CONSIDERATION OF BILL

COUNTER-TERRORISM AND SECURITY BILL, AS AMENDED

NOTE

The Amendments have been arranged in accordance with the Counter-Terrorism and Security Bill Programme (No. 2) Motion to be proposed by Secretary Theresa May.

NEW CLAUSES AND NEW SCHEDULES RELATING TO POWERS TO SEIZE TRAVEL DOCUMENTS OR TEMPORARY EXCLUSION FROM THE UNITED KINGDOM; AMENDMENTS TO PART 1

Yvette Cooper
Mr David Hanson
Diana Johnson
Phil Wilson

NC1

★ To move the following Clause—

“Imposition of temporary exclusion orders

- (1) The Secretary of State may by notice (a “TEO”) impose a “temporary exclusion order” which requires an individual not to return to the United Kingdom on an individual if conditions A to E in section [Conditions A to E] are met.
- (2) In this Act “temporary exclusion order” means requirements, restrictions and other provision which may be made in relation to an individual by virtue of section [Conditions A to E] “prior permission of the court” and Schedule [“Proceedings relating to temporary exclusion orders”].
- (3) An individual subject to a TEO may not return to the UK unless—
  - (a) the return is in accordance with a permit to return issued by the Secretary of State before the individual began the return, or

Counter-Terrorism and Security Bill, *continued

- (b) the return is the result of the individual's deportation to the United Kingdom."

NC2

- ★ To move the following Clause—

“Conditions A to E

- (1) Condition A is that the Secretary of State reasonably suspects that the individual is, or has been, involved in terrorism-related activity outside the United Kingdom.
  - (2) Condition B is that the Secretary of State reasonably considers that it is necessary, for purposes connected with protecting members of the public in the United Kingdom from a risk of terrorism, for a temporary exclusion order to be imposed on the individual.
  - (3) Condition C is that the Secretary of State reasonably considers that the individual is outside the United Kingdom.
  - (4) Condition D is that the individual has the right of abode in the United Kingdom.
  - (5) Condition E is that—
    - (a) the court gives the Secretary of State permission under section 3, or
    - (b) the Secretary of State reasonably considers that the urgency of the case requires a temporary exclusion order to be imposed without obtaining such permission.
  - (6) During the period that a temporary exclusion order is in force, the Secretary of State must keep under review whether condition B is met.”

Yvette Cooper
Mr David Hanson

NC3

- ★ To move the following Clause—

“Prior permission of the court

- (1) This section applies if the Secretary of State—
  - (a) makes the relevant decisions in relation to an individual, and
  - (b) makes an application to the court for permission to impose measures on the individual.
- (2) The application must set out a draft of the proposed TEO notice.
- (3) The function of the court on the application is—
  - (a) to determine whether the relevant decisions of the Secretary of State are obviously flawed, and

Counter-Terrorism and Security Bill, *continued

- (b) to determine whether to give permission to impose measures on the individual and (where applicable) whether to exercise the power of direction under subsection (9).
- (4) The court may consider the application—
  - (a) in the absence of the individual;
  - (b) without the individual having been notified of the application; and
  - (c) without the individual having been given an opportunity (if the individual was aware of the application) of making any representations to the court.
- (5) But that does not limit the matters about which rules of court may be made.
- (6) In determining the application, the court must apply the principles applicable on an application for judicial review.
- (7) In a case where the court determines that a decision of the Secretary of State that condition A, condition B, or condition C is met is obviously flawed, the court may not give permission under this section.
- (8) In any other case, the court may give permission under this section.
- (9) If the court determines that the Secretary of State’s decision that condition D is met is obviously flawed, the court may (in addition to giving permission under subsection (8) give directions to the Secretary of State in relation to the measures to be imposed on the individual.
- (10) In this section “relevant decisions” means the decisions that the following conditions are met—
  - (a) condition A;
  - (b) condition B;
  - (c) condition C; and
  - (d) condition D.”

