Mr Graham Allen

45

Clause 2, page 2, line 4, at end add—

- “(9) A Minister of the Crown in charge of a Bill in either House of Parliament which makes provision with regard to devolved matters must, before Second Reading of the Bill—

- (10) A statement—
- (a) under subsection (9) must be in writing and be published in such manner as the Minister making it considers appropriate; and

Member’s explanatory statement

In paragraph 70 of its Ninth Report of Session 2014-15 (HC 1022), the House of Commons Political and Constitutional Reform Committee suggested that one approach to giving the Sewel Convention the force of statute would be the addition of a requirement for the Government to set out its reasons for legislating on a matter covered by the Sewel Convention without the consent of the Scottish Parliament where it seeks to do so.

 Stewart Hosie
 Dr Eilidh Whiteford
 Joanna Cherry
 Kirsten Oswald

61

Clause 3, page 2, line 9, leave out from “Under the heading” to end of line 29 on page 3 and insert—

“(2) In Part 2 of Schedule 5 to the Scotland Act 1998, for Section B3 (elections) substitute—

“B3 Elections

(A) Elections for membership of the House of Commons and the European Parliament

Elections for membership of the House of Commons and the European Parliament, including the subject matter of —

- (a) the European Parliamentary Elections Act 2002,
- (b) the Representation of the People Act 1983 and the Representation of the People Act 1985, and
- (c) the Parliamentary Constituencies Act 1986,

so far as those enactments apply, or may apply, in respect of such membership.

Interpretation

Paragraph 5(1) of Part 3 of this Schedule does not apply to the subject matter of the European Parliamentary Elections Act 2002; and the reference to the subject matter of that Act is to be construed as a reference to it as at 24 July 2002 (the date that Act received Royal Assent).

(B) Elections for membership of the Parliament and local government elections

The holding of the poll at an ordinary general election for membership of the Parliament on the same day as the poll at—

- (a) a parliamentary general election (other than an early such election),
- (b) a European parliamentary general election, or
- (c) an ordinary local government election in Scotland.

The combination of polls at—

- (a) elections for membership of the Parliament, or
- (b) local government elections,

with polls at elections or referendums that are outside the legislative competence of the Parliament.

Modifying the digital service for the purposes of applications for registration or for verifying information contained in such applications.

The subject matter of Parts 5 and 6 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 in relation to polls at elections that are within the legislative competence of the Parliament where they are combined with polls at elections for membership of the House of Commons and the European Parliament.

Interpretation

“Digital service” has the meaning given by regulation 3(1) of the Representation of the People (Scotland) Regulations 2001 as at the day on which the Scotland Act 2015 received Royal Assent.

Paragraph 5(1) of Part 3 of this Schedule does not apply to the subject matter of Parts 5 and 6 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000; and the reference to the subject-matter of those Parts of that Act is to be read as at the day on which the Scotland Act 2015 received Royal Assent.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides substitute text for the Section B3 Elections reservation in Schedule 5 to the Scotland Act 1998 which makes the effects clearer. Part (A) reserves elections for membership of the House of Commons and the European Parliament. Part (B) refers to Scottish Parliament elections and local government elections in Scotland.

Ian Murray

Secretary David Mundell

Clause 3, page 2, leave out lines 30 to 32 and insert—

92

“Any digital service provided by a Minister of the Crown for the registration of electors.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amends the reservation of the Digital Service to allow for future changes, such as to the operational mechanisms of the Service, subsequent amendments to the Representation of the People (Scotland) Regulations 2001 (SI 2001/497) and for transfers of functions between Ministers.

Secretary David Mundell

Clause 3, page 2, leave out lines 33 to 37 and insert—

93

“The subject matter of—

- (a) Parts 5 and 6 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (expenditure in connection with elections) in relation to an election within the legislative competence of the Parliament, where the poll at the election is combined with the poll at an election for membership of the House of Commons or the European Parliament, and
- (b) sections 145 to 148 and 150 to 154 of that Act (enforcement) as they apply for the purposes of Part 5 or 6, so far as the subject-matter of that Part is reserved by paragraph (a).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment amends the reservation relating to Parts 5 and 6 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 to make clear that sections 145 to 148 and 150 to 154 are also reserved to the extent that those Parts are reserved.

Secretary David Mundell

94

Clause 3, page 3, line 1, leave out from “Act” to end of line 2 and insert “as they apply for the purposes of section 155 or 156, so far as the subject-matter of that section”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment makes drafting changes to the reservation of sections 145 to 148 and 150 to 154 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 in line with amendment 93.

