NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Parliamentary approval for agreements with the Union

- (1) Where a Minister of the Crown proposes to conclude an agreement with the European Union setting out the arrangements for the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union—
 - (a) the Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a statement of the proposed terms of the agreement, and
 - (b) no Minister of the Crown may conclude any such agreement unless the proposed terms have been approved by resolution of both Houses.
- (2) The requirements of subsection (1) also apply where a Minister of the Crown proposes to conclude an agreement with the European Union for the future relationship of the United Kingdom with the European Union.
- (3) In the case of a proposed agreement setting out the arrangements for the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union, the statement under subsection (1)(a) must be laid before the proposed terms are agreed with the Commission with a view to their approval by the European Parliament or the Council.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause requires Ministers to seek the approval of Parliament of any proposed Withdrawal Agreement before final terms are agreed with the Commission and prior to endorsement by the European Parliament and Council.

To move the following Clause—

“New Treaties with the European Union

So far as any of the provisions of any new treaty with the European Union may depend for ratification solely upon the exercise of prerogative, they shall not be ratified except with the express approval of Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that any future treaties made with the European Union must be ratified with the express approval of Parliament.

NC19

To move the following Clause—

“Future relationship with the European Union

- (1) Following the exercise of the power in section 1, any new treaty or relationship with the European Union must be subject to the express approval of Parliament.
- (2) It shall be the policy of Her Majesty’s Government that, in the event of Parliament declining to approve such a new treaty or relationship, further time to continue negotiations with the European Union shall be sought.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause seeks to ensure that, if Parliament declines to give approval to any new deal or treaty following the negotiations in respect of the triggering of Article 50(2), that Her Majesty’s Government shall endeavour to seek further time to continue negotiations for an alternative relationship with the European Union.

To move the following Clause—

“Parliamentary sovereignty

Before exercising the power under section 1, the Prime Minister must undertake that a vote on the proposed agreement setting out—

- (a) the arrangements for withdrawal, and
- (b) the future relationship with the European Union will take place in the House of Commons before any vote in the European Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause puts a requirement on the Prime Minister to ensure a vote on final terms takes place in the House of Commons before the European Parliament votes on the deal.

To move the following Clause—

“Referendum on the proposed exit package

- (1) A referendum is to be held on whether the United Kingdom should approve the United Kingdom and Gibraltar exit package proposed by HM Government at conclusion of the negotiations triggered by Article 50(2) for withdrawal from the European Union or remain a member of the European Union.
- (2) The Secretary of State must, by regulations, appoint the day on which the referendum is to be held.

- (3) The day appointed under subsection (2)—
- (a) must not be 4 May 2017;
 - (b) must not be between 1 November 2017 and 1 January 2018;
 - (c) must not be 3 May 2018;
 - (d) must not be 2 May 2019; and
 - (e) must be more than three months before 7 May 2020.
- (4) The question that is to appear on the ballot papers is—
“Do you support the Government’s proposed United Kingdom and Gibraltar exit package for negotiating withdrawal from the European Union or Should the United Kingdom remain a member of the European Union?”
- (5) The alternative answers to that question that are to appear on the ballot papers are—
“Support the Government’s proposed exit package Remain a member of the European Union”.
- (6) In Wales, the alternative answers to that question must also appear in Welsh.
- (7) The Secretary of State must by regulations made by statutory instrument subject to annulment by resolution of either House of Parliament specify the wording in Welsh of the alternative answers to that question.
- (8) The Secretary of State may make regulations by statutory instrument on the conduct of the referendum.”

To move the following Clause—

“Negotiating timeframe

Before exercising the power under section 1, the Prime Minister must undertake that if Parliament does not approve the terms for withdrawal and the future relationship within 24 months of notifying the United Kingdom’s intention to withdraw from the EU, she will request that the European Council extends the time period for negotiations.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause makes provision for a situation in which negotiations have not been concluded or in which Parliament has not approved the deal either because of time constraints or because it has declined to give approval. In any of these situations the Prime Minister would seek extra time to continue negotiations with the EU.

