HOUSING AND PLANNING BILL

[SIXTEENTH AND SEVENTEENTH SITTINGS]

NEW CLAUSES

Brandon Lewis

Agreed to NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Revocation or variation of banning orders

- (1) A person against whom a banning order is made may apply to the First-tier Tribunal for an order under this section revoking or varying the order.
  - (2) If the banning order was made on the basis of one or more convictions all of which are overturned on appeal, the First-tier Tribunal must revoke the banning order.
  - (3) If the banning order was made on the basis of more than one conviction and some of them (but not all) have been overturned on appeal, the First-tier Tribunal may—
    - (a) vary the banning order, or
    - (b) revoke the banning order.
  - (4) If the banning order was made on the basis of one or more convictions that have become spent, the First-tier Tribunal may—
    - (a) vary the banning order, or
    - (b) revoke the banning order.
  - (5) The power to vary a banning order under (3)(a) or (4)(a) may be used to add new exceptions to a ban or to vary—
    - (a) the banned activities,
    - (b) the length of a ban, or
    - (c) existing exceptions to a ban.
  - (6) In this section “spent”, in relation to a conviction, means spent for the purposes of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.”

Brandon Lewis

Agreed to NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Offence of breach of banning order

- (1) A person who breaches a banning order commits an offence.
  - (2) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 51 weeks or to a fine or to both.
  - (3) If a financial penalty under section 17 has been imposed in respect of the breach, the person may not be convicted of an offence under this section.
  - (4) In relation to an offence committed before section 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 comes into force, the reference in subsection (2) to 51 weeks is to be read as a reference to 6 months.”

Brandon Lewis

Agreed to NC4

To move the following Clause—

“Offences by bodies corporate

- (1) Where an offence under section (Offence of breach of banning order) committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, an officer of a body corporate, the officer as well as the body corporate commits the offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.
  - (2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the member’s functions of management as if the member were an officer of the body corporate.”

Brandon Lewis

Agreed to NC5

To move the following Clause—

“Power to require information

- (1) A local housing authority may require a person to provide specified information for the purpose of enabling the authority to decide whether to apply for a banning order against the person.
- (2) It is an offence for the person to fail to comply with a requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for the failure.
- (3) It is an offence for the person to provide information that is false or misleading if the person knows that the information is false or misleading or is reckless as to whether it is false or misleading.

- (4) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine.”

Brandon Lewis

Agreed to NC6

To move the following Clause—

“Removal or variation of entries made under section 24

- (1) An entry made in the database under section 24 may be removed or varied in accordance with this section.
  - (2) If the entry was made on the basis of one or more convictions all of which are overturned on appeal, the responsible local housing authority must remove the entry.
  - (3) If the entry was made on the basis of more than one conviction and some of them (but not all) have been overturned on appeal, the responsible local housing authority may—
    - (a) remove the entry, or
    - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.
  - (4) If the entry was made on the basis of one or more convictions that have become spent, the responsible local housing authority may—
    - (a) remove the entry, or
    - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.
  - (5) If a local housing authority removes an entry in the database, or reduces the period for which it must be maintained, it must notify the person to whom the entry relates.
  - (6) In this section—

“responsible local housing authority” means the local housing authority by which the entry was made;

“spent”, in relation to a conviction, means spent for the purposes of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.”

Brandon Lewis

Agreed to NC7

To move the following Clause—

“Requests for exercise of powers under section (Removal or variation of entries made under section 24) and appeals

- (1) A person in respect of whom an entry is made in the database under section 24 may request the responsible local housing authority to use its powers under section (Removal or variation of entries made under section 24) to—
  - (a) remove the entry, or
  - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.
- (2) The request must be in writing.

- (3) Where a request is made, the local housing authority must—
  - (a) decide whether to comply with the request, and
  - (b) give the person notice of its decision.
- (4) If the local housing authority decides not to comply with the request the notice must include—
  - (a) reasons for that decision, and
  - (b) a summary of the appeal rights conferred by this section.
- (5) Where a person is given notice that the responsible local housing authority has decided not to comply with the request the person may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against that decision.
- (6) An appeal to the First-tier Tribunal under subsection (5) must be made before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the notice was given.
- (7) The First-tier Tribunal may allow an appeal to be made to it after the end of that period if satisfied that there is a good reason for the person's failure to appeal within the period (and for any subsequent delay).
- (8) On an appeal under this section the tribunal may order the local housing authority to—
  - (a) remove the entry, or
  - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.”

---

Brandon Lewis

Agreed to NC8

To move the following Clause—

“Meaning of “property manager” and related expressions

- (1) In this Part “property manager” means a person who engages in English property management work.
  - (2) In this Part “English property management work” means things done by a person in the course of a business in response to instructions received from another person (“the client”) where—
    - (a) the client wishes the person to arrange services, repairs, maintenance, improvements or insurance in respect of, or to deal with any other aspect of the management of, premises on the client's behalf, and
    - (b) the premises consist of housing in England let under a tenancy.”

“Procedure for redeeming English rentcharges

- (1) The Rentcharges Act 1977 is amended in accordance with subsections (2) to (5).
- (2) Before section 8 (but after the italic heading before section 8) insert—

“7A Power to make procedure for redeeming English rentcharges

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision allowing the owner of land in England affected by a rentcharge to redeem it.

- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may not make provision in relation to—

- (a) a rentcharge that could be redeemed by making an application under section 8(1A),
  - (b) a rentcharge of a kind mentioned in section 2(3) or section 3(3)(a),
  - (c) a rentcharge in respect of which the period for which it is payable cannot be ascertained, or
  - (d) a variable rentcharge.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(d) a rentcharge is variable if the amount of the rentcharge will, or may, vary in the future in accordance with the provisions of the instrument under which it is payable.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (1) may, in particular—
- (a) provide for the owner of land affected by a rentcharge to be able to redeem a rentcharge by taking specified steps, including making payments determined in accordance with the regulations;
  - (b) require a rent owner or other person to take specified steps to facilitate the redemption of a rentcharge, such as providing information or executing a deed of release;
  - (c) where the documents of title of the owner of land affected by a rentcharge are in the custody of a mortgagee, require the mortgagee to make those documents or copies of those documents available in accordance with the regulations;
  - (d) permit or require a person specified in the regulations to design the form of any document to be used in connection with the redemption of rentcharges under the regulations;
  - (e) provide for a court or tribunal to—
    - (i) determine disputes about or in relation to the redemption of a rentcharge;
    - (ii) make orders about the redemption of a rentcharge;
    - (iii) issue a redemption certificate;
  - (f) make provision corresponding to any of the provisions of section 10(2) to (4).
- (5) Nothing in this section prevents the redemption of a rentcharge otherwise than in accordance with regulations under subsection (1).”
- (3) In section 8—
- (a) in subsection (1)—
    - (i) after “land” insert “in Wales”;
    - (ii) for the words from “a certificate” to the end substitute “a redemption certificate”;
  - (b) after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) The owner of any land in England affected by a rentcharge which has been apportioned to that land by an apportionment order with a condition under—

    - (a) section 7(2) above, or
    - (b) section 20(1) of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1927,

may apply to the Secretary of State, in accordance with this section, for a redemption certificate.”

