“Permanence of the Scottish Parliament and Scottish Government

In the Scotland Act 1998 after Part 2 (the Scottish Administration) insert—

“PART 2A

63A Permanence of the Scottish Parliament and Scottish Government

- (1) The Scottish Parliament and the Scottish Government are a permanent part of the United Kingdom’s constitutional arrangements.

the United Kingdom to the Scottish Parliament and the Scottish Government.

- (3) In view of that commitment it is declared that the Scottish Parliament and the Scottish Government are not to be abolished except on the basis of a decision of the people of Scotland voting in a referendum.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment inserts a new clause into the Scotland Act 1998 and replaces Clause 1. It states that the Scottish Parliament and Government are permanent parts of the United Kingdom’s constitutional arrangements, and that those institutions are not to be abolished except on the basis of a decision of the people of Scotland in a referendum.

Secretary David Mundell

NC13

To move the following Clause—

“Functions exercisable within devolved competence: elections

- (1) The Scotland Act 1998 (“the 1998 Act”) has effect, in relation to any function so far as exercisable within devolved competence by virtue of a provision of section 3, as if references to a “pre-commencement enactment” were to—
- (a) an Act passed before or in the same session as the relevant date,
 - (b) any other enactment made before the relevant date,
 - (c) subordinate legislation under section 106 of the 1998 Act, to the extent that the legislation states that it is to be treated as a pre-commencement enactment,
- but did not include the 1998 Act or this Act (or any amendment made by either of those Acts) or (subject to paragraph (c)) an enactment comprised in subordinate legislation under either of those Acts.
- (2) In this section—
- (a) expressions used in the 1998 Act have the same meaning as in that Act;
 - (b) the relevant date is the date on which section 3 comes into force.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment makes provision for various existing functions of Ministers of the Crown in respect of elections to instead be exercised by Scottish Ministers, so far as such functions are exercisable within devolved competence by virtue of Clause 3.

“Independent Commission on Full Fiscal Autonomy

- (9) Regulations under this section must be made by statutory instrument, subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

NC4

To move the following Clause—

“Review of operation of Gift Aid in Scotland

The Treasury must lay before the House of Commons a review of the operation of Gift Aid in Scotland within a year of Part 2 of this Act coming into force.”

This self-explanatory New Clause would require a review of the operation of Gift Aid in Scotland.

Mr Graham Allen

NC6

To move the following Clause—

“Local Discretionary Taxation

Individual local authorities in Scotland shall have the discretion to raise additional income by levying a tax, in addition to Council Tax and Non-Domestic Rates, on either residents, occupiers, property owners or visitors in the local authority or within a discrete area of the local authority providing local people consent.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The power will enable local authorities to introduce tax(es) without the need to seek approval from Scottish Government, with the rates and reliefs being determined locally and the local authority being both granted powers to ensure that those on which the tax is levied have a legal obligation to pay and the local authority having the discretion to determine how the additional revenue is expended.

Mr Graham Allen

NC7

To move the following Clause—

“Local authority’s power of general competence

- (1) A local authority has power to do anything that individuals generally may do.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to things that an individual may do even though they are in nature, extent or otherwise—
 - (a) unlike anything the authority may do apart from subsection (1), or
 - (b) unlike anything that other public bodies may do.
- (3) In this section “individual” means an individual with full capacity.
- (4) Where subsection (1) confers power on the authority to do something, it confers power to do it in any way whatever, including—
 - (a) power to do it anywhere in the United Kingdom or elsewhere,
 - (b) power to do it for a commercial purpose or otherwise for a charge, or without charge, and
 - (c) power to do it for, or otherwise than for, the benefit of the authority, its area or persons resident or present in its area.
- (5) The generality of the power conferred by subsection (1) (“the general power”) is not limited by the existence of any other power of the authority which (to any extent) overlaps the general power.
- (6) Any such other power is not limited by the existence of the general power.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause seeks to introduce a general power of competence for Scottish local authorities, putting it beyond doubt that they may do anything that is not expressly prohibited by law. It seeks to go further than the power of wellbeing already afforded to Scottish local authorities. The proposals seek to give councils the capacity to do anything that an individual can do. Therefore, this would not enable a local authority to introduce a tax or wage war, but it would ensure that local government has the ability to use the power of general competence in the most sensible and constructive way for the benefit of the people and communities whom they serve.

