HOUSING AND PLANNING BILL

NOTE

This document includes all amendments remaining before the Committee and includes any withdrawn amendments at the end. The amendments have been arranged in accordance with the Order of the Committee [10 November 2015, as amended on 19 November 2015.]

Stephen Hammond

Clause 104, page 48, leave out lines 30 and 31 and insert—

“(1) The Town and Country Planning Act 1990 is amended as follows.

(2) In section 60 (permission granted by development order), after subsection (1) insert—”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential to amendments 191 and 192.

Stephen Hammond

Clause 104, page 48, line 42, at end insert—

“(3A) In section 70 (Determination of applications: general considerations), in subsection (1)(a) after “permission” insert “in whole or in part””

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment gives local planning authorities the same power as the Secretary of State presently has on appeal to grant planning permission for part of the development proposed in an application.

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

Stephen Hammond

192

Clause 104, page 49, line 3, at end insert—

“(4A) In section 78 (Right to appeal against planning decisions and failure to take such decisions), in subsection (1)(a), after “it” insert “in part or””

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment gives local planning authorities the same power as the Secretary of State presently has on appeal to grant planning permission for part of the development proposed in an application.

Stephen Hammond

Clause 104, page 49, line 3, at end insert—

“(4B) In section 106 (Planning obligations), after subsection (2) insert—

“(2A) A local planning authority may enter into a planning obligation as a person interested in land and as the local planning authority, including an obligation by agreement in both categories.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment empowers local planning authorities to make planning obligations binding their own land, for example, if they wish to grant planning permission prior to selling land for development.

Helen Hayes

Clause 104, page 49, line 3, at end insert—

“() When granting development orders, local planning authorities shall prescribe, in accordance with the objectively assessed needs identified in the Local Plan—

- (a) Appropriate density;
- (b) Suitable dwelling mix;
- (c) Affordable housing required, and
- (d) Community and social infrastructure requirements.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that development is suitable in planning terms on a site specific basis, and will also assist in controlling the price of land. The upfront identification of planning conditions will speed up the time it takes for developers to start on site, and also complete development.

Helen Hayes

Clause 104, page 49, line 3, at end insert—

“() The Secretary of State must make regulations which—

- (a) require sufficient testing of the land to be carried out before permission in principle may be granted, and
- (b) ensure provision of adequate funding to carry out the testing in subsection (a).

In this subsection “sufficient testing” means carrying out necessary studies and assessments to ensure that a site is suitable for the development benefiting from permissions in principle.”

Stephen Hammond

286

Clause 105, page 49, line 4, at end insert—

“(1) In section 62A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 for “Secretary of State” substitute “in respect of land in Greater London by the Mayor of London and in respect of land in England outside of Greater London by the Secretary of State” except in subsection (1)(a).

(1A) In section 62A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (when application may be made directly to in respect of land in Greater London the Mayor of London and in respect of land in England outside of Greater London to the Secretary of State), in subsection (1), for paragraphs (a) and (b) substitute—

“(a) the local planning authority concerned is designated by the Secretary of State for applications of a description specified in the designation;

(b) the application falls within that description.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would provide for applications in respect of land in Greater London to be made directly to the Mayor of London and to the Secretary of State for land elsewhere in England.

Brandon Lewis

183

Clause 108, page 51, line 16, after “subsection (1)” insert “in relation to land in England”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would state that the consultation requirement inserted into section 134 of the Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980 by clause 108(2) would only apply in relation to an order creating an urban development area in England.

Brandon Lewis

Clause 109, page 52, line 2, after “section” insert “in relation to an urban development area in England”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would state that the consultation requirement inserted into section 135 of the Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980 by clause 109(2) would only apply in relation to an order establishing a corporation for an urban development area in England.

236

Clause 109, page 52, line 24, at end insert—

- “(4) Section 136 of the Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980 [objects and general powers] is amended as follows.
- (5) After subsection (2) insert—
- “(2A) Corporations under this Act must contribute the long-term sustainable development and place making of the new community.
- (2B) Under this Act sustainable development and place making means managing the use, development and protection of land and natural resources in a way which enables people and communities to provide for their legitimate social, economic and cultural wellbeing while sustaining the potential of future generations to meet their own needs and in achieving sustainable development and place making, development corporations should—
- (a) positively identify suitable land for development in line with the economic, social and environmental objectives so as to improve the quality of life, wellbeing and health of people and the community;
 - (b) contribute to the sustainable economic development of the community;
 - (c) contribute to the vibrant cultural and artistic development of the community;
 - (d) protect and enhance the natural and historic environment;
 - (e) contribute to mitigation and adaptation to climate change in line with the objectives of the Climate Change Act 2008;
 - (f) positively promote high quality and inclusive design;
 - (g) ensure that decision-making is open, transparent, participative and accountable; and
 - (h) ensure that assets are managed for long-term interest of the community.”

(6) Section 4 of the New Towns Act 1981 [The objects and general powers of Development Corporations] is amended as follows.

(7) For subsection (1) substitute—

“(1) The objects of a development corporation established for the purpose of a new town or Garden City shall be to secure the physical laying out of infrastructure and the long-term sustainable development and place making of the new community.

(1A) Under this Act sustainable development and place making means managing the use, development and protection of land and natural resources in a way which enables people and communities to provide for their legitimate social, economic and cultural wellbeing while sustaining the potential of future generations to meet their own needs and in achieving sustainable development, development corporations should—

 - (a) positively identify suitable land for development in line with the economic, social and environmental objectives so as to improve

- the quality of life, wellbeing and health of people and the community;
- (b) contribute to the sustainable economic development of the community;
 - (c) contribute to the vibrant cultural and artistic development of the community;
 - (d) protect and enhance the natural and historic environment;
 - (e) contribute to mitigation and adaptation to climate change in line with the objectives of the Climate Change Act 2008;
 - (f) positively promote high quality and inclusive design;
 - (g) ensure that decision-making is open, transparent, participative and accountable; and
 - (h) ensure that assets are managed for long-term interest of the community.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would insert place-making objectives for both UDC’s in Local Government Act 1980 and for New Town Development Corporations in the New Towns Act 1981 and sets out a high quality purpose for making the development of scale growth.

Brandon Lewis

246

Clause 111, page 52, line 32, after “survey” insert “or value”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the right of entry in clause 111 may be exercised to value land as well as to survey it.

Brandon Lewis

247

Clause 111, page 52, line 32, leave out “compulsorily”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that the right of entry in clause 111 may be exercised prior to acquiring land by agreement as well as compulsorily.

- Clause 119, page 57, line 1, leave out from beginning to “is” in line 2 and insert “Where an inspector decides whether or not to confirm the whole or part of a compulsory purchase order, the inspector’s decision”
Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment would mean that an inspector’s decision whether or not to confirm the whole or part of a compulsory purchase order would be treated as a decision of the confirming authority. The current wording would mean that only a decision to confirm a compulsory purchase order would be treated as the authority’s decision.

This amendment would include local authorities in the compulsory purchase order decision.

Brandon Lewis

259

Clause 120, page 57, line 36, leave out “made” and insert “executed”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment, together with amendments 260, 261, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276 and 277, amends references to a general vesting declaration so that they are consistent with the terminology of section 4 of the Compulsory Purchase (Vesting Declarations) Act 1981 (although “make” and “execute” mean the same thing).

- (4) Where the land of a private landowner is compulsory purchased under section 10 of New Towns Act 1981 then the Secretary of State may, by order, set out the formula for determining fair compensation to landowners.

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would create an explicit power for the Secretary of State to define how

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

Brandon Lewis

262

- Clause 137, page 66, line 39, after “authority” insert “, or
 (ii) been appropriated by a local authority for planning purposes as defined by section 246(1) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment, together with amendment 264, would mean that the power to override easements and other rights in clause 137 applied to land which a local authority already held prior to the coming into force of clause 137 but only appropriated for planning purposes after the coming into force of that clause.