★ To move the following Schedule—

“PROCEEDINGS RELATING TO TEMPORARY EXCLUSION ORDERS

Introductory

- 1 In this Schedule—
  - “appeal proceedings” means proceedings in the Court of Appeal or the Inner House of the Court of Session on an appeal relating to temporary exclusion order proceedings;
  - “the relevant court” means—
    - (a) in relation to TEO proceedings, the court;
    - (b) in relation to appeal proceedings, the Court of Appeal or the Inner House of the Court of Session;
  - “rules of court” means rules for regulating the practice and procedure to be followed in the court, the Court of Appeal or the Inner House of the Court of Session.

Counter-Terrorism and Security Bill, *continued*Rules of court: general provision*

- 2 (1) A person making rules of court relating to TEO proceedings or appeal proceedings must have regard to the need to secure the following—
  - (a) that the decisions that are the subject of the proceedings are properly reviewed, and
  - (b) that disclosures of information are not made where they would be contrary to the public interest.
- (2) Rules of court relating to TEO proceedings or appeal proceedings may make provision—
  - (a) about the mode of proof and about evidence in the proceedings;
  - (b) enabling or requiring the proceedings to be determined without a hearing;
  - (c) about legal representation in the proceedings;
  - (d) enabling the proceedings to take place without full particulars of the reasons for the decisions to which the proceedings relate being given to a party to the proceedings (or to any legal representative of that party);
  - (e) enabling the relevant court to conduct proceedings in the absence of any person, including a party to the proceedings (or any legal representative of that party);
  - (f) about the functions of a person appointed as a special advocate (see paragraph 10);
  - (g) enabling the court to give a party to the proceedings a summary of evidence taken in the party's absence.
- (3) In this paragraph—
  - (a) references to a party to the proceedings do not include the Secretary of State;
  - (b) references to a party's legal representative do not include a person appointed as a special advocate.
- (4) Nothing in this paragraph is to be read as restricting the power to make rules of court or the matters to be taken into account when doing so.

Rules of court: disclosure

- 3 (1) Rules of court relating to TEO proceedings or appeal proceedings must secure that the Secretary of State is required to disclose—
  - (a) material on which the Secretary of State relies,
  - (b) material which adversely affects the Secretary of State's case, and
  - (c) material which supports the case of another party to the proceedings.
- (2) This paragraph is subject to paragraph 4.
- 4 (1) Rules of court relating to TEO proceedings or appeal proceedings must secure—
  - (a) that the Secretary of State has the opportunity to make an application to the relevant court for permission not to disclose material otherwise than to the relevant court and any person appointed as a special advocate;
  - (b) that such an application is always considered in the absence of every party to the proceedings (and every party's legal representative);
  - (c) that the relevant court is required to give permission for material not to be disclosed if it considers that the disclosure of the material would be contrary to the public interest;

Counter-Terrorism and Security Bill, *continued

- (d) that, if permission is given by the relevant court not to disclose material, it must consider requiring the Secretary of State to provide a summary of the material to every party to the proceedings (and every party's legal representative);
  - (e) that the relevant court is required to ensure that such a summary does not contain material the disclosure of which would be contrary to the public interest.
- (2) Rules of court relating to TEO proceedings or appeal proceedings must secure that provision to the effect mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) applies in cases where the Secretary of State—
- (a) does not receive the permission of the relevant court to withhold material, but elects not to disclose it, or
  - (b) is required to provide a party to the proceedings with a summary of material that is withheld, but elects not to provide the summary.
- (3) The relevant court must be authorised—
- (a) if it considers that the material or anything that is required to be summarised might adversely affect the Secretary of State's case or support the case of a party to the proceedings, to direct that the Secretary of State—
    - (i) is not to rely on such points in the Secretary of State's case, or
    - (ii) is to make such concessions or take such other steps as the court may specify, or
  - (b) in any other case, to ensure that the Secretary of State does not rely on the material or (as the case may be) on that which is required to be summarised.
- (4) In this paragraph—
- (a) references to a party to the proceedings do not include the Secretary of State;
  - (b) references to a party's legal representative do not include a person appointed as a special advocate.

