Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods

John Healey

Teresa Pearce

Matthew Pennycook

152

Clause 59, page 25, line 8, at end insert—

“(3) Portability of the discount must only apply where practicable in terms of availability of suitable properties for disposal and vacancy timescales.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that portability of the discount must be practicable and able to be delivered in practice.

Housing and Planning Bill, *continued

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

153

Clause 59, page 25, line 8, at end insert—

- “( ) Property offered under portability must be of—
- (a) similar size,
  - (b) similar or improved quality,
  - (c) in an area agreed by the tenant, and
  - (d) subject to an appeal mechanism.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would protect the tenant against an unreasonable offer of portability.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

154

Clause 59, page 25, line 8, at end insert—

- “( ) The discount should remain in perpetuity.”

Member’s explanatory statement

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

155

Clause 59, page 25, line 8, at end insert—

- “( ) A dwelling must not be sold under the Right to Buy without the Housing Association having the ability to—
- (a) verify the source of funding for purchase,
  - (b) establish who is occupying the property,
  - (c) check that the person/s seeking to purchase the property under Right to Buy has no interest in another property,
  - (d) have sufficient time to carry out checks for fraudulent activity, and
  - (e) be able to prepare reports on (a) – (d) for the Housing Association Board of Trustees to consider.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that housing associations are able to carry out proper checks before proceeding with the Right to Buy offer.

Gareth Thomas

186

Clause 62, page 26, line 7, at end insert “except in respect of a local housing authority within Greater London.

- (1A) In respect of a local housing authority within Greater London the Mayor of London after consultation with the London Assembly may make a determination requiring the authority to make a payment to the Mayor in respect of a financial year.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This clause would devolve to the Mayor of London after consultation with the Assembly, any requirements by housing authorities in London to make payments relating to the sale of high value Council housing.

Gareth Thomas
Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

144

Clause 62, page 26, line 7, at end insert—

“(1A) Before making a determination under subsection (1) requiring a local housing authority within Greater London to make a payment, the Secretary of State must obtain the consent of the Mayor of London and the London Assembly.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Secretary of State to obtain the consent of the Mayor of London and the London Assembly before making a determination requiring a local housing authority in London to make a payment to the Secretary of State in respect of vacant high value housing.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

157

Clause 62, page 26, line 11, at end insert—

“(2A) The total payment required from all affected local authorities in any financial year shall not exceed the total grant paid in that year to private registered providers in respect of right to buy discounts.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would avoid powers being used as a general means of taxing councils and tenants for the benefit of the Exchequer.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

158

Clause 62, page 26, line 11, at end insert—

“(2B) The costs and deductions referred to in section 62(2)(b) must include an estimate of the cost of replacing each high value dwelling sold with a dwelling with the same number of bedrooms in the same local authority area.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would allow for one-for-one local replacement.

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

159

Clause 62, page 26, line 25, at end insert—

“( ) Regulations under subsection (8) may not define a dwelling as “high value” if its sale value is less than the cost of rebuilding it and providing a replacement dwelling with the same number of bedrooms in the same local authority area.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would prevent dwellings being defined as “high value” if the cost of its replacement on a like-for-like basis in the same local authority area exceeds the receipt of sale.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

160

Clause 62, page 26, line 25, at end insert—

“( ) The definition of “high value” must be based on the housing market within the local authority.”

Helen Hayes

Clause 62, page 26, line 25, at end insert—

“(10) Existing Tenant Management Organisations (as defined by The Housing (Right to Manage) Regulations 1994), that also fulfil the definition of a community-led organisation as defined at Schedule ([New Schedule 1: community-led housing schemes]), will retain the benefit of right to buy and high value sales, provided it is invested in new housing.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would allow community-led organisations to keep right to buy and high values sales income, conditional on the income being re-invested in new homes.

Gareth Thomas
Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

95

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that local authorities could retain 100% of the capital receipt from the sale of any local authority housing under the Act to reinvest in new housing.