Brandon Lewis

- Clause 137, page 66, line 41, at end insert—
 “() Subsection (1) also applies to building or maintenance work where—
 (a) there is planning consent for the building or maintenance work,
 (b) the work is carried out on other qualifying land, and
 (c) a specified authority could acquire the land compulsorily for the purposes of the building or maintenance work.”

Member’s explanatory statement

Schedule 11 removes a number of existing powers to override easements. This amendment, together with amendments 266, 267, 268, 269 and 271, would mean that the new power in clause 137 could be exercised instead of the powers removed by Schedule 11.

Brandon Lewis

- Clause 137, page 67, line 6, after “authority” insert “, or
 (ii) been appropriated by a local authority for planning purposes as defined by section 246(1) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990”

Member’s explanatory statement

See member’s explanatory statement for amendment 262.

Brandon Lewis

265

- Clause 137, page 67, line 8, after “building” insert “, or carrying out any works,”

Member’s explanatory statement

Clause 137(4)(c) limits the power in clause 137(3) to use land despite existing easements or restrictions so that it may be exercised only when a specified authority could acquire land compulsorily for the purpose of erecting or constructing any building for the use in question. This amendment would adjust the restriction in clause 137(4)(c) so that it is not limited to erecting or constructing a building but includes carrying out any works.

Brandon Lewis

- Clause 137, page 67, line 8, at end insert—
 “() Subsection (3) also applies to the use of land in a case where—
 (a) there is planning consent for that use of the land,
 (b) the land is other qualifying land, and

- (c) a specified authority could acquire the land compulsorily for the purposes of erecting or constructing any building, or carrying out any works, for that use.”

Member’s explanatory statement

See Member’s explanatory statement for amendment 263.

Brandon Lewis

267

Clause 137, page 67, line 15, leave out “In this section” and insert “In sections 137 and 138”

Member’s explanatory statement

The changes that would be introduced by amendments 263, 266, 269 and 271 would add considerably to the length of clause 137. This amendment, together with the motion after amendment 270, would prevent clause 137 becoming too long by removing the interpretation subsection from that clause and putting it into its own clause.

Brandon Lewis

Clause 137, page 67, leave out lines 18 and 19

Member’s explanatory statement

Amendments 262, 264 and 269 would introduce references to a local authority’s planning purposes as defined by section 246(1) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990. The list of authorities that are local authorities for those purposes is different from the list that are local authorities for the purposes of the definition of “specified authority” in clause 137. This amendment and amendment 270 therefore remove the general definition of “local authority” and define the term “local authority” only in relation to the term “specified authority”.

Brandon Lewis

Clause 137, page 67, line 19, at end insert—

““other qualifying land” means land in England and Wales that has at any time before the day on which this section comes into force been—

- (a) acquired by the National Assembly for Wales or the Welsh Ministers under section 21A of the Welsh Development Agency Act 1975;
- (b) vested in or acquired by an urban development corporation or a local highway authority for the purposes of Part 16 of the Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980;
- (c) acquired by a development corporation or a local highway authority for the purposes of the New Towns Act 1981;
- (d) vested in or acquired by a housing action trust for the purposes of Part 3 of the Housing Act 1988;
- (e) acquired or appropriated by a local authority for planning purposes as defined by section 246(1) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990;
- (f) vested in or acquired by the Homes and Communities Agency, apart from land the freehold interest in which was disposed of by the Agency before 12 April 2015;
- (g) vested in or acquired by the Greater London Authority for the purposes of housing or regeneration, apart from land the freehold interest in which was disposed of before 12 April 2015—
 - (i) by the Authority, other than to a company or body through which it exercises functions in relation to housing or regeneration, or

- (ii) by such a company or body;
- (h) vested in or acquired by a Mayoral development corporation (established under section 198(2) of the Localism Act 2011), apart from land the freehold interest in which was disposed of by the corporation before 12 April 2015.”

Member’s explanatory statement*See Member’s explanatory statement for amendment 263.*

270

Clause 137, page 67, line 38, after “authority” insert “as defined by section 7 of the Acquisition of Land Act 1981”

Member’s explanatory statement*See Member’s explanatory statement for amendment 268.*

Brandon Lewis

To move, That Clause No. 137 be divided into two clauses, the first (Power to override easements and other rights) consisting of subsections (1) to (6) and the second (Interpretation of sections 137 and 138) to consist of subsections (7) and (8).

Member’s explanatory statement*See Member’s explanatory statement for amendment 267.*

Brandon Lewis

271

Clause 138, page 68, line 14, leave out subsection (5)

Member’s explanatory statement*See Member’s explanatory statement for amendment 263.*

Brandon Lewis

278

Schedule 11, page 107, line 5, at end insert—

“Welsh Development Agency Act 1975 (c. 70)

A1 (1) Schedule 4 to the Welsh Development Agency Act 1975 is amended as follows.

(2) Omit paragraph 6 and the italic heading before it.

(3) In paragraph 9 omit sub-paragraph (a).”

Member’s explanatory statement*This amendment would repeal paragraph 6 of Schedule 4 to the Welsh Development Agency Act*

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

1975. The provision to be repealed is a power to override easements in certain circumstances. The power would in future be exercisable under clause 137, as amended by amendment 269.

Brandon Lewis

Clause 144, page 69, line 23, at end insert—

“() sections 62 to 72;”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides for Chapter 2 of Part 4 (vacant high value social housing) to come into force on Royal Assent.

NEW CLAUSES

Brandon Lewis

NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Revocation or variation of banning orders

- (1) A person against whom a banning order is made may apply to the First-tier Tribunal for an order under this section revoking or varying the order.
- (2) If the banning order was made on the basis of one or more convictions all of which are overturned on appeal, the First-tier Tribunal must revoke the banning order.
- (3) If the banning order was made on the basis of more than one conviction and some of them (but not all) have been overturned on appeal, the First-tier Tribunal may—
 - (a) vary the banning order, or
 - (b) revoke the banning order.
- (4) If the banning order was made on the basis of one or more convictions that have become spent, the First-tier Tribunal may—
 - (a) vary the banning order, or
 - (b) revoke the banning order.
- (5) The power to vary a banning order under (3)(a) or (4)(a) may be used to add new exceptions to a ban or to vary—
 - (a) the banned activities,
 - (b) the length of a ban, or
 - (c) existing exceptions to a ban.
- (6) In this section “spent”, in relation to a conviction, means spent for the purposes of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows a banning order to be revoked or varied in certain circumstances.

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

Brandon Lewis

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Offence of breach of banning order

- (1) A person who breaches a banning order commits an offence.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 51 weeks or to a fine or to both.
- (3) If a financial penalty under section 17 has been imposed in respect of the breach, the person may not be convicted of an offence under this section.
- (4) In relation to an offence committed before section 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 comes into force, the reference in subsection (2) to 51 weeks is to be read as a reference to 6 months.”

Member’s explanatory statement*This amendment makes it an offence to breach a banning order.*

Brandon Lewis

NC4

To move the following Clause—

“Offences by bodies corporate

- (1) Where an offence under section (Offence of breach of banning order) committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, an officer of a body corporate, the officer as well as the body corporate commits the offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.
- (2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the member’s functions of management as if the member were an officer of the body corporate.”

Member’s explanatory statement*This amendment ensures that officers of a body corporate can be prosecuted for offences committed by it under NC3. “Officer” is given a broad definition by clause 48 of the Bill.*

Brandon Lewis

NC5

To move the following Clause—

“Power to require information

- (1) A local housing authority may require a person to provide specified information for the purpose of enabling the authority to decide whether to apply for a banning order against the person.
- (2) It is an offence for the person to fail to comply with a requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for the failure.

