★ Clause 32, page 23, line 37, at end insert—

“(2A) After section 6 of TIOPA 2010 (the effect given by section 2 to double taxation arrangements), insert—

“6A Review of changes made by section 32 of Finance Act 2018

- (1) Within twelve months of the passing of the Finance Act 2018, the Chancellor of the Exchequer must review the effects of the changes made by section 32 of that Act on the operation of double taxation arrangements.

- (2) The review under this section must consider in particular—
- (a) the extent to which those changes facilitate UK law giving effect to the Multilateral Instrument in a way which coheres with the principles of Policy Coherence for Development;
 - (b) the extent to which those changes facilitate UK law giving effect to the Multilateral Instrument in a way which coheres with the UN Model Tax Treaty;
 - (c) the effect of those changes on the number of disputes decided by arbitration;
 - (d) the counterparties in each such case;
 - (e) the outcome in each such case; and
 - (f) the effects of those changes on the public revenue of the United Kingdom.
- (3) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must lay before the House of Commons the report of the review under this section as soon as practicable after its completion.
- (4) In this section—
- “the Multilateral Instrument” means the Multilateral Treaty to Implement Tax Treaty related Measures to Prevent Base Erosion and Profit Shifting;
- “the principles of Policy Coherence and Development” are to be interpreted in the light of relevant publications of the Organisation of Economic and Development Cooperation and of 2011 Busan Partnership for Effective Development Cooperation, the UN Millennium Declaration and the 2010 UN Millennium Development Goals Summit; and
- “the UN Model tax Treaty” means the United Nations Model Double Taxation Convention between Developed and Developing Countries published in 2011.””

- ★ Schedule 10, page 142, line 40, at end insert—

“87Q Public register of capital payments received by settlements

- (1) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must by regulations establish a register of capital payments received by settlements to which this Chapter applies within 12 months of the passing of the Finance Act 2018.

- (2) A register established under subsection (1) shall record in relation to capital payments—
- (a) the recipient beneficiary;
 - (b) the settlor; and
 - (c) the trustees of the settlement from which the capital payment is received.
- (3) That part of the register containing information in paragraph (c) shall be made available to the public.”

(1A) In section 98(1), after “87”, insert “, 87Q”.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment creates an obligation for the Chancellor to create a public register of trust beneficiaries, settlors, and trustees. It also amends section 98(1) of TCGA 1992 to expand, to include new section 87Q, the existing power for HMRC to require any person to provide information as they think necessary to fulfil certain sections of TCGA.

★ Schedule 10, page 144, line 33, at end insert—

“87Q Review of taxation of capital payments received from a settlement

- (1) Within six months of the passing of the Finance Act 2018, the Chancellor of the Exchequer must review the effects of the changes to this Chapter made by schedule 10 to that Act.
- (2) The review under this section must consider the effects of those changes on—
 - (a) the taxation regime for settlements, and
 - (b) anti-avoidance measures for settlements.
- (3) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must lay before the House of Commons the report of the review under this section as soon as practicable after its completion.””

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment requires the Chancellor to review the effects of changes to TCGA 1992 made by the Bill in relation to the taxation of capital payments received from a settlement.

- ★ Clause 38, page 27, line 6, leave out “69” and insert “69(1)”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment specifies the subsection of section 69 of the Value Added Tax Act 1994 that is being amended by Clause 38(2).

Peter Dowd
Anneliese Dodds
Jeff Smith

57

- ★ Clause 38, page 27, line 9, at end insert—

“(2A) In subsection (3) of section 69, for “subsection (4)” substitute “subsections (3A) and (4).

(2B) After subsection (3) of section 69, insert—

“(3A) In relation to a failure to comply with any regulatory requirement under section 77E (display of VAT registration numbers on line marketplaces), the prescribed rate shall be determined by reference to the number of occasions in the period of 2 years preceding the beginning of the failure in question on which the person concerned has previously failed to comply with that requirement and, subject to the following provisions of this section, the prescribed rate shall be—

- (a) if there has been no such previous occasion in that period, £5,000;
- (b) if there has been only one such occasion in that period, £10,000; and
- (c) in any other case, £15,000.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment increases the prescribed rate of a penalty for failure to comply with a regulatory requirement under section 77E of the Value Added Tax Act 1994 (as proposed to be inserted by Clause 38(8)).

60

- ★ Clause 46, page 40, line 18, at end insert—

“(9A) The powers under subsections (1) to (6) of this section are not available in any case where—

- (a) information has been provided on oath by an officer in accordance with section 161A(1) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 (power to enter premises: search warrant) and a justice of the peace has not issued a warrant in consequence, or
- (b) an officer could reasonably have been expected to seek a warrant in accordance with the provisions of that section of that Act.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides that the powers to enter premises and search goods may not be exercised in cases where a warrant to search premises in relation to goods subject to forfeiture has been sought and refused or where such a warrant could reasonably be sought.

Peter Dowd
Anneliese Dodds
Jeff Smith

61

- ★ Clause 48, page 42, line 15, leave out from “effect” to end of line 16 and insert “from the date on which the Chancellor of the Exchequer lays before the House of Commons a report of the review carried out under subsection (13).”

- (13) A review under this subsection shall consider the appropriateness of the use of the New European Driving Cycle methodology for calculating carbon dioxide emissions for the purposes of the provisions amended by this section.
- (14) A review under subsection (13) shall also consider the effects of carbon dioxide emissions were to be calculated for the purposes of the provisions amended by this section using the Worldwide harmonized Light-duty vehicles Test Procedure including
- (a) the effects on the operation of those provisions;
 - (b) the revenue effects, and
 - (c) the effects on progress towards the Government's targets for reducing carbon dioxide emissions."

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment requires a pre-commencement review of the appropriateness of the current regime for calculating carbon dioxide emissions and the effects of a change to the WLTP procedure.
