“(3) The conditions at subsection (2) must include a condition that money equivalent to the market value (disregarding any discount) of a dwelling sold under Right to Buy and to which the grant applies is spent by the private registered provider on the provision of affordable housing in London, including at least one new home replacing that sold which is—

- (a) of the same tenure,
- (b) located in the same London borough, and
- (c) in accordance with assessed local housing need.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require housing associations offering the Right to Buy to their tenants in London to re-invest all the money received as a result of the sale in replacement affordable housing in London, including a guaranteed like-for-like home in the same borough.

Gareth Thomas

188

- ☆ Clause 58, page 24, line 22, at end insert “which will include the use of local occupancy clauses as defined by section 157 of the 1985 Housing Act”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure anyone subsequently buying a former housing association property sold under the right to buy would have to have lived or worked in the housing authority area where the property is located for three years or more prior to purchase.

Gareth Thomas

Clause 58, page 24, line 32, at end insert—

- “(7) The Regulator in monitoring compliance must report where a community led housing provider as defined at Schedule [New Schedule 1: community-led housing schemes] or a tenant management organisation as defined by [New Clause: Tenant Management Organisations] has in breach of this Act used grants made by the Secretary of State to facilitate or meet a discount in respect of a right to buy discount.”

Gareth Thomas

- ☆ Clause 58, page 24, line 32, at end insert—

- “(7) The Secretary of State and the Mayor of London must publish an annual report and impact assessment setting out how many housing association properties have been sold off and its impact on homelessness in Greater London.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Secretary of State and Mayor of London to publish an annual report and impact assessment setting out how many housing association properties have been sold off and its impact on homelessness in Greater London.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

153

☆ Clause 59, page 25, line 8, at end insert—

“() Property offered under portability must be of—

- (a) similar size,
- (b) similar or improved quality,
- (c) in an area agreed by the tenant, and
- (d) subject to an appeal mechanism.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would protect the tenant against an unreasonable offer of portability.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

154

☆ Clause 59, page 25, line 8, at end insert—

“() The discount should remain in perpetuity.”

Member’s explanatory statement

Gareth Thomas

186

- ☆ Clause 62, page 26, line 7, at end insert “except in respect of a local housing authority within Greater London.

(1A) In respect of a local housing authority within Greater London the Mayor of London after consultation with the London Assembly may make a determination requiring the authority to make a payment to the Mayor in respect of a financial year.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This clause would devolve to the Mayor of London after consultation with the Assembly, any requirements by housing authorities in London to make payments relating to the sale of high value Council housing.

Gareth Thomas

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods

John Healey

Teresa Pearce

Matthew Pennycook

144

- ☆ Clause 62, page 26, line 7, at end insert—

“(1A) Before making a determination under subsection (1) requiring a local housing authority within Greater London to make a payment, the Secretary of State must obtain the consent of the Mayor of London and the London Assembly.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Secretary of State to obtain the consent of the Mayor of London and the London Assembly before making a determination requiring a local housing authority in London to make a payment to the Secretary of State in respect of vacant high value housing.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods

John Healey

Teresa Pearce

Matthew Pennycook

157

- ☆ Clause 62, page 26, line 11, at end insert—

“(2A) The total payment required from all affected local authorities in any financial year shall not exceed the total grant paid in that year to private registered providers in respect of right to buy discounts.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would avoid powers being used as a general means of taxing councils and tenants for the benefit of the Exchequer.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

158

☆ Clause 62, page 26, line 11, at end insert—

“(2B) The costs and deductions referred to in section 62(2)(b) must include an estimate of the cost of replacing each high value dwelling sold with a dwelling with the same number of bedrooms in the same local authority area.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would allow for one-for-one local replacement.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

159

☆ Clause 62, page 26, line 25, at end insert—

“() Regulations under subsection (8) may not define a dwelling as “high value” if its sale value is less than the cost of rebuilding it and providing a replacement dwelling with the same number of bedrooms in the same local authority area.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would prevent dwellings being defined as “high value” if the cost of its replacement on a like-for-like basis in the same local authority area exceeds the receipt of sale.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

160

☆ Clause 62, page 26, line 25, at end insert—

“() The definition of “high value” must be based on the housing market within the local authority.”

Helen Hayes

189

☆ Clause 62, page 26, line 25, at end insert—

“(10) Existing Tenant Management Organisations (as defined by The Housing (Right to Manage) Regulations 1994), that also fulfil the definition of a community-led organisation as defined at Schedule ([New Schedule 1: community-led housing schemes]), will retain the benefit of right to buy and high value sales, provided it is invested in new housing.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would allow community-led organisations to keep right to buy and high values sales income, conditional on the income being re-invested in new homes.

