control notice within the time period specified in accordance with subsection (3) above as they would apply if a dog was dangerous and not kept under proper control.
  - (5) An “authorised officer” is a person that has been appointed by the local authority or police for the purposes of this Act.
  - (6) A “protected animal” is one that is commonly domesticated in the British Islands, is under the control of man whether on a permanent or temporary basis, or is not living in a wild state.’

Firearms' licensing

Mr David Hanson
Phil Wilson
Gloria De Piero

NC4

To move the following Clause:—

- (1) The Firearms Act 1968 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 28A (Certificates: supplementary) insert—

“28B Assessing public safety

- (1) When assessing the threat to public safety under sections 27, 28, 30A, 30B or 30C the Chief Police Officer must ensure that a range of background checks are performed.
- (2) Where these checks uncover substantiated evidence of violent conduct, domestic violence, mental illness or drug or alcohol abuse, the presumption is that the Chief Police Officer should refuse the licence application unless exceptional evidence can be brought forward by the applicant as to their suitability to possess a weapon.
- (3) When assessing public safety within this section the Chief Police Officer must follow any guidance issued by the Secretary of State.”.
- (3) Section 113 of the Firearms Act 1968 (power of Secretary of State to alter fees) is amended as follows.
- (4) After subsection (1) insert—
  - “(1A) Before making an order under this section the Secretary of State must consult with chief police officers to ensure the level of fees collected by the police under sections 32 and 35 are appropriate after considering the costs they incur through the administration and assessment of firearms’ licences made under this Act.”.
