NC5

To move the following Clause—

“New EU-UK Treaty to be ratified prior to exit day

Ministers shall not bring forward regulations to appoint ‘exit day’ unless both Houses of Parliament have ratified, by Act of Parliament, a new Treaty between the United Kingdom and the European Union which is due to take effect immediately upon the United Kingdom’s repeal of the European Communities Act 1972.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that Parliament has ratified successor arrangements for a future relationship and Treaty between the EU and UK before ‘exit day’ can be appointed by Ministers.

NC13

To move the following Clause—

“Customs duties

A Minister of the Crown may not make regulations to appoint exit day until Royal Assent is granted to an Act of Parliament making provision for the substitution of section 5 (customs duties) of the European Communities Act 1972 with provisions that shall allow the United Kingdom to remain a member of the EU common customs tariff and common commercial policy.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that provisions allowing the UK to remain a member of the Customs Union, as currently set out in section 5 of the European Communities Act 1972 but set to be repealed by section 1 of this Act, will be enacted ahead of exit day.

Secretary David Davis
 Mr Peter Bone

381

Clause 14, page 10, line 25, leave out from “means” to “(and” in line 26 and insert “29 March 2019 at 11.00 p.m.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment removes the power for a Minister of the Crown to appoint exit day by regulations and ensures that exit day is fixed at 29 March 2019 at 11.00 p.m. for all purposes.

386

Clause 14, page 10, line 25, leave out from “means” to “(and” in line 26 and insert “the time specified by an Act of Parliament approving the final terms of withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU”.

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require ‘exit day’ to be specified, for all purposes, in a separate bill seeking approval for the final terms of the withdrawal of the UK from the EU. It would therefore have the effect of requiring a statute on the withdrawal terms - whatever they might be - to be passed by Parliament before ‘exit day’.

43

Clause 14, page 10, line 25, leave out “a Minister of the Crown may by regulations” and insert “Parliament may by a majority approval in both Houses”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment together with Amendments 44 and 45 would empower Parliament to control the length and basic terms of transitional arrangements, and would allow Parliament to start the clock on the sunset clauses within the Bill.

Sir Oliver Letwin
Mr Geoffrey Cox
Mr Bernard Jenkin

399

★ Clause 14, page 10, line 26, leave out “subsection (2)” and insert “subsections (2) to (2C)”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on amendment 400 and signposts, in the definition of “exit day”, the existence of the new subsections that are being inserted into Clause 14 by amendment 400.

371

Clause 14, page 10, line 26, at end insert—

““law relating to equality or human rights” means—

- (a) the Equality Acts 2006 and 2010;
- (b) the Human Rights Act 1998; and
- (c) other enactments relating to equality or human rights.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment defines “law relating to equality or human rights” for the purposes of other amendments which would broaden protection provided by the Bill from interference with the Human Rights Act to include other provisions about human rights and equality.

Ian Blackford
 Peter Grant
 Joanna Cherry
 Patrick Grady

- (a) retained domestic case law, and
- (b) retained EU case law;”

Ian Blackford
 Peter Grant
 Joanna Cherry
 Patrick Grady
 Martyn Day
 Douglas Chapman

354

Clause 14, page 11, line 2, at end insert—

““retained domestic case law” means any principles laid down by, and any decisions of, a court or tribunal in the United Kingdom, as they have effect immediately before exit day and so far as they—

- (a) relate to anything to which section 2, 3 or 4 applies, and
- (b) are not excluded by section 5 or Schedule 1,

(as those principles and decisions are modified by or under this Act or by other domestic law from time to time);

“retained EU case law” means any principles laid down by, and any decisions of, the European Court, as they have effect in EU law immediately before exit day and so far as they—

- (a) relate to anything to which section 2, 3 or 4 applies, and
- (b) are not excluded by section 5 or Schedule 1,

(as those principles and decisions are modified by or under this Act or by other domestic law from time to time);

“retained EU law” means anything which, on or after exit day, continues to be, or forms part of, domestic law by virtue of section 2, 3 or 4 or subsection (3) or (6) above (as that body of law is added to or otherwise modified by or under this Act or by other domestic law from time to time);

“retained general principles of EU law” means the general principles of EU law, as they have effect in EU law immediately before exit day and so far as they—

- (a) relate to anything to which section 2, 3 or 4 applies, and
- (b) are not excluded by section 5 or Schedule 1,

(as those principles are modified by or under this Act or by other domestic law from time to time).”

Secretary David Davis
 Mr Peter Bone

382

Clause 14, page 11, line 24, leave out from “Act” to end of line 32 and insert “references to before, after or on exit day, or to beginning with exit day, are to be read as references to before, after or at 11.00 p.m. on 29 March 2019 or (as the case may be) to

---

beginning with 11.00 p.m. on that day.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on amendment 381 and ensures that references to exit day in the Bill and other legislation operate correctly in relation to the time as well as the date of the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU.

