Clause 11, page 10, line 5, after “person” add “or persons”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment aims to ensure that, where there has been a collective failure to act, a whole trustee board should be held accountable.

Clause 11, page 10, line 31, leave out “(either generally or in relation to the charities or classes of charity specified or described in the order)” and insert, “, as defined by the Commission in a specific document to be published after consultation and renewed every five years”.

Member’s explanatory statement

Instead of removing this power altogether, this amendment ensures the Commission publicises its definition of “person unfit to be a charity trustee” following a consultation.

6

Clause 11, page 11, line 33, after “conduct” insert, “both relevant and serious”

Member’s explanatory statement

To ensure a more narrow and relevant definition of “conduct”.

 NEW CLAUSES

Geoffrey Clifton-Brown

NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Assessment of harm by charities

- (1) The Secretary of State shall make regulations obliging trustees to identify and assess risks of harm to beneficiaries and the public when carrying out their charitable purpose, together with actions to be taken to manage and minimise risks.
- (2) The regulations will include provision that charities with a turnover of excess of £1 million are required to publish assessments of harm relating to the charity’s purpose as set out in subsection (1).
- (3) The regulations shall provide that charities specified in subsection (2) publish their assessments of harm relating to their purpose in their annual reports.
- (4) Regulations under this section must be made by statutory instrument.”

Member’s explanatory statement

Charity Commission guidance states that carrying out a charity’s purposes for the public benefit includes managing risks of harm to the charity’s beneficiaries or the public that might result from carrying out this purpose. The New Clause seeks to place a legal obligation on charities to carry

NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Power to make representations

- (1) A charity may undertake political campaigning or political activity in the context of supporting the delivery of its charitable purposes.
- (2) A charity may campaign to ensure support for, or to oppose, a change in the law, policy or decisions of central government, local authorities or other public bodies.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This New Clause would enshrine in legislation the right of charities to undertake political campaigning activity.
