Clause 1, page 2, line 16, at end insert “or

- (i) further accountability for, or act or as a deterrent to, the commission of a gross human rights abuse or violation.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would enable sanctions regulations to be made for the purpose of preventing, or in response to, a gross human rights abuse or violation.

Helen Goodman

★ Clause 1, page 2, line 16, at end insert—

- “(i) further the prevention of serious organised crime and trafficking, in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would enable sanctions regulations to be made for purposes which included the prevention of serious organised crime and trafficking.

Helen Goodman

14

★ Clause 1, page 2, line 21, at end insert—

“(3A) Regulations under this section must be accompanied by the publication of a written memorandum by the appropriate Minister, and such a memorandum must set out—

- (a) how the relevant sanctions are consistent with the overall foreign policy objectives of the UK government, including any specific regional objectives where appropriate;
- (b) clear objectives for the relevant sanctions, including well-defined and realistic demands against which compliance can be judged;
- (c) a coherent overarching diplomatic strategy for achieving the relevant objectives, including steps to actively and systematically communicate with targeted countries or persons on the specific concerns underpinning the sanctions against them;
- (d) a clear exit strategy, including specific and measurable changes in the behaviour of any target or targets to be required as a precondition of any future suspension or lifting of the relevant sanctions; and
- (e) specific steps to be taken by Ministers to promote co-operation with, and where possible the adoption of, any autonomous UK sanctions by other countries.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Government to publish a memorandum setting out the objectives of any sanctions issued under this Act, and how they are consistent with the UK’s foreign policy objectives.

Helen Goodman
Anneliese Dodds

Clause 1, page 2, line 37, at end insert—

“(6A) In this section, conduct constitutes “the commission of a gross human rights abuse or violation” if each of the following three conditions is met.

---

- (6B) The first condition is that—
- (a) the conduct constitutes the torture of a person or a group of people who have sought—
    - (i) to expose illegal activity carried out by a public official or a person acting in an official capacity, or
    - (ii) to obtain, exercise, defend or promote human rights and fundamental freedoms, or
  - (b) the conduct otherwise involves the cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment of such a person or a group of people.
- (6C) The second condition is that the conduct is carried out in consequence of that person having sought to do anything falling within subsection (6B) (a) (i) or (ii).
- (6D) The third condition is that the conduct is carried out—
- (a) by a public official, or a person acting in an official capacity, in the performance or purported performance of his or her official duties, or
  - (b) by a person not falling within paragraph (a) at the instigation or with the consent or acquiescence—
    - (i) of a public official, or
    - (ii) of a person acting in an official capacity, who in instigating the conduct, or in consenting to or acquiescing in it, is acting in the performance or purported performance of his or her official duties.
- (6E) Conduct that involves the intentional infliction of severe pain or suffering on another person or a group of people is conduct that constitutes torture for the purposes of subsection (6B) (a).
- (6F) Conduct is connected with the commission of a gross human rights abuse or violation if it is conduct by a person that involves—
- (a) acting as an agent for another in connection with activities relating to conduct constituting the commission of a gross human rights abuse or violation,
  - (b) directing, or sponsoring, such activities,
  - (c) profiting from such activities, or
  - (d) materially assisting such activities.
- (6G) The cases in which a person materially assists activities for the purposes of subsection (6F) (d) include those where the person—
- (a) provides goods or services in support of the carrying out of the activities, or
  - (b) otherwise provides any financial or technological support in connection with their carrying out.”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment, which is consequential on Amendment 1, would define what constitutes the commission of a gross human rights abuse or violation. This would include the torture of a person who has sought to expose the illegal activity of a public official, or the torture of a person who had sought to defend human rights or fundamental freedoms, by a public official or a person acting in an official capacity.

Sir Alan Duncan

- ☆ Clause 1, page 3, line 2, leave out “(d)” and insert “(h)”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment expands the reference in Clause 1 to subsection (2) so that it covers paragraphs (e) to (h) of that subsection (as well as paragraphs (a) to (d)).

