To move the following Clause—

“Periodic reports on exercise of power to make regulations under section 1

- (1) The Secretary of State must as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each reporting period lay before Parliament a report which—

- (a) specifies the regulations under section 1, if any, that were made in that reporting period,
 - (b) identifies which, if any, of those regulations—
 - (i) stated a relevant human rights purpose, or
 - (ii) amended or revoked regulations stating such a purpose,
 - (c) specifies any recommendations which in that reporting period were made by a Parliamentary Committee in connection with a relevant independent review, and
 - (d) includes a copy of any response to those recommendations which was made by the government to that Committee in that reporting period.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1)(d) requires a report under this section to contain anything the disclosure of which may, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, damage national security or international relations.
- (3) For the purposes of this section the following are reporting periods—
- (a) the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed (“the first reporting period”), and
 - (b) each period of 12 months that ends with an anniversary of the date when the first reporting period ends.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) regulations “state” a purpose if the purpose is stated under section 1(3) in the regulations;
 - (b) a purpose is a “relevant human rights purpose” if, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, carrying out that purpose would provide accountability for or be a deterrent to gross violations of human rights.
- (5) In this section—
- “the government” means the government of the United Kingdom;
 - “gross violation of human rights” has the meaning given by section 1(6A);
 - a “Parliamentary Committee” means a committee of the House of Commons or a committee of the House of Lords or a joint committee of both Houses;
 - a “relevant independent review”, in relation to a Parliamentary Committee, means a consideration by that Committee of whether the power to make regulations under section 1 should be exercised in connection with a gross violation of human rights.”

- ★ To move the following Clause—

“Reports on public registration of beneficial ownership in certain territories

- (1) The Secretary of State must, after the end of each reporting period, publish a report—
- (a) explaining in respect of each relevant territory what engagement took place in that reporting period between—
 - (i) the government of the United Kingdom, and
 - (ii) the government of that territory,
 on the subject of introducing in that territory a system of public registers of beneficial ownership of companies, and

- (b) noting any international standards (including in particular Standards published by the Financial Action Task Force) to which the government of the United Kingdom has had regard in any such engagement.
- (2) Where a system of public registers of beneficial ownership of companies has been introduced in a relevant territory—
 - (a) the report under subsection (1) relating to the reporting period in which the system was introduced must note that it has been introduced, and
 - (b) the duty in that subsection does not subsequently apply in respect of that territory.
- (3) Where a report is published under subsection (1) the Secretary of State must lay a copy of it before Parliament.
- (4) For the purposes of this section the following are reporting periods—
 - (a) the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed (“the first reporting period”), and
 - (b) each period of 12 months that ends with an anniversary of the date when the first reporting period ends.
- (5) For the purposes of this section the following are relevant territories—
 - any of the Channel Islands;
 - the Isle of Man;
 - Anguilla;
 - Bermuda;
 - Cayman Islands;
 - Gibraltar;
 - Montserrat;
 - Turks and Caicos Islands;
 - Virgin Islands.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, a system of public registers of beneficial ownership of companies has been introduced in a relevant territory when the law of that territory includes public registration provision which is in force.
- (7) In this section “public registration provision” means provision which in the opinion of the Secretary of State broadly corresponds to Part 21A of the Companies Act 2006 (information about people with significant control).
- (8) The reference in subsection (7) to Part 21A of the Companies Act 2006 includes any regulations made under that Part.”

★ To move the following Clause—

“Provision about introducing public registration of beneficial ownership in certain territories

- (1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council—
 - (a) provide for any provisions of or made under Part 21A of the Companies Act 2006 (information about people with significant control) to extend to a relevant overseas territory, with or without modifications, or

