“Billing limits for mobile phones

124S Mobile phone providers’ duty to enable billing limits to be applied

- (1) The provider of a mobile phone service must not enter into a contract to provide the service unless the customer has been given an opportunity to specify a billing limit in the contract.
- (2) In relation to a contract to provide a mobile phone service—
 - (a) a billing limit is a limit on the amount the customer may be charged for provision of the service in respect of each billing period, and
 - (b) a billing period is one of successive periods specified in the contract and together making up the period for which the contract remains in force.
- (3) A contract to provide a mobile phone service must provide for the customer on reasonable notice at any time—
 - (a) to specify a billing limit if none is specified for the time being,
 - (b) to amend or remove a limit in respect of all billing periods or a specified billing period.

 - (b) any decision of the customer under provision made in accordance with subsection (3), and

“customer” does not include a person who is a customer as a communications provider;
“mobile phone service” means an electronic communications service which is provided in the course of a business wholly or mainly so as to be available to members of the public for the purpose of communicating with others, or accessing data, by mobile phone.

124T Enforcement of duty to enable billing limits to be applied

- (1) Sections 96A to 96C apply in relation to a contravention of a requirement under section 124S as they apply in relation to a contravention of a condition set under section 45, with the following modifications.

- (3) Section 96A(5) to (7) (action under the Competition Act 1998) do not apply.
