- “(A1) Retained EU law is to be interpreted in accordance with subsections (A3) to (A7), unless otherwise provided for by regulations under this Act.
- (A2) Subsections (A3) to (A7) do not affect the application of section 7 to retained EU law where, but for the operation of those subsections, the retained EU law would fall within that section.
- (A3) Retained EU law does not allow, prevent, require or otherwise apply to acts or omissions outside the United Kingdom.
- (A4) An EU reference is not to be treated, by reason of the UK having ceased to be a member State, as preventing or restricting the application of retained EU law within the United Kingdom or to persons or things associated with the United Kingdom.
- (A5) Functions conferred on the EU or an EU entity are to be treated as functions of the Secretary of State.
- (A6) Any provision which requires or would, apart from subsection (A5), require a UK body to—
- (a) consult, notify, co-operate with, or perform any other act in relation to an EU body, or
  - (b) take account of an EU interest,
- is to be treated as empowering the UK body to do so in such manner and to such extent as it considers appropriate.
- (A7) In subsection (A6)—
- “a UK body” means the United Kingdom or a public authority in the United Kingdom;
- “an EU body” means the EU, an EU entity (other than the European Court), a member State or a public authority in a member State;
- “an EU interest” means an interest of an EU body or any other interest principally arising in or connected with the EU (including that of consistency between the United Kingdom and the EU);
- “requires” includes reference to a pre-condition to the exercise of any power, right or function.”

To move the following Clause—

“Consequences of leaving the European Union: equality

- (1) This section comes into force when the power under section 14 to appoint exit day for the purposes of this Act is first exercised.
- (2) The purpose of this section is to ensure that the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union does not diminish protection for equality in the law of the United Kingdom.
- (3) All individuals are equal before the law and have the right to the equal protection and benefit of the law.
- (4) All individuals have a right not to be discriminated against by any public authority on any grounds including sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age or sexual orientation.
- (5) The following provisions of the Human Rights Act 1998 apply in relation to the rights conferred by subsections (3) and (4) as they apply in relation to Convention rights within the meaning of that Act—
  - (a) section 3 (interpretation of legislation);

- (b) section 4 (declaration of incompatibility);
  - (c) section 5 (right of Crown to intervene);
  - (d) section 6 (acts of public authorities);

  - (f) section 8 (judicial remedies);
  - (g) section 9 (judicial acts);
  - (h) section 10 (power to take remedial action);
  - (i) section 11 (safeguard for existing human rights); and
  - (j) section 19 (statements of compatibility).
- (6) A court or tribunal must have regard to any relevant decisions of the European Court of Human Rights in considering—
- (a) the application of this section generally, and
  - (b) in particular, the meaning of discrimination for the purposes of this section.”

the rights of workers and employees in the UK are no less favourable than they would have been had the UK remained a member of the EU or EEA beyond exit day.

- (3) Such circumstances arising in section 2(2)(d) include but are not limited to—
- (a) any future EU Directives relating to family-friendly employment rights; including but not limited to rights for pregnant workers and employees, and those returning from maternity leave,
  - (b) any future EU Directives relating to gender equality,
  - (c) the proposed Directive of the European Parliament and of the Council on work-life balance for parents and carers.
- (4) Reports presented under subsection (1) must include—
- (i) an assessment of how such amendments to UK law would have impacted sex equality in the UK had the UK remained a member of the EU or EEA beyond exit day and
  - (ii) an assessment of how a failure to implement amended provisions or definitions in UK law will impact the ability of families to combine work and care in the UK and gender equality in the UK.”

