NEW SCHEDULES

- Emma Reynolds NS1
- ☆ To move the following Schedule:—

‘TRANSFER OF POWERS

- 1 Subject to section 1(2), a “transfer of power” involves one or more of the following—
- (a) the extension of the objectives of the EU as set out in Article 3 of the Treaty on European Union;

European Union (Referendum) Bill, continued

- (b) the conferring on the EU of a new exclusive competence;
 - (c) the extension of an exclusive competence of the EU;
 - (d) the conferring on the EU of a new competence shared with the member states;
 - (e) the extension of any competence of the EU that is shared with the member states;
 - (f) the extension of the competence of the EU in relation to—
 - (i) the co-ordination of economic and employment policies, or
 - (ii) common foreign and security policy;
 - (g) the conferring on the EU of a new competence to carry out actions to support, co-ordinate or supplement the actions of member states;
 - (h) the extension of a supporting, co-ordinating or supplementing competence of the EU;
 - (i) the conferring on an EU institution or body of power to impose a requirement or obligation on the United Kingdom, or the removal of any limitation on any such power of an EU institution or body;
 - (j) the conferring on an EU institution or body of new or extended power to impose sanctions on the United Kingdom;
 - (k) any amendment of a provision listed in Schedule 1 that removes a requirement that anything should be done unanimously, by consensus or by common accord;
 - (l) any amendment of Article 31(2) of the Treaty on European Union (decisions relating to common foreign and security policy to which qualified majority voting applies) that removes or amends the provision enabling a member of the Council to oppose the adoption of a decision to be taken by qualified majority voting;
 - (m) any amendment of any of the provisions specified in paragraph 3 that removes or amends the provision enabling a member of the Council, in relation to a draft legislative act, to ensure the suspension of the ordinary legislative procedure.
- 2 A transfer of power also includes a reference to the removal of a limitation on a competence.
- 3 The provisions referred to in paragraph 1(m) are—
- (a) Article 48 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (social security),
 - (b) Article 82(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (judicial co-operation in criminal matters), and
 - (c) Article 83(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (particularly serious crime with a cross-border dimension).
- 4 A treaty or Article 48(6) decision does not fall within this section merely because it involves one or more of the following—
- (a) the codification of practice under the Treaty on European Union or the Treaty on the functioning of the European Union in relation to the previous exercise of an existing competence;
 - (b) the making of any provision that applies only to member states other than the United Kingdom;
 - (c) in the case of a treaty, the accession of a new member state.’

☆ To move the following Schedule:—

‘SUPER-AFFIRMATIVE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

- 1 The “super-affirmative resolution procedure” in relation to a draft order under this Act is as follows.
- 2 The Minister must have regard to—
- (a) any representations,
 - (b) any resolution of either House of Parliament, and
 - (c) any recommendations of a committee of either House of Parliament charged with reporting on the draft order,
- made during the 60-day period with regard to the draft order.
- 3 If, after the expiry of the 60-day period, the Minister wishes to make an order in the terms of the draft, he must lay before Parliament a statement—
- (a) stating whether any representations were made under subsection (2)(a); and
 - (b) if any representations were so made, giving details of them.
- 4 The Minister may after the laying of such a statement make an order in the terms of the draft if it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- 5 However, a committee of either House charged with reporting on the draft order may, at any time after the laying of a statement under paragraph 3 and before the draft order is approved by that House under paragraph 4, recommend under this subsection that no further proceedings be taken in relation to the draft order.
- 6 Where a recommendation is made by a committee of either House under paragraph 5 in relation to a draft order, no proceedings may be taken in relation to the draft order in that House under paragraph 4 unless the recommendation is, in the same Session, rejected by resolution of that House.
- 7 If, after the expiry of the 60-day period, the Minister wishes to make an order consisting of a version of the draft order with material changes, he must lay before Parliament—
- (a) a revised draft order; and
 - (b) a statement giving details of—
 - (i) any representations made under paragraph 2(a); and
 - (ii) the revisions proposed.
- 8 The Minister may after laying a revised draft order and statement under paragraph 7 make an order in the terms of the revised draft if it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- 9 However, a committee of either House charged with reporting on the revised draft order may, at any time after the revised draft order is laid under paragraph 7 and before it is approved by that House under paragraph 8, recommend under this paragraph that no further proceedings be taken in relation to the revised draft order.
- 10 Where a recommendation is made by a committee of either House under paragraph 9 in relation to a revised draft order, no proceedings may be taken in relation to the revised draft order in that House under paragraph 8 unless the recommendation is, in the same Session, rejected by resolution of that House.
- 11 For the purposes of paragraphs 4 and 8 an order is made in the terms of a draft order if it contains no material changes to the provisions of the draft order.

- 12 In this section the “60-day period” means the period of 60 days beginning with the day on which the draft order was laid before Parliament under section 1(6).’.
