NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Parliamentary oversight of negotiations

Before issuing any notification under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union the Prime Minister shall give an undertaking to—

- (a) lay before each House of Parliament periodic reports, at intervals of no more than two months on the progress of the negotiations under Article 50 of the Treaty on European Union;
- (b) lay before each House of Parliament as soon as reasonably practicable a copy in English of any document which the European Council or the European Commission has provided to the European Parliament or any committee of the European Parliament relating to the negotiations;
- (c) make arrangements for Parliamentary scrutiny of confidential documents.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause establishes powers through which the UK Parliament can scrutinise the UK Government throughout the negotiations.

To move the following Clause—

“Future relationship with the European Union

- (1) Following the exercise of the power in section 1, any new treaty or relationship with the European Union must be subject to the express approval of Parliament.
- (2) It shall be the policy of Her Majesty’s Government that, in the event of Parliament declining to approve such a new treaty or relationship, further time to continue negotiations with the European Union shall be sought.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause seeks to ensure that, if Parliament declines to give approval to any new deal or treaty following the negotiations in respect of the triggering of Article 50(2), that Her Majesty’s Government shall endeavour to seek further time to continue negotiations for an alternative relationship with the European Union.

“(3) Before exercising the power under subsection (1), the Prime Minister must prepare and publish a report on the effect of the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU on national finances, including the impact on health spending.

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment calls for the Government to publish a report on the effect of EU withdrawal on the national finances, particularly health spending following claims in the referendum campaign that EU withdrawal would allow an additional £350 million per week to be spent on the National Health Service.

To move the following Clause—

“Maintenance of Worker Rights derived from EU law: plan

- (1) Section 1 of this Act shall not come into force until the Secretary of State has laid before each House of Parliament a report on the steps which Her Majesty’s Government has taken or plans to take to secure that the EU Worker Rights will (subject only to any primary legislation passed after the exit date) be maintained in United Kingdom law after the exit date.
- (2) In this section—
 - “EU Worker Rights” means any of the rights, duties, remedies and procedures provided for by or under legislation (whether primary legislation or subordinate legislation) applying to the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom which gives effect in United Kingdom law or in the law of a part of the United Kingdom to the Directives listed in Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc.);
 - “exit date” means the date on which the United Kingdom ceases to be a member of the European Union;
 - “part of the United Kingdom” means England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, England and Wales or Great Britain;
 - “primary legislation” means any—
 - (a) public general Act,
 - (b) local or personal Act, or
 - (c) private Act;
 - “secondary legislation” means any—
 - (a) Order in Council other than one—
 - (i) made in exercise of Her Majesty’s Royal Prerogative; or
 - (ii) amending an Act of a kind mentioned in the definition of primary legislation;

- (b) Act of the Scottish Parliament;
- (c) Measure of the National Assembly for Wales;
- (d) Act of the National Assembly of Wales;
- (e) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made under primary legislation (except to the extent to which it operates to bring one or more provisions of that legislation into force or amends any primary legislation);
- (f) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made by a member of the Scottish Executive, Welsh Ministers, the First Minister for Wales, or the Counsel General to the Welsh Assembly Government in exercise of prerogative or other executive functions of Her Majesty which are exercisable by such a person on behalf of Her Majesty.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Secretary of State to produce a plan before section 1 can come into force on steps taken or planned to be taken to secure that EU Worker Rights will be maintained in United Kingdom law after the exit date, subject only to the passage of primary legislation after the exit date.

To move the following Clause—

“Worker Rights: maintenance of EU standards after exit

- (1) EU Worker Rights which, at the exit date, were without further enactment given legal effect or used in the United Kingdom shall, with effect from the exit date, be recognised and available in law and be enforced, allowed and followed to the same extent as it was before the exit date.
- (2) For the purpose of all legal proceedings, any question as to the meaning or effect of any EU Worker Right shall be determined in accordance with the principles laid down by and any relevant judgment of the Court of Justice of the European Union.
- (3) Evidence of any judgment of the Court of Justice of the European Union may be given in any legal proceedings by production of a copy certified as a true copy by an official of that institution; and any document purporting to be a copy shall be received in evidence without proof of the official position or handwriting of the person signing the certificate.

- (4) So far as it is possible to do so, primary legislation and subordinate legislation must be read and given effect to in a way which is compatible with EU Worker Rights.
- (5) Subsection (4)—
- (a) applies to primary legislation and subordinate legislation whenever enacted;
 - (b) does not affect the validity, continuing operation or enforcement of any incompatible primary legislation; and
 - (c) does not affect the validity, continuing operation or enforcement of any incompatible subordinate legislation if (disregarding any possibility of revocation) primary legislation prevents removal of the incompatibility.
- (6) Legislation (whether primary legislation or subordinate legislation) applying to the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom which gives effect in United Kingdom law or in the law of a part of the United Kingdom to the Directives listed in Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc) shall continue in full force and effect after the exit date.
- (7) Subsection (6) shall apply regardless of any repeal or amendments to the European Communities Act 1972.
- (8) After the exit date, no amendment may be made to legislation to which subsection (6) applies or to Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc) save by primary legislation.
- (9) Subsection (4) does not prevent amendments to relevant legislation for the purpose of introducing provisions which are more favourable to the protection of workers.
- (10) In this section—
- “EU Worker Rights” means any of the rights, duties, remedies and procedures provided for by or under legislation (whether primary legislation or subordinate legislation) applying to the United Kingdom or a part of the United Kingdom which gives effect in United Kingdom law or in the law of a part of the United Kingdom to the Directives listed in Schedule (Worker Rights: EU Directives, etc);
- “exit date” means the date on which the United Kingdom ceases to be a member of the European Union;
- “part of the United Kingdom” means England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, England and Wales or Great Britain;
- “primary legislation” means any—
- (a) public general Act,
 - (b) local or personal Act, or
 - (c) private Act;
- “subordinate legislation” means any—
- (a) Order in Council other than one—
 - (i) made in exercise of Her Majesty’s Royal Prerogative; or
 - (ii) amending an Act of a kind mentioned in the definition or primary legislation;
 - (b) Act of the Scottish Parliament;
 - (c) Measure of the National Assembly for Wales;
 - (d) Act of the National Assembly of Wales;
 - (e) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made under primary legislation (except to the extent to which it operates to bring one or more provisions of that legislation into force or amends any primary legislation);

- (f) Order, rules, regulations, scheme, warrant, byelaw or other instrument made by a member of the Scottish Executive, Welsh Ministers, the First Minister for Wales, or the Counsel General to the Welsh Assembly Government in exercise of prerogative or other executive functions of Her Majesty which are exercisable by such a person on behalf of Her Majesty;

“the relevant period” means the period which begins with notification of withdrawal under section 1 and ends two calendar years after the exit date.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause, together with NS1, provides for EU Worker Rights on exit day to continue in force in the United Kingdom subject only to changes made by primary legislation.