  - (b) for seeking a consensus on those matters between Her Majesty’s Government and the other members of the Joint Ministerial Committee.
- (2) Before Her Majesty’s Government concludes a withdrawal agreement, the Secretary of State must produce a document for consideration by the Joint Ministerial Committee setting out—
- (a) Her Majesty’s Government’s objectives and strategy in negotiating and concluding a withdrawal agreement;
  - (b) Her Majesty’s Government’s objectives and strategy in relation to establishing a framework for the United Kingdom’s future relationship with the European Union;
  - (c) the steps Her Majesty’s Government intends to take to keep the Joint Ministerial Committee informed of progress in reaching a withdrawal agreement;

- (d) the steps Her Majesty's Government intends to take to consult each member of the Joint Ministerial Committee before entering into a withdrawal agreement and for taking the views of each member into account;
  - (e) the steps Her Majesty's Government intends to take to seek the approval of the Scottish Parliament, the National Assembly for Wales and the Northern Ireland Assembly before entering into a withdrawal agreement.
- (3) Until a withdrawal agreement is concluded, the Secretary of State must produce a report every three months for consideration by the Joint Ministerial Committee setting out—
- (a) Her Majesty's Government's assessment of the progress made against Her Majesty's Government's objectives—
    - (i) in negotiating and concluding the withdrawal agreement;
    - (ii) in relation to establishing a framework for the United Kingdom's future relationship with the European Union;
  - (b) any change to the matters listed in paragraphs (a) to (e) of subsection (2).
- (4) Before concluding a withdrawal agreement the Prime Minister must produce a document setting out the terms of the proposed agreement for consideration by the Joint Ministerial Committee.
- (5) Meetings of the Joint Ministerial Committee must, until Her Majesty's Government concludes a withdrawal agreement, be chaired by—
- (a) the Prime Minister, or
  - (b) the Secretary of State for Exiting the European Union.
- (6) In this section, "the Joint Ministerial Committee" means the body set up in accordance with Supplementary Agreement A of the Memorandum of Understanding on Devolution, between Her Majesty's Government, the Scottish Government, the Welsh Government and the Northern Ireland Executive Committee."

Withdrawn after debate NC70

To move the following Clause—

“Northern Ireland: the Belfast principles

- (1) The Belfast Agreement implemented in the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (which made new provision for the government of Northern Ireland for the purpose of implementing the agreement reached at multi-party talks on Northern Ireland) remains a fundamental principle of public policy after exit day.
- (2) Accordingly, in the exercise by a Minister of the Crown or any devolved authority of any powers under this Act to make any provision affecting Northern Ireland the Minister or authority must have regard to the requirement to preserve and abide by the Belfast Agreement and the principles implemented in Northern Ireland Act 1998 (“the Belfast principles”).
- (3) The Belfast principles include (but are not limited to) partnership, equality and mutual respect as the basis of relationships within Northern Ireland, between the North and South of Ireland, and between the islands of Ireland and Great Britain.
- (4) In particular, in relation to this Act—
  - (a) the Secretary of State must not give consent under paragraph 6 of Schedule 2 to this Act (requirement for consent where it would otherwise be required in dealing with deficiencies arising from withdrawal) before any provision is made by a Northern Ireland department except where the Secretary State has considered the requirement to preserve and abide by the Belfast principles and considers the provision is necessary only as a direct consequence of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU, and
  - (b) the powers under paragraph 13(b) of Schedule 7 to this Act to make supplementary, incidental, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision (including provision restating any retained EU law in a clearer or more accessible way) may not be exercised to do anything beyond the minimum changes strictly required only as a direct consequence of the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU.

- (5) Section 11(3) (legislative competence of the Northern Ireland Assembly) of this Act does not permit the Northern Ireland Assembly to do anything which is not in accordance with the Belfast principles.”

  - (2) In particular, the regulations made under subsection (1) must provide for an unaccompanied minor who has a family member in the United Kingdom who is a refugee or has been granted humanitarian protection to have the same family reunion rights to be reunited in the United Kingdom with that family member as they would have had under Commission Regulation (EU) No. 604/2013.
  - (3) The regulations under subsection (1) must require an assessment of the best interests of the minor, taking into account possibilities for family reunification, the minor’s well-being and social development, safety and security considerations, and the view of the minor.
  - (4) Regulations under this section must be made within six months of this Act receiving Royal Assent.
  - (5) For the purpose of this section “family member” in relation to the unaccompanied minor, means—
    - (a) their parents;
    - (b) their adult siblings;
    - (c) their aunts and uncles;
    - (d) their grandparents.”