NC99

To move the following Clause—

“Parliamentary approval of the final terms of withdrawal from the EU

The United Kingdom shall withdraw from the EU once either—

- (a) Royal Assent is granted to an Act of Parliament that approves—
 - (i) the arrangements for withdrawal, and
 - (ii) the future relationship between the United Kingdom and the EU as agreed to between the United Kingdom and EU, or
- (b) Royal Assent is granted to an Act of Parliament that approves the United Kingdom’s withdrawal without an agreement being reached between the United Kingdom and the EU.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause aims to embed parliamentary sovereignty throughout the process and requires primary legislation to give effect to any agreement on withdrawal or for withdrawal without such an agreement.

NC110

To move the following Clause—

“Future relationship with the European Union

- (1) Following the exercise of the power in section 1, any new Treaty or relationship with the European Union must not be concluded unless the proposed terms have been subject to approval by resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (2) In the case of any new Treaty or relationship with the European Union, the proposed terms must be approved by resolution of each House of Parliament before they are agreed with the European Commission, with a view to their approval by the European Parliament or the European Council.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause seeks to ensure that Parliament must give approval to any new deal or Treaty following the negotiations in respect of the triggering of Article 50(2), and that any new Treaty or relationship must be approved by Parliament in advance of final agreement with the European Commission, European Parliament or European Council.

NC137

To move the following Clause—

“Future relationship with the European Union

- (1) Following the exercise of the power in Section 1, any new treaty or relationship with the European Union must be subject to the express approval of Parliament.
- (2) In the event of Parliament declining to approve the new treaty or relationship set out in subsection (1), Her Majesty’s Government shall seek to negotiate an alternative new agreement with the European Union.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The Prime Minister has guaranteed that Parliament will have a vote on the final deal between the UK and the EU. This new clause is intended to make that vote meaningful by ensuring that if Parliament votes against the terms of such a deal, the Government shall try to negotiate an alternative future trading agreement and shall not default without agreement to the World Trade Organisation rules.

NC156

To move the following Clause—

“Parliamentary approval—tariffs

- (1) Any proposals emerging following the exercise of the power in section 1 for the imposition of tariffs by Her Majesty’s Government that are new, amended, or transposed from the European Union, or for the rescission of tariffs, shall not be ratified except by resolution of both Houses of Parliament.
- (2) The process of amending the World Trade Organisation schedules of tariff commitments shall be not be ratified except by resolution of both Houses of Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause ensures that the imposition of tariffs by the United Kingdom Government and the proposals placed before the World Trade Organisation setting our schedules of commitments shall be subject to the express approval of Parliament.

NC175

To move the following Clause—

“Request for Suspension of Authorisation

If Parliament has not approved terms on which the UK will leave the European Union within the two years specified in Clause 3 of Article 50 of the Lisbon Treaty, or any extension of the negotiation period agreed in accordance with that clause, then the Government must request the European Council to consider the notification authorised by this Act as suspended.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require that Her Majesty’s Government request the European Council to suspend the notification of the United Kingdom’s intention to leave the European Union if Parliament does not approve the terms of departure.

NC182

To move the following Clause—

“Parliamentary approval for agreements with the Union

- (1) Where a Minister of the Crown proposes to conclude an agreement with the European Union setting out the arrangements for the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union—
 - (a) the Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a statement of the proposed terms of the agreement, and
 - (b) no Minister of the Crown may conclude any such agreement unless the proposed terms have been approved by resolution of both Houses.
- (2) The requirements of subsection (1) also apply where a Minister of the Crown proposes to conclude an agreement with the European Union for the future relationship of the United Kingdom with the European Union.
- (3) In the case of a proposed agreement setting out the arrangements for the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union, the statement under subsection (1)(a) must be laid before the proposed terms are agreed with the Commission with a view to their approval by the European Parliament or the Council.
- (4) In laying a statement before Parliament under subsection (1)(a), Her Majesty’s Government shall have regard to the requirements of Parliament for adequate time to consider the statement before the proposed terms are put to each House for approval under subsection (1)(b).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause is an alternative version of NCI which provides for additional time being allowed for consideration by Parliament of the proposed terms of the agreement before the vote.

