To move the following Clause—

“Retaining Enhanced Protection

- (1) A Minister may use regulations provided for by an Act of Parliament other than this Act to amend, repeal or modify retained EU law if, and only if, the use of the regulation is necessary to maintain or enhance rights and protections.
 - (2) The procedure in subsection (3) applies if a Minister of the Crown proposes to use regulations provided for by Acts of Parliament other than this Act to amend, repeal or modify retained EU law in the following areas—
 - (a) employment entitlement, rights and protection,
 - (b) equality entitlements, rights and protection,
 - (c) health and safety entitlement, rights and protection,
 - (d) consumer standards, or
 - (e) environmental standards and protection.
 - (3) A Minister of the Crown must—
 - (a) produce an explanatory document which must explain why using the regulation is necessary to maintain or enhance rights and protections,
 - (b) consult for a period of no less than 12 weeks after the publication of the explanatory document with—
 - (i) organisations, and persons who are likely to be affected by the proposals, including representative bodies;
 - (ii) the Law Commission, the Scottish Law Commission or the Northern Ireland Law Commission in such cases as the Minister considers appropriate; and
 - (iii) where the proposals relate to the functions of one or more statutory bodies, those bodies or persons appearing to the Minister to be representative of those bodies,
 - (c) give details of any representations received under the consultation provided including Ministerial responses.
 - (4) Any regulations to which this section applies may be made only if they have been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”

“Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland

- (1) Nothing in the provisions made under section 8 or section 9 of this Act shall authorise any regulations which—
 - (a) breach any of the obligations of Her Majesty’s Government made under the Belfast Agreement implemented in the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (which made new provision for the government of Northern Ireland for the purpose of implementing the agreement reached at multi-party talks on Northern Ireland), or
 - (b) create hard border arrangements between Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland, or
 - (c) undermine the full alignment of the United Kingdom with the rules of the European Union Internal Market and the Customs Union which support North-South cooperation, the all-island economy and the protection of the Belfast Agreement.
 - (2) Subsection (1)(c) shall apply unless Her Majesty’s Government, the Government of the Republic of Ireland and the European Union agree alternative specific solutions which can continue to address the unique circumstances of the island of Ireland, the obligations of the Belfast Agreement and the avoidance of a hard border arrangement between Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland.”

- (2) Any agreement between the United Kingdom and the EU under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union which sets out the arrangements for the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU may not be ratified unless—
 - (a) subsection (1) has been complied with,
 - (b) the House of Lords has considered a motion relating to the unratified agreement,
 - (c) the House of Commons has approved the unratified agreement by resolution,
 - (d) the statute mentioned in section 9 (approving the final terms of withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union) has been passed, and
 - (e) any other legislative provision to enable ratification has been passed or made.
- (3) If no agreement has been reached by 31 December 2018 between the United Kingdom and the EU under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union setting out the arrangements for the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU, the

Prime Minister must publish and lay before both Houses of Parliament within one month an assessment of the impact on the economy of the United Kingdom, and on each nation, province or region of the United Kingdom, of leaving the EU under Article 50(3) of the Treaty on European Union without an agreement.

- (4) If no agreement has been reached by 31 January 2019 between the United Kingdom and the EU under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union setting out the arrangements for the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the EU,
 - (a) a Minister of the Crown must propose a motion in the House of Lords relating to the lack of an agreement, and
 - (b) a Minister of the Crown must propose a motion in the House of Commons approving the intention of the United Kingdom to leave the EU under Article 50(3) of the Treaty on European Union without a withdrawal agreement.
- (5) Unless the House of Commons approves by resolution after 31 January 2019 the intention of the United Kingdom to leave the EU under Article 50(3) of the Treaty on European Union without a withdrawal agreement, the Prime Minister must either —
 - (a) reach an agreement before exit day between the United Kingdom and the EU under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union which sets out the arrangements for the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the EU, or
 - (b) request the European Council for an extension of negotiation under Article 50(3) of the Treaty on European Union, or
 - (c) rescind the notice of intention under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union to withdraw from the EU given in accordance with the European Union (Notice of Withdrawal) Act 2017 and request the European Council to accept that rescission.'