“Scrutiny of statutory instruments

- (1) A Parliamentary Committee shall determine the form and duration of parliamentary and public scrutiny for every statutory instrument proposed to be made under this Act.
  - (2) Where the relevant Committee decides that the statutory instrument will be subject to enhanced parliamentary scrutiny the Committee shall have the power—
    - (a) to require a draft of the proposed statutory instrument be laid before Parliament;
    - (b) to require the relevant Minister to provide further evidence or explanation as to the purpose and necessity of the proposed instrument;
    - (c) to make recommendations to the relevant Minister in relation to the text of the draft statutory instrument;
    - (d) to recommend to the House that “no further proceedings be taken” in relation to the draft statutory instrument.
  - (3) Where an instrument is subject to enhanced scrutiny, the relevant Minister must have regard to any recommendations made by the Parliamentary Committee pursuant to subparagraph (c) above before laying a revised draft instrument before each House of Parliament.
  - (4) Where an instrument is subject to public consultation, the relevant Minister must have regard to the results of the consultation before laying a revised draft instrument before each House of Parliament or making a Written Statement explaining why no revision is necessary.”

“Citizens’ Jury on Brexit Negotiations

- (1) A citizens’ jury shall be established to enable UK citizens to be consulted on the progress of negotiations between the UK and the EU on the withdrawal of the UK from the EU, and the approach outlined in UK Government White Papers.
- (2) The citizens’ jury shall in total be composed of exactly 1501 persons.
- (3) Members of the citizens’ jury shall be randomly selected by means of eligibility from UK citizens on the current electoral register as registered on the date of this Act receiving Royal Assent, with allocation across the nine UK Government Regions, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland weighted by population, and a stratification plan, with the aim of securing a group of people who are broadly representative demographically of the UK electorate across characteristics including whether they voted Leave or Remain.
- (4) The jury will be broken down into individual sittings for each of the nine UK Government Regions in England, as well as Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.
- (5) The sittings will be for no more than 72 hours at a time, facilitated by independent facilitators, and if required, by electing fore-people from within their number.
- (6) Membership of the jury will be subject to the same regulations and exceptions as a regular jury, but membership can be declined without penalty.
- (7) The citizens’ jury will be able to require Ministerial and official representatives of the UK Government and the Devolved Administrations to give testimony to them to inform their work, and to have the power to invite other witnesses to give evidence as required.
- (8) The citizens’ jury shall publish reports setting out their conclusions on the negotiations and UK Government White Papers.
- (9) The first report from the citizens’ jury shall be published within two months of this Act receiving Royal Assent, and subsequent reports shall be published at intervals of no more than two months.
- (10) Costs incurred by the citizens’ jury shall be met by the Exchequer.”