Yvette Cooper
Ms Harriet Harman
Norman Lamb
Caroline Lucas
Anna Soubry

Mr Bernard Jenkin

★ Clause 14, page 11, line 32, at end insert— 400

“(2A) Subsection (2B) applies if the day or time on or at which the Treaties are to cease to apply to the United Kingdom in accordance with Article 50(3) of the Treaty on European Union is different from that specified in the definition of “exit day” in subsection (1).

(2B) A Minister of the Crown may by regulations—

- (a) amend the definition of “exit day” in subsection (1) to ensure that the day and time specified in the definition are the day and time that the Treaties are to cease to apply to the United Kingdom, and
- (b) amend subsection (2) in consequence of any such amendment.

(2C) In subsections (2A) and (2B) “the Treaties” means the Treaty on European Union and the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment confers power on a Minister of the Crown to amend the definition of “exit day” in Clause 14(1) if the day or time on or at which the United Kingdom ceases to be a member of the EU is different from that specified in the definition. There is also power to amend Clause 14(2) in consequence of amending the definition of “exit day”.

NC8

To move the following Clause—

“Committee of the Regions

Her Majesty’s Government shall—

- (a) maintain a full consultative role for local authorities throughout the process of withdrawal from the European Union, in due time and in an appropriate way in the planning and decision-making processes for all matters which concern them, and
- (b) provide for a formal mechanism in domestic law fully to replicate the advisory role conferred on local authorities via membership of the European Union Committee of the Regions.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that the current consultative role that UK local government currently have via the EU Committee of the Regions would be replicated in the UK after exit day.

NC9

To move the following Clause—

“European Economic Area

The United Kingdom shall, after exit day, remain a member of the European Economic Area as set out in the European Economic Area Act 1993, and the provisions in Part 2 of Schedule 8 relating to the United Kingdom’s membership of the EEA shall not take effect until such time as Ministers have published a White Paper assessing the costs and benefits for the UK economy of remaining a member of the European Economic Area after exit day.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause would ensure that the UK can remain a member of the European Economic Area until such time as Ministers publish a specific assessment in the form of a White Paper setting out the costs and benefits for the UK of remaining a member after exit day.

NC10

To move the following Clause—

“Transitional arrangements

Her Majesty’s Government shall, in pursuit of a new relationship between the United Kingdom and European Union after exit day, seek to negotiate and agree transitional arrangements with the European Union of sufficient duration to allow—

- (a) the conclusion and coming into force of new trade agreements replicating as closely as possible all those trade agreements currently applying to the UK by virtue of its membership of the EU before exit day;
- (b) an associate membership of the EU Single Market so that the regulatory settlement existing between the UK and EU before exit day can continue for the duration of transitional arrangements, which shall be not less than two years after exit day.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new Clause would require the UK Government to seek transitional arrangements that would allow existing trade agreements which currently apply to the UK to be negotiated and continued for the circumstances applying after the UK has exited the EU, and would seek transitional arrangements including an associate membership of the EU Single Market for not less than two years following exit day.

NC11

To move the following Clause—

“Ongoing regulatory requirements

After exit day the Secretary of State shall continue to assess all EU regulations, decisions and tertiary legislation and publish a report to both Houses of Parliament assessing the costs and benefits of each regulation and directive and whether HM Government should consider it expedient to propose a similar reform to UK domestic legislation in order to secure an ongoing regulatory alignment between the UK and the EU going forward.”

Member’s explanatory statement

After exit day the European Union is likely to continue to produce legislation, regulations and decisions that would have applied to the United Kingdom if we had remained a member of the EU. This new clause would require Ministers to publish an assessment of new and developing EU laws and regulations and whether there would be benefits or costs for the UK in adopting similar legal changes to UK domestic legislation with a view to maintaining regulatory alignment with the EU as far as possible.

NC28

To move the following Clause—

“General Environmental Principles

- (1) In carrying out their duties and functions arising by virtue of this Act, public authorities must have regard to and apply the principles set out in this section.
- (2) Any duty or function conferred on a public authority must be construed and have effect in a way that is compatible with the principles in this section and the aim of achieving a high level of environmental protection and improvement of the quality of the environment.
- (3) The principles in this section are—
  - (a) the need to promote sustainable development in the UK and overseas;