Helen Goodman

29

- ★ Schedule 1, page 49, leave out lines 39 and 40

Helen Goodman

30

- ★ Schedule 1, page 50, leave out lines 2 and 3

Helen Goodman

31

- ★ Schedule 1, page 50, leave out paragraph 33

Helen Goodman

15

- ★ Clause 6, page 5, line 40, at end insert “unless they are a person, or are doing so to provide legitimate travel to a person, recognised as a refugee under the UN Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would prevent sanctions being imposed on recognised refugees who own or operate aircraft registered in a prescribed country.

Helen Goodman

16

- ★ Clause 6, page 6, line 33, at end insert “, unless an aircraft is providing legitimate travel to a person recognised as a refugee under the UN Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would mean that aircraft containing a recognised refugee would not constitute a disqualified aircraft under this Act.

---

Helen Goodman

17

- ★ Clause 7, page 7, line 36, at end insert “, unless the ship belongs to a person or the ship provides legitimate travel to a person, recognised as a refugee under the UN

Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees”.

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would mean that shipping sanctions could not be imposed on ships belonging to, or carrying, a recognised refugee.

---

Helen Goodman

18

★ Clause 15, page 14, line 41, at end insert—

“(3A) Regulations must include provision for the establishment of a fast-track process for dealing with requests for exceptions and licences for humanitarian purposes.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would mean that regulations have to provide a fast-track process for dealing with any requests for exceptions and licences for humanitarian purposes.

Helen Goodman

★ Clause 15, page 14, line 41, at end insert—

“(3A) The Secretary of State must, within six months of this Act coming into force, undertake a consultation on measures to establish an overarching framework for exceptions and licences to be granted for the purposes of subsections (2) and (3).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Government to consult on measures to establish a framework for exceptions and licences to disapply the effect of sanctions.

Helen Goodman

★ Clause 15, page 15, line 12, at end insert—

“(c) humanitarian, development, reconstruction and peace-building agencies engaging with sanctioned individuals and entities in order to safely and effectively carry out their activities.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would enable exceptions to any prohibition or requirement imposed by regulations for humanitarian, development, reconstruction or peace-building purposes.

Sir Alan Duncan

☆ Clause 17, page 16, line 12, at end insert—

“( ) Regulations—

(a) may create criminal offences for the purposes of the enforcement of prohibitions or requirements mentioned in subsection (2)(a) or (b) or for the purposes of preventing such prohibitions or requirements from being circumvented, and

(b) may include provision dealing with matters relating to any offences created for such purposes by regulations (including provision that creates defences).

- ( ) Regulations may not provide for an offence under regulations to be punishable with imprisonment for a period exceeding—
- (a) in the case of conviction on indictment, 10 years;
  - (b) in the case of summary conviction—
    - (i) in relation to England and Wales, 12 months or, in relation to offences committed before section 154(1) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 comes into force, 6 months;
    - (ii) in relation to Scotland, 12 months;
    - (iii) in relation to Northern Ireland, 6 months.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment enables sanctions imposed by regulations under Clause 1 to be enforced by criminal proceedings, and limits the terms of imprisonment that such regulations can allow to be imposed for breach of sanctions.

Helen Goodman

21

- ★ Clause 17, page 16, line 36, at end insert—

“(8) An appropriate Minister must publish guidance from the Crown Prosecution Service on when it is in the public interest for a breach of a sanctions regulations to be prosecuted.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Government to publish guidance on when it is in the public interest for a breach of sanctions regulations to be prosecuted.

Helen Goodman

23

- ★ Clause 18, page 17, leave out subsection (4)

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on Amendment 22.

Helen Goodman

22

- ★ Clause 18, page 17, line 12, at end insert—

“(4A) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b), a body incorporated or constituted under the law of any part of the United Kingdom includes a body incorporated or constituted under the law of the following—

- (a) any of the Channel Islands;
- (b) the Isle of Man;
- (c) any of the British Overseas Territories.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Government to include any of the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man and any of the British Overseas Territories in the definition of “United Kingdom person” under subsection(2).