Schedule 7, page 39, line 13, leave out sub-paragraphs (1) to (3) and insert—

- “(1) If a Minister considers it appropriate to proceed with the making of regulations under section 7, the Minister shall lay before Parliament—
- (a) draft regulations,
  - (b) an explanatory document and
  - (c) a declaration under sub-paragraph (3).
- (2) The explanatory document must—
- (a) introduce and explain the amendment made to retained EU law by each proposed regulation, and
  - (b) set out the reason why each such amendment is necessary (or, in the case where the Minister is unable to make a statement of necessity under sub-paragraph (3)(a), the reason why each such amendment is nevertheless considered appropriate).
- (3) The declaration required in sub-paragraph (1) must either—
- (a) state that, in the Minister’s view, the provisions of the draft regulations do not exceed what is necessary to prevent, remedy or mitigate any deficiency in retained EU law arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU (a “statement of necessity”); or
  - (b) include a statement to the effect that although the Minister is unable to make a statement of necessity the Government nevertheless proposes to exercise the power to make the regulations in the form of the draft.
- (4) Subject as follows, if after the expiry of the 21-day period a joint committee of both Houses of Parliament appointed to consider draft regulations under this Schedule (“the joint committee”) has not reported to both Houses a resolution in respect of the draft regulations laid under sub-paragraph (1), the Minister may proceed to make a statutory instrument in the form of the draft regulations.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing regulations under sub-paragraph (4) shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (6) The procedure in sub-paragraphs (7) to (9) shall apply to the proposal for the draft regulations instead of the procedure in sub-paragraph (4) if—
- (a) either House of Parliament so resolves within the 21-day period,
  - (b) the joint committee so recommends within the 21-day period and neither House by resolution rejects the recommendation within that period, or
  - (c) the draft regulations contain provision to—
    - (i) establish a public authority in the United Kingdom,
    - (ii) provide for any function of an EU entity or public authority in a member State to be exercisable instead by a public authority in the United Kingdom established by regulations under section 7, 8 or 9 or Schedule 2,
    - (iii) provides for any function of an EU entity or public authority in a member State of making an instrument of a legislative character

- to be exercisable instead by a public authority in the United Kingdom,
- (iv) imposes, or otherwise relates to, a fee in respect of a function exercisable by a public authority in the United Kingdom,
  - (v) creates, or widens the scope of, a criminal offence, or
  - (vi) creates or amends a power to legislate.
- (7) The Minister must have regard to—
- (a) any representations,
  - (b) any resolution of either House of Parliament, and
  - (c) any recommendations of a committee of either House of Parliament charged with reporting on the proposal for the draft regulations, made during the 60-day period with regard to the draft regulations.
- (8) If after the expiry of the 60-day period the draft regulations are approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament, the Minister may make regulations in the form of the draft.
- (9) If after the expiry of the 60-day period the Minister wishes to proceed with the draft regulations but with material changes, the Minister may lay before Parliament—
- (a) revised draft regulations, and
  - (b) a statement giving a summary of the changes proposed.
- (10) If the revised draft regulations are approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament, the Minister may make regulations in the terms of the revised draft.
- (11) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (1) to (10) regulations are made in the terms of draft regulations or revised draft regulations if they contain no material change to their provisions.
- (12) In sub-paragraphs (1) to (10), references to the “21-day” and “60-day” periods in relation to any draft regulations are to the periods of 21 and 60 days beginning with the day on which the draft regulations were laid before Parliament.
- (13) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (12), no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which either House is adjourned for more than four days.”

“Scrutiny procedure: introductory

- 1 A statutory instrument containing regulations under section 7 may not be made by a Minister of the Crown unless it complies with the procedures in this Part.

Determination of scrutiny procedure

- 2 (1) The explanatory document laid with a statutory instrument or draft statutory instrument containing regulations under section 7 must contain a recommendation by the Minister as to which of the following should apply in relation to the making of an order pursuant to the draft order—

- (a) the negative resolution procedure;
  - (b) the affirmative resolution procedure;
  - (c) the super-affirmative procedure.
- (2) The explanatory document must give reasons for the Minister's recommendation.
- (3) Where the Minister's recommendation is that the negative resolution procedure should apply, that procedure shall apply unless, within the 30-day period—
- (a) either House of Parliament requires that the super-affirmative procedure shall apply, in which case that procedure shall apply; or
  - (b) in a case not falling within paragraph (a), either House of Parliament requires that the affirmative resolution procedure shall apply, in which case that procedure shall apply.
- (4) Where the Minister's recommendation is that the affirmative resolution should apply, that procedure shall apply unless, within the 30-day period, either House of Parliament requires that the super-affirmative resolution procedure shall apply, in which case the super-affirmative resolution procedure shall apply.
- (5) Where the Minister's recommendation is that the super-affirmative procedure should apply, that procedure shall apply.
- (6) For the purposes of this paragraph a House of Parliament shall be taken to have required a procedure within the 30-day period if—
- (a) that House resolves within that period that that procedure shall apply; or
  - (b) in a case not falling within paragraph (a), a committee of that House charged with reporting on the draft order has recommended within that period that that procedure shall apply and the House has not by resolution rejected that recommendation within that period.