Mr Graham Allen

NC8

To move the following Clause—

“Competences of local government in Scotland

- (1) The First Minister must, after consultation with representatives from local government in Scotland, publish a list of competences of local government in Scotland.
- (2) After the list has been published, the First Minister may not publish any amended list of competences of local government in Scotland without first obtaining approval of the revised list consent from—
 - (a) the Scottish Parliament, with two-thirds of its membership voting in favour of the amended list, and
 - (b) the Convention of Scottish Local Authorities.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause entrenches the independence of local government in Scotland from interference by national government in Scotland.

Mr Graham Allen

NC9

To move the following Clause—

“Subsidiarity

That subsidiarity as defined by the Maastricht Treaty 1992 Article 5(3) shall apply to the functions of national and local government in Scotland.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This extends protection of Scottish Local Government’s independence by protecting its subsidiarity behind a European Treaty applicable to the United Kingdom.

Ian Murray

To move the following Clause—

“Scottish block grant

The Secretary of State must lay before the House of Commons before the end of the first month of each financial year a full record, including minutes of meetings and correspondence at Ministerial level, of discussions between the Secretary of State, the Treasury and Scottish Ministers relating to the non-budget expenditure to be voted by Parliament authorising the payment of grants to the Scottish Consolidated Fund for that financial year.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The purpose of this new clause is to ensure transparency and accountability of the process leading to the annual settlement between the Treasury and Scottish Ministers of the block grant to the Scottish Consolidated Fund.

“Consent of the Scottish Parliament to certain Westminster Acts

- (1) In section 28 of the Scotland Act 1998 (Acts of the Scottish Parliament), at the end add—

“(8) But the Parliament of the United Kingdom must not pass Acts applying to Scotland that make provision about a devolved matter without the consent of the Scottish Parliament.

- (9) A provision is about a devolved matter if the provision—
- (a) applies to Scotland and does not relate to reserved matters,
 - (b) modifies the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament, or
 - (c) modifies the functions of any member of the Scottish Government.

- (10) In subsection (8), “Acts” includes any Act, whether a public general Act, a local and personal Act or a private Act.”

- (2) After section 28 of the Scotland Act 1998 insert—

“28A Duty to consult the Scottish Government on Bills applying to Scotland

- (1) A Minister of the Crown shall consult Scottish Ministers before introducing any Bill into the Parliament of the United Kingdom for an Act of that Parliament that would make provision applying to Scotland.
- (2) Where the Bill is for an Act making provision that would require the consent of the Scottish Parliament by virtue of section 28(8), the requirement to consult under subsection (1) includes a requirement that a Minister of the Crown give the Scottish Ministers a copy of the provisions of the Bill that apply to Scotland no later than—
- (a) 21 days before the proposed date of introduction, or
 - (b) such later date as the Scottish Ministers may agree.”
- (3) The requirement in subsection (2) does not apply if—
- (a) the Scottish Ministers so agree, or
 - (b) there are exceptional circumstances justifying failure to comply with the requirement.

Scotland Bill, continued

- (4) The reference in subsection (1) to an Act of Parliament is a reference to any Act whether a public general Act, a local and personal Act or a private Act.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that the UK Parliament can only legislate in devolved areas with the consent of the Scottish Parliament. It puts the Sewel Convention onto a statutory footing, as agreed by the Smith Commission.

