CONSIDERATION OF BILL (REPORT STAGE)

CHILDREN AND SOCIAL WORK BILL [LORDS], AS AMENDED

NOTE

This document includes all amendments tabled to date and includes any withdrawn amendments at the end. The amendments have been arranged in the order in which they relate to the Bill.

NEW CLAUSES

Stella Creasy
Kate Green
Helen Hayes

NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Safeguarding: provision of personal, social and health education

(1) For the purpose of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children a local authority in England must ensure that pupils educated in their area receive appropriate personal, social and health education.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) “personal, social and health education” must include but shall not be restricted to—

(a) sex and relationships education,

(b) same-sex relationships,
(c) sexual consent,
(d) sexual violence,
(e) online and offline personal safety, and
(f) domestic violence and forms of abuse.

(3) Targeted inspections carried out by the Office for Standards in Education, Children’s Services and Skills (Ofsted) under section 136 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 shall include an assessment of the provision of personal, social and health education under subsection (1), including whether the information provided to pupils is—
(a) accurate and balanced,
(b) age-appropriate,
(c) inclusive,
(d) factual, and
(e) religiously diverse.

(4) Assessments made under subsection (3) must include an evaluation of any arrangements for pupils of sufficient maturity to request to be wholly or partly excused from participating in personal, social and health education.

(5) For the purpose of subsection (4) “sufficient maturity” shall be defined in guidance by the Secretary of State.

(6) Withdrawal from personal, social and health education by pupils under subsection (4) shall not be considered a breach of the safeguarding duties of a local authority.

(7) This section comes into force at the end of the period of twelve months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed.”

Mrs Emma Lewell-Buck
Helen Hayes

To move the following Clause—

“Sibling contact for looked after children

(1) In section 34(1) of the Children Act 1989, after paragraph (d) insert—
“(e) his siblings (whether of the whole or half blood).”

(2) In paragraph 15(1) of Schedule 2 to the Children Act 1989, after paragraph (c) insert—
“(d) his siblings (whether of the whole or half blood).”

Member’s explanatory statement
This new clause would ensure that children in care are allowed reasonable contact with their siblings.
To move the following Clause—

“Placing children in secure accommodation elsewhere in Great Britain”

(1) Schedule (Placing children in secure accommodation elsewhere in Great Britain) ends at the end of the period of two years beginning with the day on which this Act is passed.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would revoke provisions in the Bill that enable local authorities in England and Wales to place children in secure accommodation in Scotland, and vice versa, two years after the Act comes into force.

To move the following Clause—

“Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children: Relationships education”

(1) For the purposes of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, the Secretary of State must, by regulations, make Relationships Education a statutory component of the National Curriculum within the meaning of Part 6 of the Education Act 2002.

(2) Following consultation, the regulations must include provisions relating to the curriculum of Relationships Education, which must include, but shall not be restricted to—

(a) how to recognise and understand a healthy relationship, including self-respect and respect for others,

(b) how to recognise and handle bullying and peer pressure, such as sexting,
(c) the meaning of consent,
(d) signs of an exploitative relationship, including physical, mental and sexual harassment,
(e) conflict management, and
(f) safety online, such as exposure to pornography.

(3) In the Academies Act 2010, after subsection (1)(b) of section 1A insert—
“(1)(b)(a) it has a curriculum satisfying the requirements of regulations made under section (Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children: Relationships Education) of the Children and Social Work Act 2017.”

(4) The governing body of a maintained school or Academy must consult parents and local safeguarding partners on the manner of provision of Relationships Education.

(5) The governing body of a maintained school or Academy must—
(a) make, and keep up to date, a written statement of their policy with regard to the manner of provision and content of Relationships Education, and
(b) make copies of the statement publicly available and bring it to the attention of all registered pupils’ parents and local safeguarding partners in a manner considered appropriate by the school.

(6) The Secretary of State must issue guidance, which must include but shall not be restricted to, guidance to secure that when Relationships Education is given to registered pupils at a maintained school or Academy—
(a) they learn the importance of respect, tolerance and commitment in all types of healthy relationships,
(b) they learn how the quality of relationships affects mental and physical health in both adults and children,
(c) they are protected from teaching and materials which are inappropriate having regard to the age and the religious background of the pupils concerned.

(7) In discharging their functions under regulations introduced by this section governing bodies and head teachers must have regard to—
(a) the Secretary of State’s guidance issued under subsection (6), and
(b) where any teaching covers issues relating to sex education, the Secretary of State’s guidance issued under section 403(1A) of the Education Act 1996.

(8) Sections 404 and 405 of the Education Act 1996 apply to any subject taught through Relationships Education that the governing body considers to fall within the meaning of sex education.