---

- (4) In section 12—
- (a) in subsection (1), after “this Act” insert “, apart from regulations under section 7A,”;
  - (b) after subsection (1) insert—
    - “(1A) Regulations under section 7A are to be made by statutory instrument.
    - (1B) A statutory instrument containing regulations under section 7A may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”
- (5) In section 13(1), in the definition of “redemption certificate”, for the words from “has” to the end substitute “means a certificate certifying that a rentcharge has been redeemed”.
- (6) The Leasehold Reform Act 1967 is amended in accordance with subsections (7) and (8).
- (7) In section 8(4)(b), for “8” substitute “7A”.
- (8) In section 11—
- (a) in subsection (6), after “1977” insert “or the amount that would have to be paid to secure the redemption of that rentcharge in accordance with regulations made under section 7A of that Act”;
  - (b) in subsection (7)(a), after “specified” insert “or required”;
  - (c) in subsection (8), for “8” substitute “7A”.

  - “(3) Subject to subsection (7), this section applies to any tenancy or licence under which a dwelling house is let wholly or mainly for human habitation.”
- (3) Leave out subsections (4) to (6).
- (4) After subsection (3), insert—
  - “(3ZA) Subsection 1 does not apply where the condition of the dwelling-house or common parts is due to—
    - (a) a breach by the tenant of the duty to use the dwelling-house in a tenant-like manner, or often express term of the tenancy to the same effect; or
    - (b) damage by fire, flood, tempest or other natural cause or inevitable accident.
  - (3ZB) Subsection 1 shall not require the landlord or licensor of the dwelling house to carry out works—
    - (a) which would contravene any statutory obligation or restriction; or
    - (b) which require the consent of a superior landlord, provided that such consent has been refused and the landlord or licensor has no right of action on the basis that such refusal of consent is unreasonable.
  - (3ZC) Any provision of or relating to a tenancy or licence is void insofar as it purports—
    - (a) to exclude or limit the obligations of the landlord or licensor under this section; or
    - (b) to permit any forfeiture or impose on the tenant or licensee any penalty or disadvantage in the event of his seeking to enforce the obligation under subsection (1).

- (1) A landlord of a rental property shall ensure that there is maintained in a safe condition—
- (a) any electrical installation; and
  - (b) any electrical appliances supplied by the landlord so as to prevent the risk of injury to any person in lawful occupation or relevant premises.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), a landlord shall—
- (a) ensure that the electrical installation and any electrical appliances supplied by the landlord are checked for safety within 12 months of initial leasing and thereafter at intervals of not more than 5 years since they were last checked for safety (whether such check was made pursuant to this Act or not);
  - (b) in the case of a lease commencing after the coming into force of this Act, ensure that the electrical installation and each electrical appliance to which the duty extends has been checked for safety within a period of 12 months before the lease commences or has been or is so checked within 12 months after the electrical installation or electrical appliance has been installed, whichever is later; and
  - (c) ensure that a record in respect of any electrical installation or electrical appliance so checked is made and retained for a period of 6 years from the date of that check and which shall include the following information—

- (i) the date on which the electrical installation or electrical appliance was checked;
  - (ii) the address of the premises at which the electrical installation or electrical appliance is installed;
  - (iii) the name and address of the landlord of the premises (or, where appropriate, his agent) at which the electrical installation or electrical appliance is installed;
  - (iv) a description of and the location of the electrical installation or electrical appliance checked;
  - (v) any defect identified;
  - (vi) any remedial action taken;
  - (vii) the name and signature of the individual carrying out the check; and
  - (viii) the registration number with which that individual's firm is registered with a Part P competent persons scheme approved by the Department for Communities and Local Government and certified as being competent in periodic inspection and testing.
- (3) Every landlord shall ensure that any work in relation to a relevant electrical installation or electrical appliance carried out pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) above is carried out by a firm registered with a Part P competent persons scheme approved for the time being by the Department for Communities and Local Government.
- (4) The record referred to in (2)(c), or a copy thereof, shall be made available upon request and upon reasonable notice for the inspection of any person in lawful occupation of relevant premises who may be affected by the use or operation of any electrical installation or electrical appliance to which the record relates.
- (5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), every landlord shall ensure that—
- (a) a copy of the record made pursuant to the requirements of (3)(c) is given to each existing tenant of premises to which the record relates within 28 days of the date of the check; and
  - (b) a copy of the last record made in respect of each electrical installation or electrical appliance is given to any new tenant of premises to which the record relates before that tenant occupies those premises save that, in respect of a tenant whose right to occupy those premises is for a period not exceeding 28 days, a copy of the record may instead be prominently displayed within those premises.
- (6) A landlord who fails to comply with this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale”.

To move the following Schedule—

“SCHEDULE

DEFAULT POWERS EXERCISABLE BY MAYOR OF LONDON OR COMBINED AUTHORITY:
SCHEDULE TO BE INSERTED IN THE PLANNING AND COMPULSORY PURCHASE ACT 2004

“SCHEDULE A1

Section 27A

DEFAULT POWERS EXERCISABLE BY MAYOR OF LONDON
OR COMBINED AUTHORITY

Default powers exercisable by Mayor of London

- 1 If the Secretary of State—
  - (a) thinks that a London borough council, in their capacity as local planning authority, are failing or omitting to do anything it is necessary for them to do in connection with the preparation, revision or adoption of a development plan document, and
  - (b) invites the Mayor of London to prepare or revise the document, the Mayor of London may prepare or revise (as the case may be) the development plan document.

