NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Conduct of negotiations

Before giving any notification under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union, the Prime Minister shall give an undertaking to have regard to the public interest during negotiations in—

- (a) maintaining a stable and sustainable economy,
- (b) preserving peace in Northern Ireland,
- (c) having trading arrangements with the European Union for goods and services that are free of tariff and non-tariff barriers and further regulatory burdens,
- (d) co-operation with the European Union in education, research and science, environment protection, and preventing and detecting serious and organised crime and terrorist activity,
- (e) maintaining all existing social, economic, consumer and workers’ rights.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause sets out statutory objectives that the Government must have regard to whilst carrying out negotiations under article 50.

NC7

To move the following Clause—

“Conduct of negotiations—anti-tax haven

- (1) In negotiating and concluding an agreement in accordance with Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union, Ministers of the Crown must have regard to the public interest in maintaining all existing EU tax avoidance and evasion legislation.
- (2) In negotiating and concluding an agreement in accordance with Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union, Ministers of Crown must comply with the European Union Code of Conduct on Business Taxation.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause sets out the government’s commitment to observe the Code of Conduct on business taxation to prevent excessive tax competition and lays out the statutory objectives that the Government must have regard to EU tax avoidance and evasion whilst carrying out negotiations under article 50.

NC11

To move the following Clause—

“Tariff-free trade in goods and services

In the event of the exercise of the power in Section 1, Her Majesty’s Government shall seek a new Treaty between the United Kingdom and the European Union on tariff-free trade in goods and services.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that, in the event of the exercise of the power in Section 1, Her Majesty’s Government shall seek a new Treaty between the United Kingdom and the European Union on tariff-free trade in goods and services rather than withdraw from the European Union with no alternative objective.

NC100

To move the following Clause—

“Equality and women’s rights

Before issuing any notification under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union the Prime Minister shall give an undertaking to have regard to the public interest during negotiations for the UK’s withdrawal from the European Union in—

- (a) maintaining employment rights and protections derived from EU legislation,
 - (b) ensuring that EU co-operation to end violence against women and girls, to tackle female genital mutilation and to end human trafficking will continue unaffected,
 - (c) the desirability of continuing to recognise restraining orders placed on abusive partners in EU Member States in the UK and restraining orders placed on abusive partners in the UK across the EU, and
 - (d) establishing a cross-departmental working group to assess and make recommendations for developing legislation on equality and access to justice.”

To move the following Clause—

“Priority in negotiations: Northern Ireland

It must be a priority in negotiations for the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU for the Prime Minister to seek terms that would not give rise to any external impediment to the people of the island of Ireland exercising their right of self-determination on the basis of consent, freely and concurrently given, North and South, to bring about a united Ireland, to then be treated as a member State of the European Union, if that is their wish, subject to the agreement and consent of a majority of the people of Northern Ireland.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause seeks to preserve the key constitutional precept of the Belfast Agreement, in respect of the principle of consent, applying to future EU membership of a united Ireland agreed by a referendum under the Belfast Agreement and the Northern Ireland Act 1998.

To move the following Clause—

“Maintenance of Worker Rights derived from EU law: plan

- (1) Section 1 of this Act shall not come into force until the Secretary of State has laid before each House of Parliament a report on the steps which Her Majesty’s Government has taken or plans to take to secure that the EU Worker Rights will (subject only to any primary legislation passed after the exit date) be maintained in United Kingdom law after the exit date.

(2) In this section—

“EU Worker Rights” means any of the rights, duties, remedies and procedures provided for by or under legislation (whether primary legislation or subordinate legislation) applying to the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom which gives effect in United Kingdom law or in the law of a part of the United Kingdom to the Directives listed in Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc.);

“exit date” means the date on which the United Kingdom ceases to be a member of the European Union;

“part of the United Kingdom” means England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, England and Wales or Great Britain;

“primary legislation” means any—

- (a) public general Act,
- (b) local or personal Act, or
- (c) private Act;