(9) The Secretary of State may at any time revise the guidance under subsection (6).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to make Relationships Education a statutory subject within the National Curriculum, including for Academies. Content must include those subjects outlined in subsection (2) and Relationships Education must be taught having regard to guidance issued by the Secretary of State under subsection (6) and sex education under subsection (7).

(b) Line 35, at end insert “including same-sex relationships”

Caroline Lucas

(a) Line 38, leave out paragraph (c) and insert—

“(c) teaching materials are—

(i) appropriate to the age of the pupils concerned, and
(ii) factually accurate and evidence-based, and

(d) pupils are taught in a way that—

(i) promotes equality as defined with reference to the protected characteristics included in the Equality Act 2010,
(ii) encourages acceptance of diversity and difference, and
(iii) emphasises the importance of responsibilities and rights.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment seeks to update the language taken from the 1996 Act as set out in part (6)(c) of NC5 and replace it with language intended to ensure relationships teaching and materials are always age appropriate, evidence based and accurate. It is also designed to put on the face of the Bill the principle that pupils should be taught relationships education in a way that promotes equality with reference to the protected characteristics of the Equality Act 2010.

“Extending duty to provide sex education to Academies

(1) In Section (1A) of the Academies Act 2010, in subsection (1)(b) after “78” insert “and section 80(1)(c) (provision of sex education)”.

(2) Section 403 of the Education Act 1996 is amended as follows—
   (a) in section (1), after “school” insert “or Academy”;
   (b) in section (1A), after “school” insert “or Academies”;
   (c) after section (1B) insert—

   “(1BA) The governing body must consult with parents on the content of a sex education curriculum, which must be made publicly available and brought to the attention of all registered pupils’ parents in a manner considered appropriate by the school.”

(3) In section 404 of the Education Act 1996, in subsection (1), after “school” insert “or Academy”.

(4) In section 405 of the Education Act 1996, after first “school” insert “or Academy”.

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would extend to Academies the duties that currently apply to maintained schools in relation to sex education.

“Post-removal counselling for parents and legal guardians who are themselves looked after children or care leavers

Where a child is permanently removed from the care of a birth parent or a guardian further to any order made pursuant to—
   (a) section 31 of the Children Act 1989 (care and supervision orders),
   (b) section 22 of the Adoption and Children Act 2002 (placement orders),
   (c) section 46 of the Adoption and Children Act 2002 (adoption orders), or
   (d) section 14A of the Children Act 1989 (special guardianship order) a local authority must, so far as is reasonably practicable, provide a counselling service and commission specialist therapeutic support for the parent or guardian where—
   (i) the parent or guardian is a looked after child, or
This new clause would provide post-removal support for parents who are themselves a looked after child or care leaver.

Mrs Emma Lewell-Buck

To move the following Clause—

“Former relevant children: provision of sufficient suitable accommodation

In the Children Act 1989, after section 23C insert—

“23CA Duty on local authorities to secure sufficient accommodation for former relevant children

(1) It is the duty of a local authority to take reasonable steps to secure sufficient suitable accommodation (whether or not provided by them) within their area to meet the needs of former relevant children, where “former relevant children” has the same meaning as in section 23C(1) of this Act.

(2) In taking steps to secure the outcome in subsection (1), the local authority must—

(a) produce, and make available to all former relevant children, information about the providers of accommodation and the types of accommodation they provide,

(b) be aware of the current and expected future demand for such accommodation and consider how providers might meet that demand, and

(c) have regard to—

(i) the need to ensure the sustainability of the housing market, and

(ii) the need to encourage providers to innovate and continuously improve the quality of such accommodation and the efficiency and effectiveness with which it is provided.”

Member’s explanatory statement

Local authorities already have a duty to ensure that sufficient accommodation is available for looked after children in their area. This new clause would introduce a similar duty on local authorities to ensure sufficient, suitable accommodation is made available for all care leavers up to the age of 21.
Heidi Allen

To move the following Clause—

“Local arrangements for reporting on capacity to provide children’s safeguarding and welfare services

After section 16E of the Children Act 2004 (inserted by section 16 of this Act) insert—

“Local arrangements for reporting on capacity to provide children’s safeguarding and welfare provision services

(1) At least once in every 12 month period, the safeguarding partners for a local authority area in England must report to the Secretary of State on their capacity to safeguard and promote the welfare of children.

(2) The report must include, but shall not be restricted to, identification of capacity to provide safeguarding and welfare services to children who could be resettled in the area, including unaccompanied refugee children.

(3) The Secretary of State must lay before Parliament the information received under subsection (1) in a single report.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the local safeguarding partners in an area to report annually to the Secretary of State on what capacity they have to safeguard and promote the welfare of children in that area. This includes what capacity they have to resettle children, including unaccompanied refugee children, in the area. The Secretary of State would be required to lay before Parliament the information received from local authorities in a single report.