Gareth Thomas

90

Clause 63, page 26, line 27, at end insert—

“(1A) This section does not apply to sheltered housing which has been provided or adapted for the use of elderly or disabled people, irrespective of whether it is vacant or may become vacant.”

---

Gareth Thomas

96

Clause 63, page 26, line 31, at end insert—

“(c) it is not a Tenant Management Organisation as defined for the purpose of section 27AB(8) of the Housing Act 1985, currently by the Housing (Right to Manage) Regulations 1994 (Statutory Instrument 627, 1994).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that properties run by tenant management organisations were not included in any assessment of the payment due to the Secretary of State under Clause 62.

Gareth Thomas

145

Clause 63, page 26, line 31, at end insert—

“(c) it is not in an area of high homelessness as defined by the Regulator for Social Housing.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would exclude high value housing which is in an area of high homelessness from having to be sold by the local housing authority.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods

John Healey

Teresa Pearce

Matthew Pennycook

162

Clause 63, page 26, line 37, at end insert “for a period of no more than 5 years after the housing has been transferred to a private registered provider of social housing”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would limit the amount of time during which the Secretary of State could take into account transferred stock when making a determination.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods

John Healey

Teresa Pearce

Matthew Pennycook

163

Clause 63, page 26, line 39, at end insert—

“( ) Regulations shall provide that housing shall be excluded where a vacancy has occurred as a result of the transfer of the former tenant to alternative accommodation in the social rented sector, where accommodation in the social rented sector means any accommodation owned or let by a local authority or other registered provider of social housing.”

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods

John Healey

Teresa Pearce

Matthew Pennycook

164

Clause 63, page 26, line 39, at end insert—

“( ) Regulations shall provide that housing shall be excluded where a vacancy has occurred as a result of the eviction of the former tenant from the relevant dwelling on account of anti-social behaviour caused by the tenant, or by a person residing in or visiting the relevant dwelling.

- ( ) In subsection ( ), “anti-social behaviour” shall have the same meaning as in section 2 of the Anti-social Behaviour Crime and Policing Act 2014.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would exclude from the estimate of high value housing properties that become vacant due to anti-social behaviour evictions.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

165

Clause 63, page 26, line 39, at end insert—

- “( ) Regulations shall provide that housing shall be excluded where it forms part of a housing regeneration scheme or consists of specialist housing or recently improved housing.
- ( ) In subsection ( ), a “housing regeneration scheme” means a programme of regeneration or development of an area which includes the provision or improvement of housing and for which finance may be available under section 126 of the Housing Grants, Construction and Regeneration Act 1996.
- ( ) In subsection ( ), “specialist housing” means any housing designed for or intended for occupation by older persons or persons needing care or support or persons with mental health problems or learning disabilities; or which has features which are designed to make it suitable for occupation by a physically disabled person; or which it is the practice of the landlord to let for occupation by persons with special needs.
- ( ) In subsection ( ), housing shall be considered to have been recently improved if substantial works of repair or improvement have been carried out on the relevant dwelling or group of dwellings within the previous two years.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would exclude certain types of property from inclusion in high value homes determination.

Clause 67, page 28, line 7, at end insert—

“(2A) In the case of a proposal for an agreement under subsection (1) between the Secretary of State and a local housing authority which is within Greater London as defined by section 2 of the London Government Act 1963 the Secretary of State shall—

- (a) have particular regard to the extent to which the agreement will contribute to the target set under section [New Clause 1; Target for new affordable housing provision in Greater London], and
- (b) consult the Mayor of London,”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment and New Clause 1 would require the Secretary of State and housing authorities in London entering an agreement which would reduce the amount due to be paid under section 62 to have regard to the duty to achieve the provision of at least two new units of affordable housing for the disposal of each unit of high value in London.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

170

Clause 67, page 28, line 8, at end insert—

- “(4) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1), housing shall not be taken into account under section 62(2) unless the proceeds of sale of every relevant property

are applied to fund the construction of a new property in the same locality which is to be let as social housing on terms (as to rent, security of tenure and generally) which are substantially the same as those on which the original dwelling was let.

