“Conduct of negotiations
Before giving any notification under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union, the Prime Minister shall give an undertaking to have regard to the public interest during negotiations in—

(a) maintaining a stable and sustainable economy,
(b) preserving peace in Northern Ireland,
(c) having trading arrangements with the European Union for goods and services that are free of tariff and non-tariff barriers and further regulatory burdens,
(d) co-operation with the European Union in education, research and science, environment protection, and preventing and detecting serious and organised crime and terrorist activity,
(e) maintaining all existing social, economic, consumer and workers’ rights.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This new clause sets out statutory objectives that the Government must have regard to whilst carrying out negotiations under article 50.
To move the following Clause—

“Conduct of negotiations—anti-tax haven

(1) In negotiating and concluding an agreement in accordance with Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union, Ministers of the Crown must have regard to the public interest in maintaining all existing EU tax avoidance and evasion legislation.

(2) In negotiating and concluding an agreement in accordance with Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union, Ministers of Crown must comply with the European Union Code of Conduct on Business Taxation.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause sets out the government’s commitment to observe the Code of Conduct on business taxation to prevent excessive tax competition and lays out the statutory objectives that the Government must have regard to EU tax avoidance and evasion whilst carrying out negotiations under article 50.

To move the following Clause—

“Tariff-free trade in goods and services

In the event of the exercise of the power in Section 1, Her Majesty’s Government shall seek a new Treaty between the United Kingdom and the European Union on tariff-free trade in goods and services.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that, in the event of the exercise of the power in Section 1, Her Majesty’s Government shall seek a new Treaty between the United Kingdom and the European Union on tariff-free trade in goods and services rather than withdraw from the European Union with no alternative objective.
“Transitional arrangements

Her Majesty’s Government shall seek a transitional trading agreement between the United Kingdom and the European Union as part of the negotiations following notification under section 1.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This new clause would make it an objective for HM Government to secure a transitional approach towards new trading relationships with the EU Member States following the end of the Article 50 notification and negotiation period.
force of this Act in relation to citizens of member states of the European Union and the United Kingdom.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would seek to ensure that HM Government has the objective of maintaining the visa policy in operation at the date of the coming into force of this Act in relation to citizens of member states of the European Union and the United Kingdom.

Trading rights—financial services

On the exercise of the power in section 1, Her Majesty’s Government shall make it an objective to secure the trading rights for UK-based financial services companies that exist by virtue of the UK’s membership of the European Union as of the day on which this Act comes into force.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would seek to ensure that Her Majesty’s Government endeavours to preserve the existing trading rights for UK-based financial services companies as currently exist.

(2) Before exercising the power to notify under section 1 of this Act, the Prime Minister should lay before Parliament an assessment of the value of UK membership of the EU Customs Union in maintaining ongoing tariff and barrier-free trade with the EU.”

“Membership of the single market including EU-wide reform of freedom of movement

(1) In negotiating and concluding an agreement in accordance with Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union, Ministers of the Crown must seek to—

(a) secure reforms of provisions governing the free movement of persons between EU member states in such a way as to allow for greater controls over movement of people for member states and to enable the UK to retain full membership of the European single market, or

(b) maintain the highest possible level of integration with the European single market.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that the Government must seek to negotiate EU-wide reforms to freedom of movement in the single market to enable the Government to seek to retain membership of the single market or as close to membership as possible.

(4) The report in subsection (3) must set out the costs and benefits of holding a referendum which asks the public to decide between the proposed negotiation package or remaining a member of the European Union.

(5) The report in subsection (3) must not be laid before the House before 1 December 2017.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment requires the power to notify withdrawal to be exercised with regard to the constitutional, institutional and rights provisions of the Belfast Agreement.

Clause 1, page 1, line 5, at end insert—

“with the exception of the Northern Ireland Act 1998 and section 2 of the Ireland Act 1949, and subject to—

(a) the United Kingdom’s obligations under the Agreement between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Government of Ireland of 10 April 1998, and

(b) preserving acquired rights in Northern Ireland under European Union law.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This amendment would ensure that the UK government could not unilaterally amend or remove EU-derived employment or equality legislation once negotiations with the EU have begun on UK withdrawal; and that once the UK has withdrawn from the EU, changes to employment or equality legislation would be subject to full Parliamentary scrutiny, with Parliament replacing the EU as the relevant legislature.

Member’s explanatory statement
This new clause guarantees the rights of EU nationals living in the UK at the date when article 50 is triggered.
Committee of the whole House: 8 February 2017

(2) In this section—

“EU Worker Rights” means any of the rights, duties, remedies and procedures provided for by or under legislation (whether primary legislation or subordinate legislation) applying to the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom which gives effect in United Kingdom law or in the law of a part of the United Kingdom to the Directives listed in Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc.);

“exit date” means the date on which the United Kingdom ceases to be a member of the European Union;

“part of the United Kingdom” means England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, England and Wales or Great Britain;

“primary legislation” means any—

(a) public general Act,
(b) local or personal Act, or
(c) private Act;