 ★ Clause 25, page 20, line 16, leave out “3 years” and insert “12 months”

Helen Goodman 24
 ★ Clause 27, page 20, line 39, leave out “the purpose stated in them under section 1(3)” and insert—
     “(a) the purpose stated in them under section 1(3);
     (b) the humanitarian impact;
     (c) any British citizen, a British Overseas Territories citizen or British overseas citizen who is not the intended target of sanctions issued under this Act but who is directly or indirectly impacted by the imposition of such sanctions”.

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Government to review whether the sanctions regulations are still appropriate for their specified purposes, including their humanitarian impact and impact on British citizens who are indirectly affected by the imposition of sanctions.

Helen Goodman 25
 ★ Clause 27, page 20, line 40, at end insert—

“(2A) The review of the humanitarian impact under subsection (2)(b) must be conducted according to the methodology set out in Chapter 5 of the UN InterAgency Standing Committee’s Sanctions Assessment Handbook: Assessing the Humanitarian Implications of Sanctions, published in 2004.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment, which is consequential on Amendment 24, would require the Government to carry out a humanitarian impact assessment when reviewing the regulations issued under section 1.

Sir Alan Duncan

- ☆ Clause 27, page 21, line 5, leave out “(d)” and insert “(h)”

Member’s explanatory statement

The provision amended here concerns a Minister’s review of regulations made under Clause 1 which state a purpose within Clause 1(2). The amendment expands the reference to Clause 1(2) so that it covers paragraphs (e) to (h) of Clause 1(2) (as well as paragraphs (a) to (d)).

Helen Goodman

26

- ★ Clause 27, page 21, line 8, at end insert—

- “(d) the steps taken to promote the adoption of sanctions on a multilateral basis;
- (e) a summary of any representations made in relation to the exercise or proposed exercise of the powers and the response of the appropriate Minister to the same;
- (f) a review from the Independent Reviewer, appointed pursuant to section 20 of the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011 (‘the 2011 Act’), of the operation of this Act in the reports by the Independent Reviewer produced pursuant to the 2011 Act.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the review of regulations to include consideration of the steps taken to promote the adoption of sanctions, a summary of the representations made in relation to powers under this Act and an independent review of the operation of this Act.

Helen Goodman

- ★ Clause 27, page 21, line 17, at end insert—

“(5A) The Appropriate Minister who made the regulations must in each quarterly period lay before Parliament a report for each sanctions regime and regulation containing—

- (a) the aggregate value of funds and other assets frozen;
- (b) the number of suspected breaches and the aggregate value of such breaches; and
- (c) actions taken on suspected breaches.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Government to report to Parliament on a quarterly basis about the impact of sanctions regimes, including the number and value of suspected breaches of those sanctions.

Helen Goodman

28

- ★ Clause 37, page 29, line 39, at end insert—

- “(d) reporting obligations;
- (e) licensing requirement provisions.

- (3) Where civilian payments and humanitarian activity are exempt from any prohibitions and requirements imposed by the regulations, the appropriate Minister must issue guidance.

---

- (4) The guidance under subsection (3) must include—
- (a) best practice for complying with the processing of civilian and humanitarian activities to reduce the risk of funds benefiting designated individuals, entities or organisations;
  - (b) mechanisms to limit the impact of prohibitions and requirements on a permissible civilian and humanitarian activity;
  - (c) circumstances where the prohibitions and requirements may be relevant in the context of the otherwise permissible delivery of a humanitarian activity; and
  - (d) options setting out effective banking and payment corridors for the processing of payments in support of a civilian and humanitarian activity which is not subject to any prohibitions or requirements.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require that the guidance issued about regulations under section 1 includes guidance on reporting obligations and licensing requirements. It would also require the Government to issue guidance on civilian payments and humanitarian activity exempt from prohibitions and requirements imposed by regulations.

