which is designated as the approved rank for that police force by the College of Policing.

(3D) The College of Policing must make designations under subsections (3B)
and (3C), but must not do so without the approval of the Secretary of State.”.

RetentionPolicy of personal samples that are or may be disclosable

Mr Jeremy Browne

To move the following Clause:—

‘(1) In section 63U of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (fingerprints and samples etc: exclusions from destruction rules)—
(a) in subsection (5) (material that is or may become disclosable to the defence), for “Sections 63D to 63Q, 63S and 63T” there is substituted “Sections 63D to 63T”;
(b) after that subsection there is inserted—

“(5A) A sample that—
(a) falls within subsection (5), and
(b) but for that subsection would be required to be destroyed under section 63R, must not be used other than for the purposes of any proceedings for the offence in connection with which the sample was taken.

(5B) A sample that once fell within subsection (5) but no longer does, and so becomes a sample to which section 63R applies, must be destroyed immediately if the time specified for its destruction under that section has already passed.”

(2) In Schedule 8 to the Terrorism Act 2000 (detention of terrorist suspects etc), in paragraph 20I (substituted by paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 to the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012) (fingerprints and samples etc: exclusion from destruction rules of material that is or may become disclosable to the defence)—

(a) for “Paragraphs 20A to 20F and 20H do not apply to paragraph 20A material” there is substituted “Paragraphs 20A to 20H do not apply to material”;

(b) at the end of that paragraph (which becomes sub-paragraph (1)) there is inserted—

“(2) A sample that—

(a) falls within sub-paragraph (1), and
(b) but for that sub-paragraph would be required to be destroyed under paragraph 20G,

must not be used other than for the purposes of any proceedings for the offence in connection with which the sample was taken.

(3) A sample that once fell within sub-paragraph (1) but no longer does, and so becomes a sample to which paragraph 20G applies, must be destroyed immediately if the time specified for its destruction under that paragraph has already passed.”

Mr David Hanson
Gloria De Piero
Phil Wilson
Julie Hilling
Huw Irranca-Davies
Luciana Berger

To move the following Clause:—

‘(1) Where an authorised officer has reasonable cause to believe that a dog is not under sufficient control and requires greater control in any place, as a preventative measure to protect the public, the dog itself, or another protected animal, he or she may serve on the owner, and if different, person for the time being in charge of the dog a written control notice which—

(a) states that he or she is of that belief;

(b) specifies the respects in which he or she believes the owner, and if different, the person for the time being in charge of the dog is failing to keep the dog under sufficient control;

(c) specifies the steps he or she requires the owner, and if different, the person for the time being in charge of the dog to take in order to comply with the notice;

(d) specifies the date by which the terms of the notice must be complied with; and

(e) specifies the date that the notice expires which will not be for a period which exceeds six months.'
Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Bill, \textit{continued}

(2) In a control notice pursuant to subsection (1)(c) an authorised officer must require a dog to be microchipped (if not already done so) and the owner, and if different, the person for the time being in charge of the dog, register the dog with a microchip database, and may require the following steps, where appropriate, but is not limited to—

(a) keeping the dog muzzled as directed;
(b) keeping the dog on a lead when in public or under control as directed;
(c) requiring the owner, and if different, the person for the time being in charge of the dog, to seek and implement expert advice about training and behaviour for the dog;
(d) having the dog neutered where appropriate; and
(e) keeping the dog away from particular places or persons.

(3) Failure to comply with the steps required in a control notice within the time period specified, to the satisfaction of the authorised officer may lead to a complaint to a Magistrates Court under section 2 of the Dogs Act 1871.

(4) The provisions of section 2 of the Dogs Act 1871 shall have effect if the owner, and if different, the person for the time being in charge of a dog fails to comply with the steps required in a control notice within the time period specified in accordance with subsection (3) above as they would apply if a dog was dangerous and not kept under proper control.

(5) An “authorised officer” is a person that has been appointed by the local authority or police for the purposes of this Act.

(6) A “protected animal” is one that is commonly domesticated in the British Islands, is under the control of man whether on a permanent or temporary basis, or is not living in a wild state.’.

Firearms licences—assessing public safety

Mr David Hanson
Gloria De Piero
Phil Wilson
Grahame M. Morris

To move the following Clause:—

‘(1) The Firearms Act 1968 is amended as follows.
(2) After section 28A (Certificates: supplementary) insert—

\textit{“28B Assessing public safety}

(1) When assessing the threat to public safety under sections 27, 28, 30A, 30B or 30C the Chief Police Officer must ensure that a range of background checks are performed.

(2) Where these checks uncover substantiated evidence of violent conduct, domestic violence, mental illness or drug or alcohol abuse, the presumption is that the Chief Police Officer should refuse the licence application unless exceptional evidence can be brought forward by the applicant as to their suitability to possess a weapon.

(3) When assessing public safety within this section the Chief Police Officer must follow any guidance issued by the Secretary of State.”.’.
Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Bill, continued

As an Amendment to Mr David Hanson’s proposed New Clause (Firearms licences—assessing public safety) (NC5):—

Bridget Phillipson

Line 6, at end insert—

‘(1A) Background checks under subsection (1) must include, so far as practicable, consultation with current and former partners of the applicant.’.

