★ Clause 12, page 14, line 14, at end insert—

“() The Scottish Parliament may determine the level of each threshold of income at which a Scottish taxpayer becomes liable for income tax at any of the rates set by the Scottish Parliament;”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows the Scottish Parliament to decide at what threshold of income Scottish taxpayers should have to pay the basic rate or any of the other income tax rates to be set by the Scottish Parliament.

NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Independent Commission on Full Fiscal Autonomy

- (1) The Secretary of State shall appoint a commission of between four and eleven members to conduct an analysis of the impact of full fiscal autonomy on the Scottish economy, labour market and public finances and to report by 31 March 2016.
- (2) No Member of the House of Commons or of the Scottish Parliament may be a member of the commission.
- (3) No employee of the Scottish Government or of any government Department or agency anywhere in the United Kingdom may be a member of the commission.
- (4) The Secretary of State shall appoint as members of the commission only persons who appear to the Secretary of State to hold a relevant qualification or to have relevant experience.
- (5) The Secretary of State shall not appoint as a member of the commission any person who is a member of a political party.
- (6) Before appointing any member of the commission, the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the Chair of any select committee appointed by the House of Commons to consider Scottish affairs, and
 - (b) the Chair of any select committee appointed by the House of Commons to examine the expenditure, administration and policy of Her Majesty’s Treasury and its associated public bodies.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations issue the commission with terms of reference and guidelines for the commission’s working methods, including an outline definition of the policy of full fiscal autonomy for the commission to analyse.
- (8) The Secretary of State must lay copies of the report of the commission before both Houses of Parliament, and must transmit a copy of the report of the commission to the presiding officer of the Scottish Parliament.
- (9) Regulations under this section must be made by statutory instrument, subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This New Clause requires the Secretary of State for Scotland to establish an independent commission of external experts, appointed in consultation with the Treasury Select Committee and Scottish Affairs Select Committee, to publish a report by 31 March 2016 setting out an analysis of the impact of the policy of Full Fiscal Autonomy on the Scottish economy, labour market and public finances.

NC20

To move the following Clause—

“Review of operation of VAT refund schemes in Scotland

- (1) The Treasury shall, within six months of the day on which this Act is passed, publish and lay before the House of Commons a review of the application of VAT refund schemes for businesses in Scotland.
- (2) The review must include an analysis of the impact of the qualifying criteria for the VAT refund schemes—
 - (a) in Section 33 of the VAT Act 1994, and
 - (b) for Government Departments and the NHS, on the level of VAT payable by Police Scotland and by the Scottish Fire and Rescue Service.”

Member’s explanatory statement

Following the amalgamation of the (formerly regional) Scottish fire and rescue services and Scottish police forces into a single fire service (the Scottish Fire and Rescue Service) and a single police force (Police Scotland) respectively, they are no longer eligible for VAT exemptions under the VAT refund schemes mentioned. This amendment requires the Treasury to carry out and publish a review of the schemes in Scotland, and in particular in relation to the level of VAT payable by Police Scotland and the Scottish Fire and Rescue Service.

NC21

To move the following Clause—

“The Scottish Office for Budget Responsibility

- (1) Part 2 of Schedule 5 to the Scotland Act 1998 (specific reservations) is amended as follows.
- (2) In Section A1 (fiscal, economic and monetary policy)—
 - (a) For the heading “Exception” substitute “Exceptions”—
 - (b) After that heading, insert—

“The creation of a body corporate, called The Scottish Office for Budget Responsibility, for the independent scrutiny of Scotland’s public finances, including all tax and spending in areas for which the Scottish Government has legislative competence.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This New Clause would provide for the creation of a Scottish Office for Budget Responsibility to exercise fiscal and budgetary oversight over Scottish Government competencies. The Smith Commission recommended that the Scottish Parliament should seek to expand and strengthen the independent scrutiny of Scotland’s public finances in recognition of the additional variability and uncertainty that further tax and spending devolution will introduce into the budgeting process.

Mr Graham Allen

NC23

To move the following Clause—

“Local Discretionary Taxation

Individual local authorities in Scotland shall have the discretion to raise additional income by levying a tax, in addition to Council Tax and Non-Domestic Rates, on either residents, occupiers, property owners or visitors in the local authority or within a discrete area of the local authority.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The power will enable local authorities to introduce tax(es) without the need to seek approval from Scottish Government, with the rates and reliefs being determined locally and the local authority being both granted powers to ensure that those on which the tax is levied have a legal obligation to pay and the local authority having the discretion to determine how the additional revenue is expended.