- (5) No determination by the Secretary of State under section 62(1) shall be made except on the basis of a deduction representing the cost of replacing the relevant dwelling or dwellings under subsection (2A), and no assumption to the contrary shall be made under section 62(7) in making such determination.
- (6) The amount of any payment determined on the basis of subsections (4) and (5) may be nil.”

John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

174

Clause 69, page 28, line 20, at end insert—

“(1A) A receipt arising from the disposal of a dwelling must be used to achieve the provision of at least one new affordable dwelling to replace that sold, which is—

- (a) of the same tenure,
- (b) located in the same local authority area, and
- (c) in accordance with assessed local housing need.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the duty for local authorities to consider selling high value housing and introduce a duty that local authorities must, whenever they sell housing, use the receipt to provide at least a guaranteed like-for-like replacement home in the same area.

“(3A) The duty in subsection (1) does not apply to sheltered housing which has been provided or adapted for the use of elderly or disabled people.”

Gareth Thomas

98

Clause 69, page 28, leave out line 27 and insert—

- “(a) not dispose of more than 10% of all council homes in its area;
- (b) have regard to whether its housing register is increasing in size; and
- (c) have regard to any guidance given by the Secretary of State.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would even out the impact of the requirement to sell off high cost council housing to ensure the impact on homelessness of sales was properly thought through.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
 John Healey
 Teresa Pearce
 Matthew Pennycook

176

Clause 69, page 28, line 27, at end insert—

NEW CLAUSES

Brandon Lewis

NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Revocation or variation of banning orders

- (1) A person against whom a banning order is made may apply to the First-tier Tribunal for an order under this section revoking or varying the order.
- (2) If the banning order was made on the basis of one or more convictions all of which are overturned on appeal, the First-tier Tribunal must revoke the banning order.
- (3) If the banning order was made on the basis of more than one conviction and some of them (but not all) have been overturned on appeal, the First-tier Tribunal may—
  - (a) vary the banning order, or
  - (b) revoke the banning order.
- (4) If the banning order was made on the basis of one or more convictions that have become spent, the First-tier Tribunal may—
  - (a) vary the banning order, or
  - (b) revoke the banning order.
- (5) The power to vary a banning order under (3)(a) or (4)(a) may be used to add new exceptions to a ban or to vary—
  - (a) the banned activities,
  - (b) the length of a ban, or
  - (c) existing exceptions to a ban.

Housing and Planning Bill, *continued

- (6) In this section “spent”, in relation to a conviction, means spent for the purposes of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows a banning order to be revoked or varied in certain circumstances.

Brandon Lewis

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Offence of breach of banning order

- (1) A person who breaches a banning order commits an offence.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 51 weeks or to a fine or to both.
- (3) If a financial penalty under section 17 has been imposed in respect of the breach, the person may not be convicted of an offence under this section.
- (4) In relation to an offence committed before section 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 comes into force, the reference in subsection (2) to 51 weeks is to be read as a reference to 6 months.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment makes it an offence to breach a banning order.

Brandon Lewis

NC4

To move the following Clause—

“Offences by bodies corporate

- (1) Where an offence under section (Offence of breach of banning order) committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, an officer of a body corporate, the officer as well as the body corporate commits the offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.
- (2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the member’s functions of management as if the member were an officer of the body corporate.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that officers of a body corporate can be prosecuted for offences committed by it under NC3. “Officer” is given a broad definition by clause 48 of the Bill.

