- (2) Where a notice of recall referendum has been issued, the petition officer shall hold a referendum on the question set out in subsection (3), within a period that is no less than 21 days and no more than 27 days after the date of the notice.
 - (3) The questions that is to appear on the ballot papers in a recall referendum is—

 - (5) A person who is entitled to vote in a recall referendum may do so in person, by post or by proxy.
 - (6) This subsection applies where more votes are cast in a recall referendum in relation to a member of Parliament in favour of the question asked in subsection (3) than against.
 - (7) Where subsection (6) applies, the result of the referendum is that the member’s seat becomes vacant and a by-election will be held.
 - (8) The petition officer must—
 - (a) determine the result of the recall referendum as soon as reasonably practicable after the date on which the referendum took place,
 - (b) immediately notify the member and the Speaker of the result of the referendum, and

(c) as soon as reasonably practicable, publish the result of the referendum.”.

Member’s explanatory statement

Where a recall petition has been successful, this amendment sets down the requirement for a recall referendum: it provides the wording for the recall referendum ballot and if passed for the member’s seat to become vacant. This thereby triggers a by-election.