Super-affirmative procedure

- 3 (1) for the purposes of this Part of this Schedule, the "super-affirmative resolution procedure" is as follows.
- (2) The Minister must have regard to—
- (a) any representations,
  - (b) any resolution of either House of Parliament, and
  - (c) any recommendations of a committee of either House of Parliament charged with reporting on the draft order,
- made during the 60-day period with regard to the draft order.
- (3) If, after the expiry of the 60-day period, the Minister wishes to make an order in the terms of the draft, he or she must lay before Parliament a statement—
- (a) stating whether any representations were made; and
  - (b) if any representations were so made, giving details of them.
- (4) The Minister may after the laying of such a statement make an order in the terms of the draft if it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (5) However, a committee of either House charged with reporting on the draft order may, at any time after the laying of a statement under sub-paragraph (3) and before the draft order is approved by that House under sub-paragraph (4), recommend under this subparagraph that no further proceedings be taken in relation to the draft order.

- (6) Where a recommendation is made by a committee of either House under subparagraph (5) in relation to a draft statutory instrument, no proceedings may be taken in relation to the draft statutory instrument in that House unless the recommendation is, in the same Session, rejected by resolution of that House.
- (7) If, after the expiry of the 60-day period, the Minister wishes to make an order consisting of a version of the draft statutory instrument with material changes, he or she must lay before Parliament—
- (a) a revised draft statutory instrument; and
  - (b) a statement giving details of—
    - (i) any representations made; and
    - (ii) the revisions proposed.
- (8) The Minister may after laying a revised draft statutory instrument and statement under sub-paragraph (7) make regulations in the terms of the revised statutory instrument if it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (9) However, a committee of either House charged with reporting on the revised draft statutory instrument may, at any time after the revised draft statutory is laid under sub-paragraph (7) and before it is approved by that House under sub-paragraph (8), recommend under this sub-paragraph that no further proceedings be taken in relation to the revised draft statutory instrument.
- (10) Where a recommendation is made by a committee of either House under subparagraph (9) in relation to a revised draft statutory instrument, no proceedings may be taken in relation to the revised draft statutory instrument in that House under subsection (8) unless the recommendation is, in the same Session, rejected by resolution of that House.
- (11) In this Part—
- (a) the “30-day period” means the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the draft statutory instrument was laid before Parliament;
  - (b) the “60-day period” means the period of 60 days beginning with the day on which the draft statutory instrument was laid before Parliament;
  - (c) the “affirmative resolution procedure” has the same meaning as in section 17 of the Legislative and Regulatory Reform Act 2006;

Schedule 7, page 39, line 30, leave out sub-paragraphs (3) to (10) and insert—

- “(3) A Minister of the Crown must not make an Order under (1) and (2) above or any other Order to which this Schedule applies, unless—
- (a) a draft Order and explanatory document has been laid before Parliament in accordance with paragraph 1A; and
  - (b) in the case of any Order which can be made other than solely by a resolution of each House of Parliament, the Order is made as determined under paragraph 1B in accordance with—
    - (i) the negative resolution procedure (see paragraph 1C); or
    - (ii) the affirmative resolution procedure (see paragraph 1D); or
  - (c) it is declared in the Order that it appears to the person making it that because of the urgency of the matter, it is necessary to make the Order without a draft being so approved (see paragraph 1E).