- (b) the need to contribute to preserving, protecting and improving the environment;
  - (c) the need to contribute to prudent and rational utilisation of natural resources;
  - (d) the need to promote measures at international level to deal with regional or worldwide environmental problems, and in particular combating climate change;
  - (e) the precautionary principle as it relates to the environment;
  - (f) the principle that preventive action should be taken to avert environmental damage;
  - (g) the principle that environmental damage should as a priority be rectified at source;
  - (h) the polluter pays principle;
  - (i) the principle that environmental protection requirements must be integrated into the definition and implementation of policies and activities, in particular with a view to promoting sustainable development.
  - (j) the need to guarantee participatory rights including access to information, public participation in decision making and access to justice in relation to environmental matters.
(together the “environmental principles“).
- (4) In carrying out their duties and functions, public authorities shall take account of—
- (a) available scientific and technical data;
  - (b) environmental benefits and costs of action or lack of action; and
  - (c) economic and social development.
- (5) Public authorities, shall when making proposals concerning health, safety, environmental protection and consumer protection policy, take as a base a high level of protection, taking account in particular of any new development based on scientific facts.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies in any proceedings in which a court or tribunal determines whether a provision of primary or subordinate legislation is compatible with the environmental principles.
- (7) If the court is satisfied that the provision is incompatible with the environmental principles, it may make a declaration of that incompatibility.
- (8) In formulating and implementing agriculture, fisheries, transport, research and technological development and space policies, public authorities shall pay full regard to the welfare requirements of animals as sentient beings, while respecting the administrative provisions and customs relating in particular to religious rites, cultural traditions and regional heritage.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause ensures that public authorities carrying out their duties arising by virtue of this act, must have regard to environmental principles currently enshrined in EU law.

NC31

To move the following Clause—

“Promotion of the safety and welfare of children and young people following withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union

- (1) The Secretary of State shall make the arrangements specified in this section for the purposes of safeguarding children and promoting their welfare from exit day onwards.
- (2) The Secretary of State shall lay before Parliament a strategy for seeking continued co-operation with—
  - (a) the European Union Agency for Law Enforcement Cooperation (Europol),
  - (b) Eurojust, and
  - (c) the European Criminal Records Information System
 on matters relating to the safety and welfare of children and young people.
- (3) The Secretary of State shall lay before Parliament a strategy for seeking continued participation in the European Arrest Warrant, in relation to the promotion of the safety and welfare of children and young people.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to lay before Parliament a strategy for maintaining co-operation with certain EU bodies and structures after exit day for the purposes of promoting the safety and welfare of children and young people.

The Secretary of State shall bring forward proposals for a fund to support, on and after exit day, programmes and projects which—

- (a) relate to
  - (i) the promotion of social inclusion amongst children and young people,
  - (ii) efforts to combat poverty and discrimination amongst children and young people, and
  - (iii) investment in education, training and vocational training or skills and lifelong learning for children and young people, and
- (b) would have been eligible for funding up until exit day by the European Social Fund.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause seeks to maintain financial support after exit day for projects and programmes which would have been eligible for funding from the European Social Fund.

  - (b) the structures of EU rules and regulations existing prior to exit day shall be maintained,
  - (c) the UK and EU shall continue to take part in the level of security cooperation existing prior to exit day,
  - (d) new processes and systems to underpin the future partnership between the EU and UK can be satisfactorily implemented, including a new immigration system and new regulatory arrangements,
  - (e) financial commitments made by the United Kingdom during the course of UK membership of the EU shall be honoured.
- (2) No Minister of the Crown shall appoint exit day if the implementation and transition period set out in subsection (1) does not feature in the withdrawal arrangements between the UK and the European Union”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would ensure that the objectives set out by the Prime Minister in her Florence speech are given the force of law and, if no implementation and transition period is achieved in negotiations, then exit day may not be triggered by a Minister of the Crown. The appointment of an ‘exit day’ would therefore require a fresh Act of Parliament in such circumstances.

- (2) Any power, howsoever expressed, contained in this Act may not be exercised if the exercise of that power is likely to or will remove, replace or alter or prejudice the exercise of an acquired right.
- (3) In subsection (2) a reference to a power includes a power to make regulations.
- (4) In this section an acquired right means a right that existed immediately before exit day—
  - (a) whereby a person from or established in Gibraltar could exercise that right (either absolutely or subject to any qualification) in the United Kingdom; and
  - (b) the right arose in the context of the United Kingdom’s membership of the European Union and Gibraltar’s status as a European territory for whose external relations the United Kingdom is responsible within the meaning of Article 355(3) TFEU and to which the provisions of the EU Treaties apply, subject to the exceptions specified in the 1972 Act of Accession.
- (5) Nothing in this section prevents the use of the powers conferred by this Act to the extent that acquired rights are not altered or otherwise affected to the detriment of persons enjoying such rights.”

Member’s explanatory statement

The purpose of this new clause is to ensure that the Bill does not remove or prejudice rights (for instance in the financial services field) which, as a result of the UK’s (and Gibraltar’s) common membership of the EU, could be exercised in the UK by a person from or established in Gibraltar, where that right existed immediately before exit day.
