IMMIGRATION BILL, AS AMENDED

NEW CLAUSES

Supplementary provision

Secretary Theresa May

Added NC11

To move the following Clause:—

- (1) This section applies if the referral and investigation scheme is extended by an order under section 48 (an “extension order”).
- (2) The Secretary of State may make administrative regulations in connection with the application of the scheme—
  - (a) to proposed marriages or civil partnerships under the law of Scotland (insofar as the scheme is extended to them), and
  - (b) to proposed marriages or civil partnerships under the law of Northern Ireland (insofar as the scheme is extended to them).
- (3) For that purpose “administrative regulations” means regulations of any kind set out in Schedule (Sham marriage and civil partnership: administrative regulations) (sham marriage and civil partnership: administrative regulations).
- (4) The Secretary of State may by order make provision about—
  - (a) the information that must or may be given, or
  - (b) the matters in respect of which evidence must or may be given, in relation to proposed marriages or civil partnerships under the law of Scotland or Northern Ireland in cases where one or both of the parties is not a relevant national.
- (5) An order under subsection (4) may amend, repeal or revoke any enactment (including an enactment contained in this Act or in provision made by an extension order or an order under subsection (4)).
- (6) If an extension order makes provision (“information disclosure provision”) having similar effect to the provision made by paragraph 2 of Schedule 55 about the disclosure of information for immigration purposes, the Secretary of State may by order specify other immigration purposes (in addition to those specified in provision made by an extension order or in any provision made under this subsection) for which information may be disclosed under the information disclosure provision.
- (7) The Secretary of State must consult—

- (a) the Registrar General for Scotland before making administrative regulations, or an order under subsection (4), in relation to proposed marriages or civil partnerships under the law of Scotland;
  - (b) the Registrar General for Northern Ireland before making administrative regulations, or an order under subsection (4), in relation to proposed marriages or civil partnerships under the law of Northern Ireland.
- (8) Expressions used in this section or Schedule (Sham marriage and civil partnership: administrative regulations) that are also used in section 48 have the same meanings in this section or Schedule (Sham marriage and civil partnership: administrative regulations) as in section 48.’.

Power to charge fees for attendance services in particular cases

Secretary Theresa May

Added on division NC12

To move the following Clause:—

- ‘(1) This section applies where a person exercises a function in connection with immigration or nationality in respect of which a fee is chargeable by virtue of a fees order (a “chargeable function”) in a particular case and—
- (a) in doing so attends at a place outside the United Kingdom, and time, agreed with a person (“the client”), and
  - (b) does so at the request of the client.
- It is immaterial whether or not the client is a person in respect of whom the chargeable function is exercised.
- (2) In this section “attendance service” means the service described in subsection (1) except so far as it consists of the exercise of a chargeable function.
- (3) The following are to be disregarded in determining whether a fee is chargeable in respect of a function by virtue of a fees order—
- (a) any exception provided for by a fees order or fees regulations;
  - (b) any power so provided to waive or refund a fee.
- (4) The person exercising the chargeable function may charge the client such fee for the purposes of recovering the costs of providing the attendance service as the person may determine.
- (5) Fees paid to the Secretary of State by virtue of this section must be paid into the Consolidated Fund.
- (6) A fee payable by virtue of this section may be recovered as a debt due to the Secretary of State.
- (7) This section is without prejudice to—
- (a) section 60;
  - (b) section 1 of the Consular Fees Act 1980 (fees for consular acts etc.);
  - (c) section 102 of the Finance (No. 2) Act 1987 (government fees and charges), or
  - (d) any other power to charge a fee.’.

Immigration Bill, continuedDeprivation of citizenship: conduct seriously prejudicial to vital interests of the UK*

Secretary Theresa May

Added on division NC18

To move the following Clause:—

- ‘(1) In section 40 of the British Nationality Act 1981 (deprivation of citizenship), after subsection (4) insert—
- “(4A) But that does not prevent the Secretary of State from making an order under subsection (2) to deprive a person of a citizenship status if—
- (a) the citizenship status results from the person’s naturalisation, and
- (b) the Secretary of State is satisfied that the deprivation is conducive to the public good because the person, while having that citizenship status, has conducted him or herself in a manner which is seriously prejudicial to the vital interests of the United Kingdom, any of the Islands, or any British overseas territory.”
- (2) In deciding whether to make an order under subsection (2) of section 40 of the British Nationality Act 1981 in a case which falls within subsection (4A) of that Act, the Secretary of State may take account of the manner in which a person conducted him or herself before this section came into force.’.

