TO

Reduce the voting age to 16 in parliamentary and other elections; to make provision about young people's education in citizenship and the constitution; and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART 1

YOUNG PEOPLE'S ENFRANCHISEMENT

1 Voting age (elections)

- (1) The Representation of the People Act 1983 is amended as follow –
- (a) In section 1(1)(d) (definition of voting age for parliamentary elections), for “18” substitute “16”; and
 - (b) For section 2(1)(d) (local government electors) and subsection 1A substitute – “(d) is of voting age (that is, 16 years or over)”.
- (2) In the Representation of the People Act 1985, in section 1(5) (entitlement to vote of overseas electors), for “18” substitute “16”.

2 Voting age (referendums)

The voting age for referendums held in –

- (a) England;
- (b) Northern Ireland;
- (c) Scotland;
- (d) Wales; or
- (e) any combination thereof

shall be 16.

3 Electoral Registration

- (1) Electoral registration officers shall take all reasonable steps –
- (a) to register:
 - (i) 16 and 17 year olds enfranchised by this Act; and
 - (ii) 15 year olds in preparation for enfranchisement under this Act prior to the coming into force of section 1 and 2; and
 - (b) to store, use and share personal data collected under paragraph (a) in ways appropriate to the age of the persons to whom it relates.
- (2) The Secretary of State or other appropriate authority may issue guidance to electoral registration officers in relation to subsection (1).

PART 2

YOUNG PEOPLE'S EDUCATION (CITIZENSHIP AND THE CONSTITUTION)

4 Citizenship and the constitution education in maintained schools

- (1) In section 84 of the Education Act 2002 (“EA 2002”) in subsection (3) (foundation subjects), after paragraph (h) add –
- “(i) Citizenship and the constitution education (“CCE”).”
- (2) In section 85 of EA 2002 (curriculum requirements for the fourth key stage), in subsection (4) (foundation subjects), at the end insert “, and
- “(d) Citizenship and the Constitution Education (“CCE”).”
- (3) Before section 86 of EA 2002 insert –

“85B Citizenship and the constitution education

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, citizenship and the constitution education (“CCE”) shall comprise formal lessons which aim to develop the knowledge, skills and confidence of pupils to prepare them for the opportunities and responsibilities of enfranchisement and participation in public life.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act, the topics to be covered under subsection (1) shall include, but not be limited to –
- (a) the ways in which societies and communities take collective decisions and concerted action;
 - (b) the role of democratic political structures in –
 - (i) identifying and defining the decisions to be made, and
 - (ii) gathering consensus or majority support in relation to such decisions;
 - (c) the evolution and development of the United Kingdom’s constitutional arrangements; and
 - (d) the United Kingdom’s current executive, democratic, legislative, judicial, legal and economic structures, including –
 - (i) constitutional arrangements and political system,
 - (ii) the electoral system and role of political parties,
 - (iii) the economy, public finances and money,
 - (iv) the judiciary, courts and other justice systems, and

- (v) any international organisations and treaties to which the United Kingdom is party.
- (3) The detail of the curriculum under subsections (1) and (2) shall be determined by the governing body and head teacher.
- (4) The Secretary of State may – 5
 - (a) by order amend subsections (1) and (2), and
 - (b) issue guidance on the delivery of the objectives in subsection (1) and the topics in subsection (2).
- (5) The National Curriculum for England is not required to specify attainment targets or assessment arrangements for CCE (and section 84(1) has effect accordingly). 10
- (6) It is the duty of the governing body and head teacher of any school in which CCE is provided in pursuance of this section to ensure that the principles set out in subsections (7) to (9) are complied with.
- (7) The first principle is that information presented in the course of providing CCE should be accurate, balanced and politically impartial. 15
- (8) The second principle is that CCE should be taught in a way that is appropriate to the ages and backgrounds of the pupils concerned.
- (9) The third principle is that CCE should be taught in a way that – 20
 - (a) encourages acceptance of diversity and difference; and
 - (b) emphasises the importance of responsibilities and rights.
- (10) The Secretary of State shall issue guidance about the teaching of CCE and the exercise of functions under this Part of local authorities, governing bodies or head teachers.
- (11) The Secretary of State must – 25
 - (a) ensure that CCE is included in accredited initial and continuing teacher education; and
 - (b) issue guidance on best practice in delivering and inspecting CCE education.
- (12) The Secretary of State must review the guidance mentioned in subsection (11) at least annually, and in reviewing the guidance the Secretary of State must consult such persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate and must amend and reissue the guidance if such a review concludes that considers it would otherwise not be fit for purpose.” 30