Mr Graham Allen

NC24

To move the following Clause—

“Tax and Economy Forum

- (1) The Secretary of State shall appoint a Tax and Economy Forum to conduct an analysis of the impact of the changes in legislative and executive competence resulting from this Act on the economy, labour market and public finances in Scotland and in the other parts of the United Kingdom.
- (2) The Tax and Economy Forum may make recommendations for fiscal reforms within Scotland, to be considered by the Secretary of State.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The new Clause would require the appointment of a Tax and Economy Forum to assess the impacts of fiscal devolution proposed within this Bill on Scotland and on the rest of the United Kingdom.

Mr Graham Allen

NC25

To move the following Clause—

“UK Commission on fiscal powers

- (1) Within 6 months of the day on which this Act is passed, the Secretary of State shall appoint a commission to examine the deployment of fiscal powers at local, devolved and United Kingdom levels.
- (2) The commission shall comprise between 4 and 6 representatives of any of—
 - (a) the Scottish Parliament,
 - (b) the National Assembly for Wales,
 - (c) the Northern Ireland Assembly,
 - (d) local government,
 - (e) the House of Commons, and

- (f) the House of Lords.
- (3) The bodies mentioned in subsection (2) shall select their representatives in any way they see fit and the chief executive or presiding officer of each of those bodies shall inform the Secretary of State of the names of the representatives of those bodies, which may replace their representatives whenever the body concerned has determined to do so.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), the commission may determine its own quorum and methods of working and must publish a protocol setting out its own terms of reference.
- (5) The commission shall keep the operation of fiscal powers under review, making reports and recommendations as it deems appropriate.

Member's explanatory statement

The purpose of this New Clause is to ensure that there is proper consultation between the different parts of the United Kingdom to ensure that new Scottish fiscal powers are deployed in a way that does not undermine the cohesion of the UK. The proposed Commission could also make recommendation regarding the future of devolved fiscal powers.

- ☆ To move the following Clause—

“Treasury Review of the implementation of Scottish rates of income tax

- (1) The Treasury shall, no later than one year after the date on which this Act is passed, publish and lay before the House of Commons a review of the implementation of the Scottish basic rate and any other income tax rates for the purposes of section 11A of the Income Tax Act 2007.
- (2) The Treasury review must include—
- (a) a review of the revised fiscal framework;
 - (b) the tax year to which sections 12 and 13 of this Act will apply, and the day on which they are due to come into force;
 - (c) the number of staff assigned by the Scottish Government, Revenues Scotland and Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, to the project implementing the Scottish basic rate, and any other rates;
 - (d) a report on the identification of Scottish taxpayers who will be liable to pay the Scottish basic rate, and other rates;
 - (e) the rates and bands at which the Scottish basic rate, and any other rates, have been set by the Scottish Parliament; and
 - (f) a projection of the impact of the Scottish basic rate, and any other rates, on income tax revenues generated in Scotland and across the UK.”

Member's explanatory statement

This New Clause would provide for a review of the progress in implementing the new Scottish rate of income tax. This will include a review of the revised fiscal framework, a task that will hereafter be undertaken by the Scottish Office for Budget Responsibility.

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Full fiscal autonomy for Scotland