Dog number control notice

Julie Hilling
Sarah Champion
Rosie Cooper
Mrs Emma Lewell-Buck
Simon Danczuk

To move the following Clause:—

‘(1) This section applies where more than one dog is being kept in a domestic property in England or Wales.

(2) Where an authorised officer has reasonable cause to believe that the number of dogs being kept in a domestic property gives rise to a risk that any one or more of the dogs may become dangerously out of control while in or partly in the domestic property (“the risk”), he or she may serve on the person in charge a written control notice which—

(a) states that the authorised officer is of that belief;

(b) specifies the maximum number of dogs which, in the opinion of the authorised officer, are capable of being kept in the domestic property such as to sufficiently reduce the risk;

(c) requires the person in charge to reduce the number of dogs kept in the domestic property to no more than the number specified under paragraph (b); and

(d) specifies the date by which the terms of the control notice must be complied with.

(3) A control notice may be served on more than one person in respect of one domestic property.

(4) It is an offence for a person without reasonable excuse to fail to comply with a requirement under subsection (2).

(5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

(6) An authorised officer may make a complaint to a Magistrates’ Court if a person in charge fails, to the satisfaction of the authorised officer, to comply with the steps required in a control notice within the time period specified.

(7) A Magistrates’ Court receiving a complaint under subsection (6) shall, if it finds that the person in charge has failed to comply with the steps required in a control notice, make an order in a summary way directing any of the dogs kept in the domestic property to be destroyed.

(8) In this section—

“authorised officer” means a person appointed by a local authority within whose area the domestic property is situated for the purposes of this section;

“domestic property” means a building, or part of a building, that is a dwelling or is forces accommodation (or both);
“person in charge” means the owner or owners, and if different, person or persons for the time being in charge of the dogs.’.

“(ba) the power of a constable in uniform to give a person a fixed penalty notice under section 54 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (c. 53) (fixed penalty notices) in respect of an offence under section 42 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 c.53 (Breach of other construction and use requirement) as specified by Table III (Pedal cycle) of Schedule 1 (Obligatory Lamps, Reflectors, Rear Markings and Devices) of the Road Vehicles Lighting Regulations 1989/1796;’.

(3) In section 7B(1) after “sub-paragraphs” insert “(1A),”.

(4) After section 7B(1) insert—

“(1A) Where, in the exercise of the power referred to in paragraph 1A or paragraph 3, a CSO has required a person to give his name and address, and has reasonable grounds to suspect that person is in possession of a controlled drug in contravention of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 or of any regulations (or orders) made thereunder, the CSO may—

(a) search that person, and detain him for the purpose of searching him;

(b) search any vehicle in which the constable suspects that the drug may be found, and for that purpose require the person in control of the vehicle to stop it.”.

(5) In section 11A(2) after “footway)”, insert “or an offence under section 42 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 c.53 (Breach of other construction and use requirement) as specified by Table III (Pedal cycle) of Schedule 1 (Obligatory Lamps, Reflectors, Rear Markings and Devices) of the Road Vehicles (Lighting Regulations 1989/1796.”.’.

Assault of workers

Mr David Hanson
Phil Wilson
Gloria De Piero

To move the following Clause:—

‘(1) A person, being a member of the public, who assaults a worker—

(a) in the course of that worker’s employment, or

(b) by reason of that worker’s employment, commits an offence.
(2) No offence is committed—
   (a) under subsection (1)(a) unless the person who assaults knows or ought to know that the worker is acting in the course of the worker’s employment, (b) under subsection (1)(b) unless the assault is motivated, in whole or in part, by malice towards the worker by reason of the worker’s employment.

(3) In this section—
   “worker” means a person whose employment involves dealing with members of the public, to any extent, but only if that employment involves—
   (a) being physically present in the same place and at the same time as one or more members of the public, and
   (b) (either or both)—
       (i) interacting with those members of the public for the purposes of the employment, or
       (ii) providing a service to either particular members of the public or the public generally, “employment” in this context means any paid or unpaid work whether under a contract, apprenticeship, or otherwise.

(4) Evidence from a single source is sufficient evidence to establish for the purpose of subsection (1) whether a person is a worker.

(5) A person guilty of an offence under this Act is liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months or to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.’.

John Woodcock

To move the following Clause:—

‘(1) The Secretary of State, no more than six months following Royal Assent of this Act, shall publish proposals for reforms to the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 and other relevant legislation, for consultation, to reduce the evidential burden placed on prosecuting authorities when demonstrating that a psychoactive substance has been supplied, or offered to be supplied, for the purposes of causing intoxication.

(2) Within three months of the consultation exercise referred to in subsection (1), the Secretary of State shall lay before both Houses of Parliament an analysis of the consultation responses and legislative proposals they consider necessary to improve the operation of the 1971 Act and other relevant legislation in relation to the evidential burden in cases relating to the supply of psychoactive substances.’.