To move the following Clause—

“Protected characteristics—Equality Impact Assessments

- (1) In negotiating and concluding an agreement in accordance with Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union, Ministers of the Crown must have regard to the impact of any new relationship with the European Union on protected characteristics, as set out in the Equality Act 2010.
- (2) Any report the Government lays before Parliament on the progress of the withdrawal negotiation must be accompanied by an Equality Impact Assessment.
- (3) Neither House of Parliament may approve by resolution any new relationship with the European Union unless an Equality Impact Assessment has been laid before both Houses of Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would place specific duties on the Government to demonstrate compliance with the 2010 Equality Act, ensuring that the impact of decisions on women and those with protected characteristics are considered and debated at every stage of the process.

Clause 1, page 1, line 3, at end insert “, provided the consent of the Northern Ireland Assembly is obtained prior to such notification regarding alterations to the legislative competence of that Assembly and the executive competence of the Northern Ireland Executive Committee, consistent with constitutional convention.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would ensure that the consent of the Northern Ireland Assembly to changes in the powers of the Assembly and powers of the Northern Ireland Executive would be obtained prior to triggering Article 50, consistent with constitutional convention.

To move the following Clause—

“Maintenance of Worker Rights derived from EU law: plan

- (1) Section 1 of this Act shall not come into force until the Secretary of State has laid before each House of Parliament a report on the steps which Her Majesty’s Government has taken or plans to take to secure that the EU Worker Rights will (subject only to any primary legislation passed after the exit date) be maintained in United Kingdom law after the exit date.
- (2) In this section—
 - “EU Worker Rights” means any of the rights, duties, remedies and procedures provided for by or under legislation (whether primary legislation or subordinate legislation) applying to the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom which gives effect in United Kingdom law or in the law of a part of the United Kingdom to the Directives listed in Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc.);
 - “exit date” means the date on which the United Kingdom ceases to be a member of the European Union;
 - “part of the United Kingdom” means England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, England and Wales or Great Britain;
 - “primary legislation” means any—
 - (a) public general Act,

- (b) local or personal Act, or
 - (c) private Act;
- “secondary legislation” means any—
- (a) Order in Council other than one—
 - (i) made in exercise of Her Majesty’s Royal Prerogative; or
 - (ii) amending an Act of a kind mentioned in the definition of primary legislation;
 - (b) Act of the Scottish Parliament;
 - (c) Measure of the National Assembly for Wales;
 - (d) Act of the National Assembly of Wales;
 - (e) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made under primary legislation (except to the extent to which it operates to bring one or more provisions of that legislation into force or amends any primary legislation);
 - (f) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made by a member of the Scottish Executive, Welsh Ministers, the First Minister for Wales, or the Counsel General to the Welsh Assembly Government in exercise of prerogative or other executive functions of Her Majesty which are exercisable by such a person on behalf of Her Majesty.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Secretary of State to produce a plan before section 1 can come into force on steps taken or planned to be taken to secure that EU Worker Rights will be maintained in United Kingdom law after the exit date, subject only to the passage of primary legislation after the exit date.

To move the following Clause—

“Worker Rights: maintenance of EU standards after exit

- (1) EU Worker Rights which, at the exit date, were without further enactment given legal effect or used in the United Kingdom shall, with effect from the exit date, be recognised and available in law and be enforced, allowed and followed to the same extent as it was before the exit date.
- (2) For the purpose of all legal proceedings, any question as to the meaning or effect of any EU Worker Right shall be determined in accordance with the principles laid down by and any relevant judgment of the Court of Justice of the European Union.
- (3) Evidence of any judgment of the Court of Justice of the European Union may be given in any legal proceedings by production of a copy certified as a true copy by an official of that institution; and any document purporting to be a copy shall be received in evidence without proof of the official position or handwriting of the person signing the certificate.
- (4) So far as it is possible to do so, primary legislation and subordinate legislation must be read and given effect to in a way which is compatible with EU Worker Rights.
- (5) Subsection (4)—
 - (a) applies to primary legislation and subordinate legislation whenever enacted;
 - (b) does not affect the validity, continuing operation or enforcement of any incompatible primary legislation; and
 - (c) does not affect the validity, continuing operation or enforcement of any incompatible subordinate legislation if (disregarding any possibility of revocation) primary legislation prevents removal of the incompatibility.
- (6) Legislation (whether primary legislation or subordinate legislation) applying to the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom which gives effect in United Kingdom law or in the law of a part of the United Kingdom to the Directives listed in Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc) shall continue in full force and effect after the exit date.
- (7) Subsection (6) shall apply regardless of any repeal or amendments to the European Communities Act 1972.
- (8) After the exit date, no amendment may be made to legislation to which subsection (6) applies or to Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc) save by primary legislation.
- (9) Subsection (4) does not prevent amendments to relevant legislation for the purpose of introducing provisions which are more favourable to the protection of workers.
- (10) In this section—

