"259CBA Interpretation of section 259CB

- (1) This section has effect for the purposes of section 259CB.
- (2) A taxable period of a payee is "permitted" in relation to an amount of ordinary income that arises as a result of the payment or quasi-payment if—
 - (a) the period begins before the end of 12 months after the end of the payment period, or
 - (b) where the period begins after that—
 - (i) a claim has been made for the period to be a permitted period in relation to the amount of ordinary income, and
 - (ii) it is just and reasonable for the amount of ordinary income to arise for that taxable period rather than an earlier period.
- (3) Each of these is a "relevant debt relief provision"—
 - (a) section 322 of CTA 2009 (release of debts: cases where credits not required to be brought into account),

Finance Bill, continued

- (b) section 357 of that Act (insolvent creditors),
 - (c) section 358 of that Act (exclusion of credits on release of connected companies' debts: general),
 - (d) section 359 of that Act (exclusion of credits on release of connected companies' debts during creditor's insolvency),
 - (e) section 361C of that Act (the equity-for-debt exception),
 - (f) section 361D of that Act (corporate rescue: debt released shortly after acquisition), and
 - (g) section 362A of that Act (corporate rescue: debt released shortly after connection arises).
- (4) An amount of ordinary income of a payee, for a permitted taxable period, is “under taxed” if the highest rate at which tax is charged on the taxable profits of the payee in which the amount is included, taking into account on a just and reasonable basis the effect of any credit for underlying tax, is less than the payee's full marginal rate for that period.
- (5) The payee's “full marginal rate” means the highest rate at which the tax that is chargeable on the taxable profits mentioned in subsection (4) could be charged on taxable profits, of the payee for the permitted taxable period, which include ordinary income that arises from, or in connection with, a financial instrument.
- (6) A “credit for underlying tax” means a credit or relief given to reflect tax charged on profits that are wholly or partly used to fund (directly or indirectly) the payment or quasi-payment.”

Mr Chancellor of the Exchequer

★ Schedule 10, page 407, line 42, at end insert—

“259JBA Counteraction where mismatch arises because of a relevant multinational and the UK is the parent jurisdiction

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) the dual territory double deduction amount arises by reason of the company being a relevant multinational company, and
 - (b) the United Kingdom is the parent jurisdiction.
- (2) If some or all of the dual territory double deduction amount is (in substance) deducted (“the impermissible overseas deduction”), for the purposes of a tax under the law of a territory outside the United Kingdom, from the income of any person, for any taxable period, that is not dual inclusion income of the company—
 - (a) the dual territory double deduction amount that may be deducted, for corporation tax purposes, from the company’s income for the deduction period is reduced by the amount of the impermissible overseas deduction, and
 - (b) such just and reasonable adjustments (if any) as are required to give effect to that reduction, for corporation tax purposes, are to be made.
- (3) Any adjustment required to be made under subsection (2) may be made (whether or not by an officer of Revenue and Customs)—
 - (a) by way of an assessment, the modification of an assessment, amendment or disallowance of a claim, or otherwise, and
 - (b) despite any time limit imposed by or under any enactment.
- (4) In this section “dual inclusion income” of the company means an amount that is both—
 - (a) ordinary income of the company for an accounting period for corporation tax purposes, and
 - (b) ordinary income of the company for a permitted taxable period for the purposes of a tax charged under the law of a territory outside the United Kingdom.

“259KAA Meaning of “dual territory double deduction” and “excessive PE deduction”

- (1) This section has effect for the purposes of this Chapter.
- (2) A “dual territory double deduction” means an amount that can be deducted by a company both—
 - (a) from income for the purposes of a tax charged under the law of one territory, and
 - (b) from income for the purposes of a tax charged under the law of another territory.
- (3) A “PE deduction” is—
 - (a) an amount that may (in substance) be deducted from a company’s income for the purposes of calculating the company’s taxable profits, for a taxable period, for the purposes of a tax that is charged on the company, under the law of a territory (“the PE jurisdiction”), by virtue of the company having a permanent establishment in that territory, and
 - (b) is in respect of a transfer of money or money’s worth, from the company in the PE jurisdiction to the company in another territory (“the parent jurisdiction”) in which it is resident for the purposes of a tax, that—
 - (i) is actually made, or
 - (ii) is (in substance) treated as being made for tax purposes.
- (4) A PE deduction is “excessive” so far as it exceeds the sum of—
 - (a) any increases, resulting from the circumstances giving rise to the PE deduction, in the taxable profits of the company, for a permitted taxable period, for the purposes of a tax charged under the law of the parent jurisdiction, and
 - (b) any amounts by which a loss made by the company, for a permitted taxable period, for the purposes of a tax charged under the law of the parent jurisdiction, is reduced as a result of the circumstances giving rise to the PE deduction.
- (5) A taxable period of the company is “permitted” for the purposes of subsection (4) if—
 - (a) the period begins before the end of 12 months after the end of the taxable period mentioned in subsection (3)(a), or
 - (b) where the period begins after that—
 - (i) a claim has been made for the period to be a permitted period for the purposes of subsection (4), and
 - (ii) it is just and reasonable for the circumstances giving rise to the PE deduction to affect the profits or loss made for that period rather than an earlier period.”