- (b) make public registration provision for a relevant overseas territory, if the territory is one in which a system of public registers of beneficial ownership of companies has not been introduced before the date the Order in Council is made.
- (2) No recommendation may be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order under this section unless a draft of the Order has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (3) If—
- (a) the Financial Action Task Force publishes a Standard which recommends that its members have publicly accessible registers of beneficial ownership of companies, and
 - (b) a system of public registers of beneficial ownership of companies has not been introduced in a particular relevant overseas territory by the relevant time,
- the Secretary of State must prepare a draft of an Order in Council under this section which relates to that territory.
- (4) In subsection (3) “the relevant time”, in relation to a territory, means the earliest time following the publication of the Standard by which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, it would have been practicable for a system of public registers of beneficial ownership of companies to have been introduced in that territory.
- (5) An Order in Council under subsection (1)—
- (a) may include supplemental, incidental, consequential and transitional provision, and
 - (b) in particular, may provide for relevant provisions to prevail in the case of any inconsistency between such provisions and any other provision in the law of the territory to which they relate.
- (6) In subsection (5) “relevant provision” means a provision of or made under the Order, or a provision as extended by the Order to a territory.
- (7) In this section “relevant overseas territory” means a British overseas territory which is mentioned in section (Reports on public registration of beneficial ownership in certain territories)(5).
- (8) In this section the following have the same meaning as they have in section (Reports on public registration of beneficial ownership in certain territories) (see subsections (6) to (8) of that section)—
- (a) “public registration provision”;
 - (b) references to introducing a system of public registers of beneficial ownership of companies.
- (9) Nothing in section 56(1) (provision about extent) is to be taken to limit the extent of any power in this section.
- (10) Nothing in this section affects any power to make an Order in Council in relation to a relevant overseas territory that Her Majesty has apart from this section.”

★ To move the following Clause—

“Independent review relating to certain territories

- (1) The Secretary of State must appoint an independent person to carry out a review of what the likely effects would be if provision broadly corresponding to UK public registration law were in force in each of the relevant territories.
- (2) A review under this section must in particular include a consideration of the likely effects of such provision on the prevention, detection and investigation of money laundering.
- (3) The person who conducts a review under this section must as soon as reasonably practicable after completing the review send a report on its outcome to the Secretary of State.
- (4) On receiving a report under this section the Secretary of State must lay a copy of it before Parliament.
- (5) The Secretary of State may pay the expenses of a person who conducts a review under this section and also such allowances as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (6) In this section—
 - “relevant territory” has the same meaning as in section (Reports on public registration of beneficial ownership in certain territories);
 - “UK public registration law” means Part 21A of the Companies Act 2006 (information about people with significant control), including any regulations made under that Part.”

To move the following Clause—

“Public registers of beneficial ownership of companies registered in British Overseas Territories

- (1) For the purposes of the detection, investigation or prevention of money laundering, the Secretary of State must provide all reasonable assistance to the governments of the British Overseas Territories to enable each of those governments to establish a publicly accessible register of the beneficial ownership of companies registered in each government’s jurisdiction.
- (2) The Secretary of State must, no later than 31 December 2020, prepare a draft Order in Council requiring the government of any British Overseas Territory that has not introduced a publicly accessible register of the beneficial ownership of companies within its jurisdiction to do so.
- (3) The draft Order in Council under subsection (2) must set out the form that the register must take.
- (4) If an Order in Council contains requirements of a kind mentioned in subsection (2)—

- (a) it must be laid before Parliament after being made, and
 - (b) if not approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament before the end of 28 days beginning with the day on which it is made, it ceases to have effect at the end of that period (but without that affecting the power to make a new Order under this section).
- (5) In calculating a period of 28 days for the purposes of subsection (4), no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, “British Overseas Territories” means a territory listed in Schedule 6 of the British Nationality Act 1981.
- (7) For the purposes of this section, “a publicly accessible register of the beneficial ownership of companies” means a register which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, provides information broadly equivalent to that available in accordance with the provisions of Part 21A of the Companies Act 2006.”