Draft Order and Explanatory document laid before Parliament

- 1A (1) If the minister considers it appropriate to proceed with the making of an Order under this Part, he must lay before Parliament—
- (a) a draft of the Order, together with
  - (b) an explanatory document.
- (2) The explanatory document must—
- (a) explain under which power or powers in this Part the provision contained in the Order is made;
  - (b) introduce and give reasons for the provision;
  - (c) explain why the Minister considers that—
    - (i) in the case of an Order under section 7, include, so far as appropriate, an assessment of the extent to which the provision made by the Order would prevent, remedy or mitigate—

- (b) any other deficiency in retained EU law arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU,
- (ii) in the case of an Order under section 8, include, so far as appropriate, an assessment of the extent to which the provision made by the Order would prevent or remedy any breach, arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU, of the international obligations of the United Kingdom,
- (iii) in the case of an Order under section 9, include, so far as appropriate, an assessment of the extent to which implementation of the withdrawal agreement should be in force on or before exit day.
- (d) identify and give reasons for—
  - (i) any functions of legislating conferred by the Order; and
  - (ii) the procedural requirements attaching to the exercise of those functions.

Determination of Parliamentary procedure

- 1B (1) The explanatory document laid with a draft Order under paragraph 1A must contain a recommendation by the Minister as to which of the following should apply in relation to the making of an Order pursuant to the draft Order—
- (a) the negative resolution procedure (see paragraph 1C); or
  - (b) the affirmative resolution procedure (see paragraph 1D).
- (2) The explanatory document must give reasons for the Minister’s recommendation.
- (3) Where the Minister’s recommendation is that the negative resolution procedure should apply, that procedure shall apply unless, within the 20-day period either House of Parliament requires that the affirmative resolution procedure shall apply, in which case that procedure shall apply.
- (4) For the purposes of this paragraph a House of Parliament shall be taken to have required a procedure within the 20-day period if—
- (a) that House resolves within that period that that procedure shall apply; or
  - (b) in a case not falling within sub paragraph (4)(a), a committee of that House charged with reporting on the draft Order has recommended within that period that that procedure should apply and the House has not by resolution rejected that recommendation within that period.
- (5) In this section the “20-day period” means the period of 20 days beginning with the day on which the draft Order was laid before Parliament under paragraph 1A.

Negative resolution procedure

- 1C (1) For the purposes of this Part, the “negative resolution procedure” in relation to the making of an Order pursuant to a draft order laid under paragraph 1A is as follows.
- (2) The Minister may make an order in the terms of the draft Order subject to the following provisions of this paragraph.
- (3) The Minister may not make an order in the terms of the draft Order if either House of Parliament so resolves within the 40-day period.

- (4) For the purposes of this paragraph an Order is made in the terms of a draft Order if it contains no material changes to the provisions of the draft Order.
- (5) In this paragraph the “40-day period” means the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft Order was laid before Parliament under paragraph 1A.

Affirmative resolution procedure

- 1D (1) For the purposes of this Part the “affirmative resolution procedure” in relation to the making of an Order pursuant to a draft Order laid under paragraph 1A is as follows.
- (2) The Minister must have regard to—
  - (a) any representations,
  - (b) any resolution of either House of Parliament, and
  - (c) any recommendations of a committee of either House of Parliament charged with reporting on the draft Order, made during the 40-day period with regard to the draft Order.
- (3) If, after the expiry of the 40-day period, the minister wishes to make an Order in the terms of the draft, he must lay before Parliament a statement—
  - (a) stating whether any representations were made under sub-paragraph (2)(a); and
  - (b) if any representations were so made, giving details of them.
- (4) The Minister may after the laying of such a statement make an Order in the terms of the draft if it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (5) If, after the expiry of the 40-day period, the Minister wishes to make an Order consisting of a version of the draft Order with material changes, he must lay before Parliament—
  - (a) a revised draft Order; and
  - (b) a statement giving details of—
    - (i) any representations made under sub-paragraph (2)(a); and
    - (ii) the revisions proposed.
- (6) The Minister may after laying a revised draft Order and statement under sub-paragraph (5) make an Order in the terms of the revised draft if it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (7) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (4) an Order is made in the terms of a draft Order if it contains no material changes to the provisions of the draft Order.
- (8) In this paragraph the “40-day period” has the meaning given by paragraph 4(5)(a).