 Clause 3, page 2, line 21, leave out “and (2B)”
Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment devolves to the Scottish Parliament the power in new section 2(2B) of the Scotland Act 1998, inserted by Clause 5 of the Bill, for Scottish Ministers to make an order specifying an alternative day on which the poll for a Scottish Parliamentary general election shall be held.

Secretary David Mundell 36
 Clause 3, page 2, line 38, leave out from “elections)” to third “the” in line 40 and insert “where a limit applies to expenditure in relation to a period determined by reference both to the date of the poll for an election within the legislative competence of the Parliament and to the date of”
Member’s explanatory statement
Campaign expenditure by political parties and controlled expenditure by third parties, is regulated for specific periods before certain elections. This amendment provides for competence to be reserved in respect of such expenditure where these periods overlap, even if the relevant election polls are on different days.

Secretary David Mundell 37
 Clause 3, page 3, leave out lines 17 to 19 and insert—
 “(a) section 1, except in relation to—

 (ii) preparation, laying and publication by the Commission of reports about the performance of its functions, and

- (iii) provision by the Commission of copies of regulations made by it or notice of the alteration or revocation of such regulations,”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment amends the exception to the reservation of section 1 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 so that the financing, reporting and (for regulations it makes) notification functions of the Electoral Commission are devolved insofar as these matters apply in respect of elections to the Scottish Parliament.

Secretary David Mundell

38

- Clause 4, page 3, line 39, leave out “provision” and insert “any provision that would be within the legislative competence of the Parliament, if included in an Act of the Scottish Parliament,”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would have the effect that the powers of the Scottish Ministers under section 12 of the Scotland Act 1998 would be aligned with the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament.

Secretary David Mundell

39

- Clause 4, page 4, line 4, leave out from “polls” to end of line 24

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on amendment 38, as that amendment renders it unnecessary to specify the particular combinations of polls as regards which the Scottish Ministers may exercise powers under section 12 of the Scotland Act 1998.

Secretary David Mundell

40

- Clause 4, page 4, line 33, leave out “the use of”

Member’s explanatory statement

The effect of this amendment is that the restriction on the powers of Scottish Ministers regarding the Digital Service in new section 12(4) of the Scotland Act 1998 (see Clause 4) more accurately reflects the extent of the reservation of the Digital Service set out in Clause 3(5).

- Clause 5, page 6, line 10, at the end insert “, unless the day of the poll is determined by a proclamation under subsection (5) as modified by subsection (5ZA).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment means that where Scottish Ministers make an order under section 2(2B) of the Scotland Act 1998 specifying an election date, and the Presiding Officer proposes a new date for the election under section 2(5) of that Act, the election will be held on the date proposed under section 2(5).

Secretary David Mundell

42

Clause 5, page 6, line 13, at the end insert—

“() After subsection (5) insert—

“(5ZA) Where a day is specified by order under subsection (2B), subsection (5) applies as if the reference to the first Thursday in May were a reference to that day.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The amendment is linked to amendment 41 and provides that the Presiding Officer’s power at section 2(5) of the Scotland Act 1998 to propose a new date for an election, applies in relation to a date specified for such a poll under new section 2(2B) of that Act.

Secretary David Mundell

43

 - “election in Scotland” means—

Member’s explanatory statement

NC14

To move the following Clause—

“Welfare foods

- (1) Part 2 of Schedule 5 to the Scotland Act 1998, Section F1 (social security schemes) is amended as follows.
- (2) In the Exceptions, after exception 8 (see section 23 above) insert—

“Exception 9

The subject-matter of section 13 of the Social Security Act 1988 (benefits under schemes for improving nutrition: pregnant women, mothers and children).”

- (3) In the Interpretation provision, at the end insert—

“The reference to the subject-matter of section 13 of the Social Security Act 1988 is to be construed as a reference to it as at the day on which section [Welfare foods] of the Scotland Act 2015 comes into force (and, accordingly, paragraph 5(1) of Part 3 of this Schedule does not apply to that reference).”