- (1) The Scottish Government and the Government of the United Kingdom must enter into an agreement (the “Economic Agreement”)—
 - (a) setting out a plan for implementation of full fiscal autonomy for Scotland, and
 - (b) establishing a framework within which the two Governments are to coordinate their economic and fiscal policies in the context of full fiscal autonomy for Scotland.
- (2) Full fiscal autonomy for Scotland means that—
 - (a) the Scottish Parliament and Scottish Government have competence for determining revenues raised in or as regards Scotland through taxation and borrowing,
 - (b) the Scottish Parliament and Scottish Government have competence for determining levels of public expenditure in or as regards Scotland,in accordance with the amendments made by this Act.
- (3) The framework mentioned in subsection (1)(b) must in particular include arrangements for—
 - (a) facilitating fiscal coordination,
 - (b) overseeing economic cooperation,
 - (c) joint responsibilities in areas of mutual interest,
 - (d) safeguarding fiscal sustainability.
- (4) In determining the terms of the Economic Agreement the two governments must seek to ensure—
 - (a) the maintenance of monetary stability throughout the United Kingdom,
 - (b) the maintenance and promotion of the single markets in the United Kingdom and the European Union,
 - (c) that they cooperate in the exercise of their respective functions relating to the administration and collection of taxes,
 - (d) an equitable and transparent approach to consequences, resources and rewards,
 - (e) that the Scottish Parliament and the Scottish Government retain the benefits of increased tax revenues delivered by successful policies pursued by them,
 - (f) that the Scottish Parliament and the Scottish Government have the powers necessary to manage the consequences of full fiscal autonomy for Scotland,
 - (g) that full fiscal autonomy for Scotland is implemented over a period of time, as the Scottish Parliament and the Scottish Government acquire capacity to carry out their additional competences.
- (5) The Economic Agreement is to be entered into as soon as possible and the two governments must cooperate in good faith with a view to achieving that.
- (6) As soon as possible after the Economic Agreement is entered into—

- (a) the Scottish Ministers must lay a copy of it before the Scottish Parliament, and
 - (b) the Secretary of State must lay a copy of it before both Houses of Parliament.
- (7) The two governments must from time to time review the Economic Agreement and make such amendments to its terms as they may agree with a view to ensuring that it continues to meet the requirements of this section.
- (8) Subsection (6) applies to the Economic Agreement as amended as it applies to the Agreement as entered into.
- (9) The Secretary of State may, with the agreement of the Scottish Ministers, by regulations modify this section.
- (10) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (9) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Scottish and UK governments to reach agreement on the delivery of full fiscal autonomy for Scotland.

- ★ Clause 19, page 21, line 39, leave out from “of” to the end of line 7 on page 22 and insert “a disabled person or person with a physical or mental impairment or health condition in respect of effects or needs arising from that disability, impairment or health condition.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The current definition of ‘disability benefit’ used in the Bill is restrictive and could place unnecessary limits on the kind of replacement benefit the Scottish Government has the power to introduce. It may not, for example, allow the Scottish Government to introduce a benefit to assist people with very low level disabilities or those for whom the effect of their disability is largely financial.

Ian Murray

- (1) A function of making regulations to which this section applies, so far as it is exercisable by the Secretary of State in or as regards Scotland, is exercisable by the Scottish Ministers concurrently with the Secretary of State.
- (2) This section applies to—
 - (a) regulations under section 8(3)(a) of the Welfare Reform Act 2012 (amount in respect of earned income) so far relating to the work allowance (that is, the amount of a claimant’s earned income that is to be disregarded in calculating the amounts to be deducted from the maximum amount in accordance with section 8(3) of that Act),
 - (b) regulations under section 10 of that Act (amount in respect of responsibility for children and young persons),
 - (c) regulations under section 12 of that Act (amounts in respect of other particular needs or circumstances) so far as relating to—
 - (i) the needs or circumstances referred to in subsection (2)(c) of that section (caring responsibilities for a severely disabled person), or
 - (ii) needs or circumstances of a claimant in paid work relating to childcare costs,
 - (d) regulations under any of sections 14 to 22, 24 and 25 of that Act (work-related requirements), and
 - (e) regulations under any of sections 26 to 28 of that Act (sanctions).
- (3) The Scottish Ministers may not exercise the function of making regulations to which this section applies unless they have consulted the Secretary of State.
- (4) The Secretary of State may not exercise the function of making regulations to which this section applies in or as regards Scotland unless he or she has consulted the Scottish Ministers.
- (5) Where regulations are made by the Scottish Ministers by virtue of subsection (1)—
 - (a) section 43 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012 (regulations: procedure) does not apply, and

- (2) After section 51 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (Fixed penalty offences) insert new section 51A—

“51A Offences under Road Traffic Act 1988

- (1) Any offence in respect of a vehicle under regulations made by Scottish Ministers under section 41(5) (Regulation of construction, weight, equipment and use of vehicles) of the Road Traffic Act 1988 is a fixed penalty offence for the purposes of this Part of this Act if it is specified as such in those regulations, but subject to subsection (2) below.
- (2) An offence under an enactment so specified is not a fixed penalty offence for those purposes if it is committed by causing or permitting a vehicle to be used by another person in contravention of any provision made or restriction or prohibition imposed by or under any enactment.”
- (3) Before proposing a change in regulation of a subject matter falling under this section, Scottish Ministers shall—
- (a) consult the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) publish and lay before the Scottish Parliament an assessment of the impact on road safety of any difference between the proposed change in Scotland and road traffic rules in other parts of the United Kingdom.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is intended to ensure that offences in relation to parking on pavements can be enforced by the Scottish Parliament. Other offences would be unaffected. To move the following Clause—

