“( ) Any resolution considered by the House of Commons under subsection (5)(a) may include the option to hold a referendum on whether the United Kingdom should accept the outcome of negotiations between the Government and the EU under Article 50 (2) of the Treaty of European Union, or seek to remain in the EU by revoking the notification of withdrawal from the EU under Article 50.”

Secretary David Davis

To move, That this House disagrees with the Lords in their Amendment.

Secretary David Davis

To move the following Amendments to the Bill in lieu of the Lords Amendment:—

Secretary David Davis

(a) Page 8, line 43, at end insert the following Clause—

“Parliamentary approval of the outcome of negotiations with the EU

(1) The withdrawal agreement may be ratified only if—

(a) a Minister of the Crown has laid before each House of Parliament—

(i) a statement that political agreement has been reached,
(ii) a copy of the negotiated withdrawal agreement, and
(iii) a copy of the framework for the future relationship,

(b) the negotiated withdrawal agreement and the framework for the future relationship have been approved by a resolution of the House of Commons on a motion moved by a Minister of the Crown,

(c) a motion for the House of Lords to take note of the negotiated withdrawal agreement and the framework for the future relationship has been tabled in the House of Lords by a Minister of the Crown and—

(i) the House of Lords has debated the motion, or
(ii) the House of Lords has not concluded a debate on the motion before the end of the period of five sitting days beginning with the first sitting day after the day on which the House of Commons passes the resolution mentioned in paragraph (b), and

(d) an Act of Parliament has been passed which contains provision for the implementation of the withdrawal agreement.

(2) So far as practicable, a Minister of the Crown must make arrangements for the motion mentioned in subsection (1)(b) to be debated and voted on by the House of Commons before the European Parliament decides whether it consents to the withdrawal agreement being concluded on behalf of the EU in accordance with Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union.

(3) Subsection (4) applies if the House of Commons decides not to pass the resolution mentioned in subsection (1)(b).

(4) A Minister of the Crown must, within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the House of Commons decides not to pass the resolution, make a statement setting out how Her Majesty’s Government proposes to proceed in relation to negotiations for the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union.

(5) A statement under subsection (4) must be made in writing and be published in such manner as the Minister making it considers appropriate.

(6) This section does not affect the operation of Part 2 of the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010 (ratification of treaties) in relation to the withdrawal agreement.

(7) In this section—

“framework for the future relationship” means the document or documents identified, by the statement that political agreement has been reached, as reflecting the agreement in principle on the substance of the framework for the future relationship between the EU and the United Kingdom after withdrawal;

“negotiated withdrawal agreement” means the draft of the withdrawal agreement identified by the statement that political agreement has been reached;

“ratified”, in relation to the withdrawal agreement, has the same meaning as it does for the purposes of Part 2 of the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010 in relation to a treaty (see section 25 of that Act);

“sitting day” means a day on which the House of Lords is sitting (and a day is only a day on which the House of Lords is sitting if the House begins to sit on that day);

“statement that political agreement has been reached” means a statement made in writing by a Minister of the Crown which—

(a) states that, in the Minister’s opinion, an agreement in principle has been reached in negotiations under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union on the substance of—

(i) the arrangements for the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU, and

(ii) the framework for the future relationship between the EU and the United Kingdom after withdrawal,

(b) identifies a draft of the withdrawal agreement which, in the Minister’s opinion, reflects the agreement in principle so far as relating to the arrangements for withdrawal, and

(c) identifies one or more documents which, in the Minister’s opinion, reflect the agreement in principle so far as relating to the framework.”
European Union (Withdrawal) Bill, continued

As Amendments to Secretary David Davis’s proposed Amendment (a) in lieu of the Lords Amendment:

Mr Dominic Grieve

(i) Line 28, leave out “28” and insert “21”

Mr Dominic Grieve

(ii) Line 34, at end insert—

“(5A) Within seven days of a statement under subsection (4) being laid, a Minister of the Crown must move a motion in the House of Commons to seek approval of the Government’s approach.

(5B) In the event of no political agreement having been reached on a withdrawal agreement by the end of 30 November 2018, a Minister of the Crown must move a motion in the House of Commons setting out how the Government intends to proceed and seeking the approval of the House for that course of action.

(5C) If no political agreement has been reached on a withdrawal agreement by the end of 15 February 2019, the Government must bring the matter before both Houses of Parliament within five days and must follow any direction in relation to the negotiations under Article 50(2) of the Treaty of European Union which has been—

(a) approved by a resolution of the House of Commons, and

(b) the subject of a motion which has either been debated in the House of Lords, or upon which the House of Lords has not concluded a debate on the motion before the end of the period of five sitting days beginning with the first sitting day after the day on which the House of Commons passes the resolution mentioned in paragraph (a).”

“Maintenance of environmental principles etc.

(1) The Secretary of State must, within the period of six months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed, publish a draft Bill consisting of—

(a) a set of environmental principles,

(b) a duty on the Secretary of State to publish a statement of policy in relation to the application and interpretation of those principles in connection with the making and development of policies by Ministers of the Crown,

(c) a duty which ensures that Ministers of the Crown must have regard, in circumstances provided for by or under the Bill, to the statement mentioned in paragraph (b),

(d) provisions for the establishment of a public authority with functions for taking, in circumstances provided for by or under the Bill, proportionate enforcement action (including legal proceedings if necessary) where the authority considers that a Minister of the Crown is not complying with environmental law (as it is defined in the Bill),

(e) such other provisions as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.