To move the following Clause—

“Environmental protection after EU exit

- (1) Before any exit day, the Secretary of State must publish a report detailing all EU environmental protections, powers and functions.
- (2) The report pursuant to subsection (1) shall specify—
 - (a) all environmental legal protections which derive from EU law;
 - (b) the powers and functions relating to environmental protection or improvement exercised by EU institutions;
 - (c) the empowering provisions in EU law relating to those functions; and

- (d) any loss of environmental protection, or the monitoring and enforcement of environmental protections, which may arise as a result of the UK's exit from the EU.
- (3) Before any exit day the Secretary of State must publish proposals for primary legislation (the "Draft Environmental Protection Bill").
- (4) The Draft Environmental Protection Bill must include provisions which would —
- (a) ensure that the level of environmental protection provided by EU law on the day this Act receives Royal Assent is maintained or enhanced;
 - (b) make provision to remedy any loss of environmental protection, or the monitoring and enforcement of environmental protections, established in the report pursuant to subsection (1);
 - (c) create a statutory corporation (to be called "the Environmental Protection Agency") with operational independence from Ministers of the Crown to monitor environmental targets previously set by EU law relating to environmental protection and other such environmental targets that may be set by Ministers of the Crown and international treaties to which the United Kingdom is party;
 - (d) require the statutory corporation in (4)(c) to report to Parliament every year on progress in meeting those targets and to make recommendations for remedial action where appropriate;
 - (e) allow the statutory corporation in (4)(c) to publish additional reports identifying action or omissions on the part of Ministers of the Crown that is likely to result in targets not being met; and
 - (f) extend to the whole of the United Kingdom.
- (5) The Secretary of State must publish annual reports to Parliament on how environmental protections and the monitoring and enforcement of environmental protections have been affected by the United Kingdom's exit from the EU.
- (6) Before publishing a report pursuant to subsection (5) the Secretary of State must hold a public consultation on the effect of leaving the EU on environmental protection.
- (7) The Secretary of State must publish and lay before each House of Parliament the first report pursuant to subsection (5) no later 29 March 2020 and each subsequent report must be published no later than the period of one year after the publication of the previous report."

- which do not cease to have effect as a result of the withdrawal agreement are fully carried out.
- (b) introduce primary legislation to establish a new independent environmental regulator with the purpose of, responsibility for, and appropriate powers to oversee the implementation of, compliance with and enforcement of environmental law and principles by relevant public authorities.
 - (c) incorporate EU environmental principles in primary legislation as a basis for relevant decision-making by UK public bodies and public authorities.
 - (d) establish a process for the publication of a national environmental policy statement or statements describing how the environmental principles will be interpreted and applied.
- (2) EU Environmental principles include but are not limited to—
- (a) the precautionary principle;
 - (b) the principle that preventive action should be taken to avert environmental damage;
 - (c) the principle that environmental damage should as a priority be rectified at source;
 - (d) the polluter pays principle;
 - (e) the principle that environmental protection requirements must be integrated into the definition and implementation of policies and activities, in particular with a view to promoting sustainable development;
- (3) In carrying out a consultation under this section, the Government must—
- (a) consult with the devolved authorities;
 - (b) be open to responses for at least two months; and

- (2) The citizens’ jury shall in total be composed of exactly 1501 persons.
- (3) Members of the citizens’ jury shall be randomly selected by means of eligibility from UK citizens on the current electoral register as registered on the date of this Act receiving royal assent, with allocation across the 9 UK Government Regions, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland weighted by population, and a stratification plan, with the aim of securing a group of people who are broadly representative demographically of the UK electorate across characteristics including whether they voted Leave or Remain.

- (4) The jury will be broken down into individual sittings for each of the 9 UK Government Regions in England, as well as Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.
- (5) The sittings will be for no more than 72 hours at a time, facilitated by independent facilitators, and if required, by electing fore-people from within their number.
- (6) Membership of the jury will be subject to the same regulations and exceptions as a regular jury, but membership can be declined without penalty.
- (7) The citizens' jury will be able to require Ministerial and official representatives of the UK Government and the Devolved Administrations to give testimony to them to inform their work, and to have the power to invite other witnesses to give evidence as required.
- (8) The citizens' jury shall publish reports setting out their conclusions on the negotiations and UK Government White Papers.
- (9) The first report from the citizens' jury shall be published within two months of this Act receiving Royal Assent, and subsequent reports shall be published at intervals of no more than two months.
- (10) Costs incurred by the citizens' jury shall be met by the Exchequer."