Helen Goodman

27

- ★ Clause 37, page 29, line 39, at end insert—

“(3) Where regulations under section 1 make provision as to the meaning of any reference in the regulations to a person “owned” or “controlled” by another person pursuant to section 50(3), the appropriate Minister must issue guidance.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the Government to issue guidance setting out the meaning of a person “owned” or “controlled” by another person when regulations are issued to make provision for this purpose under section 50(3).

 Sir Alan Duncan

- ☆ Clause 39, page 30, line 24, leave out “(d)” and insert “(h)”

Member’s explanatory statement

The provision amended here is a condition which applies to the power to amend regulations made under Clause 1 which state a purpose within Clause 1(2). The amendment expands the reference to Clause 1(2) so that it covers paragraphs (e) to (h) of Clause 1(2) (as well as paragraphs (a) to (d)).

 Sir Alan Duncan

- ☆ Clause 43, page 33, line 13, leave out subsection (2)

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment removes the provision that prevents contraventions of regulations under Clause

43 (money laundering and terrorist financing etc) from being enforceable by criminal proceedings.

Sir Alan Duncan

10

☆ Schedule 2, page 53, line 32, leave out paragraph 15 and insert—

“15 Make provision—

- (a) creating criminal offences for the purposes of the enforcement of requirements imposed by or under regulations under section 43, and
- (b) dealing with matters relating to any offences created for such purposes by regulations under section 43, but see paragraphs 18 and 19.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment, read with Amendment 12, makes clear that any offences included in regulations under Clause 43 must be for the purposes of enforcing requirements imposed by or under regulations under Clause 43 or (while they remain in force) the Money Laundering Regulations 2017.

☆ Schedule 2, page 54, line 11, at end insert—

“20A(1) In this paragraph “relevant regulations” means regulations under section 43 which create any offence for the purposes of the enforcement of any requirements imposed by or under regulations under section 43.

(2) The appropriate Minister making any relevant regulations (“the Minister”) must at the required time lay before Parliament a report which—

- (a) specifies the offences created by the regulations, indicating the requirements to which those offences relate,
- (b) states that the Minister considers that there are good reasons for those requirements to be enforceable by criminal proceedings and explains why the Minister is of that opinion, and
- (c) in the case of any of those offences which are punishable with imprisonment—

- (i) states the maximum terms of imprisonment that apply to those offences,

- (ii) states that the Minister considers that there are good reasons for those maximum terms, and

- (iii) explains why the Minister is of that opinion.

(3) Sub-paragraph (4) applies where an offence created by the regulations relates to particular requirements and the Minister considers that a good reason—

- (a) for those requirements to be enforceable by criminal proceedings, or
- (b) for a particular maximum term of imprisonment to apply to that offence, is consistency with another enactment relating to the enforcement of similar requirements.

(4) The report must identify that other enactment.

(5) In sub-paragraph (3) “another enactment” means any provision of or made under an Act, other than a provision of the regulations to which the report relates.

- (6) In sub-paragraph (2) “the required time” means the same time as the draft of the statutory instrument containing the regulations is laid before Parliament.
- (7) This paragraph applies to regulations which amend other regulations under section 43 so as to create an offence as it applies to regulations which otherwise create an offence.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment requires that where regulations under Clause 43 are made which include offences, a report specifying the offences and giving reasons for any terms of imprisonment that apply to them must be laid before Parliament.

☆ Schedule 2, page 54, line 39, at end insert—

- “( ) In paragraph 15 (offences), any reference to regulations under section 43 includes the Money Laundering Regulations 2017.
- ( ) In paragraph 20A (report in respect of offences)—
- (a) the reference in sub-paragraph (1) to requirements imposed by or under regulations under section 43 includes requirements imposed by or under the Money Laundering Regulations 2017, and
- (b) the reference in sub-paragraph (7) to other regulations under section 43 includes the Money Laundering Regulations 2017.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment has the effect that, while the Money Laundering Regulations 2017 remain in force, offences may be created by regulations under Clause 43 for the purposes of enforcing requirements in the 2017 regulations.

