EUROPEAN UNION (REFERENDUM) BILL

Public information on the United Kingdom's membership of the European Union

Emma Reynolds

NC1

To move the following Clause:—

- '(1) It shall be the Government's duty to undertake a public information campaign on the question of EU membership.
  - (2) The public information campaign shall include the preparation of a booklet of no more than 10 pages summarising the meaning of the referendum question, and the possible impact of leaving the EU on the UK economy, the international interests of the United Kingdom, and its political influence globally.
  - (3) It shall summarise the main arguments for and against membership of the European Union.
  - (4) The booklet shall be distributed, so far as is practicable, to all households in the United Kingdom and Gibraltar.'