- (3) It is an offence for the person to provide information that is false or misleading if the person knows that the information is false or misleading or is reckless as to whether it is false or misleading.
- (4) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows a local housing authority to require a person to provide information for the purpose of deciding whether to apply for a banning order. For example, the number of properties that a landlord has may be relevant to whether an authority applies for a banning order. The power would allow the authority to require the landlord to provide that information.

Brandon Lewis

NC6

To move the following Clause—

“Removal or variation of entries made under section 24

- (1) An entry made in the database under section 24 may be removed or varied in accordance with this section.
- (2) If the entry was made on the basis of one or more convictions all of which are overturned on appeal, the responsible local housing authority must remove the entry.
- (3) If the entry was made on the basis of more than one conviction and some of them (but not all) have been overturned on appeal, the responsible local housing authority may—
 - (a) remove the entry, or
 - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.
- (4) If the entry was made on the basis of one or more convictions that have become spent, the responsible local housing authority may—
 - (a) remove the entry, or
 - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.
- (5) If a local housing authority removes an entry in the database, or reduces the period for which it must be maintained, it must notify the person to whom the entry relates.
- (6) In this section—

“responsible local housing authority” means the local housing authority by which the entry was made;

“spent”, in relation to a conviction, means spent for the purposes of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows a local housing authority to remove an entry in the database of rogue landlords and property agents or reduce the time for which the entry must be maintained in certain circumstances. See also NC7. There is no mention of clause 23 as an entry under that clause is maintained for as long as the banning order has effect.

Brandon Lewis

NC7

To move the following Clause—

“Requests for exercise of powers under section (Removal or variation of entries made under section 24) and appeals

- (1) A person in respect of whom an entry is made in the database under section 24 may request the responsible local housing authority to use its powers under section (Removal or variation of entries made under section 24) to—
 - (a) remove the entry, or
 - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.
- (2) The request must be in writing.
- (3) Where a request is made, the local housing authority must—
 - (a) decide whether to comply with the request, and
 - (b) give the person notice of its decision.
- (4) If the local housing authority decides not to comply with the request the notice must include—
 - (a) reasons for that decision, and
 - (b) a summary of the appeal rights conferred by this section.
- (5) Where a person is given notice that the responsible local housing authority has decided not to comply with the request the person may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against that decision.
- (6) An appeal to the First-tier Tribunal under subsection (5) must be made before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the notice was given.
- (7) The First-tier Tribunal may allow an appeal to be made to it after the end of that period if satisfied that there is a good reason for the person’s failure to appeal within the period (and for any subsequent delay).
- (8) On an appeal under this section the tribunal may order the local housing authority to—
 - (a) remove the entry, or
 - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.”

Member’s explanatory statement

“Procedure for redeeming English rentcharges

- (1) The Rentcharges Act 1977 is amended in accordance with subsections (2) to (5).
- (2) Before section 8 (but after the italic heading before section 8) insert—

“7A Power to make procedure for redeeming English rentcharges

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision allowing the owner of land in England affected by a rentcharge to redeem it.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may not make provision in relation to—
 - (a) a rentcharge that could be redeemed by making an application under section 8(1A),
 - (b) a rentcharge of a kind mentioned in section 2(3) or section 3(3)(a),
 - (c) a rentcharge in respect of which the period for which it is payable cannot be ascertained, or
 - (d) a variable rentcharge.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(d) a rentcharge is variable if the amount of the rentcharge will, or may, vary in the future in accordance with the provisions of the instrument under which it is payable.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (1) may, in particular—
 - (a) provide for the owner of land affected by a rentcharge to be able to redeem a rentcharge by taking specified steps, including making payments determined in accordance with the regulations;
 - (b) require a rent owner or other person to take specified steps to facilitate the redemption of a rentcharge, such as providing information or executing a deed of release;
 - (c) where the documents of title of the owner of land affected by a rentcharge are in the custody of a mortgagee, require the mortgagee to make those documents or copies of those documents available in accordance with the regulations;
 - (d) permit or require a person specified in the regulations to design the form of any document to be used in connection with the redemption of rentcharges under the regulations;
 - (e) provide for a court or tribunal to—
 - (i) determine disputes about or in relation to the redemption of a rentcharge;
 - (ii) make orders about the redemption of a rentcharge;
 - (iii) issue a redemption certificate;
 - (f) make provision corresponding to any of the provisions of section 10(2) to (4).

- (5) Nothing in this section prevents the redemption of a rentcharge otherwise than in accordance with regulations under subsection (1).”
- (3) In section 8—
- (a) in subsection (1)—
- (i) after “land” insert “in Wales”;
- (ii) for the words from “a certificate” to the end substitute “a redemption certificate”;
- (b) after subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) The owner of any land in England affected by a rentcharge which has been apportioned to that land by an apportionment order with a condition under—
- (a) section 7(2) above, or
- (b) section 20(1) of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1927, may apply to the Secretary of State, in accordance with this section, for a redemption certificate.”
- (4) In section 12—
- (a) in subsection (1), after “this Act” insert “, apart from regulations under section 7A,”;
- (b) after subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) Regulations under section 7A are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (1B) A statutory instrument containing regulations under section 7A may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”
- (5) In section 13(1), in the definition of “redemption certificate”, for the words from “has” to the end substitute “means a certificate certifying that a rentcharge has been redeemed”.
- (6) The Leasehold Reform Act 1967 is amended in accordance with subsections (7) and (8).
- (7) In section 8(4)(b), for “8” substitute “7A”.
- (8) In section 11—
- (a) in subsection (6), after “1977” insert “or the amount that would have to be paid to secure the redemption of that rentcharge in accordance with regulations made under section 7A of that Act”;
- (b) in subsection (7)(a), after “specified” insert “or required”;
- (c) in subsection (8), for “8” substitute “7A”.

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment will permit the Secretary of State to make regulations allowing the owner of land in England that is affected by a rentcharge to redeem that rentcharge without making an application to the Secretary of State as the procedure in section 8 of the Rentcharges Act 1977 would involve.

“Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life

Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) changes the law about secure tenancies, introductory tenancies and demoted tenancies to phase out tenancies for life.”

Member’s explanatory statement

A secure tenant can currently live in a property for life. This amendment and NS4 phase out lifetime tenancies. In future secure tenancies will generally have to be for a fixed term of 2 to 5 years and will not automatically be renewed. Towards the end of the term, the landlord will have to do a review to decide whether to grant a new tenancy or recover possession.

- (1) The Secretary of State shall by regulations introduce a scheme to extend the Housing Ombudsman Scheme, as set out in section 51 and Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1996, to cover disputes between tenants and private landlords in the Greater London Authority.
- (2) The scheme under subsection (1) shall—
 - (a) last at least one year and no longer than two years; and
 - (b) come into effect within 6 months of this Act receiving Royal Assent.
- (3) The Secretary of State shall lay before each House of Parliament a report of the scheme under subsection (1) alongside any statement he thinks appropriate, within 3 months of the closing date of the scheme.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations extend the powers of the Housing Ombudsman Scheme as set out in section 51 and Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1996, to cover disputes between tenants and private landlords nationwide.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would give the Secretary of State the power to introduce a pilot scheme which would see the Housing Ombudsman extend its cover in London to private sector housing and disputes between tenants and private landlords, to require that the Secretary of State reports on the pilot scheme, and to give the Secretary of State power through regulations to extend the Housing Ombudsman to cover private sector housing and disputes between tenants and private landlords nationwide.

★ To move the following Clause—

“Cover for money received or held by lettings agents in the course of business

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a person may not accept money from any person who seeks residential accommodation which is to let or who has a tenancy of a residential premises, or other right or permission to occupy, in the course of lettings agency work unless there are in force authorised arrangements under which, in the event of his failing to account for such money to the person entitled to it, his liability will be made good by another.
- (2) In this section “lettings agency work” has the same meaning as in section 83 of the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013 and a “lettings agent” is a person who engages in lettings agency work.

- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument, which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament—
- (a) specify any persons or classes of persons to whom subsection (1) does not apply;
 - (b) specify arrangements which are authorised for the purposes of this section including arrangements to which a enforcement authority nominated for the purpose by the Secretary of State or any other person so nominated is a party;
 - (c) specify the terms and conditions upon which any payment is to be made under such arrangements and any circumstances in which the right to any such payment may be excluded or modified;
 - (d) provide that any limit on the amount of any such payment is to be not less than a specified amount; and
 - (e) require a person providing authorised arrangements covering any person carrying on lettings agency work to issue a certificate in a form specified in the regulations certifying that arrangements complying with the regulations have been made with respect to that person.
- (4) Every guarantee entered into by a person who provides authorised arrangements covering a lettings agent shall tenure for the benefit of every person from whom the lettings agent has received a relevant payment as if the guarantee were contained in a contract made by the insurer with every such person.
- (5) A “relevant payment” means any sum of money which is received in the circumstances described in subsection (1).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require lettings agents to have Client Money Protection to cover all money received in the course of business.

- ★ To move the following Clause—

“Restriction on permitted changes of use

Where the Secretary of State has exercised or exercises his powers conferred by sections 59, 60, 61, 74 or 333(7) of the Town and Country Planning 1990 Act to make an Order in respect of change of use from office buildings (currently Class B1(a) of the Schedule to the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) Order 1987 (as amended)) to use as dwelling-houses, the Order shall have no effect in respect of any building situated within Greater London as provided in the London Government Act 1963.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause would exclude from the permitted changes of use provided in a Permitted Development Order made, or to be made, by the Secretary of State changes of use from offices to housing in London. Such changes would require planning permission from the local authority.

- ★ To move the following Clause—

“Extension of Help to Buy schemes to tenants receiving support for the voluntary right to buy

- (1) This section applies to a tenant purchasing a dwelling-house in respect of which the Secretary of State makes a grant to a private registered provider in respect of a right to buy discount provided at section 56.
- (2) The tenant shall be entitled to the same support provided under a help to buy scheme supported or underwritten by the Government as a tenant exercising right to buy of a dwelling-house from a local authority.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would extend the Government’s Help to Buy schemes to those exercising the right to buy under the voluntary scheme supported by Government grants, to put housing association purchasers in the same position as those buying their homes under right to buy from local authorities..

To move the following Schedule—

“SCHEDULE

DEFAULT POWERS EXERCISABLE BY MAYOR OF LONDON OR COMBINED AUTHORITY:
SCHEDULE TO BE INSERTED IN THE PLANNING AND COMPULSORY PURCHASE ACT 2004

“SCHEDULE A1

Section 27A

DEFAULT POWERS EXERCISABLE BY MAYOR OF LONDON
OR COMBINED AUTHORITY

Default powers exercisable by Mayor of London

- 1 If the Secretary of State—
 - (a) thinks that a London borough council, in their capacity as local planning authority, are failing or omitting to do anything it is necessary for them to do in connection with the preparation, revision or adoption of a development plan document, and
 - (b) invites the Mayor of London to prepare or revise the document, the Mayor of London may prepare or revise (as the case may be) the development plan document.

- 2
 - (1) This paragraph applies where a development plan document is prepared or revised by the Mayor of London under paragraph 1.
 - (2) The Mayor of London must hold an independent examination.
 - (3) The Mayor of London—
 - (a) must publish the recommendations and reasons of the person appointed to hold the examination, and
 - (b) may also give directions to the council in relation to publication of those recommendations and reasons.
 - (4) The Mayor of London may—
 - (a) approve the document, or approve it subject to specified modifications, as a local development document, or
 - (b) direct the council to consider adopting the document by resolution of the council as a local development document.
- 3
 - (1) Subsections (4) to (7C) of section 20 apply to an examination held under paragraph 2(2)—
 - (a) with the reference to the local planning authority in subsection (7C) of that section being read as a reference to the Mayor of London, and
 - (b) with the omission of subsections (5)(c), (7)(b)(ii) and (7B)(b).

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

- (2) The Mayor of London must give reasons for anything he does in pursuance of paragraph 1 or 2(4).
- (3) The council must reimburse the Mayor of London—
 - (a) for any expenditure that the Mayor incurs in connection with anything which is done by him under paragraph 1 and which the council failed or omitted to do as mentioned in that paragraph;
 - (b) for any expenditure that the Mayor incurs in connection with anything which is done by him under paragraph 2(2).

Default powers exercisable by combined authority

- 4 In this Schedule—

“combined authority” means a combined authority established under section 103 of the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009;

“constituent planning authority”, in relation to a combined authority, means—

 - (a) a county council, metropolitan district council or non-metropolitan district council which is the local planning authority for an area within the area of the combined authority, or
 - (b) a joint committee established under section 29 whose area is within, or the same as, the area of the combined authority.
- 5 If the Secretary of State—
 - (a) thinks that a constituent planning authority are failing or omitting to do anything it is necessary for them to do in connection with the preparation, revision or adoption of a development plan document, and
 - (b) invites the combined authority to prepare or revise the document, the combined authority may prepare or revise (as the case may be) the development plan document.

- 6
 - (1) This paragraph applies where a development plan document is prepared or revised by a combined authority under paragraph 5.
 - (2) The combined authority must hold an independent examination.
 - (3) The combined authority—
 - (a) must publish the recommendations and reasons of the person appointed to hold the examination, and
 - (b) may also give directions to the constituent planning authority in relation to publication of those recommendations and reasons.
 - (4) The combined authority may—
 - (a) approve the document, or approve it subject to specified modifications, as a local development document, or
 - (b) direct the constituent planning authority to consider adopting the document by resolution of the authority as a local development document.

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

- 7 (1) Subsections (4) to (7C) of section 20 apply to an examination held under paragraph 6(2)—
- (a) with the reference to the local planning authority in subsection (7C) of that section being read as a reference to the combined authority, and
 - (b) with the omission of subsections (5)(c), (7)(b)(ii) and (7B)(b).
- (2) The combined authority must give reasons for anything they do in pursuance of paragraph 5 or 6(4).
- (3) The constituent planning authority must reimburse the combined authority—
- (a) for any expenditure that the combined authority incur in connection with anything which is done by them under paragraph 5 and which the constituent planning authority failed or omitted to do as mentioned in that paragraph;
 - (b) for any expenditure that the combined authority incur in connection with anything which is done by them under paragraph 6(2).

Intervention by Secretary of State

- 8 (1) This paragraph applies to a development plan document that has been prepared or revised—
- (a) under paragraph 1 by the Mayor of London, or
 - (b) under paragraph 5 by a combined authority.
- (2) If the Secretary of State thinks that a development plan document to which this paragraph applies is unsatisfactory—
- (a) he may at any time before the document is adopted under section 23, or approved under paragraph 2(4)(a) or 6(4)(a), direct the Mayor of London or the combined authority to modify the document in accordance with the direction;
 - (b) if he gives such a direction he must state his reasons for doing so.
- (3) Where a direction is given under sub-paragraph (2)—
- (a) the Mayor of London or the combined authority must comply with the direction;
 - (b) the document must not be adopted or approved unless the Secretary of State gives notice that the direction has been complied with.
- (4) Sub-paragraph (3) does not apply if or to the extent that the direction under sub-paragraph (2) is withdrawn by the Secretary of State.
- (5) At any time before a development plan document to which this paragraph applies is adopted under section 23, or approved under paragraph 2(4)(a) or 6(4)(a), the Secretary of State may direct that the document (or any part of it) is submitted to him for his approval.
- (6) In relation to a document or part of a document submitted to him under sub-paragraph (5) the Secretary of State—
- (a) may approve the document or part;

- (b) may approve it subject to specified modifications;
- (c) may reject it.