Sir Alan Duncan

☆ Clause 47, page 34, line 38, leave out subsection (3) and insert—

- “(3) Regulations under section 1 may amend the definition of “terrorist financing” in section 43(4) so as to remove any reference to a provision of regulations that is revoked by regulations under section 1.
- (3A) Regulations under section 1 may amend the definition of “terrorist financing” in section 43(4) so as to add a reference to a provision of regulations under section 1 that contains an offence, but only if—
- (a) each purpose of the regulations containing the offence, as stated under section 1(3), is compliance with a UN obligation or other international obligation, or
- (b) paragraph (a) does not apply but the report under section 2 in respect of the regulations containing the offence indicates that, in the opinion of the appropriate Minister making those regulations, the carrying out of a purpose stated in those regulations under section 1(3) would further the prevention of terrorism in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment provides that regulations under Clause 1 may amend the definition of “terrorist financing” in the Bill to add a reference to an offence only where the purpose of the regulations containing the offence is compliance with a UN or other international obligation or a purpose related to the prevention of terrorism.

---

Alison Thewliss

37

★ Clause 48, page 36, line 5,

“(5A) A statutory instrument containing regulations under section 1 that repeals, revokes or amends—

- (a) an Act of the Scottish Parliament,
- (b) a Measure or Act of the National Assembly for Wales, or
- (c) Northern Ireland legislation,

must receive the consent of the Scottish Parliament, the National Assembly for Wales and the Northern Ireland Assembly, respectively.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the UK Government to obtain the consent of the devolved administrations before repealing, revoking or amending devolved legislation using a statutory instrument containing regulations under section 1.

Sir Alan Duncan

☆ Clause 56, page 42, line 3, leave out subsection (2)

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment removes the privilege amendment inserted by the Lords.

Sir Alan Duncan

NC3

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Report in respect of offences in regulations

- (1) In this section “relevant regulations” means regulations under section 1 which create any offence for the purposes of—
  - (a) the enforcement of any prohibitions or requirements imposed by or under regulations under section 1, or
  - (b) preventing any such prohibitions or requirements from being circumvented.
- (2) The appropriate Minister making any relevant regulations (“the Minister”) must at the required time lay before Parliament a report which—
  - (a) specifies the offences created by the regulations, indicating the prohibitions or requirements to which those offences relate,
  - (b) states that the Minister considers that there are good reasons for those prohibitions or requirements to be enforceable by criminal proceedings and explains why the Minister is of that opinion, and

- (c) in the case of any of those offences which are punishable with imprisonment—
  - (i) states the maximum terms of imprisonment that apply to those offences,
  - (ii) states that the Minister considers that there are good reasons for those maximum terms, and
  - (iii) explains why the Minister is of that opinion.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies where an offence created by the regulations relates to a particular prohibition or requirement and the Minister considers that a good reason—
  - (a) for that prohibition or requirement to be enforceable by criminal proceedings, or
  - (b) for a particular maximum term of imprisonment to apply to that offence, is consistency with another enactment relating to the enforcement of a similar prohibition or requirement.
- (4) The report must identify that other enactment.
- (5) In subsection (3) “another enactment” means any provision of or made under an Act, other than a provision of the regulations to which the report relates.
- (6) In subsection (2) “the required time” means—
  - (a) in the case of regulations contained in a statutory instrument which is laid before Parliament after being made, the same time as the instrument is laid before Parliament;
  - (b) in the case of regulations contained in a statutory instrument a draft of which is laid before Parliament, the same time as the draft is laid.
- (7) This section applies to regulations which amend other regulations under section 1 so as to create an offence as it applies to regulations which otherwise create an offence.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause requires that where regulations under Clause 1 are made which include offences, a report specifying the offences and giving reasons for any terms of imprisonment that apply to them must be laid before Parliament.

