Mr Graham Allen

To move the following Clause—

“Local authority’s power of general competence
(1) A local authority has power to do anything that individuals generally may do.
(2) Subsection (1) applies to things that an individual may do even though they are in nature, extent or otherwise—
(a) unlike anything the authority may do apart from subsection (1), or
(b) unlike anything that other public bodies may do.
(3) In this section “individual” means an individual with full capacity.
(4) Where subsection (1) confers power on the authority to do something, it confers power (subject to sections (Boundaries of the general power) to (Limits on doing things for commercial purposes in exercise of general power)) to do it in any way whatever, including—
(a) power to do it anywhere in the United Kingdom or elsewhere,
(b) power to do it for a commercial purpose or otherwise for a charge, or without charge, and
(c) power to do it for, or otherwise than for, the benefit of the authority, its area or persons resident or present in its area.
(5) The generality of the power conferred by subsection (1) (“the general power”) is not limited by the existence of any other power of the authority which (to any extent) overlaps the general power.
(6) Any such other power is not limited by the existence of the general power (but see section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(2)).”

Mr Graham Allen

To move the following Clause—

“Boundaries of the general power
(1) If exercise of a pre-commencement power of a local authority is subject to restrictions, those restrictions apply also to exercise of the general power so far as it is overlapped by the pre-commencement power.

(2) The general power does not enable a local authority to do—
   (a) anything which the authority is unable to do by virtue of a pre-commencement limitation, or
   (b) anything which the authority is unable to do by virtue of a post-commencement limitation which is expressed to apply—
       (i) to the general power,
       (ii) to all of the authority’s powers, or
       (iii) to all of the authority’s powers but with exceptions that do not include the general power.

(3) The general power does not confer power to make or alter—
   (a) arrangements of a kind which may be made under sections 56 (arrangements for discharge of authority’s functions by committees, joint committees, officers etc.) or 62B (establishment of joint boards) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973,
   (b) any other arrangements that authorise a person to exercise a function of a local authority.

(4) In this section—
   “post-commencement limitation” means a prohibition, restriction or other limitation expressly imposed by a statutory provision that—
   (a) is contained in an Act passed after the day on which this Act is passed or
   (b) is contained in an instrument made under an Act and comes into force on or after the commencement of section (Local authority’s general power of competence),
   “pre-commencement limitation” means a prohibition, restriction or other limitation expressly imposed by a statutory provision that—
   (a) is contained in this Act, or in any other Act passed no later than the day on which this Act is passed, or
   (b) is contained in an instrument made under an Act and comes into force before the commencement of section (Local authority’s general power
       of competence),
   “pre-commencement power” means power conferred by a statutory provision that—
   (a) is contained in this Act, or in any other Act passed no later than the day on which this Act is passed, or
   (b) is contained in an instrument made under an Act and comes into force
       before the commencement of section (Local authority’s general power of competence).’

Mr Graham Allen

To move the following Clause—

“Limits on charging in exercise of general power

(1) Subsection (2) applies where—
   (a) a local authority provides a service to a person otherwise than for a commercial purpose, and
   (b) its providing the service to the person is done, or could be done, in exercise of the general power.

(2) The general power confers power to charge the person for providing the service to the person only if—
   (a) the service is not one that a statutory provision requires the authority to provide to the person,
   (b) the person has agreed to its being provided, and
   (c) ignoring this section and section 1 of the Local Authorities (Goods and Services) Act 1970 (supply of goods and services by local authorities), the authority does not have power to charge for providing the service.

(3) The general power is subject to a duty to secure that, taking one financial year with another, the income from charges allowed by subsection (2) does not exceed the costs of provision.

(4) The duty under subsection (3) applies separately in relation to each kind of service.”

“Limits on doing things for commercial purpose in exercise of general power

(1) The general power confers power on a local authority to do things for a commercial purpose only if they are things which the authority may, in exercise of the general power, do otherwise than for a commercial purpose.

(2) Where, in exercise of the general power, a local authority does things for a commercial purpose, the authority must do them through a company.

(3) A local authority may not, in exercise of the general power, do things for a commercial purpose in relation to a person if a statutory provision requires the authority to do those things in relation to the person.

(4) In this section “company” means—
   (a) a company within the meaning given by section 1(1) of the Companies Act 2006, or
   (b) a registered society within the meaning the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014 or a society registered or deemed to be registered under the Industrial and Provident Societies Act (Northern Ireland) 1969.”

