Wendy Morton

Clause 1, page 1, line 4, after “may” insert “after public consultation”. Withdrawn 1

Kevin Hollinrake

☆ Clause 1, page 2, line 17, at end insert— Not selected 4

“(h) provide for OFCOM to have regard to placing a limit on the number of small-scale radio multiplex licences that licence holders may hold at any one time.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that an upper limit can be enforced by OFCOM on the number of small-scale radio multiplex licences that may be held by any entity at once.

Broadcasting (Radio Multiplex Services) Bill, continued

Wendy Morton

Not called 2

Clause 1, page 2, line 17, at end insert—

“(4A) The Secretary of State is not to make an order under this section in relation to small scale radio multiplex services except where the description is of services to be provided primarily for the good of members of the public or of a particular community, rather than for commercial services.”

Jo Churchill

Clause 1, page 2, line 17, at end insert—

“(4A) The Secretary of State must not make an order under this section in relation to small-scale radio multiplex services except where the order includes conditions to provide for capacity on small-scale radio multiplex to be reserved for broadcasting services of a description set out in an order under section 262.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment ensures that radio stations that meet the description of Community Radio under section 262 of the Communications Act 2003 are guaranteed carriage on small-scale radio multiplexes.

Bill read the third time, and passed.