Article 6 rights

- 5 (1) Nothing in paragraphs 2 to 4, or in rules of court made under any of those paragraphs, is to be read as requiring the relevant court to act in a manner inconsistent with Article 6 of the Human Rights Convention.
- (2) The "Human Rights Convention" means the Convention within the meaning of the Human Rights Act 1998 (see section 21(1) of that Act).
- 6 (1) Rules of court relating to TEO proceedings or appeal proceedings may make provision for—
- (a) the making by the Secretary of State or the relevant individual of an application to the court for an order requiring anonymity for that individual, and
  - (b) the making by the court, on such an application, of an order requiring such anonymity;
- and the provision made by the rules may allow the application and the order to be made irrespective of whether any other TEO proceedings have been begun in the court.
- (2) Rules of court may provide for the Court of Appeal or the Inner House of the Court of Session to make an order in connection with any appeal proceedings requiring anonymity for the relevant individual.
- (3) In sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) the references, in relation to a court, to an order requiring anonymity for the relevant individual are references to an order by that court which imposes such prohibition or restriction as it thinks fit on the disclosure—

- (a) by such persons as the court specifies or describes, or
  - (b) by persons generally,
- of the identity of the relevant individual or of any information that would tend to identify the relevant individual.
- (4) In this paragraph “relevant individual” means an individual on whom the Secretary of State is proposing to impose, or has imposed, measures.

Initial exercise of rule-making powers by Lord Chancellor

- 7
- (1) The first time after the passing of this Act that rules of court are made in exercise of the powers conferred by this Schedule in relation to proceedings in England and Wales or in Northern Ireland, the rules may be made by the Lord Chancellor instead of by the person who would otherwise make them.
  - (2) Before making rules of court under sub-paragraph (1), the Lord Chancellor must consult—
    - (a) in relation to rules applicable to proceedings in England and Wales, the Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales;
    - (b) in relation to rules applicable to proceedings in Northern Ireland, the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland.
  - (3) But the Lord Chancellor is not required to undertake any other consultation before making the rules.
  - (4) A requirement to consult under sub-paragraph (2) may be satisfied by consultation that took place wholly or partly before the passing of this Act.
  - (5) Rules of court made by the Lord Chancellor under sub-paragraph (1)—
    - (a) must be laid before Parliament, and
    - (b) if not approved by a resolution of each House before the end of 40 days beginning with the day on which they were made, cease to have effect at the end of that period.
  - (6) In determining that period of 40 days no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days.
  - (7) If rules cease to have effect in accordance with sub-paragraph (5)—
    - (a) that does not affect anything done in previous reliance on the rules, and
    - (b) sub-paragraph (1) applies again as if the rules had not been made.
  - (8) The following provisions do not apply to rules of court made by the Lord Chancellor under this paragraph—
    - (a) section 3(6) of the Civil Procedure Act 1997 (Parliamentary procedure for civil procedure rules);
    - (b) section 56(1), (2) and (4) of the Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978 (statutory rules procedure).
  - (9) Until the coming into force of section 85 of the Courts Act 2003, the reference in sub-paragraph (8)(a) to section 3(6) of the Civil Procedure Act 1997 is to be read as a reference to section 3(2) of that Act.

Use of advisers

- 8
- (1) In any TEO proceedings or appeal proceedings the relevant court may if it thinks fit—
    - (a) call in aid one or more advisers appointed for the purposes of this paragraph by the Lord Chancellor, and

Counter-Terrorism and Security Bill, *continued

- (b) hear and dispose of the proceedings with the assistance of the adviser or advisers.
  - (2) The Lord Chancellor may appoint advisers for the purposes of this paragraph only with the approval of—
    - (a) the Lord President of the Court of Session, in relation to an adviser who may be called in aid wholly or mainly in Scotland;
    - (b) the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland, in relation to an adviser who may be called in aid wholly or mainly in Northern Ireland;
    - (c) the Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales, in any other case.
  - (3) Rules of court may regulate the use of advisers in proceedings who are called in aid under sub-paragraph (1).
  - (4) The Lord Chancellor may pay such remuneration, expenses and allowances to advisers appointed for the purposes of this paragraph as the Lord Chancellor may determine.
- 9
- (1) The Lord President of the Court of Session may nominate a judge of the Court of Session who is a member of the First or Second Division of the Inner House of that Court to exercise the function under paragraph 8(2)(a).
  - (2) The Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland may nominate any of the following to exercise the function under paragraph 8(2)(b)—
    - (a) the holder of one of the offices listed in Schedule 1 to the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2002;
    - (b) a Lord Justice of Appeal (as defined in section 88 of that Act).
  - (3) The Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales may nominate a judicial office holder (as defined in section 109(4) of the Constitutional Reform Act 2005) to exercise the function under paragraph 8(2)(c).

