To move the following Clause—

“General Environmental Principles

- (1) In carrying out their duties and functions arising by virtue of this Act, public authorities must have regard to and apply the principles set out in this section.
- (2) Any duty or function conferred on a public authority must be construed and have effect in a way that is compatible with the principles in this section and the aim of achieving a high level of environmental protection and improvement of the quality of the environment.
- (3) The principles in this section are—
 - (a) the need to promote sustainable development in the UK and overseas;
 - (b) the need to contribute to preserving, protecting and improving the environment;
 - (c) the need to contribute to prudent and rational utilisation of natural resources;
 - (d) the need to promote measures at international level to deal with regional or worldwide environmental problems, and in particular combating climate change;
 - (e) the precautionary principle as it relates to the environment;
 - (f) the principle that preventive action should be taken to avert environmental damage;
 - (g) the principle that environmental damage should as a priority be rectified at source;
 - (h) the polluter pays principle;
 - (i) the principle that environmental protection requirements must be integrated into the definition and implementation of policies and activities, in particular with a view to promoting sustainable development.
 - (j) the need to guarantee participatory rights including access to information, public participation in decision making and access to justice in relation to environmental matters.

(together the “environmental principles“).

- (4) In carrying out their duties and functions, public authorities shall take account of—
 - (a) available scientific and technical data;
 - (b) environmental benefits and costs of action or lack of action; and
 - (c) economic and social development.
- (5) Public authorities, shall when making proposals concerning health, safety, environmental protection and consumer protection policy, take as a base a high level of protection, taking account in particular of any new development based on scientific facts.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies in any proceedings in which a court or tribunal determines whether a provision of primary or subordinate legislation is compatible with the environmental principles.
- (7) If the court is satisfied that the provision is incompatible with the environmental principles, it may make a declaration of that incompatibility.
- (8) In formulating and implementing agriculture, fisheries, transport, research and technological development and space policies, public authorities shall pay full regard to the welfare requirements of animals as sentient beings, while respecting the administrative provisions and customs relating in particular to religious rites, cultural traditions and regional heritage.”

- (3) In subsection (2) a reference to a power includes a power to make regulations.
- (4) In this section an acquired right means a right that existed immediately before exit day—
- (a) whereby a person from or established in Gibraltar could exercise that right (either absolutely or subject to any qualification) in the United Kingdom; and
 - (b) the right arose in the context of the United Kingdom’s membership of the European Union and Gibraltar’s status as a European territory for whose external relations the United Kingdom is responsible within the meaning of Article 355(3) TFEU and to which the provisions of the EU Treaties apply, subject to the exceptions specified in the 1972 Act of Accession.