The Secretary of State must give reasons for his decision under this sub-paragraph.

- (7) The Secretary of State may at any time—
- (a) after a development plan document to which this paragraph applies has been submitted for independent examination, but
 - (b) before it is adopted under section 23 or approved under paragraph 2(4)(a) or 6(4)(a),
- direct the Mayor of London or the combined authority to withdraw the document.
- 9 (1) This paragraph applies if the Secretary of State gives a direction under paragraph 8(5).
- (2) No steps are to be taken in connection with the adoption or approval of the document until the Secretary of State gives his decision, or withdraws the direction.
- (3) If the direction is given, and not withdrawn, before the document has been submitted for independent examination, the Secretary of State must hold an independent examination.
- (4) If the direction—
- (a) is given after the document has been submitted for independent examination but before the person appointed to carry out the examination has made his recommendations, and
 - (b) is not withdrawn before those recommendations are made, the person must make his recommendations to the Secretary of State.
- (5) The document has no effect unless the document or (as the case may be) the relevant part of it has been approved by the Secretary of State, or the direction is withdrawn.
- The “relevant part” is the part of the document that—
- (a) is covered by a direction under paragraph 8(5) which refers to only part of the document, or
 - (b) continues to be covered by a direction under paragraph 8(5) following the partial withdrawal of the direction.
- (6) The Secretary of State must publish the recommendations made to him by virtue of sub-paragraph (3) or (4) and the reasons of the person making the recommendations.
- (7) In considering a document or part of a document submitted under paragraph 8(5) the Secretary of State may take account of any matter which he thinks is relevant.
- (8) It is immaterial whether any such matter was taken account of by the Mayor of London or the combined authority.
- 10 Subsections (4) to (7C) of section 20 apply to an examination held under paragraph 9(3)—

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

- (a) with the reference to the local planning authority in subsection (7C) of that section being read as a reference to the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) with the omission of subsections (5)(c), (7)(b)(ii) and (7B)(b).
- 11 In the exercise of any function under paragraph 8 or 9 the Secretary of State must have regard to the local development scheme.
- 12 The Mayor of London or the combined authority must reimburse the Secretary of State for any expenditure incurred by the Secretary of State under paragraph 8 or 9 that is specified in a notice given by him to the Mayor or the authority.

Temporary direction pending possible use of intervention powers

- 13 (1) If the Secretary of State is considering whether to give a direction to the Mayor of London or a combined authority under paragraph 8 in relation to a development plan document, he may direct the Mayor or the authority not to take any step in connection with the adoption or approval of the document—
- (a) until the time (if any) specified in the direction, or
 - (b) until the direction is withdrawn.
- (2) A document to which a direction under this paragraph relates has no effect while the direction is in force.
- (3) A direction given under this paragraph in relation to a document ceases to have effect if a direction is given under paragraph 8 in relation to that document.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Schedule inserts a new Schedule A1 to the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 which makes detailed provision for the intervention in local plan-making by the Mayor of London or a combined authority described in NC17.

Law of Property Act 1925 (c. 20)

- 1 (1) Section 52 of the Law of Property Act 1925 (conveyances to be by deed, unless excepted by subsection (2) of that section) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (2), after paragraph (db) insert—
- “(dc) secure tenancies of dwellings in England granted on or after the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force, other than old-style secure tenancies;”
- (3) In subsection (3)—
- (a) in the definition of “flexible tenancy”, for “107A” substitute “115B”;

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

- (b) at the appropriate place insert—
 ““secure tenancy” has the meaning given by section 79 of the Housing Act 1985 and “old style-secure tenancy” has the meaning given by section 115C of that Act;”.

Housing Act 1985 (c. 68)

- 2 The Housing Act 1985 is amended as follows.
 3 For the italic heading before section 79 substitute—

“Secure tenancies”

- 4 After section 81 insert—

*“Grant of new secure tenancies in England81A New English secure tenancies to be between 2 and 5 years in general

- (1) A person may grant a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England only if it is a tenancy for a fixed term that is—
 (a) at least 2 years, and
 (b) no more than 5 years.
- (2) If a person purports to grant a secure tenancy in breach of subsection (1), it takes effect as a tenancy for a fixed term of 5 years.
- (3) This section does not apply to the grant of an old-style secure tenancy (as to which, see section 81B).

81B Cases where old-style English secure tenancies may be granted

- (1) A person may grant an old style-secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England only—
 (a) in circumstances specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State, or
 (b) in accordance with subsection (2).
- (2) A local housing authority that grants a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England must grant an old-style secure tenancy if—
 (a) the tenancy is offered as a replacement for an old-style secure tenancy of some other dwelling-house, and
 (b) the tenant has not made an application to move.
- (3) Other provisions of this Part set out the consequences of a tenancy being an old-style secure tenancy.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (1) may include transitional or saving provision.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (1) are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (6) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (1) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

81C Duty to offer new secure tenancy in limited circumstances

- (1) This section applies where a change in circumstances means that a tenancy that is not a secure tenancy would become a secure tenancy but for the exception in paragraph 1ZA of Schedule 1.
- (2) The landlord must, within the period of 28 days, make the tenant a written offer of a secure tenancy in return for the tenant surrendering the original tenancy.
- (3) If the tenant accepts in writing within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the tenant receives the offer, the landlord must grant the secure tenancy on the tenant surrendering the original tenancy.

81D Review of decisions about length of secure tenancies in England

- (1) A person who is offered a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England (under section 81C or otherwise) may request a review under this section, unless the tenancy on offer is an old-style secure tenancy.
- (2) The sole purpose of a review under this section is to consider whether the length of the tenancy is in accordance with any policy that the prospective landlord has about the length of secure tenancies it grants.
- (3) The request must be made before the end of—
 - (a) the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the person making the request first receives the offer, or
 - (b) such longer period as the prospective landlord may allow in writing.
- (4) On receiving the request the prospective landlord must carry out the review.
- (5) On completing the review the prospective landlord must —
 - (a) notify the tenant in writing of the outcome,
 - (b) revise its offer or confirm its original decision about the length of the tenancy, and
 - (c) if it decides to confirm its original decision, give reasons.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about the procedure to be followed in connection with a review under this section.
- (7) The regulations may, in particular—
 - (a) require the review to be carried out by a person of appropriate seniority who was not involved in the original decision;
 - (b) make provision as to the circumstances in which the person who requested the review is entitled to an oral hearing, and whether and by whom that person may be represented.
- (8) Regulations under this section may include transitional or saving provision.
- (9) Regulations under this section are to be made by statutory instrument which is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

5 In section 82 (security of tenure), in subsection (3), for the words from “section 86” to the end substitute “section 86 or 86D shall apply”.

