FINANCIAL GUIDANCE AND CLAIMS BILL [LORDS], AS AMENDED

NOTE

This document includes all amendments tabled to date and includes any withdrawn amendments at the end. The amendments have been arranged in the order in which they relate to the Bill.

Secretary Esther McVey

NC3

To move the following Clause—

“Unsolicited direct marketing: pensions

- (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations prohibiting unsolicited direct marketing relating to pensions.
- (2) The regulations may—
  - 5 (a) make provision about when a communication is to be, or is not to be, treated as unsolicited;
  - (b) make provision for exceptions to the prohibition;
  - (c) confer functions on the Information Commissioner and on OFCOM (including conferring a discretion);
  - 10 (d) apply (with or without modifications) provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998 or the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003 (S.I. 2003/2426) (including, in particular, provisions relating to enforcement).
- (3) The regulations may—
  - 15 (a) make different provision for different purposes;
  - (b) make different provision for different areas;

- (c) make incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitional or saving provision.
- 20 (4) Regulations under this section are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- 25 (6) If before the end of June in any year the Secretary of State has not made regulations under this section (whether or not in that year), the Secretary of State must—
- (a) publish a statement, by the end of July in that year, explaining why regulations have not been made and setting a timetable for making the regulations, and
- (b) lay the statement before each House of Parliament.
- 30 (7) In this section, “OFCOM” means the Office of Communications established by section 1 of the Office of Communications Act 2002.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause inserts a new power for the Secretary of State to make regulations (subject to the affirmative procedure) banning unsolicited direct marketing relating to pensions. If the power is not exercised by June, the Secretary of State must explain to Parliament why not. This new clause would be inserted after Clause 24.

As Amendments to Secretary Esther McVey’s proposed New Clause (Unsolicited direct marketing: pensions) (NC3):—

Stephen Lloyd

- Line 2, leave out “may” and insert “must” (a)

Frank Field

- Line 3, after “pensions” insert “and prohibiting the use for commercial purposes of information obtained by means of such direct marketing” (b)

Frank Field

- Line 8, leave out “and on Ofcom” and insert “, on Ofcom and on the Financial Conduct Authority” (c)

Frank Field

- Line 12, after “(S.I. 2003/2426)” insert “or the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000” (d)

Member’s explanatory statement

Amendments (b), (c) and (d) to NC3 provide for the Financial Conduct Authority to have functions in respect of the ban on unsolicited direct marketing relating to pensions.

Financial Guidance and Claims Bill [Lords], continued

Secretary Esther McVey

NC4

To move the following Clause—

“Unsolicited direct marketing: other consumer financial products etc

- (1) The Secretary of State must keep under review whether a prohibition on unsolicited direct marketing in relation to consumer financial products and services other than pensions would be appropriate.
- (2) If the Secretary of State considers that such a prohibition would be appropriate, the Secretary of State may make regulations applying regulations made under section (Unsolicited direct marketing: pensions) to other consumer financial products and services (with or without modifications).
- (3) In considering whether to make such regulations, the Secretary of State must take into account any advice received from the single financial guidance body under section 3(7)(b)(ii) (consumer protection function: advice on effect on consumers of unsolicited direct marketing).
- (4) The regulations may—
  - (a) make different provision for different purposes;
  - (b) make different provision for different areas;
  - (c) make incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitional or saving provision.
- (5) Regulations under this section are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (6) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would give the Secretary of State the power to make regulations (subject to the affirmative procedure) banning unsolicited direct marketing in relation to consumer financial products and services other than pensions. It would come immediately after NC3.

NC1

To move the following Clause—

“High-cost credit: advice to the Financial Conduct Authority

- (1) In exercising its functions the single financial guidance body must have regard to the effect of high-cost credit card lending on consumer protection and must produce and publish an annual assessment of any consumer detriment.
- (2) The assessment under subsection (1) shall in particular consider—
  - (a) what level of interest and fees constitute a high-cost credit card;
  - (b) information provided by high-cost credit card providers to customers, and whether such information allows customers to make informed financial decisions;
  - (c) the impact of high-cost credit lending on levels of personal debt, as well as any other factors that the single financial guidance body considers relevant.

