☆ Clause 1, page 2, line 15, at end insert—

“(2) In Schedule 6 to the Charities Act 2011 (appeals and applications to Tribunal) insert in the appropriate place—

“Decision of the Commission to issue a warning under section 75A to a charity trustee, trustee for a charity or a charity

The persons are—
 (a) the charity trustees of the charity; and
 (b) (if a body corporate) the charity itself.

Power to quash the decision and (if appropriate) remit the matter to the Commission.””

Member’s explanatory statement

The Bill gives the Commission a power to issue an official warning to a charity or trustee where it feels there has been a breach of trust or duty or other misconduct or mismanagement. This amendment ensures the right of a charity to appeal the warning to the Charities Tribunal.

☆ Clause 2, page 2, line 21, after “75A” insert, “unless a challenge has been made to the Tribunal under Schedule 6 to the Charities Act 2011,”

Member’s explanatory statement

To remove the automatic ability of the Commission to take action after a warning (under section 76 of Charities Act - suspension of trustees) if said warning has been challenged with the Tribunal.

4

☆ Clause 6, page 5, line 2, at end insert—

“(4) An order under this section will automatically be discharged on the closure of the inquiry under section 46 which is referred to in subsection (1).”

Member’s explanatory statement

To restrict the power to ensure that if a tribunal appeal is successful, a direction by the Commission as a result of the warning is no longer relevant.

Anna Turley

7

☆ Clause 11, page 10, line 5, after “person” add “or persons”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment aims to ensure that, where there has been a collective failure to act, a whole trustee board should be held accountable.

5

- ☆ Clause 11, page 10, line 31, leave out “(either generally or in relation to the charities or classes of charity specified or described in the order)” and insert, “, as defined by the Commission in a specific document to be published after consultation and renewed every five years”.

Member’s explanatory statement

Instead of removing this power altogether, this amendment ensures the Commission publicises its definition of “person unfit to be a charity trustee” following a consultation.

Anna Turley

6

- ☆ Clause 11, page 11, line 33, after “conduct” insert, “both relevant and serious”

Member’s explanatory statement

To ensure a more narrow and relevant definition of “conduct”.

- ☆ To move the following Clause—

“Assessment of harm by charities

- (1) The Secretary of State shall make regulations obliging trustees to identify and assess risks of harm to beneficiaries and the public when carrying out their charitable purpose, together with actions to be taken to manage and minimise risks.
- (2) The regulations will include provision that charities with a turnover of excess of £1 million are required to publish assessments of harm relating to the charity’s purpose as set out in subsection (1).
- (3) The regulations shall provide that charities specified in subsection (2) publish their assessments of harm relating to their purpose in their annual reports.
- (4) Regulations under this section must be made by statutory instrument.”

Member’s explanatory statement

Charity Commission guidance states that carrying out a charity’s purposes for the public benefit includes managing risks of harm to the charity’s beneficiaries or the public that might result from carrying out this purpose.