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

- 6 (1) Section 82A (demoted tenancy) is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (4) insert—
- “(4A) The court may not make a demotion order in relation to a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England if—
- (a) the landlord is a local housing authority or housing action trust, and
- (b) the term has less than 1 year and 9 months left to run
- (4B) But subsection (4A) does not apply to a tenancy to which an exception in section 86A(2) or (3) applies.”
- (3) In subsection (5), for paragraph (b) substitute—
- “(b) the period or term of the tenancy (but see subsection (6));”.
- (4) For subsection (6) substitute—
- “(6) Subsection (5)(b) does not apply if—
- (a) the secure tenancy was for a fixed term and was an old-style secure tenancy or a flexible tenancy, or
- (b) the secure tenancy was for a fixed term and was a tenancy of a dwelling-house in Wales,
- and in such a case the demoted tenancy is a weekly periodic tenancy.”
- 7 After section 82 insert—
- “Orders for possession and expiry of term etc”*
- 8 In section 83 (proceedings for possession or termination: general notice requirements), in subsection (A1), for paragraph (b) substitute—
- “(b) proceedings for possession of a dwelling-house under section 86E (recovery of possession on expiry of certain English secure tenancies).”
- 9 In section 84 (grounds and orders for possession), in subsection (1), for “section 107D (recovery of possession on expiry of flexible tenancy)” substitute “section 86E (recovery of possession on expiry of certain English secure tenancies)”.
- 10 (1) Section 86 (periodic tenancy arising on termination of fixed term) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), after “secure tenancy” insert “to which this section applies”.
- (3) After subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) This section applies to a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in Wales.
- (1B) This section also applies to a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England that is—
- (a) an old-style secure tenancy, or
- (b) a flexible tenancy the term of which ends within the period of 9 months beginning with the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force,
- unless it is a tenancy excluded by subsection (1C).”
- (4) In subsection (2), for “this section” substitute “subsection (1)”.

11 After section 86 insert—

“English secure tenancies: review, renewal and possession

86A English tenancies: review to determine what to do at end of fixed term

- (1) The landlord under a fixed term secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England must carry out a review to decide what to do at the end of the term, unless one of the following exceptions applies.
- (2) Exception 1 is where the tenancy is an old-style secure tenancy.
- (3) Exception 2 is where the tenancy is a flexible tenancy the term of which ends within the period of 9 months beginning with the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force.
- (4) A review under this section must be carried out while the term has 6 to 9 months left to run.
- (5) On a review under this section the landlord must decide which of the following options to take.

Option 1: offer to grant a new secure tenancy of the dwelling-house at the end of the current tenancy.

Option 2: seek possession of the dwelling house at the end of the current tenancy but offer to grant a secure tenancy of another dwelling-house instead.

Option 3: seek possession of the dwelling-house at the end of the current tenancy without offering to grant a secure tenancy of another dwelling-house.

- (6) The landlord must also—
 - (a) offer the tenant advice on buying a home if the landlord considers that to be a realistic option for the tenant, and
 - (b) in appropriate cases, offer the tenant advice on other housing options.

86B Notification of outcome of review under section 86A

- (1) On completing a review under section 86A the landlord must notify the tenant in writing of the outcome of the review.
- (2) The notice must be given by no later than 6 months before the end of the term of the current tenancy.
- (3) The notice must state which of the options mentioned in section 86A the landlord has decided to take.
- (4) If the landlord has decided to seek possession of the dwelling-house at the end of the secure tenancy the notice must also—
 - (a) inform the tenant of the right under section 86C to request the landlord to reconsider, and
 - (b) specify the time limit for making a request under that section.

- (5) If the notice states that the landlord has decided to offer a new tenancy and the tenant accepts in writing before the end of the current tenancy, the landlord must grant the new tenancy in accordance with the offer.

86C Reconsideration of decision not to grant a tenancy

- (1) Where a tenant is notified that the outcome of a review under section 86A is that the landlord has decided to seek possession of the dwelling-house at the end of the current tenancy, the tenant may request the landlord to reconsider its decision.
- (2) The request must be made before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which tenant was notified of the decision.
- (3) On receiving the request, the landlord must reconsider its decision.
- (4) The landlord must, in particular, consider whether the original decision is in accordance with any policy that the landlord has about the circumstances in which it will grant a further tenancy on the coming to an end of an existing fixed term tenancy.
- (5) Once the landlord has reconsidered the decision the landlord must—
 - (a) notify the tenant in writing of the outcome,
 - (b) revise or confirm its original decision, and
 - (c) if it decides to confirm its original decision, give reasons.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about the procedure to be followed in connection with reconsidering a decision for the purposes of this section.
- (7) The regulations may, in particular—
 - (a) require the original decision to be reconsidered by a person of appropriate seniority who was not involved in the original decision, and
 - (b) make provision as to the circumstances in which the person who requested the landlord to reconsider the original decision is entitled to an oral hearing, and whether and by whom that person may be represented.
- (8) Regulations under this section may include transitional or saving provision.
- (9) Regulations under this section are to be made by statutory instrument which is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

86D Fixed term tenancy arising on termination of previous fixed term

- (1) This section applies to a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England other than—
 - (a) an old-style secure tenancy, or
 - (b) a flexible tenancy the term of which ends within the period of 9 months beginning with the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force.

- (2) If the tenancy comes to an end by virtue of the term expiring, or by virtue of an order under section 82(3), a new tenancy of the same dwelling-house arises by virtue of this subsection.
- (3) Where the landlord has offered the tenant a new tenancy of the same dwelling-house following a review under section 86A but the tenant has failed to accept, the new tenancy that arises by virtue of subsection (2) is a fixed term tenancy of whatever length the landlord offered.
- (4) In any other case, the new tenancy that arises by virtue of subsection (2) is a 5 year fixed term tenancy.
- (5) The parties and other terms of a new tenancy that arises by virtue of subsection (2) are the same as those of the tenancy that it replaces, except that the terms—
 - (a) are confined to those which are compatible with a tenancy of the length determined in accordance with subsection (3) or (4), and
 - (b) do not include any provision for re-entry or forfeiture.
- (6) A new tenancy does not arise by virtue of subsection (2) if the tenant has been granted another secure tenancy of the same dwelling-house to begin at the same time as the earlier tenancy ends.

86E Recovery of possession of secure tenancies in England

- (1) The landlord under a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England may bring proceedings for possession under this section if—
 - (a) the landlord has decided on a review under section 86A to seek possession at the end of the tenancy, and
 - (b) the landlord has not subsequently revised the decision under section 86C.
- (2) If the landlord brings proceedings under this section the court must make an order for possession if satisfied that—
 - (a) the landlord has complied with all of the requirements of sections 86A to 86C,
 - (b) the tenancy that was the subject of the review section 86A has ended,
 - (c) the proceedings were commenced before the end of the period of 3 months beginning with the day on which the tenancy ended, and
 - (d) the only fixed term tenancy still in existence is a new secure tenancy arising by virtue of section 86D.
- (3) But the court may refuse to grant an order for possession under this section if the court considers that a decision of the landlord under section 86A or 86C was wrong in law.
- (4) Where a court makes an order for possession of a dwelling-house under this section, any fixed term tenancy arising by virtue of section 86D on the coming to an end of the tenancy that was the subject of the review under section 86A comes to an end (without further notice) in accordance with section 82(2).
- (5) This section does not limit any right of the landlord under a secure tenancy to recover possession of the dwelling-house let on the tenancy in accordance with other provisions of this Part.