  - (1) This paragraph applies where a development plan document is prepared or revised by the Mayor of London under paragraph 1.
  - (2) The Mayor of London must hold an independent examination.
  - (3) The Mayor of London—
    - (a) must publish the recommendations and reasons of the person appointed to hold the examination, and
    - (b) may also give directions to the council in relation to publication of those recommendations and reasons.
  - (4) The Mayor of London may—
    - (a) approve the document, or approve it subject to specified modifications, as a local development document, or
    - (b) direct the council to consider adopting the document by resolution of the council as a local development document.
- 3
  - (1) Subsections (4) to (7C) of section 20 apply to an examination held under paragraph 2(2)—
    - (a) with the reference to the local planning authority in subsection (7C) of that section being read as a reference to the Mayor of London, and
    - (b) with the omission of subsections (5)(c), (7)(b)(ii) and (7B)(b).

- (2) The Mayor of London must give reasons for anything he does in pursuance of paragraph 1 or 2(4).
- (3) The council must reimburse the Mayor of London—
  - (a) for any expenditure that the Mayor incurs in connection with anything which is done by him under paragraph 1 and which the council failed or omitted to do as mentioned in that paragraph;
  - (b) for any expenditure that the Mayor incurs in connection with anything which is done by him under paragraph 2(2).

Default powers exercisable by combined authority

- 4 In this Schedule—

“combined authority” means a combined authority established under section 103 of the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009;

“constituent planning authority”, in relation to a combined authority, means—

  - (a) a county council, metropolitan district council or non-metropolitan district council which is the local planning authority for an area within the area of the combined authority, or
  - (b) a joint committee established under section 29 whose area is within, or the same as, the area of the combined authority.
- 5 If the Secretary of State—
  - (a) thinks that a constituent planning authority are failing or omitting to do anything it is necessary for them to do in connection with the preparation, revision or adoption of a development plan document, and
  - (b) invites the combined authority to prepare or revise the document, the combined authority may prepare or revise (as the case may be) the development plan document.

  - (1) This paragraph applies where a development plan document is prepared or revised by a combined authority under paragraph 5.
  - (2) The combined authority must hold an independent examination.
  - (3) The combined authority—
    - (a) must publish the recommendations and reasons of the person appointed to hold the examination, and
    - (b) may also give directions to the constituent planning authority in relation to publication of those recommendations and reasons.
  - (4) The combined authority may—
    - (a) approve the document, or approve it subject to specified modifications, as a local development document, or
    - (b) direct the constituent planning authority to consider adopting the document by resolution of the authority as a local development document.

- 7 (1) Subsections (4) to (7C) of section 20 apply to an examination held under paragraph 6(2)—
- (a) with the reference to the local planning authority in subsection (7C) of that section being read as a reference to the combined authority, and
  - (b) with the omission of subsections (5)(c), (7)(b)(ii) and (7B)(b).
- (2) The combined authority must give reasons for anything they do in pursuance of paragraph 5 or 6(4).
- (3) The constituent planning authority must reimburse the combined authority—
- (a) for any expenditure that the combined authority incur in connection with anything which is done by them under paragraph 5 and which the constituent planning authority failed or omitted to do as mentioned in that paragraph;
  - (b) for any expenditure that the combined authority incur in connection with anything which is done by them under paragraph 6(2).

Intervention by Secretary of State

- 8 (1) This paragraph applies to a development plan document that has been prepared or revised—
- (a) under paragraph 1 by the Mayor of London, or
  - (b) under paragraph 5 by a combined authority.
- (2) If the Secretary of State thinks that a development plan document to which this paragraph applies is unsatisfactory—
- (a) he may at any time before the document is adopted under section 23, or approved under paragraph 2(4)(a) or 6(4)(a), direct the Mayor of London or the combined authority to modify the document in accordance with the direction;
  - (b) if he gives such a direction he must state his reasons for doing so.
- (3) Where a direction is given under sub-paragraph (2)—
- (a) the Mayor of London or the combined authority must comply with the direction;
  - (b) the document must not be adopted or approved unless the Secretary of State gives notice that the direction has been complied with.
- (4) Sub-paragraph (3) does not apply if or to the extent that the direction under sub-paragraph (2) is withdrawn by the Secretary of State.
- (5) At any time before a development plan document to which this paragraph applies is adopted under section 23, or approved under paragraph 2(4)(a) or 6(4)(a), the Secretary of State may direct that the document (or any part of it) is submitted to him for his approval.
- (6) In relation to a document or part of a document submitted to him under sub-paragraph (5) the Secretary of State—
- (a) may approve the document or part;

- (b) may approve it subject to specified modifications;
- (c) may reject it.

The Secretary of State must give reasons for his decision under this sub-paragraph.

- (7) The Secretary of State may at any time—
- (a) after a development plan document to which this paragraph applies has been submitted for independent examination, but
  - (b) before it is adopted under section 23 or approved under paragraph 2(4)(a) or 6(4)(a),
- direct the Mayor of London or the combined authority to withdraw the document.
- 9 (1) This paragraph applies if the Secretary of State gives a direction under paragraph 8(5).
- (2) No steps are to be taken in connection with the adoption or approval of the document until the Secretary of State gives his decision, or withdraws the direction.
- (3) If the direction is given, and not withdrawn, before the document has been submitted for independent examination, the Secretary of State must hold an independent examination.
- (4) If the direction—
- (a) is given after the document has been submitted for independent examination but before the person appointed to carry out the examination has made his recommendations, and
  - (b) is not withdrawn before those recommendations are made, the person must make his recommendations to the Secretary of State.
- (5) The document has no effect unless the document or (as the case may be) the relevant part of it has been approved by the Secretary of State, or the direction is withdrawn.
- The “relevant part” is the part of the document that—
- (a) is covered by a direction under paragraph 8(5) which refers to only part of the document, or
  - (b) continues to be covered by a direction under paragraph 8(5) following the partial withdrawal of the direction.
- (6) The Secretary of State must publish the recommendations made to him by virtue of sub-paragraph (3) or (4) and the reasons of the person making the recommendations.
- (7) In considering a document or part of a document submitted under paragraph 8(5) the Secretary of State may take account of any matter which he thinks is relevant.
- (8) It is immaterial whether any such matter was taken account of by the Mayor of London or the combined authority.
- 10 Subsections (4) to (7C) of section 20 apply to an examination held under paragraph 9(3)—

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

- (a) with the reference to the local planning authority in subsection (7C) of that section being read as a reference to the Secretary of State, and
  - (b) with the omission of subsections (5)(c), (7)(b)(ii) and (7B)(b).
- 11 In the exercise of any function under paragraph 8 or 9 the Secretary of State must have regard to the local development scheme.
- 12 The Mayor of London or the combined authority must reimburse the Secretary of State for any expenditure incurred by the Secretary of State under paragraph 8 or 9 that is specified in a notice given by him to the Mayor or the authority.