To move the following Clause—

“Public registers of beneficial ownership of companies in the Crown Dependencies

- (1) For the purpose of preventing money laundering, the Secretary of State must provide all reasonable assistance to the governments of the Crown Dependencies to enable each of those governments to establish a publicly accessible register of the beneficial ownership of companies registered in that government’s jurisdiction.
- (2) The Secretary of State must, by the deadline set for the implementation of the European Union’s 5th Anti-Money Laundering Directive, prepare a draft Order in Council requiring the government of any Crown Dependency that has not introduced a publicly accessible register of beneficial ownership of companies within their jurisdiction to do so.
- (3) The draft Order in Council under subsection (2)—
 - (a) must be laid before Parliament after being made, and
 - (b) if not approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament before the end of the 28 days beginning with the day on which it is made, ceases to have effect at the end of that period (but without that affecting the power to make a new Order).
- (4) In calculating a period of 28 days for the purposes of subsection (4), no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a “publicly accessible register of beneficial ownership of companies” means a register which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, provides information broadly equivalent to that available in accordance with the provisions of Part 21A of the Companies Act 2006 (information about people with significant control).
- (6) For the purposes of this section, “Crown Dependency” means—

To move the following Clause—

“Independent review of regulations with counter-terrorism purpose

- (1) The Secretary of State must appoint a person to review the operation of such asset-freeze provisions of relevant regulations made by the Secretary of State as the Secretary of State may from time to time refer to that person.
- (2) The Treasury must appoint a person to review the operation of such asset-freeze provisions of relevant regulations made by the Treasury as the Treasury may from time to time refer to that person.
- (3) The persons appointed under subsection (1) and (2) may be the same person.
- (4) In each calendar year, by 31 January—
 - (a) the person appointed under subsection (1) must notify the Secretary of State of what (if any) reviews under that subsection that person intends to carry out in that year, and

- (b) the person appointed under subsection (2) must notify the Treasury of what (if any) reviews under that subsection that person intends to carry out in that year.
- (5) Reviews of which notice is given under subsection (4) in a particular year—
 - (a) may not relate to any provisions that have not been referred before the giving of the notice, and
 - (b) must be completed during that year or as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of it.
- (6) The person who conducts a review under this section must as soon as reasonably practicable after completing the review send a report on its outcome to—
 - (a) the Secretary of State, if the review is under subsection (1), or
 - (b) the Treasury, if the review is under subsection (2).
- (7) On receiving a report under this section the Secretary of State or (as the case may be) the Treasury must lay a copy of it before Parliament.
- (8) The Secretary of State may pay the expenses of a person who conducts a review under subsection (1) and also such allowances as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (9) The Treasury may pay the expenses of a person who conducts a review under subsection (2) and also such allowances as the Treasury may determine.
- (10) For the purposes of this section, regulations are “relevant regulations” if—
 - (a) they are regulations under section 1, and
 - (b) they state under section 1(3) at least one purpose which—
 - (i) is not compliance with a UN obligation or other international obligation, and
 - (ii) relates to counter-terrorism.
- (11) A purpose “relates to counter-terrorism” if the report under section 2 in respect of the regulations indicated that, in the opinion of the appropriate Minister making them, the carrying out of that purpose would further the prevention of terrorism in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.
- (12) For the purposes of this section a provision of relevant regulations is an “asset-freeze provision” if and to the extent that it—
 - (a) imposes a prohibition or requirement for a purpose mentioned in section 3(1)(a), (b) or (d), or
 - (b) makes provision in connection with such a prohibition or requirement.
- (13) If a provision is referred under this section which contains a designation power, any review under this section of the operation of that provision may not include a review of any decisions to designate under that power.”

Sir Alan Duncan

Added NC5

To move the following Clause—

“Retained EU rights

- (1) If and to the extent that anything in the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 would, in the absence of this section, prevent any power within subsection (2) from being exercised so as to modify anything which is retained EU law by virtue of section 4 of that Act (saving for certain rights etc), it does not prevent that power from being so exercised.

- (2) The following powers fall within this subsection—
 - (a) any power conferred by this Act, or by regulations under this Act, on a Minister of the Crown within the meaning of the Ministers of the Crown Act 1975 (however that power is expressed);
 - (b) any power conferred by regulations under Schedule 2 on a supervisory authority.
 - (3) In this section “modify” has the same meaning as in the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.”