Appointment of special advocate

- 10
- (1) The appropriate law officer may appoint a person to represent the interests of a party in any TEO proceedings or appeal proceedings from which the party (and any legal representative of the party) is excluded.
  - (2) A person appointed under sub-paragraph (1) is referred to in this Schedule as “special advocate”.
  - (3) The “appropriate law officer” is—
    - (a) in relation to proceedings in England and Wales, the Attorney General;
    - (b) in relation to proceedings in Scotland, the Advocate General for Scotland;
    - (c) in relation to proceedings in Northern Ireland, the Advocate General for Northern Ireland.
  - (4) A person appointed as a special advocate is not responsible to the party to the proceedings whose interests the person is appointed to represent.
  - (5) A person may be appointed as a special advocate only if—
    - (a) in the case of an appointment by the Attorney General, the person has a general qualification for the purposes of section 71 of the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990;
    - (b) in the case of an appointment by the Advocate General for Scotland, the person is an advocate or a solicitor who has rights of audience in the Court of Session or the High Court of Justiciary by virtue of section 25A of the Solicitors (Scotland) Act 1980;

- ★ Clause 1, page 1, line 8, at end insert—

“(2) This section shall be repealed on 31 December 2016 unless both Houses of Parliament have passed a resolution that it should continue in force until a future date.

- (3) The date specified in a resolution of both Houses of Parliament under subsection (2) may be modified by subsequent resolutions of both Houses of Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require a vote in Parliament to renew the power to temporarily seize passports.

- ★ Schedule 1, page 30, line 14, at end insert—

“(c) the individual subject whose travel document has been removed may appeal against this decision in the courts over the evidence on which conditions in paragraph 2(1)(a) and (b) of this Schedule were met,

- (d) the Secretary of State must by regulations make provisions about—

- (i) the relevant court;
(ii) a time limit by which an appeal must have been heard;

- (e) the power to make regulations under this section—

- (i) is exercisable by statutory instrument;
(ii) includes power to make transitional, transitory or saving provision;

- (f) a statutory instrument containing regulations under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would create the right for an appeal in court following a temporary seizure of a passport, and requires the Secretary of State to set out in regulations a relevant court and time limit by which an appeal must have been heard.

★ Schedule 1, page 30, line 14, at end insert—

- “(c) the individual subject whose travel document has been removed may appeal against this decision in the courts over the evidence on which conditions in paragraph 2(1)(a) and (b) of this Schedule were met,
- (d) the appeal must have been heard within seven days of an application,
- (e) the Secretary of State must by regulation make provisions about the relevant court,
- (f) the power to make regulations under this section—
  - (i) is exercisable by statutory instrument;
  - (ii) includes power to make transitional, transitory or saving provision;
- (g) a statutory instrument containing regulations under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would create the right for an appeal in court following a temporary seizure of a passport and require the appeal to have been heard within seven days.

- “(iii) any information beyond that which is necessary to allow the identification of the user from the public Internet Protocol address.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would make it explicit that the extra data retention provided for in Clause 17 does not extend beyond that which is necessary for the purpose of identifying a user from the IP address. This amendment is not intended to impact on the rest of the Data Retention and Investigatory Powers Act, only the extra retention requirements created by Clause 17.