- (4) Omit Section J5 (welfare foods).

- (5) In the Social Security Act 1988, in section 13(2) (benefits under schemes for improving nutrition: consultation) omit “the Scottish Ministers and”.

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment devolves to the Scottish Parliament legislative competence regarding welfare foods, enabling the Scottish Parliament, in relation to Scotland, to abolish or amend schemes for the provision of welfare foods, as currently made under section 13 of the Social Security Act 1988, or to make new schemes for the provision of welfare foods.

Secretary David Mundell

NC34

- (a) are supported from sums paid out of the Scottish Consolidated Fund,
- (b) do not fall within exceptions 1 to 9, and
- (c) are not connected with reserved matters (other than matters reserved only by virtue of this Section).

This exception does not except providing assistance by way of pensions to or in respect of individuals who qualify by reason of old age.

This exception does not except providing assistance where the requirement for it arises from reduction, non-payability or suspension of a reserved benefit as a result of an individual’s conduct (for example, non-compliance with work-related requirements relating to the benefit) unless—

- (a) the requirement for it also arises from some exceptional event or exceptional circumstances, and
- (b) the requirement for it is immediate.

For the purposes of this exception “reserved benefit” means a benefit which is to any extent a reserved matter.

The provision falling within this exception includes provision that reproduces or applies an enactment contained in the Equality Act 2006 or the Equality Act 2010, with or without modification, without affecting the enactment as it applies for the purposes of those Acts. It does not include any modification of those Acts, other than modifications of the types specified in paragraphs (a) to (d)

- (a) provision that supplements or is otherwise additional to provision made by those Acts, and which may enhance but may not diminish the protection and promotion of equal opportunities afforded by the provision made by those Acts;

- (d) provision that requires the Commission for Equality and Human Rights to attend the proceedings of the Scottish Parliament for the purposes of giving evidence and to send each annual report of the Commission to the Scottish Ministers and that requires the Scottish Ministers to lay each annual report received before the Scottish Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment makes provision for the Scottish Parliament to have legislative competence in respect of the public sector equality duty, and in respect of equality of opportunity in relation to the functions of Scottish and cross-border public authorities, including appointments to public boards. It clarifies that the Scottish Parliament’s power to make modifications to the Equality Acts 2006 and 2010 is limited to making provision that enhances the protection and promotion of equal opportunities. The amendment makes provision for the powers of the Equality and Human Rights Commission to be applied in relation to any modifications to the Acts. It also enables provision to be made to increase the accountability of the Equality and Human Rights Commission to the Scottish Parliament.

- (3) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply where a function is excluded from transfer.
- (4) Where a function is not excluded from transfer but is subject to qualified transfer, sub-paragraph (1) applies only if the transfer of the function is in accordance with provision made by Her Majesty by Order in Council.
- (5) An Order in Council under sub-paragraph (4)—
 - (a) must specify the function to which it relates,
 - (b) must specify the Scottish tribunal to which the function may be transferred, and
 - (c) may make any other provision which Her Majesty considers necessary or expedient for the purposes of or in consequence of the transfer of the function and its exercise by the Scottish tribunal.
- (6) The functions that are subject to qualified transfer are the functions of the following tribunals—
 - (a) the First-tier Tribunal or the Upper Tribunal that are established under section 3 of the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007;
 - (b) an employment tribunal or the Employment Appeal Tribunal;
 - (c) a tribunal listed in Schedule 1 to the Tribunals and Inquiries Act 1992;
 - (d) a tribunal listed in Schedule 6 to the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007.
- (7) Sub-paragraph (6)(c) and (d) include a tribunal added to the Schedule concerned after this paragraph comes into force.

 - (b) functions of a regulator, or of a person or body that exercises functions on behalf of a regulator;

a “regulator” means a person or body that has regulatory functions (within the meaning given by section 32 of the Legislative and Regulatory Reform Act 2006);