Sir Alan Duncan

Added NC15

To move the following Clause—

“Enforcement: goods etc on ships

- (1) The provision that may be made by virtue of section 17(2) (enforcement of prohibitions or requirements) includes provision as to the powers and duties of prescribed persons in relation to—
 - (a) British ships in foreign waters or international waters,
 - (b) ships without nationality in international waters, and
 - (c) foreign ships in international waters.
- (2) Regulations may make provision by virtue of this section only for the purpose of enforcing relevant prohibitions or requirements.
- (3) A prohibition or requirement is a “relevant prohibition or requirement” for the purposes of this section if it is—
 - (a) a prohibition or requirement specified by the regulations which is imposed by regulations for a purpose mentioned in any of paragraphs 2 to 7, 15(a), (b) or (c) or 16(a) of Schedule 1, or
 - (b) a prohibition or requirement imposed by a condition of a licence or direction issued by virtue of section 15 in relation to a prohibition or requirement mentioned in paragraph (a).
- (4) The powers that may be conferred by virtue of this section include powers to—
 - (a) stop a ship;
 - (b) board a ship;
 - (c) require any person found on a ship boarded by virtue of this section to provide information or produce documents;
 - (d) inspect and copy such documents or information;
 - (e) stop any person found on such a ship and search that person for—
 - (i) prohibited goods, or
 - (ii) any thing that might be used to cause physical injury or damage to property or to endanger the safety of any ship;
 - (f) search a ship boarded by virtue of this section, or any thing found on such a ship (including cargo), for prohibited goods;
 - (g) seize goods found on a ship, in any thing found on a ship, or on any person found on a ship (but see subsection (8));
 - (h) for the purpose of exercising a power mentioned in paragraph (e), (f) or (g), require a ship to be taken to, and remain in, a port or anchorage in the United Kingdom or any other country willing to receive it.

- (5) Regulations that confer a power mentioned in subsection (4)(a) to (f) or (h) must provide that a person may not exercise the power in relation to a ship unless the person has reasonable grounds to suspect that the ship is carrying prohibited goods (and the regulations need not require the person to have reasonable grounds to suspect that an offence is being or has been committed).
- (6) Regulations that confer a power mentioned in subsection (4)(e)(i) or (f) must provide that the power may be exercised only to the extent reasonably required for the purpose of discovering prohibited goods.
- (7) Regulations that confer a power mentioned in subsection (4)(e)(ii) on a person (“the officer”) may permit the search of a person only where the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that that person might use a thing in a way mentioned in subsection (4)(e)(ii).
- (8) Regulations that confer a power mentioned in subsection (4)(g) on a person—
 - (a) must provide for the power to be exercisable on a ship only where that person is lawfully on the ship (whether in exercise of powers conferred by virtue of this section or otherwise), and
 - (b) may permit the seizure only of—
 - (i) goods which that person has reasonable grounds to suspect are prohibited goods, or
 - (ii) things within subsection (4)(e)(ii).
- (9) Regulations that confer a power on a person by virtue of this section may authorise that person to use reasonable force, if necessary, in the exercise of the power.
- (10) Regulations that confer a power by virtue of this section must provide that—
 - (a) the power may be exercised in relation to a British ship in foreign waters only with the authority of the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) in relation to foreign waters other than the sea and other waters within the seaward limits of the territorial sea adjacent to any relevant British possession, the Secretary of State may give authority only if the State in whose waters the power would be exercised consents to the exercise of the power.
- (11) Regulations that confer a power by virtue of this section must provide that—
 - (a) the power may be exercised in relation to a foreign ship only with the authority of the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) the Secretary of State may give authority only if—
 - (i) the home state has requested the assistance of the United Kingdom for the purpose of enforcing relevant prohibitions or requirements,
 - (ii) the home state has authorised the United Kingdom to act for that purpose, or
 - (iii) the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea 1982 (Cmnd 8941) or a UN Security Council Resolution otherwise permits the exercise of the powers in relation to the ship.
- (12) The reference in subsection (11) to the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea includes a reference to any modifications of that Convention agreed after the passing of this Act that have entered into force in relation to the United Kingdom.
- (13) In this section—