Procedure in urgent cases

- 1E (1) If an Order is made without being approved in draft, the person making it must lay it before Parliament, accompanied by the required information, after it is made.
- (2) If, at the end of the period of one month beginning with the day on which the original Order was made, a resolution has not been passed by each House approving the original or replacement Order, the Order ceases to have effect.
- (3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1), “required information” means—
  - (a) a statement of the reasons for proceeding under paragraph 1E; and
  - (b) an explanatory document, as set out in paragraph 1A (2).”

- (2) The Minister may not make the instrument so that it is subject to that procedure unless—
- (a) condition 1 is met, and
  - (b) either condition 2 or 3 is met.
- (3) Condition 1 is that a Minister of the Crown—
- (a) has made a statement in writing to the effect that in the Minister’s opinion the instrument should be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament, and
  - (b) has laid before the House of Commons—
    - (i) a draft of the instrument, and

- (1) This paragraph applies where a statutory instrument containing regulations under section 7, 8 or 9, or a draft of such an instrument, is to be laid before each House of Parliament.
- (2) Before the instrument or draft is laid, the relevant Minister must make a statement to the effect that in the Minister’s opinion the instrument or draft does no more than is appropriate.
- (3) Before the instrument or draft is laid, the relevant Minister must make a statement—
  - (a) as to whether the instrument or draft amends, repeals or revokes any provision of equalities legislation, and
  - (b) if it does, explaining the effect of each such amendment, repeal or revocation.
- (4) Before the instrument or draft is laid, the relevant Minister must make a statement to the effect that, in relation to the instrument or draft, the Minister has, so far as required to do so by equalities legislation, had due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under the Equality Act 2010.
- (5) Before the instrument or draft is laid, the relevant Minister must make a statement otherwise explaining—
  - (a) the instrument or draft,
  - (b) the reasons for it,
  - (c) the law before exit day which is relevant to it, and
  - (d) its effect (if any) on retained EU law.
- (6) If the relevant Minister fails to make a statement required by sub-paragraph (2), (3), (4) or (5) before the instrument or draft is laid, a Minister of the Crown must make a statement explaining why the relevant Minister has failed to do so.
- (7) A statement under sub-paragraph (2), (3), (4), (5) or (6) must be made in writing and be published in such manner as the Minister making it considers appropriate.
- (8) For the purposes of this paragraph, where an instrument or draft is laid before each House of Parliament on different days, the earlier day is to be taken as the day on which it is laid before both Houses.
- (9) This paragraph does not apply in relation to any laying before each House of Parliament of an instrument or draft instrument where an equivalent draft instrument (ignoring any differences relating to procedure) has previously been laid before both Houses.
- (10) In this paragraph—
  - “equalities legislation” means the Equality Act 2006, the Equality Act 2010 or any subordinate legislation made under either of those Acts;
  - “the relevant Minister” means the Minister of the Crown who makes, or is to make, the instrument.”

- (1) In carrying out their duties and functions arising by virtue of this Act, public authorities must have regard to and apply the principles set out in this section.
- (2) Any duty or function conferred on a public authority must be construed and have effect in a way that is compatible with the principles in this section and the aim of achieving a high level of environmental protection and improvement of the quality of the environment.
- (3) The principles in this section are—
  - (a) the need to promote sustainable development in the UK and overseas;
  - (b) the need to contribute to preserving, protecting and improving the environment;
  - (c) the need to contribute to prudent and rational utilisation of natural resources;
  - (d) the need to promote measures at international level to deal with regional or worldwide environmental problems, and in particular combating climate change;
  - (e) the precautionary principle as it relates to the environment;
  - (f) the principle that preventive action should be taken to avert environmental damage;
  - (g) the principle that environmental damage should as a priority be rectified at source;
  - (h) the polluter pays principle;
  - (i) the principle that environmental protection requirements must be integrated into the definition and implementation of policies and activities, in particular with a view to promoting sustainable development.
  - (j) the need to guarantee participatory rights including access to information, public participation in decision making and access to justice in relation to environmental matters.