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

Gareth Thomas
 Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
 John Healey
 Teresa Pearce
 Matthew Pennycook

95

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that local authorities could retain 100% of the capital receipt from the sale of any local authority housing under the Act to reinvest in new housing.

Gareth Thomas

90

Clause 63, page 26, line 27, at end insert—

“(1A) This section does not apply to sheltered housing which has been provided or adapted for the use of elderly or disabled people, irrespective of whether it is vacant or may become vacant.”

Gareth Thomas

96

Clause 63, page 26, line 31, at end insert—

“(c) it is not a Tenant Management Organisation as defined for the purpose of section 27AB(8) of the Housing Act 1985, currently by the Housing (Right to Manage) Regulations 1994 (Statutory Instrument 627, 1994).”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that properties run by tenant management organisations were not included in any assessment of the payment due to the Secretary of State under Clause 62.

Gareth Thomas

145

☆ Clause 63, page 26, line 31, at end insert—

“(c) it is not in an area of high homelessness as defined by the Regulator for Social Housing.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would exclude high value housing which is in an area of high homelessness from having to be sold by the local housing authority.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
 John Healey
 Teresa Pearce
 Matthew Pennycook

162

☆ Clause 63, page 26, line 37, at end insert “for a period of no more than 5 years after the housing has been transferred to a private registered provider of social housing”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment would limit the amount of time during which the Secretary of State could take into account transferred stock when making a determination.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
 John Healey
 Teresa Pearce
 Matthew Pennycook

163

☆ Clause 63, page 26, line 39, at end insert—

- “() Regulations shall provide that housing shall be excluded where a vacancy has occurred as a result of the transfer of the former tenant to alternative accommodation in the social rented sector, where accommodation in the social rented sector means any accommodation owned or let by a local authority or other registered provider of social housing.”

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
 John Healey
 Teresa Pearce
 Matthew Pennycook

164

☆ Clause 63, page 26, line 39, at end insert—

- “() Regulations shall provide that housing shall be excluded where a vacancy has occurred as a result of the eviction of the former tenant from the relevant dwelling on account of anti-social behaviour caused by the tenant, or by a person residing in or visiting the relevant dwelling.

- () In subsection (), “anti-social behaviour” shall have the same meaning as in section 2 of the Anti-social Behaviour Crime and Policing Act 2014.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would exclude from the estimate of high value housing properties that become vacant due to anti-social behaviour evictions.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
 John Healey
 Teresa Pearce
 Matthew Pennycook

165

☆ Clause 63, page 26, line 39, at end insert—

- “() Regulations shall provide that housing shall be excluded where it forms part of a housing regeneration scheme or consists of specialist housing or recently improved housing.

- () In subsection (), a “housing regeneration scheme” means a programme of regeneration or development of an area which includes the provision or improvement of housing and for which finance may be available under section 126 of the Housing Grants, Construction and Regeneration Act 1996.

- () In subsection (), “specialist housing” means any housing designed for or intended for occupation by older persons or persons needing care or support or persons with mental health problems or learning disabilities; or which has features which are designed to make it suitable for occupation by a physically disabled person; or which it is the practice of the landlord to let for occupation by persons with special needs.

- () In subsection (), housing shall be considered to have been recently improved if substantial works of repair or improvement have been carried out on the relevant dwelling or group of dwellings within the previous two years.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would exclude certain types of property from inclusion in high value homes determination.

Clause 67, page 28, line 7, at end insert—

“(2A) In the case of a proposal for an agreement under subsection (1) between the Secretary of State and a local housing authority which is within Greater London as defined by section 2 of the London Government Act 1963 the Secretary of State shall—

- (a) have particular regard to the extent to which the agreement will contribute to the target set under section [New Clause 1; Target for new affordable housing provision in Greater London], and
- (b) consult the Mayor of London.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment and New Clause 1 would require the Secretary of State and housing authorities in London entering an agreement which would reduce the amount due to be paid under section 62 to have regard to the duty to achieve the provision of at least two new units of affordable housing for the disposal of each unit of high value in London.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
 John Healey
 Teresa Pearce
 Matthew Pennycook

170

☆ Clause 67, page 28, line 8, at end insert—

- “(4) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1), housing shall not be taken into account under section 62(2) unless the proceeds of sale of every relevant property are applied to fund the construction of a new property in the same locality which is to be let as social housing on terms (as to rent, security of tenure and generally) which are substantially the same as those on which the original dwelling was let.
- (5) No determination by the Secretary of State under section 62(1) shall be made except on the basis of a deduction representing the cost of replacing the relevant dwelling or dwellings under subsection (2A), and no assumption to the contrary shall be made under section 62(7) in making such determination.
- (6) The amount of any payment determined on the basis of subsections (4) and (5) may be nil.”