Temporary direction pending possible use of intervention powers

- 13 (1) If the Secretary of State is considering whether to give a direction to the Mayor of London or a combined authority under paragraph 8 in relation to a development plan document, he may direct the Mayor or the authority not to take any step in connection with the adoption or approval of the document—
- (a) until the time (if any) specified in the direction, or
  - (b) until the direction is withdrawn.
- (2) A document to which a direction under this paragraph relates has no effect while the direction is in force.
- (3) A direction given under this paragraph in relation to a document ceases to have effect if a direction is given under paragraph 8 in relation to that document.””

To move the following Schedule—

“SECURE TENANCIES ETC: PHASING OUT OF TENANCIES FOR LIFE

Law of Property Act 1925 (c. 20)

- 1 (1) Section 52 of the Law of Property Act 1925 (conveyances to be by deed, unless excepted by subsection (2) of that section) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (2), after paragraph (db) insert—
  - “(dc) secure tenancies of dwellings in England granted on or after the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force, other than old-style secure tenancies;”.
- (3) In subsection (3)—
  - (a) in the definition of “flexible tenancy”, for “107A” substitute “115B”;
  - (b) at the appropriate place insert—
    - ““secure tenancy” has the meaning given by section 79 of the Housing Act 1985 and “old style-secure tenancy” has the meaning given by section 115C of that Act;”.

Housing Act 1985 (c. 68)

- 2 The Housing Act 1985 is amended as follows.
- 3 For the italic heading before section 79 substitute—

“Secure tenancies”

- 4 After section 81 insert—

“Grant of new secure tenancies in England

81A New English secure tenancies to be between 2 and 5 years in general

- (1) A person may grant a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England only if it is a tenancy for a fixed term that is—
  - (a) at least 2 years, and
  - (b) no more than 5 years.

- (2) If a person purports to grant a secure tenancy in breach of subsection (1), it takes effect as a tenancy for a fixed term of 5 years.
- (3) This section does not apply to the grant of an old-style secure tenancy (as to which, see section 81B).

81B Cases where old-style English secure tenancies may be granted

- (1) A person may grant an old style-secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England only—
  - (a) in circumstances specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State, or
  - (b) in accordance with subsection (2).
- (2) A local housing authority that grants a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England must grant an old-style secure tenancy if—
  - (a) the tenancy is offered as a replacement for an old-style secure tenancy of some other dwelling-house, and
  - (b) the tenant has not made an application to move.
- (3) Other provisions of this Part set out the consequences of a tenancy being an old-style secure tenancy.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (1) may include transitional or saving provision.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (1) are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (6) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (1) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

81C Duty to offer new secure tenancy in limited circumstances

- (1) This section applies where a change in circumstances means that a tenancy that is not a secure tenancy would become a secure tenancy but for the exception in paragraph 1ZA of Schedule 1.
- (2) The landlord must, within the period of 28 days, make the tenant a written offer of a secure tenancy in return for the tenant surrendering the original tenancy.
- (3) If the tenant accepts in writing within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the tenant receives the offer, the landlord must grant the secure tenancy on the tenant surrendering the original tenancy.

81D Review of decisions about length of secure tenancies in England

- (1) A person who is offered a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England (under section 81C or otherwise) may request a review under this section, unless the tenancy on offer is an old-style secure tenancy.
- (2) The sole purpose of a review under this section is to consider whether the length of the tenancy is in accordance with any policy that the prospective landlord has about the length of secure tenancies it grants.
- (3) The request must be made before the end of—

- (a) the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the person making the request first receives the offer, or
  - (b) such longer period as the prospective landlord may allow in writing.
- (4) On receiving the request the prospective landlord must carry out the review.
- (5) On completing the review the prospective landlord must —
- (a) notify the tenant in writing of the outcome,
  - (b) revise its offer or confirm its original decision about the length of the tenancy, and
  - (c) if it decides to confirm its original decision, give reasons.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about the procedure to be followed in connection with a review under this section.
- (7) The regulations may, in particular—
- (a) require the review to be carried out by a person of appropriate seniority who was not involved in the original decision;
  - (b) make provision as to the circumstances in which the person who requested the review is entitled to an oral hearing, and whether and by whom that person may be represented.
- (8) Regulations under this section may include transitional or saving provision.
- (9) Regulations under this section are to be made by statutory instrument which is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”
- 5 In section 82 (security of tenure), in subsection (3), for the words from “section 86” to the end substitute “section 86 or 86D shall apply”.
- 6 (1) Section 82A (demoted tenancy) is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (4) insert—
- “(4A) The court may not make a demotion order in relation to a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England if—
- (a) the landlord is a local housing authority or housing action trust, and
  - (b) the term has less than 1 year and 9 months left to run
- (4B) But subsection (4A) does not apply to a tenancy to which an exception in section 86A(2) or (3) applies.”
- (3) In subsection (5), for paragraph (b) substitute—
- “(b) the period or term of the tenancy (but see subsection (6));”.
- (4) For subsection (6) substitute—
- “(6) Subsection (5)(b) does not apply if—
- (a) the secure tenancy was for a fixed term and was an old-style secure tenancy or a flexible tenancy, or
  - (b) the secure tenancy was for a fixed term and was a tenancy of a dwelling-house in Wales,
- and in such a case the demoted tenancy is a weekly periodic tenancy.”