---

Housing and Planning Bill, *continued

Brandon Lewis

NC5

To move the following Clause—

“Power to require information

- (1) A local housing authority may require a person to provide specified information for the purpose of enabling the authority to decide whether to apply for a banning order against the person.
- (2) It is an offence for the person to fail to comply with a requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for the failure.
- (3) It is an offence for the person to provide information that is false or misleading if the person knows that the information is false or misleading or is reckless as to whether it is false or misleading.
- (4) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows a local housing authority to require a person to provide information for the purpose of deciding whether to apply for a banning order. For example, the number of properties that a landlord has may be relevant to whether an authority applies for a banning order. The power would allow the authority to require the landlord to provide that information.

Brandon Lewis

NC6

To move the following Clause—

“Removal or variation of entries made under section 24

- (1) An entry made in the database under section 24 may be removed or varied in accordance with this section.
- (2) If the entry was made on the basis of one or more convictions all of which are overturned on appeal, the responsible local housing authority must remove the entry.
- (3) If the entry was made on the basis of more than one conviction and some of them (but not all) have been overturned on appeal, the responsible local housing authority may—
  - (a) remove the entry, or
  - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.
- (4) If the entry was made on the basis of one or more convictions that have become spent, the responsible local housing authority may—
  - (a) remove the entry, or
  - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.
- (5) If a local housing authority removes an entry in the database, or reduces the period for which it must be maintained, it must notify the person to whom the entry relates.
- (6) In this section—

“responsible local housing authority” means the local housing authority by which the entry was made;

“spent”, in relation to a conviction, means spent for the purposes of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.”

Housing and Planning Bill, *continuedMember's explanatory statement

This amendment allows a local housing authority to remove an entry in the database of rogue landlords and property agents or reduce the time for which the entry must be maintained in certain circumstances. See also NC7. There is no mention of clause 23 as an entry under that clause is maintained for as long as the banning order has effect.

Brandon Lewis

NC7

To move the following Clause—

“Requests for exercise of powers under section (Removal or variation of entries made under section 24) and appeals

- (1) A person in respect of whom an entry is made in the database under section 24 may request the responsible local housing authority to use its powers under section (Removal or variation of entries made under section 24) to—
  - (a) remove the entry, or
  - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.
- (2) The request must be in writing.
- (3) Where a request is made, the local housing authority must—
  - (a) decide whether to comply with the request, and
  - (b) give the person notice of its decision.
- (4) If the local housing authority decides not to comply with the request the notice must include—
  - (a) reasons for that decision, and
  - (b) a summary of the appeal rights conferred by this section.
- (5) Where a person is given notice that the responsible local housing authority has decided not to comply with the request the person may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against that decision.
- (6) An appeal to the First-tier Tribunal under subsection (5) must be made before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the notice was given.
- (7) The First-tier Tribunal may allow an appeal to be made to it after the end of that period if satisfied that there is a good reason for the person's failure to appeal within the period (and for any subsequent delay).
- (8) On an appeal under this section the tribunal may order the local housing authority to—
  - (a) remove the entry, or
  - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment allows a person to request a local housing authority to use its powers to remove or vary an entry in the database of rogue landlords and property agents (see NC6). If the local housing authority refuses, the person may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal.

NC8

To move the following Clause—

“Meaning of “property manager” and related expressions

- (1) In this Part “property manager” means a person who engages in English property management work.
- (2) In this Part “English property management work” means things done by a person in the course of a business in response to instructions received from another person (“the client”) where—
  - (a) the client wishes the person to arrange services, repairs, maintenance, improvements or insurance in respect of, or to deal with any other aspect of the management of, premises on the client’s behalf, and

- ★ To move the following Schedule—

“SCHEDULE

DEFAULT POWERS EXERCISABLE BY MAYOR OF LONDON OR COMBINED AUTHORITY:
SCHEDULE TO BE INSERTED IN THE PLANNING AND COMPULSORY PURCHASE ACT 2004

“SCHEDULE A1

Section 27A

DEFAULT POWERS EXERCISABLE BY MAYOR OF LONDON
OR COMBINED AUTHORITY

Default powers exercisable by Mayor of London

- 1 If the Secretary of State—
  - (a) thinks that a London borough council, in their capacity as local planning authority, are failing or omitting to do anything it is necessary for them to do in connection with the preparation, revision or adoption of a development plan document, and
  - (b) invites the Mayor of London to prepare or revise the document, the Mayor of London may prepare or revise (as the case may be) the development plan document.