To move the following Clause:—

- ‘(1) This section applies if Her Majesty’s Government enters into negotiations on the terms of an EU accession treaty.
- (2) The Secretary of State must make an assessment of the changes to—
- (a) EU immigration, and
  - (b) the effects of EU immigration in the United Kingdom (including effects on the labour market),
- which could be expected if the proposed member State were to accede to the EU.
- (3) The Secretary of State must make the assessment as soon as the Secretary of State considers it appropriate to do so.
- (4) As soon as practicable after making an assessment, the Secretary of State must lay a copy of the assessment before each House of Parliament.
- (5) In making an assessment, the Secretary of State may make assumptions about the rights to enter and remain in the United Kingdom that nationals of the proposed member State and members of their families could be expected to enjoy if the proposed member State acceded to the EU.
- (6) If the Secretary of State considers it appropriate to do so, the Secretary of State may—
- (a) make a new assessment in place of any assessment previously made under this section, or
  - (b) revise any assessment previously made (or previously revised) under this section; and, in such a case, references in this section and section 2 to an assessment, or to the making of an assessment, are to be read accordingly.

- ‘(1) This section applies if Her Majesty’s Government has agreed the terms of an EU accession treaty.
- (2) As soon as practicable after the terms have been agreed, the Secretary of State must commission an independent accession assessment from—
  - (a) the Migration Advisory Committee, or
  - (b) some other body of persons which is, in the Secretary of State’s view, independent of Her Majesty’s Government and appropriate to advise Her Majesty’s Government on matters relating to immigration.
- (3) An independent accession assessment is a document which assesses the following two matters.
- (4) First, it must assess the changes to—
  - (a) EU immigration, and
  - (b) the effects of EU immigration in the United Kingdom (including effects on the labour market), which are expected after the accession of the proposed member State to the EU.
- (5) Secondly, it must assess the extent to which those changes would adversely affect the interests of the United Kingdom (if the changes were to occur).
- (6) As soon as practicable after the independent accession assessment is received, the Secretary of State must produce an accession report.
- (7) In producing the accession report, the Secretary of State must have regard to the independent accession assessment.
- (8) An accession report is a document which sets out—
  - (a) the Secretary of State’s views on the changes (if any) to EU immigration which are expected after the accession of the proposed member State to the EU; and
  - (b) the Secretary of State’s views on the extent (if any) to which any such changes would adversely affect the interests of the United Kingdom (if the changes were to occur).
- (9) An accession report may include any other material which the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (10) As soon as practicable after producing an accession report, the Secretary of State must lay a copy of the report before each House of Parliament.

- (11) The Secretary of State must comply with subsections (2), (6) and (10) before the EU accession treaty is ratified by the United Kingdom.’

NEW SCHEDULE

Secretary Theresa May

Added NS1

To move the following Schedule:—

‘SHAM MARRIAGE AND CIVIL PARTNERSHIP: ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS

Introduction

- 1 (1) This Schedule sets out the kinds of regulations which may be made by the Secretary of State under section (Supplementary provision)(2).
- (2) In this Schedule—
  - “extension order” has the meaning given in section (Supplementary provision)(1);
  - “proposed Scottish or Northern Ireland marriage or civil partnership” means a proposed marriage or civil partnership under the law of Scotland or Northern Ireland.

Notices

- 2 (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations which make provision about the giving of relevant notices.
- (2) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, provide that a relevant notice given in accordance with the regulations is to be presumed to have been received by the person to whom it is given.
- (3) In this paragraph “relevant notice” means—
  - (a) a notice, under any provision of the referral and investigation scheme, which relates to a proposed Scottish or Northern Ireland marriage or civil partnership, and
  - (b) any other notice relating to the referral of a proposed Scottish or Northern Ireland marriage or civil partnership to the Secretary of State for the purposes of the referral and investigation scheme, (whether or not the notice falls to be given by virtue of provision made by an extension order).