- 7 After section 82 insert—
- “Orders for possession and expiry of term etc”*
- 8 In section 83 (proceedings for possession or termination: general notice requirements), in subsection (A1), for paragraph (b) substitute—
- “(b) proceedings for possession of a dwelling-house under section 86E (recovery of possession on expiry of certain English secure tenancies).”
- 9 In section 84 (grounds and orders for possession), in subsection (1), for “section 107D (recovery of possession on expiry of flexible tenancy)” substitute “section 86E (recovery of possession on expiry of certain English secure tenancies)”.
- 10 (1) Section 86 (periodic tenancy arising on termination of fixed term) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), after “secure tenancy” insert “to which this section applies”.
- (3) After subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) This section applies to a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in Wales.
- (1B) This section also applies to a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England that is—
- (a) an old-style secure tenancy, or
- (b) a flexible tenancy the term of which ends within the period of 9 months beginning with the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force,
- unless it is a tenancy excluded by subsection (1C).”
- (4) In subsection (2), for “this section” substitute “subsection (1)”.
- 11 After section 86 insert—

“English secure tenancies: review, renewal and possession

86A English tenancies: review to determine what to do at end of fixed term

- (1) The landlord under a fixed term secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England must carry out a review to decide what to do at the end of the term, unless one of the following exceptions applies.
- (2) Exception 1 is where the tenancy is an old-style secure tenancy.
- (3) Exception 2 is where the tenancy is a flexible tenancy the term of which ends within the period of 9 months beginning with the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force.
- (4) A review under this section must be carried out while the term has 6 to 9 months left to run.
- (5) On a review under this section the landlord must decide which of the following options to take.

- Option 1: offer to grant a new secure tenancy of the dwelling-house at the end of the current tenancy.
- Option 2: seek possession of the dwelling house at the end of the current tenancy but offer to grant a secure tenancy of another dwelling-house instead.
- Option 3: seek possession of the dwelling-house at the end of the current tenancy without offering to grant a secure tenancy of another dwelling-house.

- (6) The landlord must also—
- (a) offer the tenant advice on buying a home if the landlord considers that to be a realistic option for the tenant, and
  - (b) in appropriate cases, offer the tenant advice on other housing options.

86B Notification of outcome of review under section 86A

- (1) On completing a review under section 86A the landlord must notify the tenant in writing of the outcome of the review.
- (2) The notice must be given by no later than 6 months before the end of the term of the current tenancy.
- (3) The notice must state which of the options mentioned in section 86A the landlord has decided to take.
- (4) If the landlord has decided to seek possession of the dwelling-house at the end of the secure tenancy the notice must also—
  - (a) inform the tenant of the right under section 86C to request the landlord to reconsider, and
  - (b) specify the time limit for making a request under that section.
- (5) If the notice states that the landlord has decided to offer a new tenancy and the tenant accepts in writing before the end of the current tenancy, the landlord must grant the new tenancy in accordance with the offer.

86C Reconsideration of decision not to grant a tenancy

- (1) Where a tenant is notified that the outcome of a review under section 86A is that the landlord has decided to seek possession of the dwelling-house at the end of the current tenancy, the tenant may request the landlord to reconsider its decision.
- (2) The request must be made before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which tenant was notified of the decision.
- (3) On receiving the request, the landlord must reconsider its decision.
- (4) The landlord must, in particular, consider whether the original decision is in accordance with any policy that the landlord has about the circumstances in which it will grant a further tenancy on the coming to an end of an existing fixed term tenancy.
- (5) Once the landlord has reconsidered the decision the landlord must—
  - (a) notify the tenant in writing of the outcome,
  - (b) revise or confirm its original decision, and

- (c) if it decides to confirm its original decision, give reasons.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about the procedure to be followed in connection with reconsidering a decision for the purposes of this section.
- (7) The regulations may, in particular—
  - (a) require the original decision to be reconsidered by a person of appropriate seniority who was not involved in the original decision, and
  - (b) make provision as to the circumstances in which the person who requested the landlord to reconsider the original decision is entitled to an oral hearing, and whether and by whom that person may be represented.
- (8) Regulations under this section may include transitional or saving provision.
- (9) Regulations under this section are to be made by statutory instrument which is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

86D Fixed term tenancy arising on termination of previous fixed term

- (1) This section applies to a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England other than—
  - (a) an old-style secure tenancy, or
  - (b) a flexible tenancy the term of which ends within the period of 9 months beginning with the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force.
- (2) If the tenancy comes to an end by virtue of the term expiring, or by virtue of an order under section 82(3), a new tenancy of the same dwelling-house arises by virtue of this subsection.
- (3) Where the landlord has offered the tenant a new tenancy of the same dwelling-house following a review under section 86A but the tenant has failed to accept, the new tenancy that arises by virtue of subsection (2) is a fixed term tenancy of whatever length the landlord offered.
- (4) In any other case, the new tenancy that arises by virtue of subsection (2) is a 5 year fixed term tenancy.
- (5) The parties and other terms of a new tenancy that arises by virtue of subsection (2) are the same as those of the tenancy that it replaces, except that the terms—
  - (a) are confined to those which are compatible with a tenancy of the length determined in accordance with subsection (3) or (4), and
  - (b) do not include any provision for re-entry or forfeiture.
- (6) A new tenancy does not arise by virtue of subsection (2) if the tenant has been granted another secure tenancy of the same dwelling-house to begin at the same time as the earlier tenancy ends.

Housing and Planning Bill, *continued86E Recovery of possession of secure tenancies in England

- (1) The landlord under a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England may bring proceedings for possession under this section if—
  - (a) the landlord has decided on a review under section 86A to seek possession at the end of the tenancy, and
  - (b) the landlord has not subsequently revised the decision under section 86C.
- (2) If the landlord brings proceedings under this section the court must make an order for possession if satisfied that—
  - (a) the landlord has complied with all of the requirements of sections 86A to 86C,
  - (b) the tenancy that was the subject of the review section 86A has ended,
  - (c) the proceedings were commenced before the end of the period of 3 months beginning with the day on which the tenancy ended, and
  - (d) the only fixed term tenancy still in existence is a new secure tenancy arising by virtue of section 86D.
- (3) But the court may refuse to grant an order for possession under this section if the court considers that a decision of the landlord under section 86A or 86C was wrong in law.
- (4) Where a court makes an order for possession of a dwelling-house under this section, any fixed term tenancy arising by virtue of section 86D on the coming to an end of the tenancy that was the subject of the review under section 86A comes to an end (without further notice) in accordance with section 82(2).
- (5) This section does not limit any right of the landlord under a secure tenancy to recover possession of the dwelling-house let on the tenancy in accordance with other provisions of this Part.