“secondary legislation” means any—

- (a) Order in Council other than one—
 - (i) made in exercise of Her Majesty’s Royal Prerogative; or
 - (ii) amending an Act of a kind mentioned in the definition of primary legislation;
- (b) Act of the Scottish Parliament;
- (c) Measure of the National Assembly for Wales;
- (d) Act of the National Assembly of Wales;
- (e) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made under primary legislation (except to the extent to which it operates to bring one or more provisions of that legislation into force or amends any primary legislation);
- (f) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made by a member of the Scottish Executive, Welsh Ministers, the First Minister for Wales, or the Counsel General to the Welsh Assembly Government in exercise of prerogative or other executive functions of Her Majesty which are exercisable by such a person on behalf of Her Majesty.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Secretary of State to produce a plan before section 1 can come into force on steps taken or planned to be taken to secure that EU Worker Rights will be maintained in United Kingdom law after the exit date, subject only to the passage of primary legislation after the exit date.

To move the following Clause—

“Worker Rights: maintenance of EU standards after exit

- (1) EU Worker Rights which, at the exit date, were without further enactment given legal effect or used in the United Kingdom shall, with effect from the exit date, be recognised and available in law and be enforced, allowed and followed to the same extent as it was before the exit date.
- (2) For the purpose of all legal proceedings, any question as to the meaning or effect of any EU Worker Right shall be determined in accordance with the principles laid down by and any relevant judgment of the Court of Justice of the European Union.
- (3) Evidence of any judgment of the Court of Justice of the European Union may be given in any legal proceedings by production of a copy certified as a true copy by an official of that institution; and any document purporting to be a copy shall be received in evidence without proof of the official position or handwriting of the person signing the certificate.
- (4) So far as it is possible to do so, primary legislation and subordinate legislation must be read and given effect to in a way which is compatible with EU Worker Rights.
- (5) Subsection (4)—
 - (a) applies to primary legislation and subordinate legislation whenever enacted;
 - (b) does not affect the validity, continuing operation or enforcement of any incompatible primary legislation; and
 - (c) does not affect the validity, continuing operation or enforcement of any incompatible subordinate legislation if (disregarding any possibility of revocation) primary legislation prevents removal of the incompatibility.
- (6) Legislation (whether primary legislation or subordinate legislation) applying to the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom which gives effect in United Kingdom law or in the law of a part of the United Kingdom to the Directives listed in Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc) shall continue in full force and effect after the exit date.

- (7) Subsection (6) shall apply regardless of any repeal or amendments to the European Communities Act 1972.
- (8) After the exit date, no amendment may be made to legislation to which subsection (6) applies or to Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc) save by primary legislation.
- (9) Subsection (4) does not prevent amendments to relevant legislation for the purpose of introducing provisions which are more favourable to the protection of workers.
- (10) In this section—

“EU Worker Rights” means any of the rights, duties, remedies and procedures provided for by or under legislation (whether primary legislation or subordinate legislation) applying to the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom which gives effect in United Kingdom law or in the law of a part of the United Kingdom to the Directives listed in Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc);

“exit date” means the date on which the United Kingdom ceases to be a member of the European Union;

“part of the United Kingdom” means England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, England and Wales or Great Britain;

“primary legislation” means any—

- (a) public general Act,
- (b) local or personal Act, or
- (c) private Act;

“subordinate legislation” means any—

- (a) Order in Council other than one—
 - (i) made in exercise of Her Majesty’s Royal Prerogative; or
 - (ii) amending an Act of a kind mentioned in the definition or primary legislation;
- (b) Act of the Scottish Parliament;
- (c) Measure of the National Assembly for Wales;
- (d) Act of the National Assembly of Wales;
- (e) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made under primary legislation (except to the extent to which it operates to bring one or more provisions of that legislation into force or amends any primary legislation);
- (f) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made by a member of the Scottish Executive, Welsh Ministers, the First Minister for Wales, or the Counsel General to the Welsh Assembly Government in exercise of prerogative or other executive functions of Her Majesty which are exercisable by such a person on behalf of Her Majesty;

“the relevant period” means the period which begins with notification of withdrawal under section 1 and ends two calendar years after the exit date.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause, together with NS1, provides for EU Worker Rights on exit day to continue in force in the United Kingdom subject only to changes made by primary legislation.