174

☆ Clause 69, page 28, line 20, at end insert—

“(1A) A receipt arising from the disposal of a dwelling must be used to achieve the provision of at least one new affordable dwelling to replace that sold, which is—

- (a) of the same tenure,
- (b) located in the same local authority area, and
- (c) in accordance with assessed local housing need.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the duty for local authorities to consider selling high value housing and introduce a duty that local authorities must, whenever they sell housing, use the receipt to provide at least a guaranteed like-for-like replacement home in the same area.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
 John Healey
 Teresa Pearce
 Matthew Pennycook

175

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the duty for local authorities to consider selling high value housing and introduce a duty that local authorities must, whenever they sell housing, use the receipt to provide at least a guaranteed like-for-like replacement home in the same area.

Gareth Thomas

91

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

Gareth Thomas

98

Clause 69, page 28, leave out line 27 and insert—

- “(a) not dispose of more than 10% of all council homes in its area;
- (b) have regard to whether its housing register is increasing in size; and
- (c) have regard to any guidance given by the Secretary of State.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would even out the impact of the requirement to sell off high cost council housing to ensure the impact on homelessness of sales was properly thought through.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods

John Healey

Teresa Pearce

Matthew Pennycook

176

☆ Clause 69, page 28, line 27, at end insert—

- “(5) Regulations shall provide that housing which has been newly constructed or substantially renovated within the period of two years before a determination shall be excluded from the duty in subsection (1).”

- (b) his plans to apply the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to registered providers of social housing in England.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Secretary of State, before exercising his deregulation powers, to report on the application of, and his plans to apply, the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to registered providers of social housing in England.

Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods
John Healey
Teresa Pearce
Matthew Pennycook

197

- ☆ Clause 73, page 29, line 37, at end insert—

“(2) The Secretary of State must consult local housing authorities on any proposed regulations aimed at reducing regulatory control over private registered providers of social housing or their affairs.

- (3) Once implemented private registered providers of social housing must consult the local housing authorities affected by any proposed changes to their policies in areas such as, but not limited to, nomination agreements, stock disposals and new build development programmes.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would allow for consultation with local housing authorities with regard to deregulation measures.

Gareth Thomas

99

- Page 29, line 34, leave out Clause 73

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would remove the Secretary of State’s proposed power to reduce regulatory control over private registered providers of social housing by means of regulations rather than by new, primary legislation.

NEW CLAUSES

Brandon Lewis

NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Revocation or variation of banning orders

- (1) A person against whom a banning order is made may apply to the First-tier Tribunal for an order under this section revoking or varying the order.
- (2) If the banning order was made on the basis of one or more convictions all of which are overturned on appeal, the First-tier Tribunal must revoke the banning order.
- (3) If the banning order was made on the basis of more than one conviction and some of them (but not all) have been overturned on appeal, the First-tier Tribunal may—
 - (a) vary the banning order, or
 - (b) revoke the banning order.
- (4) If the banning order was made on the basis of one or more convictions that have become spent, the First-tier Tribunal may—
 - (a) vary the banning order, or
 - (b) revoke the banning order.
- (5) The power to vary a banning order under (3)(a) or (4)(a) may be used to add new exceptions to a ban or to vary—
 - (a) the banned activities,
 - (b) the length of a ban, or
 - (c) existing exceptions to a ban.
- (6) In this section “spent”, in relation to a conviction, means spent for the purposes of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows a banning order to be revoked or varied in certain circumstances.

Housing and Planning Bill, continued

Brandon Lewis

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Offence of breach of banning order

- (1) A person who breaches a banning order commits an offence.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 51 weeks or to a fine or to both.
- (3) If a financial penalty under section 17 has been imposed in respect of the breach, the person may not be convicted of an offence under this section.
- (4) In relation to an offence committed before section 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 comes into force, the reference in subsection (2) to 51 weeks is to be read as a reference to 6 months.”