“Local authority’s power of general competence

- (1) A local authority has power to do anything that individuals generally may do.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to things that an individual may do even though they are in nature, extent or otherwise—
 - (a) unlike anything the authority may do apart from subsection (1), or
 - (b) unlike anything that other public bodies may do.
- (3) In this section “individual” means an individual with full capacity.
- (4) Where subsection (1) confers power on the authority to do something, it confers power (subject to sections (Boundaries of the general power) to (Limits on doing

- (a) power to do it anywhere in the United Kingdom or elsewhere,
 - (b) power to do it for a commercial purpose or otherwise for a charge, or without charge, and
 - (c) power to do it for, or otherwise than for, the benefit of the authority, its area or persons resident or present in its area.
- (5) The generality of the power conferred by subsection (1) (“the general power”) is not limited by the existence of any other power of the authority which (to any extent) overlaps the general power.
- (6) Any such other power is not limited by the existence of the general power (but see section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(2)).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This series of new Clauses seeks to introduce a general power of competence for Scottish local authorities, putting it beyond doubt that they may do anything that is not expressly prohibited by law. It seeks to go further than the power of wellbeing already afforded to Scottish local authorities. The proposals seek to give councils the capacity to do anything that an individual can do. Therefore, this would not enable a local authority to introduce a tax or wage war, but it would ensure that local government has the ability to use the power of general competence in the most sensible and constructive way for the benefit of the people and communities whom they serve.

To move the following Clause—

“Boundaries of the general power

- (1) If exercise of a pre-commencement power of a local authority is subject to restrictions, those restrictions apply also to exercise of the general power so far as it is overlapped by the pre-commencement power.
- (2) The general power does not enable a local authority to do—
 - (a) anything which the authority is unable to do by virtue of a pre-commencement limitation, or
 - (b) anything which the authority is unable to do by virtue of a post-commencement limitation which is expressed to apply—
 - (i) to the general power,
 - (ii) to all of the authority’s powers, or
 - (iii) to all of the authority’s powers but with exceptions that do not include the general power.
- (3) The general power does not confer power to make or alter—
 - (a) arrangements of a kind which may be made under sections 56 (arrangements for discharge of authority’s functions by committees, joint committees, officers etc.) or 62B (establishment of joint boards) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973,
 - (b) any other arrangements that authorise a person to exercise a function of a local authority.
- (4) In this section—
 - “post-commencement limitation” means a prohibition, restriction or other limitation expressly imposed by a statutory provision that—
 - (a) is contained in an Act passed after the day on which this Act is passed or

- (b) is contained in an instrument made under an Act and comes into force on or after the commencement of section (Local authority's general power of competence),

“pre-commencement limitation” means a prohibition, restriction or other limitation expressly imposed by a statutory provision that—

- (a) is contained in this Act, or in any other Act passed no later than the day on which this Act is passed, or
- (b) is contained in an instrument made under an Act and comes into force before the commencement of section (Local authority's general power of competence),

“pre-commencement power” means power conferred by a statutory provision that—

- (a) is contained in this Act, or in any other Act passed no later than the day on which this Act is passed, or
- (b) is contained in an instrument made under an Act and comes into force before the commencement of section (Local authority's general power of competence).⁷

This new Clause is linked to the new Clause on a local authority power of general competence (NC12).

Mr Graham Allen

NC14

To move the following Clause—

“Limits on charging in exercise of general power

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
- (a) a local authority provides a service to a person otherwise than for a commercial purpose, and
- (b) its providing the service to the person is done, or could be done, in exercise of the general power.
- (2) The general power confers power to charge the person for providing the service to the person only if—
- (a) the service is not one that a statutory provision requires the authority to provide to the person,
- (b) the person has agreed to its being provided, and
- (c) ignoring this section and section 1 of the Local Authorities (Goods and Services) Act 1970 (supply of goods and services by local authorities), the authority does not have power to charge for providing the service.
- (3) The general power is subject to a duty to secure that, taking one financial year with another, the income from charges allowed by subsection (2) does not exceed the costs of provision.