Evidence

- 3 (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations about the supply of evidence in accordance with a relevant evidence provision.
- (2) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make provision about—
  - (a) the kind of evidence which is to be supplied;
  - (b) the form in which evidence is to be supplied;
  - (c) the manner in which evidence is to be supplied;
  - (d) the period within which evidence is to be supplied;

- (e) the supply of further evidence;
  - (f) the sufficiency of evidence supplied;
  - (g) the consequences of failing to supply sufficient evidence in accordance with the regulations (including provision to secure that, in such a case, a particular decision is made or is to be treated as having been made);
  - (h) the retention or copying of evidence supplied.
- (3) In this paragraph—
- “evidence” includes a photograph or other image;
  - “relevant evidence provision” means provision (whether or not made by an extension order) about the supply of evidence in relation to a proposed Scottish or Northern Ireland marriage or civil partnership in a case where one or both of the parties is not a relevant national.

Change of address

- 4 (1) The Secretary of State may, by regulations, make provision about the giving to the Secretary of State of—
- (a) notice of a relevant person’s usual address, if the person’s notified usual address changes;
  - (b) notice of a relevant person’s UK contact address, if the person’s notified usual address is not in the United Kingdom;
  - (c) notice of a relevant person’s UK contact address, if the person’s notified UK contact address changes;
  - (d) evidence of any address notified in accordance with regulations under paragraph (a), (b) or (c).
- (2) Regulations under this paragraph may, in particular, make—
- (a) provision imposing a requirement on a person;
  - (b) provision about the rejection of information or evidence which there are reasonable grounds to suspect to be false.
- (3) Regulations under sub-paragraph (1)(d) may, in particular, make any provision of the kind that may be made under paragraph 3(2).
- (4) In this paragraph—
- “notified”, in relation to an address of a relevant person, means notified (whether to the Secretary of State or another person) in connection with the proposed Scottish or Northern Ireland marriage or civil partnership (including any such address notified in accordance with provision made by an extension order or regulations made under this paragraph);
  - “relevant person” means a person who is a party to a proposed Scottish or Northern Ireland marriage or civil partnership in a case where that person or the other party is not a relevant national (or both of them are not relevant nationals);
  - “UK contact address” means an address in the United Kingdom at which a person can be contacted by post.

Referral

- 5 (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations requiring a person to act in accordance with the regulations when complying with a duty of referral.
- (2) The regulations may, in particular, make provision about—
- (a) the form, manner or timing of the referral;
  - (b) information, photographs or evidence — or copies of any of those things — to be included with the referral.

- (3) The Secretary of State may make regulations requiring a person who refers a proposed marriage or civil partnership in accordance with a duty of referral to give the parties to the proposed marriage information prescribed in the regulations about—
- (a) the effects of the referral;
  - (b) any requirements under regulations under paragraph 4 to notify the Secretary of State of changes of address.
- (4) In this paragraph—
- “duty of referral” means a duty (whether or not contained in provision made by an extension order) to refer a proposed Scottish or Northern Ireland marriage or civil partnership to the Secretary of State for the purposes of the referral and investigation scheme;
  - “referral” means the referral of a proposed Scottish or Northern Ireland marriage or civil partnership under a duty of referral.

Applications for shortening of waiting period

- 6 (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations about the making, and granting, of applications for the shortening of a waiting period in cases where a proposed Scottish or Northern Ireland marriage or civil partnership is referred to the Secretary of State in accordance with a duty of referral.
- (2) Regulations may be made under this paragraph—
- (a) whether the application falls to be made by virtue of provision made by an extension order or otherwise;
  - (b) whether the application falls to be made to the Secretary of State or another person.
- (3) In this paragraph—
- “duty of referral” has the same meaning as in paragraph 5;
  - “waiting period”, in relation to a proposed Scottish or Northern Ireland marriage or civil partnership, means a period during which it is not possible for the marriage to be solemnized or civil partnership to be formed (but which falls after notice of the proposed marriage or civil partnership has been given for the purposes of enabling it to be solemnized or formed in due course).’.