*Termination of English secure tenancies by tenant86F Termination of English secure tenancies by tenant

- (1) It is a term of every secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England, other than an old-style secure tenancy, that the tenant may terminate the tenancy in accordance with the following provisions of this section.
 - (2) The tenant must serve a notice in writing on the landlord stating that the tenancy will be terminated on the date specified in the notice.
 - (3) That date must be after the end of the period of four weeks beginning with the date on which the notice is served.
 - (4) The landlord may agree with the tenant to dispense with the requirement in subsection (2) or (3).
 - (5) The tenancy is terminated on the date specified in the notice or (as the case may be) determined in accordance with arrangements made under subsection (4) only if on that date—
 - (a) no arrears of rent are payable under the tenancy, and
 - (b) the tenant is not otherwise materially in breach of a term of the tenancy.”
- 12 (1) Section 97 (tenant’s improvements require consent) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), after “secure tenancy” insert “to which this section applies”.
- (3) After subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) This section applies to—
- (a) a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in Wales, or
 - (b) an old-style secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England.”
- (4) Omit subsection (5).
- 13 (1) Section 99A (right to compensation for improvements) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1)(c), after “secure tenancy” insert “to which this section applies”.
- (3) After subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) This section applies to—
- (a) a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in Wales, or
 - (b) an old-style secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England.”
- (4) Omit subsection (9).
- 14 Omit sections 107A to 107E (flexible tenancies).
- 15 After section 115A insert—

“115B Meaning of “flexible tenancy”

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a flexible tenancy is a secure tenancy to which any of the following subsections applies.
- (2) This subsection applies to a secure tenancy if—
 - (a) it was granted by a landlord in England for a fixed term of not less than two years,
 - (b) it was granted before the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 came fully into force, and

- (c) before it was granted the person who became the landlord under the tenancy served a written notice on the person who became the tenant under the tenancy stating that the tenancy would be a flexible tenancy.
- (3) This subsection applies to a secure tenancy if—
- (a) it became a secure tenancy by virtue of a notice under paragraph 4ZA(2) of Schedule 1 (family intervention tenancies becoming secure tenancies),
 - (b) the notice was given before the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 came fully into force,
 - (c) the landlord under the family intervention tenancy in question was a local housing authority in England,
 - (d) the family intervention tenancy was granted to a person on the coming to an end of a flexible tenancy under which the person was a tenant,
 - (e) the notice states that the tenancy is to become a secure tenancy that is a flexible tenancy for a fixed term of the length specified in the notice, and sets out the other express terms of the tenancy, and
 - (f) the length of the term specified in the notice is at least two years.
- (4) The length of the term of a flexible tenancy that becomes such a tenancy by virtue of subsection (3) is that specified in the notice under paragraph 4ZA(2) of Schedule 1.
- (5) The other express terms of the flexible tenancy are those set out in the notice, so far as those terms are compatible with the statutory provisions relating to flexible tenancies; and in this subsection “statutory provision” means any provision made by or under an Act.
- (6) This subsection applies to a secure tenancy if—
- (a) it is created by virtue of section 137A of the Housing Act 1996 (introductory tenancies becoming flexible tenancies), or
 - (b) it arises by virtue of section 143MA or 143MB of that Act (demoted tenancies becoming flexible tenancies).”

115C Meaning of “old-style secure tenancy” in England

In this Part “old-style secure tenancy” means a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England that—

- (a) is a secure tenancy, other than a flexible tenancy, granted before the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 came fully into force,
 - (b) is a secure tenancy granted on or after that date that contains an express term stating that it is an old-style secure tenancy, or
 - (c) is a tenancy that arose by virtue of section 86 on the coming to an end of a secure tenancy within paragraph (a) or (b).”
- 16 (1) Section 117 (index of defined expressions) is amended as follows.
- (2) In the entry relating to flexible tenancies, for “section 107A” substitute “section 115B”.

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

- (3) In subsection (2), in the words before paragraph (a), after “dwelling-house” insert “in Wales”.
- (4) In subsection (2A), for “subsection (2)(b)” substitute “subsections (1A)(b) and (2)(b)”.
- (5) In subsection (3), for “subsection (2)” substitute “subsections (1A) and (2)”.
- (6) After subsection (5) insert—

“(6) In relation to a tenancy entered into or adopted by a local housing authority or a housing action trust before the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force, this section has effect—

- (a) as if subsection (1A) were omitted, and
- (b) as if, in subsection (2), the words “in Wales” were omitted.

20 After section 124 insert—

“124A New introductory tenancies in England: overall length

- (1) A local housing authority or a housing action trust may enter into an introductory tenancy of a dwelling-house in England only if it is a tenancy for a fixed term that is—
 - (a) at least 2 years, and
 - (b) no more than 5 years.
- (2) If a local housing authority or a housing action trust purports to enter into an introductory tenancy in breach of subsection (1), it takes effect as a tenancy for a fixed term of 5 years.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply only to tenancies entered into on or after the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force.
- (4) A tenancy of a dwelling-house in England that is adopted by a local housing authority or a housing action trust does not become an introductory tenancy if—
 - (a) it is adopted on or after the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 came fully into force, and
 - (b) the tenancy is a periodic tenancy or it is a tenancy for a fixed term of less than 2 years or more than 5 years.
- (5) Subsections (6) and (7) apply where a tenancy that has been adopted by a local housing authority or a housing action trust is not an introductory tenancy but would (on adoption or at any later time) become a secure tenancy but for subsection (4).
- (6) The local housing authority or housing action trust must, within the period of 28 days, make the tenant a written offer of an introductory tenancy in return for the tenant surrendering the original tenancy.
- (7) If the tenant accepts in writing within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the tenant receives the offer, the local housing authority or housing action trust must grant an introductory tenancy on the tenant surrendering the original tenancy.

124B Review of decisions about length of introductory tenancies in England

- (1) A person who is offered an introductory tenancy of a dwelling-house in England may request a review under this section.
 - (2) The sole purpose of a review under this section is to consider whether the length of the tenancy is in accordance with any policy that the prospective landlord has about the length of introductory tenancies it grants.
 - (3) The request must be made before the end of—
 - (a) the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the person making the request first receives the offer, or
 - (b) such longer period as the prospective landlord may allow in writing.
 - (4) On receiving the request the prospective landlord must carry out the review.
 - (5) On completing the review the prospective landlord must —
 - (a) notify the tenant in writing of the outcome,
 - (b) revise its offer or confirm its original decision about the length of the tenancy, and
 - (c) if it decides to confirm its original decision, give reasons.
 - (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about the procedure to be followed in connection with a review under this section.
 - (7) The regulations may, in particular—
 - (a) require the review to be carried out by a person of appropriate seniority who was not involved in the original decision;
 - (b) make provision as to the circumstances in which the person who requested the review is entitled to an oral hearing, and whether and by whom that person may be represented.”
- 21 (1) Section 125A (extension of trial period by 6 months) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), for “both” substitute “each”.
 - (3) After subsection (3) insert—
 - “(3A) The third condition must be met only if the introductory tenancy —
 - (a) is one to which section 124A(1) or (2) applies, or
 - (b) is adopted by a local housing authority or housing action trust on or after the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) came fully into force.
 - (3B) The third condition is that the new expiry date would be before the period mentioned in section 86A(3) of the Housing Act 1985 (review to determine what to do at end of fixed term secure tenancy); and for this purpose “the new expiry date” means the last day of the 6 month extension period mentioned in subsection (1).”
- 22 In section 128 (notice of proceedings for possession), in subsection (4), for the second sentence substitute—
- “The date so specified—
- (a) in a case where the introductory tenancy is a periodic tenancy, must not be earlier than the date on which the tenancy could,

- apart from this Chapter, be brought to an end by notice to quit given by the landlord on the same date as the proceedings, and
- (b) in a case where the introductory tenancy is a fixed term tenancy, must not be earlier than the end of the period of 6 weeks beginning with the date on which the notice of proceedings is served.”
- 23 In section 137A (introductory tenancies that are to become flexible tenancies), in subsection (2), for “, before entering into or adopting the introductory tenancy” substitute “the introductory tenancy was entered into or adopted before the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 came fully into force and, before entering into or adopting it.”.
- 24 In section 143A (demoted tenancies), in subsection (1), omit “periodic”.
- 25 In section 143E (notice of proceedings for possession), for subsection (3) substitute—
- “(3) The date specified under subsection (2)(c)—
- (a) in a case where the demoted tenancy is a periodic tenancy, must not be earlier than the date on which the tenancy could, apart from this Chapter, be brought to an end by notice to quit given by the landlord on the same date as the proceedings, and
- (b) in a case where the demoted tenancy is a fixed term tenancy, must not be earlier than the end of the period of 6 weeks beginning with the date on which the notice of proceedings is served.”
- 26 (1) Section 143MA (demoted tenancies that are to become flexible tenancies) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), for “section 107A of the Housing Act 1985” substitute “section 115B of the Housing Act 1985 (certain tenancies granted etc before the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 came fully into force)”.
- (3) After subsection (3) insert—
- “(3A) If the notice is given on or after the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force, the period specified under subsection (3)(b) must be no more than five years.”
- 27 After section 143MA insert—
- “143MB Default flexible tenancies when no notice given under section 143MA
- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) a landlord has the power to serve a notice under section 143MA on the tenant under a demoted tenancy but fails to do so, and
- (b) the tenancy comes to an end on or after the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force.
- (2) On ceasing to be a demoted tenancy, the tenancy becomes a secure tenancy for a fixed term of 5 years that is a flexible tenancy.