(2) The set of environmental principles mentioned in subsection (1)(a) must (however worded) consist of—

(a) the precautionary principle so far as relating to the environment,

(b) the principle of preventative action to avert environmental damage,

(c) the principle that environmental damage should as a priority be rectified at source,

(d) the polluter pays principle,

(e) the principle of sustainable development,

(f) the principle that environmental protection requirements must be integrated into the definition and implementation of policies and activities,

(g) public access to environmental information,

(h) public participation in environmental decision-making, and

(i) access to justice in relation to environmental matters.”

“Environmental Governance and Enforcement after leaving the EU

(1) Before making regulations specifying exit day under section 14, the Secretary of State must prepare and publish proposals for a new public body (the ‘Environmental Protection Agency’) which will have the purposes, powers and form specified in this section.

(2) The Environmental Protection Agency shall at minimum have the following purposes—

(a) to enforce the implementation of environmental law by public authorities,
(b) to uphold environmental rights,
(c) to oversee implementation of environmental law,
(d) to produce and receive reports about the condition of the environment,
(e) to provide citizens with a free and accessible way of raising complaints relating to alleged breaches of environmental law,
(f) to provide advice and information to Ministers about how best to implement policies promoting environmental principles, and
(g) to conduct investigations into matters relating to the environment as requested by select committees of the House of Commons, committees of the House of Lords, or petitions received by the House of Commons.

(3) The Secretary of State must set out the steps he will take to ensure the Environmental Protection Agency shall have at minimum the following powers—

(a) to conduct thematic inquiries into systematic failures to implement or comply with environmental law by public authorities,
(b) to issue formal notices to public authorities requiring action,
(c) to apply—

(i) in England, Wales and Northern Ireland, to the county court for an injunction compelling or restraining action by a public authority, and
(ii) in Scotland, to the Sheriff for an interdict prohibiting or compelling action by a public authority,
(d) to issue structural injunctions requiring Ministers to take steps to ensure Government policy does not conflict with the environmental principles,
(e) to fine public authorities for failures to comply with structural injunctions.

(4) The Secretary of State must take steps to ensure that the Environmental Protection Agency is constituted in such a way that—

(a) it may discharge its duties without interference from Ministers or other public authorities,
(b) it is primarily accountable to Parliament,
(c) it receives a level of funding necessary to carry out its duties, and
(d) a Minister of the Crown may not change the Environmental Protection Agency’s constitution.

(5) The Secretary of State must take steps to ensure that a set of robust environmental principles are clearly set out, enforced and that any public authority fails to comply with the environmental principles the Environmental Protection Agency may use powers listed under subsection (3) to enforce compliance as soon as is practicable.

(6) In this section, ‘the environmental principles’ means a set of objectives for government policy and the activities and policies of public authorities, including but not limited to—

(a) the sustainable development principle, which requires that the policies and activities of public authorities do not harm the ability of future generations to meet their needs,
(b) the precautionary principle, which requires that where there are threats of serious or irreversible environmental damage, lack of full scientific certainty shall not be used as a reason for postponing cost-effective measures to prevent environmental degradation,
(c) the prevention principle, which requires preventative action to be taken to avert environmental damage,
(d) the polluter pays principle, which requires the cost of pollution control and remediation to be borne by those who have caused the pollution,
(e) the rectification at source principle, which requires that environmental damage should as a priority be rectified by targeting its original cause and taking preventive action at source, and
(f) the integration principle, which requires that environmental protection requirements must be integrated into the definition and implementation of policies and activities.”

Lords Amendment No. 24

Secretary David Davis

To move, That this House disagrees with the Lords in their Amendment.

Secretary David Davis

To move the following Amendments to the Bill in lieu of the Lords Amendment:

(a) Page 9, line 21, at end insert the following Clause—

“Family unity for those seeking asylum or other protection in Europe

(1) A Minister of the Crown must seek to negotiate, on behalf of the United Kingdom, an agreement with the EU under which, after the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the EU, in accordance with the agreement—

(a) an unaccompanied child who has made an application for international protection to a member State may, if it is in the child’s best interests, come to the United Kingdom to join a relative who is aged 18 or over and—

(i) is a lawful resident of the United Kingdom, or

(ii) has made a protection claim which has not been decided, and

(b) an unaccompanied child in the United Kingdom, who has made a protection claim, may go to a member State to join a relative there, in equivalent circumstances.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a)(i) a person is not a lawful resident of the United Kingdom if the person requires leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom but does not have it.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a)(ii), a protection claim is decided—

(a) when the Secretary of State notifies the claimant of the Secretary of State’s decision on the claim, unless the claimant appeals against the decision, or

(b) if the claimant appeals against the Secretary of State’s decision on the claim, when the appeal is disposed of.

(4) In this section—

“application for international protection” has the meaning given by Article 2(h) of Directive 2011/95/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council on standards for the qualification of third-country nationals or stateless persons as beneficiaries of international protection, for a uniform status for refugees or for persons eligible for subsidiary protection, and for the content of the protection granted;

“protection claim” has the same meaning as in Part 5 of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002 (see section 82(2) of that Act);

“relative”, in relation to an unaccompanied child, means—

(a) a spouse or civil partner of the child or any person with whom the child has a durable relationship that is similar to marriage or civil partnership, or

(b) a parent, grandparent, brother or sister of the child;

“unaccompanied child” means a person under the age of 18 (‘the child’) who is not in the care of a person who—
