NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Deemed domicile: review of protection of overseas trusts

- (1) Within fifteen months of the passing of this Act, the Commissioners for Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs shall complete a review about the operation of the provisions for the protection of overseas trusts in relation to deemed domicile.
- (2) The review shall in particular consider—
  - (a) the effects of those provisions on the Exchequer,
  - (b) the behavioural effects of those provisions, and

- (c) the effects on the matters specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) if those provisions were repealed.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, “the provisions for the protection of overseas trusts” means the provisions inserted 18 to 38 and 40 of Schedule 8 to this Act.
- (4) The Chancellor of the Exchequer shall lay a report of the review under this section before the House of Commons within three months of its completion.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause requires a review to be undertaken of the effects of the provisions for protecting overseas trusts from the new provisions in relation to deemed domicile.

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Income provided through third parties: review of effects generally and in relation to sports image rights

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer shall, no later than 21 July 2019, undertake a review of the effects of the changes made in relation to income provided through third parties.
- (2) The review under subsection (1) shall consider in particular the effects in relation to sports image rights.
- (3) The Chancellor of the Exchequer shall lay before the House of Commons a report of the review under this section no later than 15 October 2019.
- (4) In this section—

“the changes made in relation to income provided through third parties” means the provisions of sections 34 and 35 of and Schedule 11 to this Act,

“sports image rights” means the rights or purported rights, whether or not protected or capable of protection under any relevant laws, associated with the identity or activities of a person where those rights or purported rights are associated with their participation or former participation in a sport.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Chancellor of the Exchequer to carry out and publish a review of the effects of provisions for disguised remuneration in relation to income provided through third parties, including particularly the effects in relation to sports image rights.

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Impact analyses of provisions of this Act

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must review the impact of the provisions of this Act in accordance with this section and lay a report of that review before the House of Commons within six months of the passing of this Act.
- (2) A review under this section must consider—
  - (a) the impact of those provisions on households at different levels of income,
  - (b) the impact of those provisions on people with protected characteristics (within the meaning of the Equality Act 2010), and

- (c) the impact of those provisions on different parts of the United Kingdom and different regions of England.
- (3) In this section—
- “parts of the United Kingdom” means—
- (a) England,
  - (b) Scotland,
  - (c) Wales, and
  - (d) Northern Ireland;
- “regions of England” has the same meaning as that used by the Office for National Statistics.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause requires the Chancellor of the Exchequer to carry out and publish a review of the effects of the provisions of the Bill on households with different levels of income, people with protected characteristics and on a regional basis.