- (3) If the single financial guidance body considers it to be necessary for consumer protection it must advise the Financial Conduct Authority to impose a limit on the cost of specified types of credit.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause would require the single financial guidance body to consider the effect of high-cost lending using credit cards on consumer protection and produce an annual assessment of any consumer detriment from such high-cost lending.

Jack Dromey
Debbie Abrahams
Mike Amesbury
Vicky Foxcroft

NC2

To move the following Clause—

“Specific requirements as to the pensions guidance function: mid life reviews

- (1) As part of its pensions guidance and money guidance functions, the single financial guidance body must provide targeted information and guidance for members of the public from the age of 50 to help them make decisions on their financial affairs.
- (2) In particular, the information and guidance in subsection (1) shall include information and guidance on—
- (a) increasing pension contributions in preparation for retirement,
  - (b) saving money in preparation for retirement, and
  - (c) career development and the impact of career development on financial matters including preparation for retirement.”

Member's explanatory statement

This new clause provides for the single financial guidance body to provide guidance to members of the public over the age of 50, to prepare them for retirement. These “mid life reviews” would provide guidance on pensions, savings, and career development.

Jack Dromey
Debbie Abrahams
Mike Amesbury
Vicky Foxcroft

NC6

To move the following Clause—

“Regulatory principles to be applied in respect of claims management services—

- (1) The FCA may make recommendations to the Secretary of State on regulatory principles to be applied to claims management services.
- (2) The matters on which the FCA may make recommendations include, in relation to claims management services—
- (a) the duties of authorised persons to act honestly, fairly and professionally in accordance with the best interests of consumers;

- (b) the duties of authorised persons to manage conflicts of interest fairly, both between themselves and their clients, and between clients;
  - (c) other duties of authorised persons related to a duty of care towards their clients.
- (3) If the FCA recommends that regulatory principles be applied to claims management services, the Secretary of State may by regulations impose such principles.
  - (4) The power to make regulations under subsection (3) is exercisable by statutory instrument; and an instrument containing such regulations is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
  - (5) In this section, “authorised person” has the same meaning as in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, and “authorised persons” shall be construed accordingly.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would allow the FCA to recommend that the Secretary of State introduces a duty of care which would require claims management services to act with the best interests of the customers in mind.

---

Stephen Lloyd

NC7

To move the following Clause—

“Assessment of public preparedness for income shocks

- (1) As part of its strategic function, the single financial guidance body must from time to time publish an assessment of the ability of members of the public to plan for and address sudden reductions in income.
- (2) An assessment under this section must consider the impact of the work of the single financial guidance body on the ability of members of the public to plan for and address sudden reductions in income.
- (3) The Secretary of State must lay before the House of Commons any assessment conducted under this section as soon as practicable after its completion.”

Steve McCabe

NC8

To move the following Clause—

“Ban on unsolicited real-time direct approaches by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of companies carrying out claims management services and a ban on the use by claims management companies of data obtained by such methods

- (1) The FCA must, as soon as they take responsibility for claim management companies, introduce bans on—
  - (a) unsolicited real-time direct approaches to members of the public carried out by whatever means, digital or otherwise, by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of companies carrying out claims management services or their agents or representatives, and

- (b) the use for any purpose of any data by companies carrying out claims management services, their agents or representatives where they cannot demonstrate to the satisfaction of the FCA that this data does not arise from any unsolicited real-time direct approach to members of the public carried out by whatever means, digital or otherwise.
- (2) The FCA must fix the appropriate penalties for breaches of subsection (1)(a) and (b) above.”

Clause 2, page 2, line 17, at end insert—

“including information about the services offered by credit unions,”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment adds to the objectives of the single financial guidance body the requirement to provide information about credit unions.

Neil Gray

39

Clause 2, page 2, line 23, leave out from “accordingly” to the end of line 24 and insert—

“(da) to ensure the needs of people in vulnerable circumstances, including but not exclusively—

- (i) those who suffer long-term sickness or disability,
- (ii) carers,
- (iii) those on low incomes, and
- (iv) recipients of benefits, are met and that resources are allocated in such a way as to allow specially trained advisers and guidance to be made available to them,”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require that specially trained advisers and guidance are made available to people in vulnerable circumstances and would provide an indicative list of what vulnerable circumstances should include.