“arrangements” includes any agreement, understanding, scheme, transaction or series of transactions (whether or not legally enforceable);

“British ship” means a ship falling within paragraph (a), (c), (d) or (e) of section 7(12);

“foreign ship” means a ship which—

- (a) is registered in a State other than the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) is not so registered but is entitled to fly the flag of a State other than the United Kingdom;
- “foreign waters” means the sea and other waters within the seaward limits of the territorial sea adjacent to any relevant British possession or State other than the United Kingdom;
- “goods” includes technology within the meaning of Schedule 1 (see paragraph 36 of that Schedule);
- “home state”, in relation to a foreign ship, means—
- (a) the State in which the ship is registered, or
 - (b) the State whose flag the ship is otherwise entitled to fly;
- “international waters” means waters beyond the territorial sea of the United Kingdom or of any other State or relevant British possession;
- “prohibited goods” means goods which have been, or are being, dealt with in contravention of a relevant prohibition or requirement (see subsection (3));
- “regulations” means regulations under section 1;
- “relevant British possession” has the same meaning as in section 7 (see subsection (14) of that section);
- “ship” has the same meaning as in section 7 (see subsection (14) of that section);
- “ship without nationality” means a ship which—
- (a) is not registered in, or otherwise entitled to fly the flag of, any State or relevant British possession, or
 - (b) sails under the flags of two or more States or relevant British possessions, or under the flags of a State and relevant British possession, using them according to convenience.
- (14) In the definition of “prohibited goods” in subsection (13), the reference to goods dealt with in contravention of a relevant prohibition or requirement includes a reference to a case where—
- (a) arrangements relating to goods have been entered into that have not been fully implemented, and
 - (b) if those arrangements were to be fully implemented, the goods would be dealt with in contravention of that prohibition or requirement.”

 - (iii) foreign ships in international waters,
 - (b) for the purpose of—

- (i) investigating the suspected carriage of relevant goods on such ships, or
 - (ii) preventing the continued carriage on such ships of goods suspected to be relevant goods.
- (2) The powers that may be conferred by virtue of this section include powers to—
 - (a) stop a ship;
 - (b) board a ship;
 - (c) require any person found on a ship boarded by virtue of this section to provide information or produce documents;
 - (d) inspect and copy such documents or information;
 - (e) stop any person found on such a ship and search that person for—
 - (i) relevant goods, or
 - (ii) any thing that might be used to cause physical injury or damage to property or to endanger the safety of any ship;
 - (f) search a ship boarded by virtue of this section, or any thing found on such a ship (including cargo), for relevant goods;
 - (g) seize goods found on a ship, in any thing found on a ship, or on any person found on a ship (but see subsection (6));
 - (h) for the purpose of exercising a power mentioned in paragraph (e), (f) or (g), require a ship to be taken to, and remain in, a port or anchorage in the United Kingdom or any other country willing to receive it.
- (3) Regulations that confer a power mentioned in subsection (2)(a) to (f) or (h) must provide that a person may not exercise the power in relation to a ship unless the person has reasonable grounds to suspect that the ship is carrying relevant goods.
- (4) Regulations that confer a power mentioned in subsection (2)(e)(i) or (f) must provide that the power may be exercised only to the extent reasonably required for the purpose of discovering relevant goods.
- (5) Regulations that confer a power mentioned in subsection (2)(e)(ii) on a person (“the officer”) may permit the search of a person only where the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that that person might use a thing in a way mentioned in subsection (2)(e)(ii).
- (6) Regulations that confer a power mentioned in subsection (2)(g) on a person—
 - (a) must provide for the power to be exercisable on a ship only where that person is lawfully on the ship (whether in exercise of powers conferred by virtue of this section or otherwise), and
 - (b) may permit the seizure only of—
 - (i) goods which that person has reasonable grounds to suspect are relevant goods, or
 - (ii) things within subsection (2)(e)(ii).
- (7) Regulations that confer a power on a person by virtue of this section may authorise that person to use reasonable force, if necessary, in the exercise of the power.
- (8) Regulations that confer a power by virtue of this section must provide that—
 - (a) the power may be exercised in relation to a British ship in foreign waters only with the authority of the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) in relation to foreign waters other than the sea and other waters within the seaward limits of the territorial sea adjacent to any relevant British possession, the Secretary of State may give authority only if the State in whose waters the power would be exercised consents to the exercise of the power.
- (9) Regulations that confer a power by virtue of this section must provide that—