“secondary legislation” means any—

(a) Order in Council other than one—

(i) made in exercise of Her Majesty’s Royal Prerogative; or
(ii) amending an Act of a kind mentioned in the definition of primary legislation;

(b) Act of the Scottish Parliament;
(c) Measure of the National Assembly for Wales;
(d) Act of the National Assembly of Wales;
(e) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made under primary legislation (except to the extent to which it operates to bring one or more provisions of that legislation into force or amends any primary legislation);
(f) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made by a member of the Scottish Executive, Welsh Ministers, the First Minister for Wales, or the Counsel General to the Welsh Assembly Government in exercise of prerogative or other executive functions of Her Majesty which are exercisable by such a person on behalf of Her Majesty.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Secretary of State to produce a plan before section 1 can come into force on steps taken or planned to be taken to secure that EU Worker Rights will be maintained in United Kingdom law after the exit date, subject only to the passage of primary legislation after the exit date.
To move the following Clause—

“Worker Rights: maintenance of EU standards after exit

(1) EU Worker Rights which, at the exit date, were without further enactment given legal effect or used in the United Kingdom shall, with effect from the exit date, be recognised and available in law and be enforced, allowed and followed to the same extent as it was before the exit date.

(2) For the purpose of all legal proceedings, any question as to the meaning or effect of any EU Worker Right shall be determined in accordance with the principles laid down by and any relevant judgment of the Court of Justice of the European Union.

(3) Evidence of any judgment of the Court of Justice of the European Union may be given in any legal proceedings by production of a copy certified as a true copy by an official of that institution; and any document purporting to be a copy shall be received in evidence without proof of the official position or handwriting of the person signing the certificate.

(4) So far as it is possible to do so, primary legislation and subordinate legislation must be read and given effect to in a way which is compatible with EU Worker Rights.

(5) Subsection (4)—

(a) applies to primary legislation and subordinate legislation whenever enacted;

(b) does not affect the validity, continuing operation or enforcement of any incompatible primary legislation; and

(c) does not affect the validity, continuing operation or enforcement of any incompatible subordinate legislation if (disregarding any possibility of revocation) primary legislation prevents removal of the incompatibility.

(6) Legislation (whether primary legislation or subordinate legislation) applying to the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom which gives effect in United Kingdom law or in the law of a part of the United Kingdom to the Directives listed in Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc) shall continue in full force and effect after the exit date.

(7) Subsection (6) shall apply regardless of any repeal or amendments to the European Communities Act 1972.

(8) After the exit date, no amendment may be made to legislation to which subsection (6) applies or to Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc) save by primary legislation.

(9) Subsection (4) does not prevent amendments to relevant legislation for the purpose of introducing provisions which are more favourable to the protection of workers.

(10) In this section—

“EU Worker Rights” means any of the rights, duties, remedies and procedures provided for by or under legislation (whether primary legislation or subordinate legislation) applying to the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom which gives effect in United Kingdom law or in the law of a part of the United Kingdom to the Directives listed in Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc);

“exit date” means the date on which the United Kingdom ceases to be a member of the European Union;

“part of the United Kingdom” means England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, England and Wales or Great Britain;

“primary legislation” means any—

(a) public general Act,

(b) local or personal Act, or

(c) private Act;

“subordinate legislation” means any—

(a) Order in Council other than one—

(i) made in exercise of Her Majesty’s Royal Prerogative; or

(ii) amending an Act of a kind mentioned in the definition or primary legislation;

(b) Act of the Scottish Parliament;

(c) Measure of the National Assembly for Wales;

(d) Act of the National Assembly of Wales;

(e) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made under primary legislation (except to the extent to which it operates to bring one or more provisions of that legislation into force or amends any primary legislation);

(f) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made by a member of the Scottish Executive, Welsh Ministers, the First Minister for Wales, or the Counsel General to the Welsh Assembly Government in exercise of prerogative or other executive functions of Her Majesty which are exercisable by such a person on behalf of Her Majesty;

“the relevant period” means the period which begins with notification of withdrawal under section 1 and ends two calendar years after the exit date.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This new clause, together with NS1, provides for EU Worker Rights on exit day to continue in force in the United Kingdom subject only to changes made by primary legislation.
To move the following Clause—

“International trade

Her Majesty’s Government shall endeavour to incorporate into UK regulation the international trade policies that apply to the UK as a consequence of its membership of the European Union and European Customs Union on the date of the exercise of the power in section 1.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would make it the policy of HM Government to endeavour to “grandfather” existing trade policies currently applicable to the UK by virtue of UK membership of the EU Customs Union.

on the day on which this Act is passed shall continue to have an indefinite leave to remain in the United Kingdom.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This new Clause would ensure that those persons who have a right to indefinite leave to remain in the United Kingdom by virtue of their EU citizenship on the day on which this Act is passed shall continue to have an indefinite leave to remain in the United Kingdom.

(1) Any EU environmental law which, at the date of withdrawal from the EU, was given legal effect in England shall, with effect from the exit date, be recognised and available in law, and be observed and enforced, to the same extent as it was before the date of withdrawal.