- (3) The terms of the new tenancy are the same as those of the tenancy that it replaces, so far as those terms are compatible with—
- (a) a tenancy for a fixed term of 5 years, and
 - (b) the statutory provisions relating to flexible tenancies (within the meaning given by section 143MA(5)).”

Land Registration Act 2002 (c. 9)

- 28 In section 132 of the Land Registration Act 2002 (interpretation), in the definition of “flexible tenancy” in subsection (1), for “107A” substitute “115B”.

Localism Act 2011 (c. 20)

- 29 The Localism Act 2011 (flexible tenancies: other amendments) is amended as follows.
- 30 In section 155, omit subsections (3) and (4).
- 31 In section 159 (further provisions about transfer of tenancy under section 158), in subsection (6)(b), for “107A” substitute “115B”.

Savings for flexible tenancies with only 9 months left to run

- 32 (1) Despite the repeal of sections 107D and 107E of the Housing Act 1985 (flexible tenancies: recovery of possession) by paragraph 14 above, those sections continue to apply in relation to a flexible tenancy the term of which ends within the period of 9 months beginning with the day on which paragraph 4 of this Schedule comes fully into force.
- (2) The amendments made by paragraphs 8 and 9 (which replace references to proceedings for possession under section 107D of the Housing Act 1985) do not apply in relation to such a tenancy.”

- (a) at the time of the tenant's death the dwelling-house is not occupied by a spouse or civil partner of the tenant as his or her only or principal home,
 - (b) an express term of the tenancy makes provision for a person other than such a spouse or civil partner of the tenant to succeed to the tenancy, and
 - (c) the person's succession is in accordance with that term.
- (3) Subsection (1) or (2) does not apply if the tenant was a successor as defined in section 132.
- (4) In such a case, a person is qualified to succeed the tenant if—
- (a) an express term of the tenancy makes provision for a person to succeed a successor to the tenancy, and
 - (b) the person's succession is in accordance with that term.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a person who was living with the tenant as the tenant's wife or husband is to be treated as the tenant's spouse.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies if, on the death of the tenant, there is by virtue of subsection (5) more than one person who fulfils the condition in subsection (1)(b).
- (7) Such one of those persons as may be agreed between them or as may, where there is no such agreement, be selected by the landlord is for the purpose of this section to be treated as the fulfilling that condition."
- 8 (1) Section 131 (persons qualified to succeed tenant) is amended as follows.
- (2) At the end of the heading for "tenant" substitute "to introductory tenancy: Wales".
- (3) After "introductory tenancy" insert "of a dwelling-house in Wales".
- 9 (1) Section 133 (succession to introductory tenancy) is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) Where there is a person qualified to succeed the tenant under section 130A, the tenancy vests by virtue of this section—
- (a) in that person, or
 - (b) if there is more than one such person, in such one of them as may be agreed between them or as may, where there is no agreement, be selected by the landlord.”
- (3) In subsection (2), after ““tenant” insert “under section 131”.
- 10 Before section 143H (but after the italic heading) insert—

“143GA Persons qualified to succeed to demoted tenancy: England

- (1) A person is qualified to succeed the tenant under a demoted tenancy of a dwelling-house in England if—
 - (a) the person occupies the dwelling-house as his or her only or principal home at the time of the tenant's death, and
 - (b) the person is the tenant's spouse or civil partner.
- (2) A person is qualified to succeed the tenant under a demoted tenancy of a dwelling-house in England if—
 - (a) at the time of the tenant's death the dwelling-house is not occupied by a spouse or civil partner of the tenant as his or her only or principal home,

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

- (b) an express term of the tenancy makes provision for a person other than such a spouse or civil partner of the tenant to succeed to the tenancy, and
 - (c) the person's succession is in accordance with that term.
- (3) Subsection (1) or (2) does not apply if the tenant was a successor as defined in section 132.
- (4) In such a case, a person is qualified to succeed the tenant if—
 - (a) an express term of the tenancy makes provision for a person to succeed a successor to the tenancy, and
 - (b) the person's succession is in accordance with that term.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a person who was living with the tenant as the tenant's wife or husband is to be treated as the tenant's spouse.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies if, on the death of the tenant, there is by virtue of subsection (5) more than one person who fulfils the condition in subsection (1)(b).
- (7) Such one of those persons as may be agreed between them or as may, where there is no such agreement, be selected by the landlord is for the purpose of this section to be treated as fulfilling that condition.
- (8) This section applies to a tenancy that became a demoted tenancy before or after Schedule (Succession to secure tenancies and related tenancies) of the Housing Act 2015 comes into force.

143GB Succession to demoted tenancy: England

- (1) This section applies if the tenant under a demoted tenancy of a dwelling-house in England dies.
- (2) Where there is a person qualified to succeed the tenant under section 143GA, the tenancy vests by virtue of this section—
 - (a) in that person, or
 - (b) if there is more than one such person, in such one of them as may be agreed between them or as may, where there is no agreement, be selected by the landlord.
- (3) Where a periodic demoted tenancy vests in a person qualified to succeed the tenant under section 143GA(2) or (4) and continues to be a demoted tenancy—
 - (a) the tenancy comes to an end immediately after vesting, and
 - (b) a new tenancy of the same dwelling-house arises by virtue of this subsection for a fixed term of 5 years.
- (4) The parties and terms of a tenancy arising by virtue of subsection (3) are the same as those of the tenancy that it replaces, except that the terms—
 - (a) are confined to those which are compatible with a tenancy for a fixed term of 5 years[, and
 - (b) do not include any provision for re-entry or forfeiture.]
- (5) Where a demoted tenancy comes to an end and a new tenancy arises by virtue of subsection (3), as from that time the demotion order is to be treated for all purposes as it had been made in relation to the new tenancy (and the demotion period remains the same).”

- 11 (1) Section 143H (succession to demoted tenancy) is amended as follows.
- (2) At the heading insert “: Wales”.
- (3) In subsection (1), after “tenancy” insert “of a dwelling-house in Wales”.
- 12 In section 143I (no successor tenant: termination), after “section” insert “143GA or”.
- 13 (1) Section 143J of the Housing Act 1996 (demoted tenancies: successor tenants) is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (3) insert—
- “(3A) The tenancy arose by virtue of section 89(2A) of the Housing Act 1985.”
- (3) For subsection (7) substitute—
- “(7) A person is the successor to a demoted tenancy if—
- (a) the tenancy vests in the person by virtue of section 143GB(2) or 143H(4) or (5), or
- (b) the tenancy arose by virtue of section 143GB(3).”

Localism Act 2011 (c. 20)

- 14 In section 160 of the Localism Act 2011 (succession to secure tenancies), omit subsection (6).

Savings

- 15 The amendments made by this Schedule do not apply in relation to cases where the tenant under a secure tenancy dies before it comes into force.
- 16 The amendments made by paragraphs 7 and 8 do not apply in relation to an introductory tenancy granted before the day on which this Schedule comes into force.
- 17 The amendments made by paragraphs 10 to 13 do not apply in relation to cases where the tenant under a demoted tenancy dies before this Schedule comes into force.”