Secretary David Mundell

95

Clause 3, page 3, leave out line 12 and insert—

“(c) sections 12, 21 to 33, 35 to 37, 39 to 57, 58 to 67, 69, 71, 71F, 71G, 71H to 71Y and 140A,”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment amends the reservation of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 so that sections of that Act which have been repealed, make amendments to other legislation or do not relate to elections to the Scottish Parliament are not included in the reservation.

Secretary David Mundell

96

Clause 3, page 3, line 15, after “157”, insert “and 159”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment amends the reservation of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 in B3(B) so that section 158 is not reserved. Section 158 provides for amendments and repeals of other legislation and therefore there is no subject-matter within this section that needs to be reserved.

Secretary David Mundell

97

Clause 3, page 3, line 16, leave out from “154” to end of line 18 and insert “as they apply for the purposes of a provision mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (e), so far as the subject matter of that provision is reserved by those paragraphs.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment makes drafting changes to the reservation of sections 145 to 148 and 150 to 154 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 in line with amendment 93.

 Scotland Bill, continued

Mr Graham Allen

46

Clause 4, page 3, line 42, at end insert “including the automatic registration of eligible electors,”

Member’s explanatory statement

The Amendment would give Scottish Ministers power to make provision for automatic registration for Scottish Parliament and Scottish local elections. In its Fourth Report of Session 2014-15 (HC 232), the House of Commons Political and Constitutional Reform Committee reaffirmed its view that voters should ideally be registered to vote automatically.

Mr Graham Allen

47

Clause 4, page 3, line 42, at end insert—

“(b) about online voting in elections,”

Member’s explanatory statement

The Amendment would give Scottish Ministers power to make provision for online voting for Scottish Parliament and Scottish local elections. According to the House of Commons Political and Constitutional Reform Committee in its Fourth Report of Session 2014-15 (HC 232), online voting could lead to a substantial increase in the level of participation.

Secretary David Mundell

99

Clause 4, page 4, line 30, leave out from “of” to end of line 32 and insert “any digital service provided by a Minister of the Crown for the registration of electors”

This amendment ensures that subsection (4) of new section 12 of the Scotland Act 1998 refers to the amended reservation of the Digital Service (see amendment 92).

Secretary David Mundell

100

Clause 4, page 5, leave out lines 1 to 3

Member’s explanatory statement

Due to amendment 92, a definition of the “digital service” is no longer required.

Secretary David Mundell

101

Clause 5, page 6, line 4, leave out “, or within two months before,”

Member’s explanatory statement

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the regulation-making power of the Scottish Ministers refers to the amended reservation of the Digital Service (see amendment 92).

Secretary David Mundell

103

Clause 6, page 6, line 41, leave out from “(9)” to end of line 7 on page 7 and insert ““elections in Scotland” means—”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment repeals the subsections inserted into the Scotland Act 1998 by section 13 of the Scotland Act 2012. Clause 11 brings the function of making an Order in Council under sections

15(1) and (2) of the 1998 Act within devolved competence and these subsections are therefore no longer required.

Secretary David Mundell

107

Clause 9, page 11, line 7, leave out “and 2” and insert “, 2 and 13”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment repeals section 13 of the Scotland Act 2012. Amendment 106 repeals the amendments section 13 made to the Scotland Act 1998 and therefore this section is no longer required.

Clause 11, page 13, line 42, at end insert—

“(2A) In paragraph 4 of Schedule 4 (protection of Scotland Act 1998 from modification), insert new sub-paragraph—

“(5A) This paragraph does not apply to amendments to Schedule 5, Part II, Head A, Section A1 insofar as they relate to:

- (a) taxes and excise in Scotland,
- (b) government borrowing and lending in Scotland, and
- (c) control over public expenditure in Scotland.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would enable the Scottish Parliament to amend the Scotland Act 1998 to remove the reservation on taxation, borrowing and public expenditure in Scotland, with the effect that the Scottish Parliament could then legislate in these areas to provide for full fiscal autonomy in Scotland.