“Powers to make supplemental provision

(1) If the Scottish Ministers think that a statutory provision (whenever passed or made) prevents or restricts local authorities from exercising the general power, the Scottish Ministers may by regulations amend, repeal, revoke or disapply that provision.

(2) If the Scottish Ministers think that the general power is overlapped (to any extent) by another power then, for the purpose of removing or reducing that overlap, the Scottish Minister may by regulations amend, repeal, revoke or disapply any statutory provision (whenever passed or made).

(3) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision preventing local authorities from doing, in exercise of the general power, anything which is specified, or is of a description specified, in the regulations.

(4) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations provide for the exercise of the general power by local authorities to be subject to conditions, whether generally or in relation to doing anything specified, or of a description specified, in the regulations.

(5) The power under subsection (1), (2), (3) or (4) may be exercised in relation to—
   (a) all local authorities,
   (b) particular local authorities, or
   (c) particular descriptions of local authority.

(6) The power under subsection (1) or (2) to amend or disapply a statutory provision includes power to amend or disapply a statutory provision for a particular period.

(7) Before making regulations under subsection (1), (2), (3) or (4) the Scottish Ministers must consult—
   (a) such local authorities,
   (b) such representatives of local government, and
   (c) such other persons (if any),
   as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.”

Mr Graham Allen

To move the following Clause—

“Limits on power under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1)

(1) The Scottish Ministers may not make provision under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1) unless the Scottish Ministers consider that the conditions in subsection (2), where relevant, are satisfied in relation to that provision.

(2) Those conditions are that—
   (a) the effect of the provision is proportionate to the policy objective intended to be secured by the provision,
   (b) the provision, taken as a whole, strikes a fair balance between the public interest and the interests of any person adversely affected by it,
   (c) the provision does not remove any necessary protection,
   (d) the provision does not prevent any person from continuing to exercise any right or freedom which that person might reasonably expect to continue to exercise,
   (e) the provision is not of constitutional significance.

(3) Regulations under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1) may not make provision for the delegation or transfer of any function of legislating.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) a function of legislating is a function of legislating by order, rules, regulations or other subordinate instrument.
(5) Regulations under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1) may not make provision to abolish or vary any tax.”

Mr Graham Allen

To move the following Clause—

“Procedure for regulations under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)

(1) If, as a result of any consultation required by section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(7) with respect to proposed regulations under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1), it appears to the Scottish Ministers that it is appropriate to change the whole or any part of the Scottish Ministers’ proposals, the Scottish Ministers must undertake such further consultation with respect to the changes as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.

(2) If, after the conclusion of the consultation required by section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(7) and subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers consider it appropriate to proceed with the making of regulations under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1), the Scottish Ministers must, when laying a draft of the regulations, also lay before the Scottish Parliament an explanatory document explaining the proposals and giving details of—

(a) the Scottish Ministers’ reasons for considering that the conditions in section (Limits on power under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1))(2), where relevant, are satisfied in relation to the proposals,

(b) any consultation undertaken under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(7) and subsection (1),

(c) any representations received as a result of the consultation, and

(d) the changes (if any) made as a result of those representations.

(3) If provision under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(2) is included in draft regulations under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(1) laid in the circumstances described in subsection (2), the explanatory document laid with the draft regulations must also explain the proposals under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(2) and give details of any consultation undertaken under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(7) with respect to those proposals.

(4) Section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(7) does not apply to regulations under section (Powers to make supplemental provision)(3) or (4) which are made only for the purpose of amending earlier such regulations—

(a) so as to extend the earlier regulations, or any provision of the earlier regulations, to a particular authority or to authorities of a particular description, or

(b) so that the earlier regulations, or any provision of the earlier regulations, ceases to apply to a particular authority or to authorities of a particular description.”
“Local authority’s general power of competence: interpretation

In this Part—

“the general power” means the power conferred by section (Local authority’s general power of competence)(1),

“statutory provision” means a provision of an Act or of an instrument made under an Act.”

Mr Graham Allen

To move the following Clause—

“Competences of local government in Scotland

(1) The First Minster must, after consultation with representatives from local government in Scotland, publish a list of competences of local government in Scotland.

