Secretary Chris Grayling

To move the following Amendment to the Bill in lieu of the Lords Amendment:—

Secretary Chris Grayling

Agreed to on division (a)

Page 67, line 22, leave out subsection (1) and insert—

“(1) This section applies where—

- (a) a person is granted permission to file evidence or make representations in judicial review proceedings, and
- (b) at that time, the person is not a relevant party to the proceedings.

(1A) That person is referred to in this section as an “intervener”.”

Secretary Chris Grayling

Agreed to on division (b)

Page 67, line 30, leave out subsection (4) and insert—

“(4) On an application to the High Court or the Court of Appeal by a relevant party to the proceedings, if the court is satisfied that a condition described in subsection (4A) is met in a stage of the proceedings that the court deals with, the court must order the intervener to pay any costs specified in the application that the court considers have been incurred by the relevant party as a result of the intervener’s involvement in that stage of the proceedings.

(4A) Those conditions are that—

- (a) the intervener has acted, in substance, as the sole or principal applicant, defendant, appellant or respondent;
- (b) the intervener’s evidence and representations, taken as a whole, have not been of significant assistance to the court;
- (c) a significant part of the intervener’s evidence and representations relates to matters that it is not necessary for the court to consider in order to resolve the issues that are the subject of the stage in the proceedings;
- (d) the intervener has behaved unreasonably.”

Secretary Chris Grayling

Agreed to on division (c)

“and the proceedings described in paragraphs (a) to (d) are “stages” of judicial review proceedings.”

Secretary Chris Grayling

Agreed to on division (d)

Page 68, line 3, leave out from beginning to “directly” in line 6 and insert—

“(a) a person who is or has been an applicant or defendant in the proceedings described in subsection (7)(a), (b) or (c);

Criminal Justice and Courts Bill, continued

- (b) a person who is or has been an appellant or respondent in the proceedings described in subsection (7)(d);
- (c) any other person who is or has been”

Secretary Chris Grayling

Agreed to on division (e)

“() If a person who is an intervener in judicial review proceedings becomes a relevant party to the proceedings, the person is to be treated for the purposes of subsections (2) and (4) as having been a relevant party, rather than an intervener, at all times when involved in the proceedings.”
