NOTE

This document includes all amendments remaining before the Committee and includes any withdrawn amendments at the end. The amendments have been arranged in accordance with the Order of the Committee [22 November 2016].

Schedule 1, page 23, line 6, at end insert—

“(4A) The Institute must, in approving the group of persons specified in subsection (3), have regard to the desirability of the group’s members between them having experience of—

(a) representing or promoting the interests of individual students and apprentices, or students and apprentices generally;
(b) providing technical and further education;
(c) providing apprenticeships;
(d) at least one relevant trade union official;
(e) employing those who have completed technical and further education courses or apprenticeships; and
(f) any additional knowledge or profession that the Institute considers relevant.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that the groups formed to set standards for the “routes” in technical and further education have relevant experience and include students in the process.

Mike Kane

13 Schedule 1, page 23, line 20, at end insert—
“(c) information about matters that it takes into account when deciding whether or not to convene a group of persons to prepare a standard for the purposes of subsection (6).”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment would require the Institute to publish information about its reasons for convening, or choosing not to convene, a group of persons to prepare a standard for an occupation.

Gordon Marsden
Mike Kane

14 Schedule 1, page 24, line 6, leave out “as it considers appropriate”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment would require the Institute to publish apprenticeship assessment plans for all standards.

Gordon Marsden

15 Schedule 1, page 24, line 20, at end insert “and must include the following representatives—
(a) a number of employers which, taken together, comprise a broad range of employer within the given occupation;
(b) at least one relevant trade union official;
(c) at least one person engaged in delivering relevant education at the level of the standard being assessed; and
(d) at least one person who can represent or promote the interests of students.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment would ensure that groups developing apprenticeship assessment plans include adequate representation of all relevant stakeholders.
Schedule 1, page 24, line 37, at end insert—
“(c) information about matters that it takes into account when deciding whether or not to convene a group of persons to prepare an apprenticeship assessment plan for the purposes of subsection (9)”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment ensures the Institute must publish information about its reasons for convening, or choosing not to convene, a group of persons to prepare an apprenticeship assessment plan in respect of a standard.

Schedule 1, page 25, line 17, at end insert—
“(5) Regulations under subsection (4) shall be laid before Parliament and shall be subject to the affirmative resolution procedure.”

Schedule 1, page 27, line 3, at end insert—
“A2DD Directions: consultation
Directions given to the Institute by the Secretary of State under this Act shall be subject to—
(a) periodic review, and
(b) consultation by the Institute with—
(i) organisations representing the teaching professions,
(ii) further education bodies and provider organisations,
(iii) employers and employers’ organisations,
(iv) awarding bodies, and
(v) organisations representing students and apprentices.”

Schedule 1, page 28, line 32, at end insert—
“(3) Regulations under this section shall be laid before Parliament and shall be subject to the affirmative resolution procedure.”

Schedule 1, page 29, line 34, at end insert—
“(1A) In paragraph 2(1) of (membership of the Institute), after subparagraph (c) insert—
(d) but at least one of the members appointed under paragraph 2(1)(c) must have recent experience of undertaking an apprenticeship, or of representing or promoting the interests of apprentices; and”
(e) at least one of the members appointed under paragraph 2(1)(c) must have recent experience of undertaking a technical and further education course, or of representing or promoting the interests of students undertaking a technical and further education course.”"

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that apprentices and learners are represented on the board of the Institute for Apprenticeships and Technical Education.

☆ Schedule 1, page 30, line 17, leave out “negative” and insert “affirmative”

Gordon Marsden
Mike Kane

Clause 14, page 8, line 4, at end insert—

“(3) Before an education administrator may perform functions specified in subsection (2), they must ensure an appropriate assessment is made and published of the impact of performing such functions, including, but not restricted, to—

(a) the impact on the quality of education provided to existing students of the further education body;
(b) the capacity of another body or institution to undertake any additional functions or provide education to additional students;
(c) the infrastructure of the local area, in particular transport;
(d) any impact on the travel arrangements of students to another body or institution; and,
(e) any financial impact on those students or any such impact on their travel arrangements, and what measures need to be taken to mitigate them.