Neil Gray

40

Clause 2, page 2, line 36, at end insert—

“(4) The single financial guidance body must ensure it communicates to consumers using its services the difference between—

- (a) provision of information,
- (b) provision of guidance,
- (c) provision of advice.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would require the new body to ensure that consumers are made aware of the differences between ‘information’, ‘guidance’ and ‘advice’ so that they can specify what type of services they require from the new body.

Stella Creasy

Clause 3, page 3, line 5, at end insert—

“(c) advice to the Financial Conduct Authority on matters relating to high-cost credit”

Crispin Blunt

Clause 3, page 3, line 16, at end insert—

“(6A) As part of its money guidance function, the single financial guidance body must make available financial guidance on the use of alternative sources of retirement income, including housing wealth, to enable members of the public to make fully informed decisions about pensions and retirement income.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment would place a duty on the single financial guidance body to make available guidance on alternative sources of retirement income, such as equity release. This will provide a pathway for members of the public to consider their wider assets, particularly their housing wealth, to make effective decisions about their retirement income.

Clause 3, page 3, line 17, leave out subsection (7) and insert—

“(7) The consumer protection function is—

- (a) to notify the FCA where, in the exercise of its other functions, the single financial guidance body becomes aware of practices carried out by FCA-regulated persons (within the meaning of section 139A of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) which it considers to be detrimental to consumers, and
- (b) to consider the effect of unsolicited direct marketing on consumers of financial products and services, and, in particular—
  - (i) from time to time publish an assessment of whether unsolicited direct marketing is, or may be, having a detrimental effect on consumers, and
  - (ii) advise the Secretary of State whether to make regulations under section (Unsolicited direct marketing: other consumer financial 15 products etc) (unsolicited direct marketing: other consumer financial products etc).”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment makes changes to the consumer protection function to make it clearer exactly what it entails.

As an Amendment to Secretary Esther McVey’s proposed Amendment (No. 10):—

Stephen Lloyd

Line 9, leave out “from time to time” and insert “at least once every two years” (a)

Clause 3, page 3, line 39, at end insert—

“(11) In carrying out its strategic and other functions the single financial guidance body must make and publish an annual assessment of the level of different types of lending across the United Kingdom by district.

(12) The types of lending covered by the assessment in subsection (11) should include—

- (a) high cost short term credit,
- (b) hire purchase agreements,
- (c) conditional sale agreements,
- (d) open ended credit,
- (e) other secured lending, and

---

(f) other unsecured lending.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment requires the single financial guidance body to carry out an annual assessment of the level of different types of lending in different geographical areas across the United Kingdom.

Secretary Esther McVey

11

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment removes the clause on cold-calling (inserted by the Lords). NC3 and NC4 instead provide a power for the Secretary of State to make regulations banning unsolicited direct marketing relating to pensions and other consumer financial products and services.

Clause 4, page 4, line 2, at end insert—

“(2A) The single financial guidance body must, within 12 months of the passing of this Act, advise the Secretary of State on how to most effectively implement bans on—

- (a) cold-calling on behalf of, or for the benefit of companies carrying out claims management services or their agents or representatives, and
- (b) the commercial use of any data by companies carrying out claims management services, their agents or representatives where they cannot demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State that this data was not obtained by cold-calling.

(2B) In this section “claims management services” has the same meaning as in section 419A of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment will require the Secretary of State to specifically ban cold-calling and the commercial use of data from cold-calling by claims management companies, in addition to any bans recommended by the single financial guidance body.

42

Clause 10, page 7, line 22, at end insert “and to whether the standards are proportionate”.

Member’s explanatory statement

Probing amendment. The SFGB’s standards setting powers also need to be matched with principles of good regulation, ensuring that conditions are proportionate to the benefits they are expected to bring. This would bring the Bill (impacting charities) into line standards setting and enforcement powers granted to other bodies (impacting firms) such as those granted to the FCA.