*Termination of English secure tenancies by tenant86F Termination of English secure tenancies by tenant

- (1) It is a term of every secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England, other than an old-style secure tenancy, that the tenant may terminate the tenancy in accordance with the following provisions of this section.
- (2) The tenant must serve a notice in writing on the landlord stating that the tenancy will be terminated on the date specified in the notice.
- (3) That date must be after the end of the period of four weeks beginning with the date on which the notice is served.
- (4) The landlord may agree with the tenant to dispense with the requirement in subsection (2) or (3).
- (5) The tenancy is terminated on the date specified in the notice or (as the case may be) determined in accordance with arrangements made under subsection (4) only if on that date—
  - (a) no arrears of rent are payable under the tenancy, and

Housing and Planning Bill, *continued

- (b) the tenant is not otherwise materially in breach of a term of the tenancy.”
- 12 (1) Section 97 (tenant’s improvements require consent) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), after “secure tenancy” insert “to which this section applies”.
- (3) After subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) This section applies to—
- (a) a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in Wales, or
- (b) an old-style secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England.”
- (4) Omit subsection (5).
- 13 (1) Section 99A (right to compensation for improvements) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1)(c), after “secure tenancy” insert “to which this section applies”.
- (3) After subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) This section applies to—
- (a) a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in Wales, or
- (b) an old-style secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England.”
- (4) Omit subsection (9).
- 14 Omit sections 107A to 107E (flexible tenancies).
- 15 After section 115A insert—

“115B Meaning of “flexible tenancy”

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a flexible tenancy is a secure tenancy to which any of the following subsections applies.
- (2) This subsection applies to a secure tenancy if—
- (a) it was granted by a landlord in England for a fixed term of not less than two years,
- (b) it was granted before the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 came fully into force, and
- (c) before it was granted the person who became the landlord under the tenancy served a written notice on the person who became the tenant under the tenancy stating that the tenancy would be a flexible tenancy.
- (3) This subsection applies to a secure tenancy if—
- (a) it became a secure tenancy by virtue of a notice under paragraph 4ZA(2) of Schedule 1 (family intervention tenancies becoming secure tenancies),
- (b) the notice was given before the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 came fully into force,
- (c) the landlord under the family intervention tenancy in question was a local housing authority in England,
- (d) the family intervention tenancy was granted to a person on the coming to an end of a flexible tenancy under which the person was a tenant,
- (e) the notice states that the tenancy is to become a secure tenancy that is a flexible tenancy for a fixed term of the length

- (c) it is a periodic tenancy or a tenancy for a fixed term of less than 2 years or more than 5 years.”
- (3) In paragraph 4ZA, after sub-paragraph (2) insert—
- “(2A) A notice under sub-paragraph (2) that relates to a tenancy of a dwelling-house in England must—
- (a) state that the tenancy is to become a secure tenancy for a fixed term of a length specified in the notice, and
- (b) set out the other express terms of the tenancy.
- (2B) The length of the term specified in a notice in accordance with sub-paragraph (2A) must not be less than 2 or more than 5 years.
- (2C) Where a notice is given in accordance with sub-paragraph (2A) the length of the secure tenancy, and the other terms, are those set out in the notice.
- (2D) Sub-paragraphs (2A) to (2C) do not apply to notices given before the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force.”

Housing Act 1996 (c. 52)

- 18 The Housing Act 1996 is amended as follows.
- 19 (1) Section 124 (introductory tenancies) is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) When such an election is in force, every fixed term tenancy of a dwelling-house in England entered into or adopted by the authority or trust shall, if it would otherwise be a secure tenancy, be an introductory tenancy, unless section 124A(4) applies or immediately before the tenancy was entered into or adopted the tenant or, in the case of joint tenants, one or more of them was—
- (a) a secure tenant of the same or another dwelling-house, or
- (b) a tenant under a relevant assured tenancy, other than an assured shorthold tenancy, of the same or another dwelling-house.”
- (3) In subsection (2), in the words before paragraph (a), after “dwelling-house” insert “in Wales”.
- (4) In subsection (2A), for “subsection (2)(b)” substitute “subsections (1A)(b) and (2)(b)”.
- (5) In subsection (3), for “subsection (2)” substitute “subsections (1A) and (2)”.
- (6) After subsection (5) insert—
- “(6) In relation to a tenancy entered into or adopted by a local housing authority or a housing action trust before the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force, this section has effect—
- (a) as if subsection (1A) were omitted, and
- (b) as if, in subsection (2), the words “in Wales” were omitted.

20 After section 124 insert—

“124A New introductory tenancies in England: overall length

- (1) A local housing authority or a housing action trust may enter into an introductory tenancy of a dwelling-house in England only if it is a tenancy for a fixed term that is—
  - (a) at least 2 years, and
  - (b) no more than 5 years.
- (2) If a local housing authority or a housing action trust purports to enter into an introductory tenancy in breach of subsection (1), it takes effect as a tenancy for a fixed term of 5 years.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply only to tenancies entered into on or after the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force.
- (4) A tenancy of a dwelling-house in England that is adopted by a local housing authority or a housing action trust does not become an introductory tenancy if—
  - (a) it is adopted on or after the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 came fully into force, and
  - (b) the tenancy is a periodic tenancy or it is a tenancy for a fixed term of less than 2 years or more than 5 years.
- (5) Subsections (6) and (7) apply where a tenancy that has been adopted by a local housing authority or a housing action trust is not an introductory tenancy but would (on adoption or at any later time) become a secure tenancy but for subsection (4).
- (6) The local housing authority or housing action trust must, within the period of 28 days, make the tenant a written offer of an introductory tenancy in return for the tenant surrendering the original tenancy.
- (7) If the tenant accepts in writing within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the tenant receives the offer, the local housing authority or housing action trust must grant an introductory tenancy on the tenant surrendering the original tenancy.

124B Review of decisions about length of introductory tenancies in England

- (1) A person who is offered an introductory tenancy of a dwelling-house in England may request a review under this section.
- (2) The sole purpose of a review under this section is to consider whether the length of the tenancy is in accordance with any policy that the prospective landlord has about the length of introductory tenancies it grants.
- (3) The request must be made before the end of—
  - (a) the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the person making the request first receives the offer, or
  - (b) such longer period as the prospective landlord may allow in writing.

