To move the following Clause—

“Report on the provisions of regulations under this Act

(1) Prior to making any regulations under this Act, the Treasury must publish a report on the impact of the provisions of those regulations.

(2) A report under this section must consider, in respect of the regulations proposed to be made—

(a) the impact of those provisions on households at different levels of income,

(b) the impact of those provisions on people with protected characteristics (within the meaning of the Equality Act 2010),

(c) the impact of those provisions on the Treasury’s compliance with the public sector equality duty under section 149 of the Equality Act 2010, and
(d) the impact of those provisions on equality in different parts of the United Kingdom and different regions of England.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause would require a report to be made on the impact of any regulations under this Bill before any such regulations are made.

To move the following Clause—

“Public registers of beneficial ownership of companies in the British Overseas Territories and Crown Dependencies”

(1) Section 51 of the Sanctions and Anti-Money Laundering Act 2018 (public registers of beneficial ownership of companies registered in British Overseas Territories) is amended in the manner specified in subsection (2).

(2) For subsection (2) substitute—

“(2) A draft Order in Council must be prepared requiring the government of any British Overseas Territory that has not introduced a publicly accessible register of the beneficial ownership of companies within its jurisdiction to do so no later than 31 December 2020.”

(3) For the purpose of the detection, investigation or prevention of money laundering, the Secretary of State must provide all reasonable assistance to the governments of the Crown Dependencies to enable each of those governments to establish a publicly accessible register of the beneficial ownership of companies registered in that government’s jurisdiction.

(4) An Order in Council must be made requiring the government of any Crown Dependency that has not introduced a publicly accessible register of beneficial ownership of companies within their jurisdiction to do so by 31 December 2020.

(5) An Order in Council under subsection (4) must set out the form that the register must take.

(6) An Order in Council under subsection (4)—
   (a) must be laid before Parliament and
   (b) shall cease to have effect if either House of Parliament resolves before the end of the 28 days beginning with the day on which the Order is made that it should cease to have effect.

(7) In calculating a period of 28 days for the purposes of subsection (6)(b), no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.

(8) For the purposes of this section, a “publicly accessible register of the beneficial ownership of companies” means a register which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, provides information broadly equivalent to that available in accordance with the provisions of Part 21A of the Companies Act 2006 (information about people with significant control).

(9) For the purposes of this section, “Crown Dependency” means—
   (a) any of the Channel Islands; or
   (b) the Isle of Man.”

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Extra-territorial application
Within one month of any regulations being made under section 1(1) of this Act, Her Majesty must by Order in Council provide for equivalent provision to apply under the law of all of the following—
   (a) the Channel Islands;
   (b) the Isle of Man; and
   (c) the British Overseas Territories.”

☆ To move the following Clause—

“Draft consolidated financial services legislation
(1) The Treasury may collate in a single document (the “draft consolidated financial services legislation document”), with the guidance of the Chancellor of the Exchequer and the support of the Treasury Committee of the House of Commons, measures proposed to be taken by the Treasury to make provision corresponding, or similar, to—

(a) the provisions, or any of the provisions, of any specified EU financial services legislation, or
(b) any provision that might be made by a member State for the purpose of implementing any provision of specified EU financial services legislation.

(2) The measures proposed in the draft consolidated financial services legislation document may include any adjustments the Treasury considers appropriate, and explanations of why those adjustments are necessary.

(3) The Treasury must, as part of the draft consolidated financial services legislation document, identify what regulatory institution has responsibility for specified EU financial services legislation, why that institution has been identified, and what resourcing is being supplied to support that institution in discharging its functions.

(4) In preparing the document, the Chancellor of the Exchequer must consult all relevant parties on the draft consolidated financial services legislation, including trade unions, appropriate regulatory institutions, and service users, and any other stakeholders the Chancellor considers appropriate.

(5) The Chancellor of the Exchequer must lay the document before the House of Commons noting where any specified EU financial services legislation, relating to public registers of beneficial ownership, applies to any British Overseas Territories or Crown Dependencies.

(6) With 30 days of the document being laid before the House of Commons, the Chancellor of the Exchequer must move a motion in the House of Commons that the House approves the provisions of the draft consolidated financial services document.

(7) Within 30 days of the motion in subsection (6) being moved, the Chancellor of the Exchequer must make a statement to the House of Commons indicating how Her Majesty’s Government intends to apply the opinion of the House as expressed in the motion being agreed to, amended, or not agreed to.

(8) “Specified EU financial services legislation” means—

(a) Articles 6 and 7 of the Central Securities Depositories Regulation,
(b) the Delegated Cash Penalties Regulation,
(c) Articles 37 and 38(2) of the Markets in Financial Instruments Regulation,
(d) the provisions of the Prospectus Regulation that apply from 21 July 2019 (see Article 49(2) of that regulation),
(e) any delegated acts under the Prospectus Regulation, other than technical standards, that are adopted by the European Commission before 21 July 2019,
(f) Article 4(1) of the Securities Financing Transactions Regulation, or
(g) any EU Directive, or EU Regulation, adopted before, on or after exit day as a result of any of the proposals listed in the Schedule to this Act, as that legislation has effect in EU law.

(9) In this section—

“the Delegated Cash Penalties Regulation” means Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/389 of 11 November 2016 supplementing...
Consideration of Bill (Report Stage): 4 March 2019

Regulation (EU) No 909/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council as regards the parameters for the calculation of cash penalties for settlement fails and the operations of CSDs in host Member States;

“the Prospectus Regulation” means Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2017 on the prospectus to be published when securities are offered to the public or admitted to trading on a regulated market, and repealing Directive 2003/71/EC;

Member’s explanatory statement

This new clause is an alternative to Clause 1. This creates a system by which the Treasury will propose to the House what EU financial services legislation the Treasury intends to make provision for in domestic law, and then to seek the House’s approval for those changes, and to make a statement detailing how the Government will apply the opinion of the House.