To move the following Clause—

“Dealing with deficiencies arising from withdrawal – further provisions

- (1) This section applies where there is a deficiency in retained EU law on and after exit day in respect of which regulations have not been made under section 7.
- (2) A deficiency includes, but is not limited to, retained EU law which—
 - (a) contains anything which has no practical application in relation to the United Kingdom or any part of it or is otherwise redundant or substantially redundant;
 - (b) confers functions on, or in relation to, EU entities which no longer have functions in that respect under EU law in relation to the United Kingdom or any part of it;
 - (c) makes provision for, or in connection with, reciprocal arrangements between—
 - (i) the United Kingdom or any part of it or a public authority in the United Kingdom, and
 - (ii) the EU, an EU entity, a member State or a public authority in a member State, which no longer exist or are no longer appropriate.
 - (d) makes provision for, or in connection with, other arrangements which—
 - (i) involve the EU, an EU entity, a member State or a public authority in a member State, or
 - (ii) are otherwise dependent upon the United Kingdom’s membership of the EU, and which no longer exist or are no longer appropriate
 - (e) makes provision for, or in connection with, any reciprocal or other arrangements not falling within paragraph (c) or (d) which no longer exist, or are no longer appropriate, as a result of the United Kingdom ceasing to be a party to any of the EU Treaties,
 - (f) does not contain any functions or restrictions which—
 - (i) were in an EU directive and in force immediately before exit day (including any power to make EU tertiary legislation), and

- (ii) it is appropriate to retain, or
 - (g) contains EU references which are no longer appropriate.
- (3) A deficiency within the meaning of subsection (1) includes any failure or other deficiency arising from the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the EU together with the operation of any provision, or the interaction between any provisions, made by or under this Act, but does not include any modification of EU law which is adopted or notified, comes into force or applies only on or after exit day.
- (4) Where this section applies, the retained EU law in respect of which the deficiency arises is to be interpreted in accordance with subsections (5) to (9).
- (5) The retained EU law does not allow, prevent, require or otherwise apply to acts or omissions outside the United Kingdom.
- (6) An EU reference is not to be treated, by reason of the UK having ceased to be a member State, as preventing or restricting the application of retained EU law within the United Kingdom or to persons or things associated with the United Kingdom.
- (7) Functions conferred on the EU or an EU entity are to be treated as functions of the Secretary of State.
- (8) Any provision which requires or would, apart from subsection (7), require a UK body to—
- (a) consult, notify, co-operate with, or perform any other act in relation to an EU body, or
 - (b) take account of an EU interest,
- is to be treated as empowering the UK body to do so in such manner and to such extent as it considers appropriate.
- (9) In subsection (8)—
- “a UK body” means the United Kingdom or a public authority in the United Kingdom;
 - “an EU body” means the EU, an EU entity (other than the European Court), a member State or a public authority in a member State;
 - “an EU interest” means an interest of an EU body or any other interest principally arising in or connected with the EU (including that of consistency between the United Kingdom and the EU);
 - “requires” includes reference to a pre-condition to the exercise of any power, right or function;
- (10) This section ceases to have effect after the end of the period of two years beginning with exit day.”

 - (e) makes provision for, or in connection with, any reciprocal or other arrangements not falling within paragraph (c) or (d) which no longer exist, or are no longer appropriate, as a result of the United Kingdom ceasing to be a party to any of the EU Treaties,
 - (f) does not contain any functions or restrictions which—
 - (i) were in an EU directive and in force immediately before exit day (including any power to make EU tertiary legislation), and
 - (ii) it is appropriate to retain, or
 - (g) contains EU references which are no longer appropriate.
- (3) But retained EU law is not deficient merely because it does not contain any modification of EU law which is adopted or notified, comes into force or only applies on or after exit day.
- (4) Regulations under this section may make any provision that could be made by an Act of Parliament.
- (5) Regulations under this section may provide for—

- (a) functions of EU entities or public authorities in member States (including making an instrument of a legislative character or providing funding) to be exercisable instead by a public authority (whether or not newly established or established for the purpose) in the United Kingdom,
 - (b) the establishment of public authorities in the United Kingdom to carry out functions provided for by regulations under this section.
- (6) Regulations to which subsection (5) apply must ensure that the functions of such EU entities or public authorities are exercised with equivalent scope, purpose and effect by public authorities in the United Kingdom.
- (7) But regulations under this section may not—
- (a) impose or increase taxation,
 - (b) make retrospective provision,
 - (c) create a relevant criminal offence,
 - (d) be made to implement the withdrawal agreement,
 - (e) amend, repeal or revoke the Human Rights Act 1998 or any subordinate legislation made under it,
 - (f) amend or repeal the Northern Ireland Act 1998 (unless the regulations are made by virtue of paragraph 13(b) of Schedule 7 to this Act or are amending or repealing paragraph 38 of Schedule 3 to the Northern Ireland Act 1998 or any provision of that Act which modifies another enactment),
 - (g) contain any provision the effect of which is that, in comparison with the position immediately before the exit date—
 - (i) any right conferred on a person by retained EU law is either removed or made less favourable,
 - (ii) any standard laid by retained EU law is lowered, or
 - (iii) any remedy, procedure or method of enforcement, in relation to any rights or standards conferred by retained EU law, is made less effective, or
 - (h) amend, repeal or revoke the Equality Act 2010 or any subordinate legislation made under that Act.”