Sir Alan Duncan

NC4

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Duties to lay certain reports before Parliament: further provision

- (1) In this section “a reporting provision” means section 2(4), (Report in respect of offences in regulations)(2) or 40(2) or paragraph 20A(2) of Schedule 2 (duties to lay before Parliament certain reports relating to regulations).
- (2) Where more than one reporting provision applies in relation to particular regulations under section 1, the reports to which those provisions relate may be contained in a single document.
- (3) If a reporting provision is not complied with, the appropriate Minister who should have complied with that provision must publish a written statement explaining why that Minister failed to comply with it.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies where a reporting provision applies and—
  - (a) a statutory instrument containing the regulations concerned, or
  - (b) a draft of such an instrument,

is laid before the House of Commons and House of Lords on different days.

- (5) Where this subsection applies, the reporting provision in question is to be read as requiring the laying of a copy of the report to which that provision relates—
- (a) before the House of Commons at the time the instrument or draft mentioned in subsection (4) is laid before the House of Commons, and
  - (b) before the House of Lords at the time that instrument or draft is laid before the House of Lords.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause enables certain reports relating to regulations to be combined in one document, requires a written statement to be made by the Minister if certain reporting requirements are not complied with, and clarifies how those requirements apply.

Helen Goodman
Anneliese Dodds

NC1

To move the following Clause—

“Public registers of beneficial ownership of companies in the British overseas territories

- (1) For the purpose of preventing money laundering, the Secretary of State must provide all reasonable assistance to the governments of—
- (a) Anguilla;
  - (b) Bermuda;
  - (c) the British Virgin Islands;
  - (d) the Cayman Islands;
  - (e) Montserrat; and
  - (f) the Turks and Caicos Islands,
- to enable each of those governments to establish a publicly accessible register of the beneficial ownership of companies registered in that government’s jurisdiction.
- (2) No later than 1 January 2019 the Secretary of State must prepare an Order in Council in respect of any British overseas territories listed in subsection (1) that have not by that date introduced a publicly accessible register of the beneficial ownership of companies within their jurisdiction, requiring them to adopt such a register by 1 January 2020.
- (3) In this section a “publicly accessible register of beneficial ownership of companies” means a register which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, provides information broadly equivalent to that available in accordance with the provisions of Part 21A of the Companies Act 2006 (information about people with significant control).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to take steps to ensure the governments of specified British overseas territories introduce public registers of beneficial ownership of companies.

Helen Goodman
Anneliese Dodds

NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Public register of beneficial ownership of UK property by companies and other legal entities registered outside the UK

- (1) In addition to the provisions made under paragraph 6 of Schedule 2, for the purpose of preventing money laundering in the UK property market and public procurement, the Secretary of State must create a public register of beneficial ownership information for companies and other legal entities registered outside of the UK that own or buy UK property, or bid for UK government contracts.
- (2) The register must be implemented within 12 months of the day on which this Act is passed.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Secretary of State to create a public register of beneficial ownership information for companies and other legal entities registered outside of the UK that own or buy UK property, or bid for UK government contracts, within 12 months.

Helen Goodman

NC5

★ To move the following Clause—

“Reports on the use of exemptions and licensing

- (1) Where regulations are made under section 1, the appropriate Minister must—
  - (a) prepare a report on the matters mentioned in subsection (2) for—
    - (i) the period of twelve months beginning with the day on which the regulations made under section 1 come into force; and
    - (ii) every subsequent twelve month period; and
  - (b) lay a copy of each such report before Parliament.
- (2) The matters are—
  - (a) the number of applications for humanitarian licences made during the reporting period including specific detail about whether licences were requested by EU Member States or the United States of America;
  - (b) the number of humanitarian licences granted, refused or withdrawn during the reporting period;
  - (c) the number of non-humanitarian exemptions and licences requested;
  - (d) the number of non-humanitarian exemptions and licences granted, refused or withdrawn; and
  - (e) the amount of time taken for each application to be processed during the reporting period.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require the Government to lay a report before Parliament every 12 months reporting on the use of both humanitarian and non-humanitarian exemptions and licensing.