- (4) On receiving the request the prospective landlord must carry out the review.
  - (5) On completing the review the prospective landlord must —
    - (a) notify the tenant in writing of the outcome,
    - (b) revise its offer or confirm its original decision about the length of the tenancy, and
    - (c) if it decides to confirm its original decision, give reasons.
  - (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about the procedure to be followed in connection with a review under this section.
  - (7) The regulations may, in particular—
    - (a) require the review to be carried out by a person of appropriate seniority who was not involved in the original decision;
    - (b) make provision as to the circumstances in which the person who requested the review is entitled to an oral hearing, and whether and by whom that person may be represented.”
- 21 (1) Section 125A (extension of trial period by 6 months) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), for “both” substitute “each”.
- (3) After subsection (3) insert—
- “(3A) The third condition must be met only if the introductory tenancy —
- (a) is one to which section 124A(1) or (2) applies, or
  - (b) is adopted by a local housing authority or housing action trust on or after the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) came fully into force.
- (3B) The third condition is that the new expiry date would be before the period mentioned in section 86A(3) of the Housing Act 1985 (review to determine what to do at end of fixed term secure tenancy); and for this purpose “the new expiry date” means the last day of the 6 month extension period mentioned in subsection (1).”
- 22 In section 128 (notice of proceedings for possession), in subsection (4), for the second sentence substitute—
- “The date so specified—
- (a) in a case where the introductory tenancy is a periodic tenancy, must not be earlier than the date on which the tenancy could, apart from this Chapter, be brought to an end by notice to quit given by the landlord on the same date as the proceedings, and
  - (b) in a case where the introductory tenancy is a fixed term tenancy, must not be earlier than the end of the period of 6 weeks beginning with the date on which the notice of proceedings is served.”
- 23 In section 137A (introductory tenancies that are to become flexible tenancies), in subsection (2), for “, before entering into or adopting the introductory tenancy” substitute “the introductory tenancy was entered into or adopted before the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 came fully into force and, before entering into or adopting it.”.
- 24 In section 143A (demoted tenancies), in subsection (1), omit “periodic”.

- 25 In section 143E (notice of proceedings for possession), for subsection (3) substitute—
- “(3) The date specified under subsection (2)(c)—
- (a) in a case where the demoted tenancy is a periodic tenancy, must not be earlier than the date on which the tenancy could, apart from this Chapter, be brought to an end by notice to quit given by the landlord on the same date as the proceedings, and
  - (b) in a case where the demoted tenancy is a fixed term tenancy, must not be earlier than the end of the period of 6 weeks beginning with the date on which the notice of proceedings is served.”
- 26 (1) Section 143MA (demoted tenancies that are to become flexible tenancies) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), for “section 107A of the Housing Act 1985” substitute “section 115B of the Housing Act 1985 (certain tenancies granted etc before the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 came fully into force)”.
- (3) After subsection (3) insert—
- “(3A) If the notice is given on or after the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force, the period specified under subsection (3)(b) must be no more than five years.”
- 27 After section 143MA insert—
- “143MB Default flexible tenancies when no notice given under section 143MA
- (1) This section applies where—
    - (a) a landlord has the power to serve a notice under section 143MA on the tenant under a demoted tenancy but fails to do so, and
    - (b) the tenancy comes to an end on or after the day on which paragraph 4 of Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life) to the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes fully into force.
  - (2) On ceasing to be a demoted tenancy, the tenancy becomes a secure tenancy for a fixed term of 5 years that is a flexible tenancy.
  - (3) The terms of the new tenancy are the same as those of the tenancy that it replaces, so far as those terms are compatible with—
    - (a) a tenancy for a fixed term of 5 years, and
    - (b) the statutory provisions relating to flexible tenancies (within the meaning given by section 143MA(5)).”

Land Registration Act 2002 (c. 9)

- 28 In section 132 of the Land Registration Act 2002 (interpretation), in the definition of “flexible tenancy” in subsection (1), for “107A” substitute “115B”.

---

Localism Act 2011 (c. 20)

- 29 The Localism Act 2011 (flexible tenancies: other amendments) is amended as follows.
- 30 In section 155, omit subsections (3) and (4).
- 31 In section 159 (further provisions about transfer of tenancy under section 158), in subsection (6)(b), for “107A” substitute “115B”.

Savings for flexible tenancies with only 9 months left to run

- 32 (1) Despite the repeal of sections 107D and 107E of the Housing Act 1985 (flexible tenancies: recovery of possession) by paragraph 14 above, those sections continue to apply in relation to a flexible tenancy the term of which ends within the period of 9 months beginning with the day on which paragraph 4 of this Schedule comes fully into force.
- (2) The amendments made by paragraphs 8 and 9 (which replace references to proceedings for possession under section 107D of the Housing Act 1985) do not apply in relation to such a tenancy.”

To move the following Schedule—

“SUCCESSION TO SECURE TENANCIES AND RELATED TENANCIES

Housing Act 1985 (c. 68)

- 1 The Housing Act 1985 is amended as follows.
- 2 In section 86 (periodic tenancy arising on termination of fixed term), after subsection (1B) (inserted by Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life)) insert—
- “(1C) This section does not apply to a secure tenancy of a dwelling-house in England if—
- (a) the original secure tenant has died,
- (b) the tenancy has been vested in, or otherwise disposed of to, the current tenant in the course of the administration of the original tenant’s estate, and
- (c) the current tenant qualified to succeed the original tenant under section 86G(2) or (4).”
- 3 (1) Section 86A (persons qualified to succeed: England) as inserted by the Localism Act 2011—
- (a) is renumbered section 86G (so that it follows on from section 86F as inserted by Schedule (Secure tenancies etc: phasing out of tenancies for life)) without making the numbering more complex than it has to be), and
- (b) is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (7) insert—
- “(8) This section applies to a tenancy that was granted before 1 April 2012, or that arose by virtue of section 86 on the coming to the end of a secure tenancy granted before 1 April 2012, as it applies to a secure tenancy granted on or after that day.”

- 4 In section 88 (cases where the tenant is a successor), in subsection (1), after paragraph (b) insert—
- “(ba) the tenancy arose by virtue of section 89(2A) (fixed term tenancy arising in certain cases following succession to periodic tenancy), or”.
- 5 (1) Section 89 (succession to period tenancy) is amended as follows.
 (2) In subsection (1A), for “section 86A” substitute “section 86G”.
 (3) After subsection (2) insert—
- “(2A) Where the tenancy vests in a person qualified to succeed the tenant under section 86G(2) or (4) and continues to be a secure tenancy—
 (a) the periodic tenancy comes to an end immediately after vesting, and
 (b) a new tenancy of the same dwelling-house arises by virtue of this subsection for a fixed term of 5 years.
- (2B) The parties and terms of a tenancy arising by virtue of subsection (2A) are the same as those of the tenancy that it replaces, except that the terms—
 (a) are confined to those which are compatible with a tenancy for a fixed term of 5 years, and
 (b) do not include any provision for re-entry or forfeiture.”
- 6 In section 117 (index of defined expressions), in the entry relating to persons qualified to succeed, for “section 87” substitute “sections 86G and 87”.

