“() Any resolution considered by the House of Commons under subsection (5)(a) may include the option to hold a referendum on whether the United Kingdom should accept the outcome of negotiations between the Government and the EU under Article 50 (2) of the Treaty of European Union, or seek to remain in the EU by revoking the notification of withdrawal from the EU under Article 50.”

Secretary David Davis

Agreed to on division

To move, That this House disagrees with the Lords in their Amendment.

Lords Amendment disagreed to.

Secretary David Davis

To move the following Amendments to the Bill in lieu of the Lords Amendment:—

Secretary David Davis

Agreed to (a)

Page 8, line 43, at end insert the following Clause—

“Parliamentary approval of the outcome of negotiations with the EU

(1) The withdrawal agreement may be ratified only if—

5

- (a) a Minister of the Crown has laid before each House of Parliament—
 - (i) a statement that political agreement has been reached,
 - (ii) a copy of the negotiated withdrawal agreement, and
 - (iii) a copy of the framework for the future relationship,

10

- (b) the negotiated withdrawal agreement and the framework for the future relationship have been approved by a resolution of the House of Commons on a motion moved by a Minister of the Crown,
- (c) a motion for the House of Lords to take note of the negotiated withdrawal agreement and the framework for the future relationship has been tabled in the House of Lords by a Minister of the Crown and—
 - (i) the House of Lords has debated the motion, or

- 15 (ii) the House of Lords has not concluded a debate on the motion before the end of the period of five sitting days beginning with the first sitting day after the day on which the House of Commons passes the resolution mentioned in paragraph (b), and
- 20 (d) an Act of Parliament has been passed which contains provision for the implementation of the withdrawal agreement.
- (2) So far as practicable, a Minister of the Crown must make arrangements for the motion mentioned in subsection (1)(b) to be debated and voted on by the House of Commons before the European Parliament decides whether it consents to the withdrawal agreement being concluded on behalf of the EU in accordance with Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union.
- 25 (3) Subsection (4) applies if the House of Commons decides not to pass the resolution mentioned in subsection (1)(b).
- (4) A Minister of the Crown must, within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the House of Commons decides not to pass the resolution, make a statement setting out how Her Majesty's Government proposes to proceed in relation to negotiations for the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the EU under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union.
- 30 (5) A statement under subsection (4) must be made in writing and be published in such manner as the Minister making it considers appropriate.
- 35 (6) This section does not affect the operation of Part 2 of the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010 (ratification of treaties) in relation to the withdrawal agreement.
- (7) In this section—
- 40 “framework for the future relationship” means the document or documents identified, by the statement that political agreement has been reached, as reflecting the agreement in principle on the substance of the framework for the future relationship between the EU and the United Kingdom after withdrawal;
- 45 “negotiated withdrawal agreement” means the draft of the withdrawal agreement identified by the statement that political agreement has been reached;
- “ratified”, in relation to the withdrawal agreement, has the same meaning as it does for the purposes of Part 2 of the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010 in relation to a treaty (see section 25 of that Act);
- 50 “sitting day” means a day on which the House of Lords is sitting (and a day is only a day on which the House of Lords is sitting if the House begins to sit on that day);
- “statement that political agreement has been reached” means a statement made in writing by a Minister of the Crown which—
- 55 (a) states that, in the Minister's opinion, an agreement in principle has been reached in negotiations under Article 50(2) of the Treaty on European Union on the substance of—
- (i) the arrangements for the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the EU, and
- 60 (ii) the framework for the future relationship between the EU and the United Kingdom after withdrawal,
- (b) identifies a draft of the withdrawal agreement which, in the Minister's opinion, reflects the agreement in principle so far as relating to the arrangements for withdrawal, and
- 65 (c) identifies one or more documents which, in the Minister's opinion, reflect the agreement in principle so far as relating to the framework.”

As Amendments to Secretary David Davis’s proposed Amendment (a) in lieu of the Lords Amendment:—

Mr Dominic Grieve

Not called (i)

★ Line 28, leave out “28” and insert “21”

Mr Dominic Grieve

Not called (ii)

★ Line 34, at end insert—

“(5A) Within seven days of a statement under subsection (4) being laid, a Minister of the Crown must move a motion in the House of Commons to seek approval of the Government’s approach.

(5B) In the event of no political agreement having been reached on a withdrawal agreement by the end of 30 November 2018, a Minister of the Crown must move a motion in the House of Commons setting out how the Government intends to proceed and seeking the approval of the House for that course of action.

(5C) If no political agreement has been reached on a withdrawal agreement by the end of 15 February 2019, the Government must bring the matter before both Houses of Parliament within five days and must follow any direction in relation to the negotiations under Article 50(2) of the Treaty of European Union which has been—

(a) approved by a resolution of the House of Commons, and

(b) the subject of a motion which has either been debated in the House of Lords, or upon which the House of Lords has not concluded a debate on the motion before the end of the period of five sitting days beginning with the first sitting day after the day on which the House of Commons passes the resolution mentioned in paragraph (a).”

Secretary David Davis

Agreed to (b)
