CONSIDERATION OF BILL (REPORT STAGE)

ASSAULTS ON EMERGENCY WORKERS (OFFENCES) BILL, AS AMENDED

NOTE

This document includes all amendments tabled to date and includes any withdrawn amendments at the end. The amendments have been arranged in the order in which they relate to the Bill.

Philip Davies

NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Assaults on police constables

In section 89(1) of the Police Act 1996, leave out from “offence” to end of subsection (1) and insert—

“and liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to a fine, or to both;

Assaults on Emergency Workers (Offences) Bill, continued

- (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to a fine, or to both.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would make assaults specifically on police constables carry the same penalty as the new offence and not just the six months currently available to courts.

Philip Davies

NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Assaults on police constables (No. 2)

In section 89(1) of the Police Act 1996, leave out from “offence” to end of subsection (1) and insert—

“and liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to a fine, or to both;
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 24 months, or to a fine, or to both.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would make assaults specifically on police constables carry greater penalties than are currently available to match the new offence and also to ensure that Crown courts have greater powers of sentence for the offence than magistrates’ courts.

Philip Davies

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Review of impact of non-commencement of sections 154 and 282 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003

If sections 154 and 282 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 have not come into force two years after this Act has come into force the Secretary of State for Justice must review the likely impact this non-commencement has had on the sentences given for offences affected by this Act and provide a statement to Parliament within six months of the end of the two-year period detailing that impact.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would allow a review from the Secretary of State to enable insight into the impact on sentences for the offences covered by the Bill that are not able to exceed six months as a result of no changes being made to the sentencing powers of magistrates.

Philip Davies

NC4

- ☆ To move the following Clause—

“Assaults in prison

In section 243A of the Criminal Justice Act 2003, after subsection (2) insert—

- “(2A) Subsection (2) does not apply if the prisoner has assaulted any person listed in Section 3 of the Assaults on Emergency Workers (Offences) Act 2018 during the course of their sentence.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would mean that a prisoner serving a sentence of less than 12 months who assaulted an emergency worker during that sentence would not be eligible for automatic release.

Philip Davies

NC5

- ☆ To move the following Clause—

“Assaults in prison (No. 2)

In section 244 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003, after subsection (1A) insert—

- “(1B) Subsection (1) does not apply if the prisoner has assaulted any person listed in Section 3 of the Assaults on Emergency Workers (Offences) Act 2018 during the course of their sentence.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would mean that a prisoner serving a fixed term sentence of more than 12 months who assaulted an emergency worker during that sentence would not be eligible for automatic release.

Philip Davies

NC6

- ☆ To move the following Clause—

“Assaults in prison (No. 3)

In section 246 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003, after subsection (4)(i) insert—

- “(j) the prisoner has assaulted any person listed in Section 3 of the Assaults on Emergency Workers (Offences) Act 2018 during the course of their sentence.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would mean that a prisoner serving a fixed term sentence of more than 12 months who assaulted an emergency worker during that sentence would not be eligible for early release.

Philip Davies

NC7

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Assaults in prison (No. 4)

- (1) In section 246A of the Criminal Justice Act 2003, in subsection (2) after “unless” for “either or both” substitute “any”.