(4) The Secretary of State shall make regulations to specify suitable bodies for making the assessments at subsection (3).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that an appropriate assessment is made of any potential impacts on students and their education, if an education administrator puts a further education body into ‘special administration’ and takes action such as transferring students to another institution or keeps an insolvent institution open for existing students. This amendment would also require the Secretary of State to specify suitable bodies to perform such assessments.
Clause 14, page 8, line 4, at end insert—
“(3) The education administrator shall not make any decisions required by subsection (2) without consulting—
(a) existing students of the further education body;
(b) existing staff of the further education body
(c) all recognised trade unions at the further education body.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment would ensure that all relevant stakeholders are fully consulted about decisions taken by the education administrator in respect of the future of the further education institution.

Clause 15, page 8, line 11, at end insert “and has relevant experience and knowledge of the further education sector.”

Member’s explanatory statement
To ensure that the education administrator has experience and knowledge of the further education sector so that decisions made are not exclusively in the context of insolvency and takes into account the needs of students.

Clause 22, page 10, line 6, leave out “for the” and insert “with the primary”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment would ensure that the primary concern of the education administrator is the special education administration objective, that is minimising disruption to learners.

Clause 22, page 10, line 7, leave out “(if possible)”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment would ensure that the primary concern of the education administrator is the special education administration objective, that is minimising disruption to learners.

Clause 22, page 10, line 7, at end insert—
“(2A) The education administrator may, in performing his or her functions for the purpose of achieving the objective of the education administration, request
Technical and Further Education Bill, continued

information, advice or guidance from practitioners with an understanding of education regarding the management of a further education body.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment would allow an education administrator who, under the eligibility outlined in clause 15, might not necessarily be an education specialist to supplement his or her knowledge.

Gordon Marsden
Mike Kane

Clause 22, page 10, line 10, leave out “have special educational needs” and insert—

“(a) have special educational needs;
(b) are care leavers;
(c) are parents;
(d) are carers, carers of children, or young carers, as defined by the Care Act 2014; and,
(e) have other particular needs that may be determined by the appropriate national authority.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment would make provisions for the particular needs of additional groups of existing students to be considered by an education administrator in pursuing the objective of an education administration.

Gordon Marsden
Mike Kane

Clause 23, page 10, line 31, at end insert—

“(2) The education administrator may not transfer assets of any further education body to a private company where he or she considers that more than half of the funding of the acquisition of the asset came from public funds.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment would ensure further education bodies with a track record of accruing assets publicly, could not be transferred to a private company.

Robert Halfon

Schedule 3, page 33, line 4, leave out “and”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment and amendment 21 are intended to make it clear that, where the context requires, a reference to the director of a company in the insolvency legislation applied by Schedule 3 can be read as a reference to a person who is a member of the further education body or the principal of the relevant institution rather than both. The purpose of amendments 22 and 23, which relate to references to an officer of a company, is similar.
Schedule 3, page 33, line 6, at end insert “, or (c) if the context requires, both of the above.”

Member’s explanatory statement
See Member’s explanatory statement to amendment 20.

Schedule 3, page 33, line 14, leave out “and”

Member’s explanatory statement
See Member’s explanatory statement to amendment 20.

Schedule 3, page 33, line 17, at end insert “, or (c) if the context requires, all of the above.”

Member’s explanatory statement
See Member’s explanatory statement to amendment 20.

Schedule 3, page 36, line 10, leave out “(3)” and “insert “(4)”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment corrects a cross-reference.

Schedule 3, page 36, line 34, leave out “(3)” and “insert “(4)”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment corrects a cross-reference.

Schedule 4, page 44, line 6, leave out “(4)” and “insert “(5)”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment corrects a cross-reference.
Robert Halfon

Schedule 4, page 44, line 32, leave out “(3)” and “insert “(5)”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment corrects a cross-reference.

Gordon Marsden
Mike Kane

Clause 37, page 18, line 14, at end insert—
“(1A) The Secretary of State must ensure the list of disqualified officers is made publicly available.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment would ensure that a list of disqualified officers was publicly available.

Robert Halfon

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment removes the restriction on the Secretary of State obtaining information for purposes connected with the education of certain people aged under 25. The way that section 54 of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 is currently framed allows that information to be obtained so the amendment preserves this aspect of the current law.

Robert Halfon

Clause 38, page 19, line 9, leave out “(4)” and insert “(3)”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment is consequential on amendment 18.