Mrs Emma Lewell-Buck

To move the following Clause—

“Benefit sanctions for care leavers

(1) The Universal Credit Regulations 2013 are amended as follows—

(a) in regulation 102(2)—

(i) in paragraph (a) after “18 or over” insert “and paragraph (b) does not apply”;

(ii) in paragraph (b) after “16 or 17” insert “or is a care leaver within the meaning given by section 2(7) of the Children and Social Work Act 2017 and is under the age of 25”;

(b) in regulation 103(2)—

(i) in paragraph (a) after “18 or over” insert “and paragraph (b) does not apply”;

(ii) in paragraph (b) after “16 or 17” insert “or is a care leaver within the meaning given by section 2(7) of the Children and Social Work Act 2017 and is under the age of 25”;

(c) in regulation 104(2) after “18 or over” insert “and section (3) does not apply”.
Children and Social Work Bill [Lords], continued

(d) in regulation 104(3) after “16 or 17” insert “or is a care leaver within the meaning given by section 2(7) of the Children and Social Work Act 2017 and is under the age of 25.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This new clause will ensure that the maximum sanction for a care leaver under the age of 25 can be no more than four weeks whilst under the age of 25, in line with 16 and 17 year olds.

Mrs Emma Lewell-Buck

To move the following Clause—

“National offer for care leavers

(1) The table in regulation 36 of the Universal Credit Regulations 2013 is amended as follows—

(a) in column one after “single claimant aged 25 or over” insert—

“or former relevant child as defined under the Children and Social Work Act 2017 aged under 25”

(b) in column one after “joint claimants where either is aged 25 or over” insert—

“or either are a former relevant child as defined under the Children and Social Work Act 2017 aged under 25”

(2) The Secretary of State will make provisions for bursaries to be available to all care leavers, who are undertaking their first year of a statutory apprenticeship, as defined in the Enterprise Act 2016 (the “care leaver apprenticeship bursary”)—

(a) in this section “care leavers” has the same meaning as section 2(7) of this Act.

(b) The bursary will be administered by local authorities on behalf of the Secretary of State in line with their corporate parenting responsibilities defined in section 1 of the Children and Social Work Act 2017.

(c) The value of the bursary will be of equivalent value to the Higher Education Bursary outlined in The Children Act 1989 (Higher Education Bursary) (England) Regulations 2009.

(d) Bursaries under this section will be disregarded for the purposes of calculating a claimant’s Universal Credit entitlements.

(3) The Housing Benefit Regulations 2009 are amended as follows—

(a) in regulation 2, in the definition of “young individual”, in each of paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f), for “22 years” substitute “25 years”.

(4) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement
The National Offer will uprate the financial support available to care leavers under the age of 25 by: (1) extending the over 25 rate of standard allowance of Universal Credit to all care leavers under the age of 25; (2) placing a duty on the Secretary of State to make provisions for all care leavers under the age of 25 and in the first year of an apprenticeship to be paid a £2,000 bursary, which will be distributed by local authorities on her behalf; and (3) delaying the transition onto the Shared Accommodation rate of Local Housing Allowance until the age of 25.
“Duty to maintain and report a local safeguarding and welfare capacity register

After section 16(E) of the Children Act 2004 (inserted by section 16 of this Act) insert—

“Duty to maintain and report a local safeguarding and welfare capacity register

(1) The safeguarding partners for a local authority area in England must assess, and maintain a register of, capacity to safeguard and promote the welfare of children in the area.

(2) The assessment must include, but shall not be restricted to, an assessment of the number of additional children, including unaccompanied refugee children, that could be fully supported by children’s social care services in the area.

(3) At least once in every twelve month period—

(a) the safeguarding partners must report the capacity assessment for that period to the Secretary of State, and

(b) the Secretary of State must publish and lay before Parliament a single report setting out the information provided under paragraph (a) and any relevant information that may be provided by the devolved administrations.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This new clause would require local safeguarding partners to assess their capacity to safeguard and promote the welfare of children in their area. This assessment must include the number of additional children the area could support, including unaccompanied refugee children. Local safeguarding partners would be required to report this information to the Secretary of State annually, who in turn would publish and lay before Parliament a single report, which may include any relevant information received from the devolved administrations.

(3) The strategy must include, but shall not be restricted to—

(a) information clarifying the roles and responsibilities towards unaccompanied refugee children of any public agency the Secretary of State considers relevant, including in particular—

(i) the European Asylum Support Office,

(ii) local government service providers, and

(iii) the Children’s Commissioner;

(b) information clarifying how safeguarding practices should differ for those children covered by the strategy who—

(i) have family members in the United Kingdom, and

(ii) do not have family members in the United Kingdom; and

(c) recommendations on how to ensure full cost reimbursement to public agencies required to provide services under the strategy.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to develop and publish a strategy for safeguarding unaccompanied refugee children.