- (a) the power may be exercised in relation to a foreign ship only with the authority of the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) the Secretary of State may give authority only if—
 - (i) the home state has requested the assistance of the United Kingdom for a purpose mentioned in subsection (1)(b),
 - (ii) the home state has authorised the United Kingdom to act for such a purpose, or
 - (iii) the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea 1982 (Cmnd 8941) or a UN Security Council Resolution otherwise permits the exercise of the powers in relation to the ship.
- (10) The reference in subsection (9) to the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea includes a reference to any modifications of that Convention agreed after the passing of this Act that have entered into force in relation to the United Kingdom.
- (11) In this section—
- “regulations” means regulations under section 1;
 - “relevant goods” means goods in relation to which relevant non-UK conduct is occurring or has occurred;
 - “relevant non-UK conduct” means conduct outside the United Kingdom by a person other than a United Kingdom person that would constitute a contravention of a relevant prohibition or requirement if the conduct had been—
 - (a) in the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) by a United Kingdom person;
 - “relevant prohibition or requirement” has the same meaning as in section (Enforcement: goods etc on ships) (see subsection (3) of that section);
 - “United Kingdom person” has the same meaning as in section 19 (see subsection (2) of that section).
- (12) In the definition of “relevant non-UK conduct” in subsection (11), the reference to conduct that would constitute a contravention of a relevant prohibition or requirement if the conduct had been in the United Kingdom or by a United Kingdom person includes a reference to a case where—
- (a) arrangements relating to goods have been entered into that have not been fully implemented, and
 - (b) if those arrangements were to be fully implemented (and if the conduct had been in the United Kingdom or by a United Kingdom person) the goods would be dealt with in contravention of that prohibition or requirement.
- (13) In this section, the following expressions have the same meaning as in section (Enforcement: goods etc on ships)—
- “arrangements”,
 - “British ship”,
 - “foreign ship”,
 - “foreign waters”,
 - “goods”,
 - “home state”,
 - “international waters”,

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about the procedure to be followed in connection with goods seized under a power conferred by regulations under section 1 by virtue of section (Enforcement: goods etc on ships) or (Goods etc on ships: non-UK conduct).
 - (2) Regulations under this section relating to goods seized on suspicion of being prohibited goods or relevant goods may include provision—
 - (a) requiring prescribed persons to be notified of the seizure of the goods;
 - (b) requiring the Secretary of State to determine whether the seized goods were, at the time of their seizure, prohibited goods (where the goods were seized under a power conferred by virtue of section (Enforcement: goods etc on ships)) or relevant goods (where the goods were seized under a power conferred by virtue of section (Goods etc on ships: non-UK conduct));
 - (c) enabling the making of a claim by prescribed persons in relation to the seized goods;
 - (d) about the determination by a prescribed court of any such claim;
 - (e) about the publicity to be given to any such determination by a court;
 - (f) for and about the return of seized goods to prescribed persons before or after any such determination of a claim by a court;
 - (g) about the treatment of seized goods not so returned (including, in prescribed circumstances, their destruction or sale);
 - (h) for and about the payment of compensation by the Secretary of State following a determination by a court that the goods were not, at the time of their seizure, prohibited goods (where the goods were seized under a power conferred by virtue of section (Enforcement: goods etc on ships)) or relevant goods (where the goods were seized under a power conferred by virtue of section (Goods etc on ships: non-UK conduct)).
 - (3) In this section—
