“13B Extension of implementation period

- (1) If by 1 June 2020 an agreement on the future trade relationship has not been concluded, any Minister of the Crown who attends the Joint Committee must seek to secure agreement in the Joint Committee to a single decision to extend the implementation period by two years, in accordance with Article 132 of the Withdrawal Agreement.
- (2) If the Joint Committee does not agree the extension specified in subsection (1) but EU representatives on the Joint Committee indicate that they would agree an extension for a shorter period, a Minister of the Crown must move a motion in the House of Commons to agree the shorter period proposed, and if that motion is agreed, a Minister of the Crown must agree that shorter extension in the Joint Committee.
- (3) Any Minister of the Crown who attends the Joint Committee may seek agreement to terminate the implementation period if a final agreement on the future trade relationship is ratified before the end of the implementation period.
- (4) Subsection (1) may be suspended or repealed by resolution of the House of Commons.”

Member’s explanatory statement

This Amendment would insert a section in the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2019 to require the government, if agreement on the future trade relationship has not been concluded by 1 June 2020, to seek to extend the implementation period by two years to December 2022 unless the House of Commons passes a contrary resolution. A Minister of the Crown is required to agree to a shorter extension only if authorised to do so by the House of Commons. The Amendment also confirms that the implementation period may be terminated at any time if a final free trade agreement has been ratified.

- (2) A Minister of the Crown must make arrangements for a motion requesting that the Joint Committee decide to extend the transition period by two years to be debated and voted on the by the House of Commons by 11 June 2020.
- (3) If a motion mentioned in subsection (2) is approved by the House of Commons, the Prime Minister must—
- (a) write to the Joint Committee to request that the Committee decide to extend the transition period by two years, and
 - (b) make any and all necessary arrangements for the UK government to negotiate the extension of the transition period in good faith and in accordance with the Withdrawal Agreement.”

Member’s explanatory statement