Housing Act 1996 (c. 52)

- 7 Before section 131 (but after the italic heading) insert—
- “130A Persons qualified to succeed to introductory tenancy: England
- (1) A person is qualified to succeed the tenant under an introductory tenancy of a dwelling-house in England if—
 (a) the person occupies the dwelling-house as his or her only or principal home at the time of the tenant’s death, and
 (b) the person is the tenant’s spouse or civil partner.
- (2) A person is qualified to succeed the tenant under an introductory tenancy of a dwelling-house in England if—
 (a) at the time of the tenant’s death the dwelling-house is not occupied by a spouse or civil partner of the tenant as his or her only or principal home,
 (b) an express term of the tenancy makes provision for a person other than such a spouse or civil partner of the tenant to succeed to the tenancy, and
 (c) the person’s succession is in accordance with that term.
- (3) Subsection (1) or (2) does not apply if the tenant was a successor as defined in section 132.
- (4) In such a case, a person is qualified to succeed the tenant if—
 (a) an express term of the tenancy makes provision for a person to succeed a successor to the tenancy, and

- (b) the person's succession is in accordance with that term.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a person who was living with the tenant as the tenant's wife or husband is to be treated as the tenant's spouse.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies if, on the death of the tenant, there is by virtue of subsection (5) more than one person who fulfils the condition in subsection (1)(b).
- (7) Such one of those persons as may be agreed between them or as may, where there is no such agreement, be selected by the landlord is for the purpose of this section to be treated as the fulfilling that condition."
- 8 (1) Section 131 (persons qualified to succeed tenant) is amended as follows.
- (2) At the end of the heading for "tenant" substitute "to introductory tenancy: Wales".
- (3) After "introductory tenancy" insert "of a dwelling-house in Wales".
- 9 (1) Section 133 (succession to introductory tenancy) is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) Where there is a person qualified to succeed the tenant under section 130A, the tenancy vests by virtue of this section—
- (a) in that person, or
- (b) if there is more than one such person, in such one of them as may be agreed between them or as may, where there is no agreement, be selected by the landlord.”
- (3) In subsection (2), after ““tenant” insert “under section 131”.
- 10 Before section 143H (but after the italic heading) insert—

“143GA Persons qualified to succeed to demoted tenancy: England

- (1) A person is qualified to succeed the tenant under a demoted tenancy of a dwelling-house in England if—
- (a) the person occupies the dwelling-house as his or her only or principal home at the time of the tenant's death, and
- (b) the person is the tenant's spouse or civil partner.
- (2) A person is qualified to succeed the tenant under a demoted tenancy of a dwelling-house in England if—
- (a) at the time of the tenant's death the dwelling-house is not occupied by a spouse or civil partner of the tenant as his or her only or principal home,
- (b) an express term of the tenancy makes provision for a person other than such a spouse or civil partner of the tenant to succeed to the tenancy, and
- (c) the person's succession is in accordance with that term.
- (3) Subsection (1) or (2) does not apply if the tenant was a successor as defined in section 132.
- (4) In such a case, a person is qualified to succeed the tenant if—
- (a) an express term of the tenancy makes provision for a person to succeed a successor to the tenancy, and
- (b) the person's succession is in accordance with that term.

- (5) For the purposes of this section a person who was living with the tenant as the tenant's wife or husband is to be treated as the tenant's spouse.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies if, on the death of the tenant, there is by virtue of subsection (5) more than one person who fulfils the condition in subsection (1)(b).
- (7) Such one of those persons as may be agreed between them or as may, where there is no such agreement, be selected by the landlord is for the purpose of this section to be treated as fulfilling that condition.
- (8) This section applies to a tenancy that became a demoted tenancy before or after Schedule (Succession to secure tenancies and related tenancies) of the Housing Act 2015 comes into force.

143GB Succession to demoted tenancy: England

- (1) This section applies if the tenant under a demoted tenancy of a dwelling-house in England dies.
  - (2) Where there is a person qualified to succeed the tenant under section 143GA, the tenancy vests by virtue of this section—
    - (a) in that person, or
    - (b) if there is more than one such person, in such one of them as may be agreed between them or as may, where there is no agreement, be selected by the landlord.
  - (3) Where a periodic demoted tenancy vests in a person qualified to succeed the tenant under section 143GA(2) or (4) and continues to be a demoted tenancy—
    - (a) the tenancy comes to an end immediately after vesting, and
    - (b) a new tenancy of the same dwelling-house arises by virtue of this subsection for a fixed term of 5 years.
  - (4) The parties and terms of a tenancy arising by virtue of subsection (3) are the same as those of the tenancy that it replaces, except that the terms—
    - (a) are confined to those which are compatible with a tenancy for a fixed term of 5 years[, and
    - (b) do not include any provision for re-entry or forfeiture.]
  - (5) Where a demoted tenancy comes to an end and a new tenancy arises by virtue of subsection (3), as from that time the demotion order is to be treated for all purposes as it had been made in relation to the new tenancy (and the demotion period remains the same).”
- 11 (1) Section 143H (succession to demoted tenancy) is amended as follows.
- (2) At the heading insert “: Wales”.
  - (3) In subsection (1), after “tenancy” insert “of a dwelling-house in Wales”.
- 12 In section 143I (no successor tenant: termination), after “section” insert “143GA or”.
- 13 (1) Section 143J of the Housing Act 1996 (demoted tenancies: successor tenants) is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (3) insert—

“(3A) The tenancy arose by virtue of section 89(2A) of the Housing Act 1985.”

(3) For subsection (7) substitute—

- “(7) A person is the successor to a demoted tenancy if—
- (a) the tenancy vests in the person by virtue of section 143GB(2) or 143H(4) or (5), or
  - (b) the tenancy arose by virtue of section 143GB(3).”

Localism Act 2011 (c. 20)

- 14 In section 160 of the Localism Act 2011 (succession to secure tenancies), omit subsection (6).

Savings

- 15 The amendments made by this Schedule do not apply in relation to cases where the tenant under a secure tenancy dies before it comes into force.
- 16 The amendments made by paragraphs 7 and 8 do not apply in relation to an introductory tenancy granted before the day on which this Schedule comes into force.
- 17 The amendments made by paragraphs 10 to 13 do not apply in relation to cases where the tenant under a demoted tenancy dies before this Schedule comes into force.”