Clause 18, page 14, line 17, after “where” insert “—

- (i) the disclosure is for the purpose of enabling or facilitating the exercise of the consumer protection function, or
- (ii) ”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential upon Amendment 10, which makes changes to the consumer protection function, including requiring the SFGB to pass information to the FCA in certain circumstances. This amendment ensures that disclosure of information in these circumstances is protected by subsection (7) of Clause 18.

Secretary Esther McVey

13

Clause 19, page 14, line 40, leave out from beginning to end of line 8 on page 15 and insert—

- “(1B) As part of the application process, the trustees or managers must ensure that—
- (a) the member or survivor is referred to appropriate pensions guidance, and
  - (b) the member or survivor is provided with an explanation of the nature and purpose of such guidance.

- 5            (1C) Before proceeding with the application, the trustees or managers must ensure that the member or survivor has either received appropriate pensions guidance or has opted out of receiving such guidance.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment will enable FCA rules to require trustees of a personal pension scheme who receive an application from a member to access or transfer their pension to refer them to SFGB guidance and explain its nature and purpose (or ensure that another person, such as the SFGB, does so) and will prevent them from proceeding unless the member confirms that they have received guidance or do not want it.

As Amendments to Secretary Esther McVey’s proposed Amendment (No. 13):—

Frank Field

Line 2, after “appropriate” insert “independent and impartial” (a)

Frank Field

Line 6, after “appropriate” insert “independent and impartial” (b)

Frank Field

Line 6, leave out from second “or” to end of line 7 and insert “has indicated to the provider of appropriate independent and impartial pensions guidance the desire to opt out of receiving such guidance.” (c)

Member’s explanatory statement

Amendments (a), (b) and (c) to amendment 13 specify on the face of the Bill that the provider of the appropriate pensions guidance should be independent and impartial, and that any desire to opt-out of guidance must be indicated to this independent and impartial guidance provider.

Secretary Esther McVey

Clause 19, page 15, line 10, leave out from “guidance” to end of line 11 14

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment (and Amendment 13) removes references to independent financial advice from Clause 19, so that it refers only to pensions guidance given by the SFGB in pursuance of Clause 5 of the Bill.

Secretary Esther McVey

Clause 19, page 15, line 14, at end insert— 15

“( ) make further provision about how, and to whom, a member or survivor may indicate that they have received or opted out of receiving appropriate pensions guidance for the purposes of subsection (1C);”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment expressly envisages the rules making provision about how the opt-out (or confirmation of receipt of guidance) mentioned in the new subsection (1C) inserted by Amendment 13 must be expressed in order to be effective.

As an Amendment to Secretary Esther McVey’s proposed Amendment (No. 15):—

Frank Field

Line 2, leave out from “received” to end of line 3 and insert “appropriate independent and impartial pensions guidance, or have indicated to the provider of this guidance that they wish to opt out, for the purposes of subsection (1C);” (a)

Secretary Esther McVey

Clause 19, page 15, leave out line 17 and insert “communication that is made for the 16 purposes of complying with the duty in subsection (1C)”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is consequential on the changes to the duties on trustees made by Amendment 13.

Secretary Esther McVey

17

Clause 20, page 16, line 10, leave out from beginning to end of line 23 and insert—

“(2) As part of the application process, the trustees or managers must ensure that—

(a) the beneficiary is referred to appropriate pensions guidance, and

(b) the beneficiary is provided with an explanation of the nature and purpose of such guidance.

5 (3) Before proceeding with the application, the trustees or managers must ensure that the beneficiary has either received appropriate pensions guidance or has opted out of receiving such guidance.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment makes equivalent changes to Clause 20(2), which relates to occupational pension schemes in Great Britain, to the changes made by Amendment 13 for personal pension schemes.

As Amendments to Secretary Esther McVey’s proposed Amendment (No. 17):—

Frank Field

Line 2, after “appropriate” insert “independent and impartial”

(a)

Frank Field

Line 6, after “appropriate” insert “independent and impartial”

(b)

Frank Field

Line 6, leave out from “or” to end of line and insert “has indicated to the provider of appropriate independent and impartial pensions guidance the desire to opt out of receiving such guidance.”

(c)

Member’s explanatory statement

Amendments (a), (b) and (c) to Amendment 17 specify on the face of the Bill that the provider of the appropriate pensions guidance should be independent and impartial, and that any desire to opt-out of guidance must be indicated to this independent and impartial guidance provider.