Member’s explanatory statement*This amendment makes it an offence to breach a banning order.*

Brandon Lewis

NC4

To move the following Clause—

“Offences by bodies corporate

- (1) Where an offence under section (Offence of breach of banning order) committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, an officer of a body corporate, the officer as well as the body corporate commits the offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.
- (2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the member’s functions of management as if the member were an officer of the body corporate.”

Member’s explanatory statement*This amendment ensures that officers of a body corporate can be prosecuted for offences committed by it under NC3. “Officer” is given a broad definition by clause 48 of the Bill.*

Brandon Lewis

NC5

To move the following Clause—

“Power to require information

- (1) A local housing authority may require a person to provide specified information for the purpose of enabling the authority to decide whether to apply for a banning order against the person.
- (2) It is an offence for the person to fail to comply with a requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for the failure.

- (3) It is an offence for the person to provide information that is false or misleading if the person knows that the information is false or misleading or is reckless as to whether it is false or misleading.
- (4) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows a local housing authority to require a person to provide information for the purpose of deciding whether to apply for a banning order. For example, the number of properties that a landlord has may be relevant to whether an authority applies for a banning order. The power would allow the authority to require the landlord to provide that information.

Brandon Lewis

NC6

To move the following Clause—

“Removal or variation of entries made under section 24

- (1) An entry made in the database under section 24 may be removed or varied in accordance with this section.
- (2) If the entry was made on the basis of one or more convictions all of which are overturned on appeal, the responsible local housing authority must remove the entry.
- (3) If the entry was made on the basis of more than one conviction and some of them (but not all) have been overturned on appeal, the responsible local housing authority may—
 - (a) remove the entry, or
 - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.
- (4) If the entry was made on the basis of one or more convictions that have become spent, the responsible local housing authority may—
 - (a) remove the entry, or
 - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.
- (5) If a local housing authority removes an entry in the database, or reduces the period for which it must be maintained, it must notify the person to whom the entry relates.
- (6) In this section—

“responsible local housing authority” means the local housing authority by which the entry was made;

“spent”, in relation to a conviction, means spent for the purposes of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows a local housing authority to remove an entry in the database of rogue landlords and property agents or reduce the time for which the entry must be maintained in certain circumstances. See also NC7. There is no mention of clause 23 as an entry under that clause is maintained for as long as the banning order has effect.

Brandon Lewis

NC7

To move the following Clause—

“Requests for exercise of powers under section (Removal or variation of entries made under section 24) and appeals

- (1) A person in respect of whom an entry is made in the database under section 24 may request the responsible local housing authority to use its powers under section (Removal or variation of entries made under section 24) to—
 - (a) remove the entry, or
 - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.
- (2) The request must be in writing.
- (3) Where a request is made, the local housing authority must—
 - (a) decide whether to comply with the request, and
 - (b) give the person notice of its decision.
- (4) If the local housing authority decides not to comply with the request the notice must include—
 - (a) reasons for that decision, and
 - (b) a summary of the appeal rights conferred by this section.
- (5) Where a person is given notice that the responsible local housing authority has decided not to comply with the request the person may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against that decision.
- (6) An appeal to the First-tier Tribunal under subsection (5) must be made before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the notice was given.
- (7) The First-tier Tribunal may allow an appeal to be made to it after the end of that period if satisfied that there is a good reason for the person’s failure to appeal within the period (and for any subsequent delay).
- (8) On an appeal under this section the tribunal may order the local housing authority to—
 - (a) remove the entry, or
 - (b) reduce the period for which the entry must be maintained.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment allows a person to request a local housing authority to use its powers to remove or vary an entry in the database of rogue landlords and property agents (see NC6). If the local housing authority refuses, the person may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal.

Brandon Lewis

NC8

To move the following Clause—

“Meaning of “property manager” and related expressions

- (1) In this Part “property manager” means a person who engages in English property management work.
- (2) In this Part “English property management work” means things done by a person in the course of a business in response to instructions received from another person (“the client”) where—

- (a) the client wishes the person to arrange services, repairs, maintenance, improvements or insurance in respect of, or to deal with any other aspect of the management of, premises on the client's behalf, and
- (b) the premises consist of housing in England let under a tenancy."

Member's explanatory statement

This and related amendments are intended to ensure that a banning order can be made against any person who engages in property management work, not just letting agents who engage in such work.

