To move the following Clause—

“Charter of Fundamental Rights – Government Report

- (1) Within one month of Royal Assent of this Act, HM Government shall lay a report before both Houses of Parliament reviewing the implications of removing the Charter of Fundamental Rights from domestic law after exit day as set out in section 5(4) of this Act.
 - (2) The report under subsection (1) shall set out the policy of Her Majesty’s Government specifically in relation to the fundamental rights of—
 - (a) dignity, the right to life, to freedom from torture, slavery, the death penalty, eugenic practices and human cloning,
 - (b) freedoms, the right to liberty, personal integrity, privacy, protection of personal data, marriage, thought, religion, expression, assembly, education, work, property and asylum,
 - (c) equality, the right to equality before the law, prohibition of all discrimination including on basis of disability, age and sexual orientation, cultural, religious and linguistic diversity, the rights of children and the elderly,
 - (d) solidarity, the right to fair working conditions, protection against unjustified dismissal, and access to health care, social and housing assistance,
 - (e) citizens’ rights, the rights of citizens such as the right to vote in elections and to move freely, the right to good administration, to access documents and to petition Parliament, and
 - (f) justice, the right to an effective remedy, a fair trial, to the presumption of innocence, the principle of legality, non-retrospectivity and double jeopardy.”

To move the following Clause—

“Consequences of leaving the European Union: equality

- (1) This section comes into force when the power under section 14 to appoint exit day for the purposes of this Act is first exercised.
 - (2) The purpose of this section is to ensure that the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union does not diminish protection for equality in the law of the United Kingdom.
 - (3) All individuals are equal before the law and have the right to the equal protection and benefit of the law.
 - (4) All individuals have a right not to be discriminated against by any public authority on any grounds including sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age or sexual orientation.
 - (5) The following provisions of the Human Rights Act 1998 apply in relation to the rights conferred by subsections (3) and (4) as they apply in relation to Convention rights within the meaning of that Act—
 - (a) section 3 (interpretation of legislation);
 - (b) section 4 (declaration of incompatibility);
 - (c) section 5 (right of Crown to intervene);
 - (d) section 6 (acts of public authorities);
 - (e) section 7 (proceedings);
 - (f) section 8 (judicial remedies);
 - (g) section 9 (judicial acts);
 - (h) section 10 (power to take remedial action);
 - (i) section 11 (safeguard for existing human rights); and
 - (j) section 19 (statements of compatibility).
 - (6) A court or tribunal must have regard to any relevant decisions of the European Court of Human Rights in considering—
 - (a) the application of this section generally, and
 - (b) in particular, the meaning of discrimination for the purposes of this section.”

To move the following Clause—

“Provisions relating to the EU or the EEA in respect of EU-derived domestic legislation

- (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 5(1), HM Government shall make arrangements to report to both Houses of Parliament whenever circumstances arising in section 2(2)(d) would otherwise have amended provisions or definitions in UK law had the UK remained a member of the EU or EEA beyond exit day.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 5(1) and having reported to both Houses of Parliament, HM Government is bound to consider whether it should incorporate amended provisions or definitions into UK law, in order to ensure that the rights of workers and employees in the UK are no less favourable than they would have been had the UK remained a member of the EU or EEA beyond exit day.
- (3) Such circumstances arising in section 2(2)(d) include but are not limited to—
 - (a) any future EU Directives relating to family-friendly employment rights; including but not limited to rights for pregnant workers and employees, and those returning from maternity leave,
 - (b) any future EU Directives relating to gender equality,
 - (c) the proposed Directive of the European Parliament and of the Council on work-life balance for parents and carers.
- (4) Reports presented under subsection (1) must include—
 - (i) an assessment of how such amendments to UK law would have impacted sex equality in the UK had the UK remained a member of the EU or EEA beyond exit day and

- (ii) an assessment of how a failure to implement amended provisions or definitions in UK law will impact the ability of families to combine work and care in the UK and gender equality in the UK.”