- 2
  - (1) This paragraph applies where a development plan document is prepared or revised by the Mayor of London under paragraph 1.
  - (2) The Mayor of London must hold an independent examination.
  - (3) The Mayor of London—
    - (a) must publish the recommendations and reasons of the person appointed to hold the examination, and
    - (b) may also give directions to the council in relation to publication of those recommendations and reasons.
  - (4) The Mayor of London may—
    - (a) approve the document, or approve it subject to specified modifications, as a local development document, or
    - (b) direct the council to consider adopting the document by resolution of the council as a local development document.
- 3
  - (1) Subsections (4) to (7C) of section 20 apply to an examination held under paragraph 2(2)—
    - (a) with the reference to the local planning authority in subsection (7C) of that section being read as a reference to the Mayor of London, and
    - (b) with the omission of subsections (5)(c), (7)(b)(ii) and (7B)(b).

- (2) The Mayor of London must give reasons for anything he does in pursuance of paragraph 1 or 2(4).
- (3) The council must reimburse the Mayor of London—
  - (a) for any expenditure that the Mayor incurs in connection with anything which is done by him under paragraph 1 and which the council failed or omitted to do as mentioned in that paragraph;
  - (b) for any expenditure that the Mayor incurs in connection with anything which is done by him under paragraph 2(2).

Default powers exercisable by combined authority

- 4 In this Schedule—

“combined authority” means a combined authority established under section 103 of the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009;

“constituent planning authority”, in relation to a combined authority, means—

  - (a) a county council, metropolitan district council or non-metropolitan district council which is the local planning authority for an area within the area of the combined authority, or
  - (b) a joint committee established under section 29 whose area is within, or the same as, the area of the combined authority.
- 5 If the Secretary of State—
  - (a) thinks that a constituent planning authority are failing or omitting to do anything it is necessary for them to do in connection with the preparation, revision or adoption of a development plan document, and
  - (b) invites the combined authority to prepare or revise the document, the combined authority may prepare or revise (as the case may be) the development plan document.

- 6
  - (1) This paragraph applies where a development plan document is prepared or revised by a combined authority under paragraph 5.
  - (2) The combined authority must hold an independent examination.
  - (3) The combined authority—
    - (a) must publish the recommendations and reasons of the person appointed to hold the examination, and
    - (b) may also give directions to the constituent planning authority in relation to publication of those recommendations and reasons.
  - (4) The combined authority may—
    - (a) approve the document, or approve it subject to specified modifications, as a local development document, or
    - (b) direct the constituent planning authority to consider adopting the document by resolution of the authority as a local development document.

- 7 (1) Subsections (4) to (7C) of section 20 apply to an examination held under paragraph 6(2)—
- (a) with the reference to the local planning authority in subsection (7C) of that section being read as a reference to the combined authority, and
  - (b) with the omission of subsections (5)(c), (7)(b)(ii) and (7B)(b).
- (2) The combined authority must give reasons for anything they do in pursuance of paragraph 5 or 6(4).
- (3) The constituent planning authority must reimburse the combined authority—
- (a) for any expenditure that the combined authority incur in connection with anything which is done by them under paragraph 5 and which the constituent planning authority failed or omitted to do as mentioned in that paragraph;
  - (b) for any expenditure that the combined authority incur in connection with anything which is done by them under paragraph 6(2).