(2) In subsection (1), “EU environmental law” means any of the rights, duties, remedies and procedures provided for by or under relevant legislation applying to England at the date of withdrawal from the EU, including but not limited to legislation implementing the following EU Directives—

(g) Floods Directive (Directive 2007/60/EC on the assessment and management of flood risks),

(s) Carbon Capture and Storage Directive (Directive 2009/31/EC on Geological Storage of Carbon Dioxide),

(3) In subsection (2), “relevant legislation” means any legislation applying to England, which was in force at the date of withdrawal from the EU and was made for the purpose of implementing any EU environmental law, including but not limited to the Directives listed in subsection (2), in England.

(4) Specific EU Directives may not be removed from the list in subsection (2) except by—
   (a) primary legislation, or
   (b) secondary legislation subject to the affirmative resolution procedure.

(5) Specific EU Directives may be added to the list in subsection (2) by secondary legislation subject to the negative resolution procedure.

(6) Relevant legislation as defined in subsection (3) shall continue in full force and effect after the date of withdrawal from the EU.

(7) Subsection (6) shall apply regardless of any amendments to, or repeal of, the European Communities Act 1972.”

To move the following Clause—

“Maintenance of equivalent means of enforcing environmental law derived from EU instruments

(1) After the date of withdrawal, EU environmental law, as defined in subsection (2) of New Clause (Maintenance of directly effective environmental law derived from EU instruments), shall be enforced in England by means equivalent to those in place prior to the date of withdrawal from the EU.

(2) The Secretary of State must, within six months of this Act coming into force, publish and lay before Parliament a report outlining the means by which EU environmental law shall be enforced in England after the date of withdrawal from the EU.

(3) In subsection (1), “means” shall include any penalties, financial or otherwise, imposed for breach of any law.

(4) For the purposes of any legal proceedings, any question as to the equivalence of means of enforcing EU environmental law in England with those in place prior to the date of withdrawal from the EU shall be determined in accordance with the principles laid down by and any relevant judgement of the Court of Justice of the European Union.”
To move the following Clause—

“Environmental protection

Nothing in this Act shall have the consequence of weakening any law or regulation, including but not limited to those derived from European Union legislation, the primary purpose of which is to safeguard the quality of the natural environment, including but not limited to legal standards on—

(a) air quality,
(b) water quality,
(c) protection of wildlife and habitats,
(d) waste management.”

To move the following Clause—

“Requirement to report on environmental legislation

(1) Before exercising the power under section 1, the Prime Minister must publish and lay before Parliament a report setting out how Her Majesty’s Government plans to ensure that existing standards of environmental protection are maintained in the context of—

(a) any withdrawal agreements negotiated with the European Union during the two-year period specified by Article 50(3) of the Treaty on European Union,
(b) any future trade deals with the European Union or any of its member states,
(c) any future trade deals with any other state or group of states.

(2) In subsection (1), “existing standards of environmental protection” means any of the rights, duties, remedies and procedures provided for by or under relevant legislation applying to England at the date of withdrawal from the EU, including but not limited to legislation implementing the following EU Directives—

(g) Floods Directive (Directive 2007/60/EC on the assessment and management of flood risks),

(s) Carbon Capture and Storage Directive (Directive 2009/31/EC on Geological Storage of Carbon Dioxide),
(x) In subsection (2), “relevant legislation” means any legislation applying to England, which was in force at the date of withdrawal from the EU and was made for the purpose of implementing any EU environmental law, including but not limited to the Directives listed in subsection (2), in England.”

To move the following Clause—

“Nuclear Collaboration
(1) Nothing in this Act shall affect the UK’s membership of the European Atomic Agency Community (Euratom).
(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other Act, Her Majesty’s Government shall treat the process of leaving Euratom as separate to that of leaving the European Union.”

Keith Vaz

☆ To move the following Clause—

“EU citizens in the UK—immigration status

Before issuing any notification under Article 50 of the Treaty on European Union, the Prime Minister shall give an undertaking that, in any arrangements made for determining the immigration status after the UK’s withdrawal from the European Union of EU citizens resident in the UK on the day on which notification is given, the same criteria will be applied to citizens national to each Member State.”

Keith Vaz

To move the following Clause—

“Europol—UK liaison office

Before issuing any notification under Article 50 of the Treaty on European Union, the Prime Minister shall give an undertaking that Her Majesty’s Government shall maintain an office for the purpose of liaison with the European Police Office (Europol), regardless of any decision or negotiations on the status of UK membership of Europol.”

Member’s explanatory statement
This new clause would ensure that the UK retains an office in Europol which enables UK law enforcement to engage with law enforcement in EU member states.

Keith Vaz

To move the following Clause—

“Prisoner transfer agreements—strategy

Before exercising the power under section 1, the Prime Minister must undertake to publish a strategy for future arrangements for transfer of prisoners between the UK and EU Member States after the UK’s withdrawal from the European Union.”

Keith Vaz

To move the following Clause—

“Registration of EU citizens

(1) After the Prime Minister has exercised the power under section 1, Her Majesty’s Government shall immediately put in place arrangements for registering EU citizens living in the UK.

(2) Registration shall be undertaken by local authorities under regulations made by the Secretary of State.”