(together the “environmental principles“).

- (4) In carrying out their duties and functions, public authorities shall take account of—
  - (a) available scientific and technical data;
  - (b) environmental benefits and costs of action or lack of action; and
  - (c) economic and social development.
- (5) Public authorities, shall when making proposals concerning health, safety, environmental protection and consumer protection policy, take as a base a high level of protection, taking account in particular of any new development based on scientific facts.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies in any proceedings in which a court or tribunal determines whether a provision of primary or subordinate legislation is compatible with the environmental principles.
- (7) If the court is satisfied that the provision is incompatible with the environmental principles, it may make a declaration of that incompatibility.
- (8) In formulating and implementing agriculture, fisheries, transport, research and technological development and space policies, public authorities shall pay full regard to the welfare requirements of animals as sentient beings, while respecting the administrative provisions and customs relating in particular to religious rites, cultural traditions and regional heritage.”

To move the following Clause—

“Implementation and transition

- (1) Her Majesty’s Government shall seek to secure a transition period prior to the implementation of the withdrawal agreement of not less than two years in duration, during which—
  - (a) access between EU and UK markets should continue on the terms existing prior to exit day,
  - (b) the structures of EU rules and regulations existing prior to exit day shall be maintained,
  - (c) the UK and EU shall continue to take part in the level of security cooperation existing prior to exit day,
  - (d) new processes and systems to underpin the future partnership between the EU and UK can be satisfactorily implemented, including a new immigration system and new regulatory arrangements,
  - (e) financial commitments made by the United Kingdom during the course of UK membership of the EU shall be honoured.
- (2) No Minister of the Crown shall appoint exit day if the implementation and transition period set out in subsection (1) does not feature in the withdrawal arrangements between the UK and the European Union.”

- (2) Any power, howsoever expressed, contained in this Act may not be exercised if the exercise of that power is likely to or will remove, replace or alter or prejudice the exercise of an acquired right.
- (3) In subsection (2) a reference to a power includes a power to make regulations.
- (4) In this section an acquired right means a right that existed immediately before exit day—
  - (a) whereby a person from or established in Gibraltar could exercise that right (either absolutely or subject to any qualification) in the United Kingdom; and
  - (b) the right arose in the context of the United Kingdom’s membership of the European Union and Gibraltar’s status as a European territory for whose external relations the United Kingdom is responsible within the meaning of Article 355(3) TFEU and to which the provisions of the EU Treaties apply, subject to the exceptions specified in the 1972 Act of Accession.
- (5) Nothing in this section prevents the use of the powers conferred by this Act to the extent that acquired rights are not altered or otherwise affected to the detriment of persons enjoying such rights.”

- (2) That report must include, in particular, an assessment of how, following exit day, co-operation with the European Union will replicate mechanisms which exist within the European Union before exit day to—
  - (a) maintain common rights for victims of domestic and sexual abuse when moving across borders,
  - (b) reduce female genital mutilation (FGM),
  - (c) reduce human trafficking,
  - (d) reduce child sexual exploitation, and
  - (e) enable data sharing relating to any of (a) to (d).
- (3) The first report made under subsection (1) following Royal Assent must—
  - (a) include an assessment of the amount and nature of funding provided by European Union institutions to organisations based in the United Kingdom for the purposes of research, service provision, and other activity relating to ending violence against women and girls, and;
