CONSIDERATION OF LORDS MESSAGE

CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND COURTS BILL

On Consideration of a Lords Reason for insisting on an Amendment

Lords Reason No. 74B

Secretary Chris Grayling

To move, That this House insists on its disagreement with the Lords in their Amendment No. 74 but proposes the following amendment to the Bill in lieu of that Amendment:—

- (a)
- Page 72, line 18, at end insert—
- “(6) Subsection (7) applies to an order under this section the effect of which is to bring into force the Secretary of State’s power to provide secure colleges for the detention of any or all of the following—
- (a) persons who are male and aged under 15;
  - (b) persons who are female.
- (7) A statutory instrument containing the order may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (8) The reference in subsection (6) to the Secretary of State’s power to provide secure colleges is to the power under section 43(1)(c) of the Prison Act 1952 (as inserted by section 29 of this Act).”

On Consideration of a Lords Reason for insisting on Amendments

Lords Reason No. 106D

Secretary Chris Grayling

To move, That this House insists on its disagreement with the Lords in their Amendments Nos. 103, 104, 105 and 106 but proposes the following amendments to the Bill in lieu of those amendments:—

“(3AA) Rules of court under subsection (3)(b) that specify information identifying those who are, or are likely to be, sources of financial support must provide that only a person whose financial support (whether direct or indirect) exceeds, or is likely to exceed, a level set out in the rules has to be identified.
This subsection does not apply to rules that specify information described in subsection (3A)(b).””

“(3AA) Tribunal Procedure Rules under subsection (3)(b) that specify information identifying those who are, or are likely to be, sources of financial support must provide that only a person whose financial support (whether direct or indirect) exceeds, or is likely to exceed, a level set out in the rules has to be identified.
This subsection does not apply to rules that specify information described in subsection (3A)(b).””