Intervention by Secretary of State

- 8 (1) This paragraph applies to a development plan document that has been prepared or revised—
- (a) under paragraph 1 by the Mayor of London, or
  - (b) under paragraph 5 by a combined authority.
- (2) If the Secretary of State thinks that a development plan document to which this paragraph applies is unsatisfactory—
- (a) he may at any time before the document is adopted under section 23, or approved under paragraph 2(4)(a) or 6(4)(a), direct the Mayor of London or the combined authority to modify the document in accordance with the direction;
  - (b) if he gives such a direction he must state his reasons for doing so.
- (3) Where a direction is given under sub-paragraph (2)—
- (a) the Mayor of London or the combined authority must comply with the direction;
  - (b) the document must not be adopted or approved unless the Secretary of State gives notice that the direction has been complied with.
- (4) Sub-paragraph (3) does not apply if or to the extent that the direction under sub-paragraph (2) is withdrawn by the Secretary of State.
- (5) At any time before a development plan document to which this paragraph applies is adopted under section 23, or approved under paragraph 2(4)(a) or 6(4)(a), the Secretary of State may direct that the document (or any part of it) is submitted to him for his approval.
- (6) In relation to a document or part of a document submitted to him under sub-paragraph (5) the Secretary of State—
- (a) may approve the document or part;

- (b) may approve it subject to specified modifications;
- (c) may reject it.

The Secretary of State must give reasons for his decision under this sub-paragraph.

- (7) The Secretary of State may at any time—
- (a) after a development plan document to which this paragraph applies has been submitted for independent examination, but
  - (b) before it is adopted under section 23 or approved under paragraph 2(4)(a) or 6(4)(a),
- direct the Mayor of London or the combined authority to withdraw the document.
- 9 (1) This paragraph applies if the Secretary of State gives a direction under paragraph 8(5).
- (2) No steps are to be taken in connection with the adoption or approval of the document until the Secretary of State gives his decision, or withdraws the direction.
- (3) If the direction is given, and not withdrawn, before the document has been submitted for independent examination, the Secretary of State must hold an independent examination.
- (4) If the direction—
- (a) is given after the document has been submitted for independent examination but before the person appointed to carry out the examination has made his recommendations, and
  - (b) is not withdrawn before those recommendations are made, the person must make his recommendations to the Secretary of State.
- (5) The document has no effect unless the document or (as the case may be) the relevant part of it has been approved by the Secretary of State, or the direction is withdrawn.
- The “relevant part” is the part of the document that—
- (a) is covered by a direction under paragraph 8(5) which refers to only part of the document, or
  - (b) continues to be covered by a direction under paragraph 8(5) following the partial withdrawal of the direction.
- (6) The Secretary of State must publish the recommendations made to him by virtue of sub-paragraph (3) or (4) and the reasons of the person making the recommendations.
- (7) In considering a document or part of a document submitted under paragraph 8(5) the Secretary of State may take account of any matter which he thinks is relevant.
- (8) It is immaterial whether any such matter was taken account of by the Mayor of London or the combined authority.
- 10 Subsections (4) to (7C) of section 20 apply to an examination held under paragraph 9(3)—

Housing and Planning Bill, *continued

- (a) with the reference to the local planning authority in subsection (7C) of that section being read as a reference to the Secretary of State, and
  - (b) with the omission of subsections (5)(c), (7)(b)(ii) and (7B)(b).
- 11 In the exercise of any function under paragraph 8 or 9 the Secretary of State must have regard to the local development scheme.
- 12 The Mayor of London or the combined authority must reimburse the Secretary of State for any expenditure incurred by the Secretary of State under paragraph 8 or 9 that is specified in a notice given by him to the Mayor or the authority.

Temporary direction pending possible use of intervention powers

- 13 (1) If the Secretary of State is considering whether to give a direction to the Mayor of London or a combined authority under paragraph 8 in relation to a development plan document, he may direct the Mayor or the authority not to take any step in connection with the adoption or approval of the document—
- (a) until the time (if any) specified in the direction, or
  - (b) until the direction is withdrawn.
- (2) A document to which a direction under this paragraph relates has no effect while the direction is in force.
- (3) A direction given under this paragraph in relation to a document ceases to have effect if a direction is given under paragraph 8 in relation to that document.””

Member’s explanatory statement