(2) After the list has been published, the First Minster may not publish any amended list of competences of local government in Scotland without first obtaining approval of the revised list consent from

(a) the Scottish Parliament, with two-thirds of its membership voting in favour of the amended list, and

(b) the Convention of Scottish Local Authorities.”

Mr Graham Allen

To move the following Clause—

“Subsidiarity

That Subsidiarity as defined by the Maastricht Treaty 1992 Article 5(3) shall apply to the functions of national and local government in Scotland.”
“Scottish Government review of measures taken to promote gender equality in Scottish Parliament Scottish Ministers shall, within six months of the day on which this Act is passed, publish and lay before the Scottish Parliament a comprehensive review of the measures which the Scottish Government is taking to further and to promote gender equality in the membership of the Scottish Parliament and on the boards of Scottish public authorities.”

“Commission on social and economic rights

(1) The Secretary of State shall appoint a commission on social and economic rights.
(2) The Secretary of State shall invite the Presiding Officers or Speakers of the House of Commons, House of Lords, National Assembly of Wales, Northern Ireland Assembly and the Scottish Parliament each to nominate no more than three persons to the commission on social and economic rights.
(3) The commission on social and economic rights must report on—
   (a) the practicality of making the Scottish Parliament and Scottish Government subject to the rights contained in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights; and
   (b) the consequences of Scottish devolution for the attainment of economic and social rights throughout the United Kingdom.
(4) The Secretary of State may by regulations determine the role, composition, organisation and powers of the commission on social and economic rights.”

“Office of Wellbeing

(1) Scottish Ministers shall appoint an independent Office of Wellbeing to monitor and report on the wellbeing impacts of fiscal and macro-economic policy in Scotland, with a particular focus on inequalities of wellbeing.
(2) The First Minister must publish at least once a year a wellbeing statement setting out the relevant social, economic and environmental policies of Scottish Ministers and their intended effects on the wellbeing of the people of Scotland.
(3) The Office of Wellbeing may commission independent research.

(4) The Office of Wellbeing must report at least once a year on progress being made against the wellbeing statement made by the First Minister and may report from time to time on any other relevant matter.

(5) The costs of the Office of Wellbeing shall be borne by the Scottish Parliament.”

To move the following Clause—

“Duty of Scottish Ministers in relation to European Charter of Local Self-Government

(1) Scottish Ministers must, in exercising their functions, observe and promote the principles and provisions of the European Charter of Local Self-Government.

(2) In subsection (1) the European Charter of Local Self-Government means the Charter of the Congress of the Council of Europe signed at Strasbourg on 15 October 1985.

(3) In particular, Scottish Ministers shall be placed under a legal duty to consider, when new legislation is introduced to the Scottish Parliament, whether that legislation introduced to the Scottish Parliament conforms to the principle of subsidiarity, as set out in the European Charter of Local Self-Government.”

To move the following Clause—

“Assessment of the Scottish Parliament having the power to alter the National Minimum Wage in Scotland

(1) The Secretary of State shall instruct the Low Pay Commission to undertake and publish, within 12 months of the date on which this Act is passed, an analysis of the economic impact of the Scottish Parliament having the power to alter the United Kingdom National Minimum Wage.

(2) The Secretary of State must require the analysis to assess the effects of the Scottish Parliament having the power to alter the United Kingdom National Minimum Wage on the Scottish and United Kingdom economies, with a specific focus on the following areas—

(a) the risks of establishing a two tier minimum wage across the United Kingdom, including an analysis of any possible negative impact on employment conditions for United Kingdom and Scottish workers;

(b) the importance of maintaining the principle of minimum standards across the UK, and the extent to which low pay issues differ in Scotland from the rest of the UK;

(c) the Scottish and United Kingdom labour market, in particular the effect of a different level of minimum wage in Scotland on the jobs and working hours of Scottish and United Kingdom workers;

(d) entitlement in Scotland to both devolved and reserved welfare payments;

(e) the possible effects on business investment in Scotland and the rest of the United Kingdom;
(f) any other considerations that would arise from having different minimum wages in communities on either side of the border;
(g) the institutional infrastructure required to establish, monitor and enforce it;
(h) the implications for EU Directives on Posted and Agency Workers;
(i) the impact on wage levels in Scotland and the United Kingdom; and
(j) a report on how the National Minimum Wage can rise faster in Scotland and across the United Kingdom to 58% of median earnings or more than £8 per hour by 2019.”