Secretary Esther McVey

Clause 20, page 16, line 25, leave out from “guidance” to end of line 26

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is the equivalent to Amendment 14 for occupational pension schemes in Great Britain.

Secretary Esther McVey

19

Clause 20, page 16, line 29, at end insert—

“( ) make further provision about how, and to whom, a beneficiary may indicate that they have received or opted out of receiving appropriate pensions guidance for the purposes of subsection (3);”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is the equivalent to Amendment 15 for occupational pension schemes in Great Britain.

As an Amendment to Secretary Esther McVey’s proposed Amendment (No. 19):—

Frank Field

Line 2, leave out from “received” to end of line 3 and insert “appropriate independent and impartial pensions guidance, or have indicated to the provider of this guidance that they wish to opt out, for the purposes of subsection (3);”

Secretary Esther McVey

20

Clause 20, page 16, line 31, leave out from second “a” to end of line 32 and insert “communication that is made for the purposes of complying with the duty in subsection (3)”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is the equivalent to Amendment 16 for occupational pension schemes in Great Britain.

Secretary Esther McVey

21

Clause 20, page 17, line 27, leave out from beginning to end of line 40 and insert—

“(2) As part of the application process, the trustees or managers must ensure that—
 (a) the beneficiary is referred to appropriate pensions guidance, and
 (b) the beneficiary is provided with an explanation of the nature and purpose of such guidance.

5 (3) Before proceeding with the application, the trustees or managers must ensure that the beneficiary has either received appropriate pensions guidance or has opted out of receiving such guidance.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment makes equivalent changes to Amendments 13 and 17 for occupational pension schemes in Northern Ireland.

As Amendments to Secretary Esther McVey’s proposed Amendment (No. 21):—

Frank Field

(a)

Line 2, after “appropriate” insert “independent and impartial”

Frank Field

(b)

Line 6, after “appropriate” insert “independent and impartial”

---

Frank Field

(c)

Line 6, leave out from “or” to end of line and insert “has indicated to the provider of appropriate independent and impartial pensions guidance the desire to opt out”

Member’s explanatory statement

Amendments (a), (b) and (c) to Amendment 21 specify on the face of the Bill that the provider of the appropriate pensions guidance should be independent and impartial, and that any desire to opt-out of guidance must be indicated to this independent and impartial guidance provider.

Secretary Esther McVey

Clause 20, page 17, line 42, leave out from “guidance” to end of line 43

22

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is the equivalent to Amendments 14 and 18 for occupational pension schemes in Northern Ireland.

Secretary Esther McVey

23

“( ) make further provision about how, and to whom, a beneficiary may indicate that they have received or opted out of receiving appropriate pensions guidance for the purposes of subsection (3);”

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is the equivalent to Amendments 15 and 19 for occupational pension schemes in Northern Ireland.

As an Amendment to Secretary Esther McVey’s proposed Amendment (No. 23):—

Frank Field

Line 2, leave out from “received” to end of line 3 and insert “appropriate independent and impartial pensions guidance, or have indicated to the provider of this guidance that they wish to opt out, for the purposes of subsection (3);”

Secretary Esther McVey

Clause 20, page 18, line 2, leave out from second “a” to end of line 3 and insert “communication that is made for the purposes of complying with the duty in subsection (3)”

24

Member’s explanatory statement

This amendment is the equivalent to Amendments 16 and 20 for occupational pension schemes in Northern Ireland.

Secretary Esther McVey

25

Clause 25, page 21, line 2, at end insert—

“the “consumer protection function” has the meaning given in section 3(7);”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment inserts a definition of “the consumer protection function” into the interpretation clause, which will be necessary following the amendment to Clause 18 made by Amendment 12, which refers to the consumer protection function.

Secretary Esther McVey

26

Clause 25, page 21, line 7, at end insert—

““direct marketing” means the communication (by whatever means) of advertising or marketing material which is directed to particular individuals;”

Member's explanatory statement

This amendment inserts a definition of “direct marketing” into the interpretation clause (using the definition in data protection legislation), which is a term used in the consumer protection function (see Amendment 10) and in NC3 and NC4.
