

SUPPLEMENT TO THE VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS

Tuesday 26 January 2016

REPORT STAGE PROCEEDINGS

CHARITIES (PROTECTION AND SOCIAL INVESTMENT)
BILL [LORDS], AS AMENDED

NEW CLAUSES

Anna Turley

Withdrawn NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Appeals and applications to the Tribunal

- (1) In Schedule 6 of the Charities Act 2011 (appeals and applications to Tribunal), insert in the appropriate place—

“Decision of the Commission to issue a warning under section 75A to a charity trustee, trustee for a charity or a charity.

The persons are—any of the charity trustees of the charity;
and
(if a body corporate) the charity itself.

Power to quash the decision and (if appropriate) remit the matter to the Commission.”

- (2) If the charity decides to appeal against a warning, under Schedule 6 of the Charities Act 2011, the Commission will not publish the warning for at least 28 days from the date of the submission of the appeal.”

To move the following Clause—

“Disposal of assets

The Charity Commission shall ensure that independent charities are not compelled to use or dispose of their assets in a way which is inconsistent with their charitable purposes.”

Anna Turley

Negated on division NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Power to make representations

- (1) A charity may undertake political campaigning or political activity in the context of supporting the delivery of its charitable purposes.
 - (2) A charity may campaign to ensure support for, or to oppose, a change in the law, policy or decisions of central government, local authorities or other public bodies.”

Mr Bernard Jenkin

To move the following Clause—

“Power to hold hearings on fundraising regulation and charity activity

- (1) The Commission has the power to hold public hearings with representatives from charities, charity trusts and other relevant bodies on fundraising regulation and charity fundraising activities.
- (2) Representatives appearing at the public hearings specified in subsection (1) are protected by legal professional privilege.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Charity Commission to hold annual hearings on fundraising regulation and the workings of charities and provides participants with the protection of legal professional privilege.

Matthew Hancock

Agreed to 2

Clause 1, page 2, line 18, at end insert—

“() The Commission may vary or withdraw a warning under this section.

Charities (Protection and Social Investment) Bill [Lords], continued

- () Subsection (2) applies to the variation or withdrawal of a warning as it applies to a warning.
- 5 () Subsections (3) to (6) apply to the variation of a warning as they apply to a warning, except that—
- (a) in subsection (5)(a) references to the warning are to be read as references to the warning as varied, and
- 10 (b) the matter to be specified under subsection (5)(b) is any change as a result of the variation in the action previously proposed by the Commission.”

Member's explanatory statement

The amendment makes provision for the variation or withdrawal of official warnings issued under section 75A inserted by clause 1.

As an Amendment to Matthew Hancock's proposed Amendment (No. 2):—

Anna Turley

Not called (a)

Line 10, at end add—

- “() If the Commission publishes notice that a warning has been withdrawn under subsection (2), the notice must state the reasons for the withdrawal.
- () No record of a warning withdrawn by the Commission should be held on the Register of Charities.”

Matthew Hancock

Clause 9, page 10, line 2, at end insert—

- “(22) Before this section comes into force, the Secretary of State shall lay a report before Parliament on the impact of the extension of the disqualification framework on—
- (a) people with criminal records who are trustees of, or employed by, charities, and
- (b) charities which work with, or employ, ex-offenders.
- (23) The report shall include, but not be limited to—
- (a) an assessment of the number of people employed by charities who will be affected by the extension of the disqualification framework to cover senior management positions,
- (b) an assessment of the number of people who are trustees of, or employed by, charities who will be affected by the extension of the list of specified offences for which people will be automatically disqualified from being a trustee of, or a senior manager in, a charity,

- (c) an assessment of the impact of the new disqualification framework on former offenders who are seeking, or intend to seek, employment in the charitable sector, including on their recruitment, retention, career prospects and long-term rehabilitation and resettlement,
 - (d) an assessment of the impact of the new disqualification framework on former offenders who are currently employed in the charitable sector, including on their retention, career prospects and long-term rehabilitation and resettlement,
 - (e) an assessment of the impact of the new disqualification framework on people with criminal records who are trustees or employees of charities which are partners in, or are contracted by, community rehabilitation companies (CRCs) and its impact on the successful running of those organisations,
 - (f) an assessment of the effectiveness of the existing waiver process provided for under section 181 of the Charities Act 2011,
 - (g) an assessment of the impact of the new disqualification framework on the number of applications for waivers to the Charity Commission,
 - (h) a description of how the working group set up by the Charity Commission on the waiver process will be constituted, how it will be resourced, what timelines it will be working to, its working method and intended outputs, and how it will work in consultation with people with criminal records and charities that work with, or employ, ex-offenders,
 - (i) a description of the criteria the Charity Commission will adopt in considering applications for waivers, and the weight it will attach to the views of the trustees of the charity or charities concerned,
 - (j) a description of how the waiver process will operate in relation to prospective candidates for senior management positions in charities, including the timescales for decisions and mechanisms to ensure that ex-offenders do not suffer indirect discrimination as a consequence of delays in assessing applications for waivers while a competitive recruitment process is underway,
 - (k) an assessment of the impact of the new disqualification framework on the resources provided by the Charity Commission to administer the waiver application process.”