“EU Worker Rights” means any of the rights, duties, remedies and procedures provided for by or under legislation (whether primary legislation or subordinate legislation) applying to the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom which gives effect in United Kingdom law

or in the law of a part of the United Kingdom to the Directives listed in Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc);

“exit date” means the date on which the United Kingdom ceases to be a member of the European Union;

“part of the United Kingdom” means England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, England and Wales or Great Britain;

“primary legislation” means any—

- (a) public general Act,
- (b) local or personal Act, or
- (c) private Act;

“subordinate legislation” means any—

- (a) Order in Council other than one—
 - (i) made in exercise of Her Majesty’s Royal Prerogative; or
 - (ii) amending an Act of a kind mentioned in the definition or primary legislation;
- (b) Act of the Scottish Parliament;
- (c) Measure of the National Assembly for Wales;
- (d) Act of the National Assembly of Wales;
- (e) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made under primary legislation (except to the extent to which it operates to bring one or more provisions of that legislation into force or amends any primary legislation);
- (f) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made by a member of the Scottish Executive, Welsh Ministers, the First Minister for Wales, or the Counsel General to the Welsh Assembly Government in exercise of prerogative or other executive functions of Her Majesty which are exercisable by such a person on behalf of Her Majesty;

“the relevant period” means the period which begins with notification of withdrawal under section 1 and ends two calendar years after the exit date.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause, together with NS1, provides for EU Worker Rights on exit day to continue in force in the United Kingdom subject only to changes made by primary legislation.

To move the following Clause—

“Effect of notification of withdrawal

Nothing in this Act shall affect the continuation of those residence rights enjoyed by EU citizens lawfully resident in the United Kingdom on 23 June 2016, under or by virtue of Directive 2004/38/EC, after the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the European Union.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This savings new clause is designed to protect the residence rights of those EU citizens who were lawfully resident in the United Kingdom on the date of the EU referendum. It would ensure that those rights do not fall away automatically two years after notice of withdrawal has been given, if no agreement is reached with the EU. This new clause would implement a recommendation made in paragraph 53 by the Joint Committee on Human Rights in its report ‘The human rights implications of Brexit’.

NC194

- ★ To move the following Clause—

“EU citizens in the UK—immigration status

Before issuing any notification under Article 50 of the Treaty on European Union, the Prime Minister shall give an undertaking that, in any arrangements made for determining the immigration status after the UK’s withdrawal from the European Union of EU citizens resident in the UK on the day on which notification is given, the same criteria will be applied to citizens national to each Member State.”

Keith Vaz

NC195

- ★ To move the following Clause—

“Europol—UK liaison office

Before issuing any notification under Article 50 of the Treaty on European Union, the Prime Minister shall give an undertaking that Her Majesty’s Government shall maintain an office for the purpose of liaison with the European Police Office (Europol), regardless of any decision or negotiations on the status of UK membership of Europol.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that the UK retains an office in Europol which enables UK law enforcement to engage with law enforcement in EU member states.

Keith Vaz

NC197

- ★ To move the following Clause—

“Prisoner transfer agreements—strategy

Before exercising the power under section 1, the Prime Minister must undertake to publish a strategy for future arrangements for transfer of prisoners between the UK and EU Member States after the UK’s withdrawal from the European Union.”