NC12

To move the following Clause—

“Tenants’ rights to new management in property sold under LSVT

- (1) This section applies to housing which—
 - (a) was previously owned by a local authority;
 - (b) was part of a large scale voluntary transfer falling within the definition of section 32(4AB) of the Housing Act 1985; and
 - (c) the disposal of which was subject to the consent of the Secretary of State under section 32 of the 1985 Act.
- (2) Where the transfer took place more than five years before this section comes into operation the current owner of the transferred housing shall consult the current tenants on their satisfaction with the management of that property.

- (3) Where the transfer took place less than five years after this section comes into operation the current owner of the transferred housing shall not more than every five years consult the current tenants on their satisfaction with the management of that property.
 - (4) If more than 50% of tenants responding to the consultation under subsections (2) or (3) are dissatisfied with the management of the property, the owner of the housing must carry out a competitive tender for the management of the property and report the outcome to the tenants.”

Jim Fitzpatrick
Dr Roberta Blackman-Woods

NC13

To move the following Clause—

“Conversion of leasehold to commonhold for interdependent properties

- (1) On 1 January 2020 long leases of residential property in interdependent properties shall cease to be land tenure capable of conveyance.
- (2) On 1 January 2020 long leases as set out in subsection (1) shall become commonholds to which Part 1 of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002 (“the 2002 Act”) shall apply, subject to the modifications set out in this section.
- (3) Leaseholders, freeholders and those with an interest in an interdependent property are required to facilitate the transfer to commonhold, in particular they shall:
 - (a) by 1 January 2018 draw-up an agreed plan for the transfer;
 - (b) by 1 October 2018 value any interests to be extinguished by the transfer where the interest is held by a person who after transfer will not be a unit-holder; and
 - (c) by 1 January 2019 draw up a commonhold community statement for the purposes of—
 - (i) defining the extent of each commonhold unit;
 - (ii) defining the extent of the common parts and their respective uses;
 - (iii) defining the percentage contributions that each unit will contribute to the running costs of the building;
 - (iv) defining the voting rights of the members of the commonhold association; and
 - (v) specifying the rights and duties of the commonhold association, the unit-holders and their tenants.
- (4) In any case where the parties at subsection (3) cannot or refuse to agree arrangements to facilitate the transfer any of the parties can make an application to the First-tier Tribunal (Property Chamber) for a determination of the matter.
- (5) Section 3 [Consent] of the 2002 Act shall cease to have effect on 1 January 2017.
- (6) In subsection (1) “long lease” means—
 - (a) a lease granted for a term certain exceeding 21 years, whether or not it is (or may become) terminable before the end of that term by notice given by the tenant or by re-entry or forfeiture; or

- (b) a lease for a term fixed by law under a grant with a covenant or obligation for perpetual renewal, other than a lease by sub-demise from one which is not a long lease.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This New Clause would end the tenure of residential leasehold by 1 January 2020 by converting residential leases into commonhold.

NEW SCHEDULE

Gareth Thomas

NS1

To move the following Schedule—

“SCHEDULECOMMUNITY-LED HOUSING SCHEMES

- 1 A community-led housing scheme is a scheme provided by a community led housing provider meeting the requirements of this Schedule.
- 2 A community led housing provider is a body corporate (“a body”) which makes available, or intends to make available, dwellings in England and satisfies all the conditions in paragraph 4 and at least one of the conditions in paragraph 5.
- 3 In the conditions at paragraph 4 the following definitions apply—
 - (a) “dwellings” means flats and houses for occupation by individuals as their only home;
 - (b) “local community” means the individuals who live or work, or want to live or work in a specified area or are part of a specified community;
 - (c) “own” and “owned” means ownership of a freehold interest or a leasehold interest;
 - (d) in paragraph 3(b) “specified area” means the locality or region referred to in a body’s constitution;
 - (e) in paragraph 3(b) “specified community” means the individuals to whom the body seeks to provide a benefit as set out in its constitution.
- 4 The conditions that must be satisfied are that—
 - (a) the body includes within its constitution the purpose of providing accommodation to the local community or for the members of the body;
 - (b) the local community have the opportunity to become members of the body (whether or not others can also become members);
 - (c) the local community must provide the majority vote on resolutions at general meetings and decisions at management board meetings;
 - (d) any profits or surplus from its activities will be used to benefit the local community or other activities of the body as set out in its constitution (otherwise than being paid directly to members);
 - (e) the accommodation let to individuals is owned by the body; and
 - (f) the number of properties owned by the body does not exceed 1000.
- 5 One of the conditions set out in this paragraph must be satisfied—

- (a) the body's objects include furthering the social, economic or environmental interests of a local community; or
- (b) the body is owned in the majority by its members who are also the tenants of the body."