- ☆ Clause 24, page 15, line 21, leave out subsection (5) and insert—
- “(5) Before giving guidance under this section, or revising guidance already given, the Secretary of State must lay before Parliament—
- (a) the proposed guidance or proposed revisions; and
  - (b) a draft of an order providing for the guidance, or revisions to the guidance, to come into force.
- (6) The Secretary of State must make the order, and issue the guidance or (as the case may be) make the revisions to the guidance, if the draft of the order is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (7) Guidance, or revisions to guidance, come into force in accordance with an order under this section.
- (8) Such an order—
- (a) is to be a statutory instrument; and
  - (b) may contain transitional, transitory or saving provision.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This would ensure that statutory guidance produced under Clause 24 was subject to an affirmative resolution of each House.

Diana Johnson
Mr David Hanson
Phil Wilson

- ☆ Clause 29, page 17, line 29, leave out subsection (7) and insert—
- “(7) To support panels exercising their functions under this section the Secretary of State must—
- (a) provide guidance on the exercise of those functions;
  - (b) provide a list of approved providers for de-radicalisation programmes that may be referred to under subsection (4); and
  - (c) ensure that the providers listed under paragraph (b) are subject to monitoring.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This would give a greater role to the Secretary of State in supporting the role of local support panels. The Secretary of State would have to provide guidance (rather than it being optional) and she would also have to provide a list of approved providers for de-radicalisation programmes and ensure they would be subject to monitoring.

- ☆ Clause 36, page 22, line 14, leave out subsection (1) and insert—
- “(1) The Secretary of State shall by regulations made by statutory instrument establish a body to—
- (a) provide advice and assistance to the persons appointed under—
    - (i) section 36(1) of the Terrorism Act 2006;
    - (ii) section 31(1) of the Terrorist Asset-Freezing &c. Act 2010; and
    - (iii) section 20(1) of the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011.

in the discharge of their statutory functions.
  - (b) review the operation, effectiveness and implications of the Anti-Terrorism Crime and Security Act 2001, the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008, [this Act] and any other law or prerogative power to the extent that it relates to counter-terrorism;
  - (c) consider whether such legislation contains appropriate safeguards, is proportionate and remains necessary;
  - (d) review intelligence-sharing guidance and practice to the extent that it relates to counter-terrorism and the functions of the Board;
  - (e) make recommendations to any public authority about the exercise of its statutory functions relating to the prevention of terrorism;
  - (f) undertake inquiries relating to counter-terrorism when invited to do so by the Home Secretary, the Treasury or the Secretary of State for Northern Ireland, or on the initiative of the Board;
  - (g) encourage good practice in the prevention, investigation, detection and prosecution of terrorism;
  - (h) provide advice and assistance to Government on the development and implementation of policy relating to the prevention of terrorism.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This expands the remit of the body to match that which is described in the Government’s Terms of Reference for this body.

Diana Johnson
Mr David Hanson
Phil Wilson

- ☆ Clause 36, page 22, line 22, leave out “Privacy and Civil Liberties Board” and insert “Counter Terrorism Oversight Panel”

Member’s explanatory statement

This would rename the body created by clause 36.

- ☆ Clause 36, page 22, line 32, at end insert—
- “(i) the information-gathering powers of the board;
  - (j) reporting requirements, and the formulation of and consultation on an annual work plan; and
  - (k) the access to such relevant classified material as may be required in order for the board to undertake its functions under subsection (1);”

Member’s explanatory statement

This increases the points that have to be included in regulations brought forward by the Secretary of State to include information gathering powers, formulation of an annual work plan and relevant to classified material.

Diana Johnson
Mr David Hanson
Phil Wilson

- ☆ Clause 38, page 23, line 31, at end insert—
- “(4A) The Secretary of State must consult with Welsh Ministers before making provisions under subsection (1) so far as relating to any Measure or Act of the National Assembly of Wales.
  - (4B) The Secretary of State must consult with Scottish Ministers before making provisions under subsection (1) so far as relating any Act or instrument of the Scottish Parliament.
  - (4C) The Secretary of State must consult with the Northern Ireland Executive before making provisions under subsection (1) so far as relating to any Act or instrument of the Northern Ireland Assembly.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This would ensure that the Secretary of State could not amend legislation from the Scottish Parliament or Welsh Assembly or Northern Ireland Assembly without first consulting with the Scottish or Welsh Governments or the Northern Ireland Executive.