To move the following Clause—

“Constitutional Convention

- (1) The Prime Minister shall establish a Constitutional Convention within one month of the day on which this act is passed.
- (2) The Chair and Members of the Constitutional Convention shall be appointed in accordance with a process to be laid before, and approved by, resolution in each House of Parliament.
- (3) The Chair of the Constitutional Convention is not permitted to be a Member of Parliament or a member of a political party.
- (4) Members of the Constitutional must include, but not be limited to, the following—
 - (a) members of the public, chosen by lot through the jury system, who shall comprise the majority of those participating in the convention;
 - (b) elected representatives at all levels;
 - (c) representatives of civil society organisations and, in an advisory role, academia.
- (5) The Constitutional Convention shall review and make recommendations in relation to future governance arrangements for the United Kingdom, including but not limited to the following—
 - (a) the role and voting rights of Members of the House of Commons;
 - (b) democratic reform of the House of Lords;
 - (c) further sub-national devolution within England;
 - (d) codification of the constitution.
- (6) The Constitutional Convention shall engage in widespread consultation across the nations and regions of the UK, and must provide a report to both Houses of Parliament by 31 March 2016.
- (7) The Secretary of State must lay before both Houses of Parliament a formal response to each recommendation of the Constitutional Convention within four months of the publication of the final report from the Constitutional Convention.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This New Clause provides an outline for a Constitutional Convention selected from the widest possible number of groups in society to analyse and design future governance arrangements for the United Kingdom, and to report by 31 March 2016.

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Transfer of reserved matters

- (1) Schedule 5 (which defines reserved matters) to the Scotland Act 1998, has effect with the following modifications.
- (2) In Part I (general reservations) omit paragraph 6 (political parties).
- (3) Part II (specific reservations) is omitted.

- (4) Insert Part IIA (UK pensions liability) as follows—

“PART IIA

UK PENSIONS LIABILITY

The consent of the Treasury is required before the enactment of any provision passed by the Scottish Parliament which would affect the liabilities of the National Insurance Fund in respect of old age pensions.”

- (5) In Part III (general provisions) the following provisions referring to Part II of the Schedule are omitted—
- (a) paragraph 3(2);
 - (b) paragraph 4(2)(c).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This Amendment would allow the Scottish Parliament to make provision for the registration and funding of political parties, but would otherwise retain the Part I reserved matters covering the constitution, foreign affairs, public service, defence and treason. It would entirely remove the remaining reservations over financial and economic matters, home affairs, trade and industry, energy, transport, social security, regulation of the professions, employment, health and medicines, media and culture and other miscellaneous matters. The consent of the Treasury would be needed for any changes in old age pensions which would affect the liabilities of the National Insurance Fund.

- (1) The Parliament Act 1911 is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection 2(1), after “other than a Money Bill”, insert “or a Bill amending sections 1 or 2 of the Scotland Act 2015.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The New Clause entrenches the permanence of the Scottish Parliament and the Scottish Government by ensuring that changing Clauses 1 and 2 of the Bill once enacted would be possible only with the consent of both Houses of Parliament.

Mr Graham Allen

NC8

Member’s explanatory statement

The New Clause would require the Scottish Parliament to nominate members to sit in the House of Lords in proportion to Scotland’s share of the United Kingdom population.

Mr Graham Allen

NC9

 - (b) the devolution of legislative and fiscal competence to local authorities within the United Kingdom,
 - (c) electoral reform,

- “(8) But the Parliament of the United Kingdom must not pass Acts applying to Scotland that make provision about a devolved matter without the consent of the Scottish Parliament.

- (a) applies to Scotland and does not relate to reserved matters,
 - (b) modifies the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament, or
 - (c) modifies the functions of any member of the Scottish Government.
- (10) In subsection (8), “Acts” includes any Act, whether a public general Act, a local and personal Act or a private Act.

- (2) After section 28 of the Scotland Act 1998 insert—

“28A Duty to consult the Scottish Government on Bills applying to Scotland

- (1) A Minister of the Crown shall consult Scottish Ministers before introducing any Bill into the Parliament of the United Kingdom for an Act of that Parliament that would make provision applying to Scotland.
- (2) Where the Bill is for an Act making provision that would require the consent of the Scottish Parliament by virtue of section 28(8), the requirement to consult under subsection (1) includes a requirement that a Minister of the Crown give the Scottish Ministers a copy of the provisions of the Bill that apply to Scotland no later than—
 - (a) 21 days before the proposed date of introduction, or
 - (b) such later date as the Scottish Ministers may agree.
- (3) The requirement in subsection (2) does not apply if—

- (4) The reference in subsection (1) to an Act of Parliament is a reference to any Act whether a public general Act, a local and personal Act or a private Act.””