- (4) The duty under subsection (3) applies separately in relation to each kind of service.”

To move the following Clause—

“Limits on doing things for commercial purpose in exercise of general power

- (1) The general power confers power on a local authority to do things for a commercial purpose only if they are things which the authority may, in exercise of the general power, do otherwise than for a commercial purpose.
- (2) Where, in exercise of the general power, a local authority does things for a commercial purpose, the authority must do them through a company.
- (3) A local authority may not, in exercise of the general power, do things for a commercial purpose in relation to a person if a statutory provision requires the authority to do those things in relation to the person.
- (4) In this section “company” means—
 - (a) a company within the meaning given by section 1(1) of the Companies Act 2006, or
 - (b) a registered society within the meaning the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014 or a society registered or deemed to be registered under the Industrial and Provident Societies Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause is linked to the new Clause on a local authority power of general competence (NC12).

Mr Graham Allen

NC16

To move the following Clause—

“Powers to make supplementary provision

- (1) If the Scottish Ministers think that a statutory provision (whenever passed or made) prevents or restricts local authorities from exercising the general power, the Scottish Ministers may by regulations amend, repeal, revoke or disapply that provision.
- (2) If the Scottish Ministers think that the general power is overlapped (to any extent) by another power then, for the purpose of removing or reducing that overlap, the Scottish Minister may by regulations amend, repeal, revoke or disapply any statutory provision (whenever passed or made).
- (3) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision preventing local authorities from doing, in exercise of the general power, anything which is specified, or is of a description specified, in the regulations.

- (4) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations provide for the exercise of the general power by local authorities to be subject to conditions, whether generally or in relation to doing anything specified, or of a description specified, in the regulations.
- (5) The power under subsection (1), (2), (3) or (4) may be exercised in relation to—
 - (a) all local authorities,
 - (b) particular local authorities, or
 - (c) particular descriptions of local authority.
- (6) The power under subsection (1) or (2) to amend or disapply a statutory provision includes power to amend or disapply a statutory provision for a particular period.
- (7) Before making regulations under subsection (1), (2), (3) or (4) the Scottish Ministers must consult—
 - (a) such local authorities,
 - (b) such representatives of local government, and
 - (c) such other persons (if any),

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may not make provision under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1) unless the Scottish Ministers consider that the conditions in subsection (2), where relevant, are satisfied in relation to that provision.
- (2) Those conditions are that—
 - (a) the effect of the provision is proportionate to the policy objective intended to be secured by the provision,
 - (b) the provision, taken as a whole, strikes a fair balance between the public interest and the interests of any person adversely affected by it,
 - (c) the provision does not remove any necessary protection,
 - (d) the provision does not prevent any person from continuing to exercise any right or freedom which that person might reasonably expect to continue to exercise,
 - (e) the provision is not of constitutional significance.
- (3) Regulations under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1) may not make provision for the delegation or transfer of any function of legislating.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) a function of legislating is a function of legislating by order, rules, regulations or other subordinate instrument.

- (5) Regulations under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1) may not make provision to abolish or vary any tax.”

- (2) If, after the conclusion of the consultation required by section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(7) and subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers consider it appropriate to proceed with the making of regulations under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1), the Scottish Ministers must, when laying a draft of the regulations, also lay before the Scottish Parliament an explanatory document explaining the proposals and giving details of—
 - (a) the Scottish Ministers' reasons for considering that the conditions in section (Limits on power under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1))(2), where relevant, are satisfied in relation to the proposals,
 - (b) any consultation undertaken under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(7) and subsection (1),
 - (c) any representations received as a result of the consultation, and
 - (d) the changes (if any) made as a result of those representations.
- (3) If provision under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(2) is included in draft regulations under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1) laid in the circumstances described in subsection (2), the explanatory document laid with the draft regulations must also explain the proposals under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(2) and give details of any consultation undertaken under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(7) with respect to those proposals.
- (4) Section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(7) does not apply to regulations under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(3) or (4) which are made only for the purpose of amending earlier such regulations—
 - (a) so as to extend the earlier regulations, or any provision of the earlier regulations, to a particular authority or to authorities of a particular description, or

- (b) so that the earlier regulations, or any provision of the earlier regulations, ceases to apply to a particular authority or to authorities of a particular description.”
