Amend section 62 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 so as to apply additionally to the possession of pornographic written material about children; to make consequential amendments to the Act; and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Possession of pornographic written material about children

(1) Section 62 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (possession of prohibited images of children) is amended as follows.

(2) In subsection (1), after “prohibited image of a child” insert “or pornographic written material about a child”. 5

(3) After subsection (2) insert—

“(2A) Pornographic written material about a child is written material which—

(a) falls within subsection (6), and

(b) is grossly offensive, disgusting or pornographic or otherwise of an obscene character.” 10

(4) In subsection (3), after “image” insert “or written material”.

(5) After subsection (5) insert—

“(5A) Where (as found in the person’s possession) written material forms part of a series of written material, the question whether the written material is of such a nature as is mentioned in subsection (2A) is to be determined by reference to— 15

(a) the written material itself, and

(b) (if the series of written material is such as to be capable of providing a context for the written material) the context in which it occurs in the series of written material. 20

(5B) So, for example, where—

(a) written material forms an integral part of a narrative constituted by a series of written material, and

(b) having regard to those written materials as a whole, they are not of such a nature that they must reasonably be assumed to have been produced solely or principally for the purpose of sexual arousal, the written material may, by virtue of being part of that narrative, be found not to be pornographic, even though it might have been found to be pornographic if taken by itself.”

(6) In subsection (6), insert “or written material” after the word “image” each time it appears.

2 Short title, commencement and extent

(1) This Act may be cited as the Coroners and Justice (Amendment) Act 2013.

(2) This Act comes into force on the day on which it is passed.

(3) This Act extends to England and Wales, and Northern Ireland.
